2015 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Charles J. Colgan III, Macon, Georgia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, Your word tells us in James 1:5 that when we ask You for wisdom, You give it abundantly. This morning I ask for wisdom for our legislators and for their staff, that You will direct and guide their actions in accordance with Your plans. Let the Commonwealth of Virginia be a role model among the other states. Please allow this 2015 Session to be an incredibly fruitful and beneficial session for the people of Virginia.

In Your name we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Lucas notified the Clerk of her presence.

RULES OF THE SENATE

The President announced that the Senate was operating under the Rules of the Senate as adopted on January 28, 2014, which state, “The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules or unless directed by the Senate whose membership has changed due to the election of a Senator or whose President of the Senate has changed due to the election of a new Lieutenant Governor.”

COMMUNICATION

The following communication was received and read:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
Department of Elections

November 24, 2014

To The Honorable Clerk of the Senate of Virginia

Madam:

On behalf of the State Board of Elections, this is to certify that upon examination of the official Abstracts of Votes on file in this office and pursuant to §§ 24.2-679, 24.2-680 and 24.2-681 of the Code of Virginia, ascertained and determined that at the special election held on November 4, 2014 for Member of the Senate of Virginia from the Sixteenth District:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 523

Providing for a Joint Assembly and establishing a schedule for the conduct of business coming before the 2015 Regular Session of the General Assembly of Virginia.

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly shall meet in joint session in the Hall of the House of Delegates on Wednesday, January 14, 2015, at such time as specified by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to receive the Governor of Virginia, and such address as he may desire to make, and that the rules for the government of the House of Delegates and the Senate, when convened in joint session for such purpose, shall be as follows:

Rule I. At the hour fixed for the meeting of the Joint Assembly, the Senators, accompanied by the President and the Clerk of the Senate, shall proceed to the Hall of the House of Delegates and shall be received by the Delegates standing. Appropriate seats shall be assigned to the Senators by the Sergeant at Arms of the House. The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall assign an appropriate seat for the President of the Senate.

Rule II. The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall be President of the Joint Assembly. In case it shall be necessary for the Speaker to vacate the Chair, the President of the Senate shall serve as the presiding officer.

Rule III. The Clerk of the House of Delegates shall be Clerk of the Joint Assembly and shall be assisted by the Clerk of the Senate. The Clerk of the Joint Assembly shall enter the proceedings of the Joint Assembly in the Journal of the House and shall certify a copy of the same to the Clerk of the Senate, who shall enter the same in the Journal of the Senate.

Rule IV. The Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeepers of the House shall act as such for the Joint Assembly.

Rule V. The Rules of the House of Delegates, as far as applicable, shall be the rules of the Joint Assembly.

Rule VI. In calling the roll of the Joint Assembly, the names of the Senators shall be called in alphabetical order, then the names of the Delegates in like order, except that the name of the Speaker of the House shall be called last.

Rule VII. If, when the Joint Assembly meets, it shall be ascertained that a majority of each house is not present, the Joint Assembly may take measures to secure the attendance of absentees, or adjourn to a succeeding day, as a majority of those present may determine.

Rule VIII. When the Joint Assembly adjourns, the Senators, accompanied by the President and the Clerk of the Senate, shall return to their chamber, and the business of the House shall be continued in the same order as at the time of the entrance of the Senators; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this resolution and in accordance with the practices of each house, a request to be added as a co-patron shall be received prior to the first vote on the passage of a bill or agreement to a joint resolution or, if the bill or joint resolution is not reported from committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation. A request to be removed as a co-patron shall be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, February 20, 2015; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That any joint resolution creating or continuing a study shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in each house and any resolution creating or continuing a study shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in the respective house; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That any member offering for introduction a bill or joint resolution not submitted to the Division of Legislative Services for drafting is encouraged to submit an electronic version no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day the legislation is introduced; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That for purposes of the procedural deadlines established herein for the 2015 Regular Session of the General Assembly:

“Budget Bill” shall mean the general appropriation bill introduced in each house that authorizes the biennial expenditure of public revenues for the period from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2016.

“Debt bill” shall mean any bill that authorizes the issuance of debt.

“Legislative day” shall mean the period of time that begins with the call to order by the presiding officer and ends when declared adjourned by the presiding officer. Unless another time is specified, any deadline established in this resolution shall expire at the end of the legislative day.

“Prefiled legislation” shall mean any bill or joint resolution requested from the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, December 8, 2014, and prefiled no later than 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 14, 2015, or any bill or joint resolution not requested from the Division of Legislative Services and prefiled no later than 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 14, 2015.

“Revenue bill” shall mean any bill, except the Budget Bill and debt bills, that increases or decreases the total revenues available for appropriation, including any sales tax exemption bill.

“Unanimous consent” shall mean the affirmation of all the members present in the house of origin. Any legislation intended to be offered for introduction with unanimous consent or with the written request of the Governor shall not require the consent of the house in order for the member to request the Division of Legislative Services to draft such legislation. The Division of Legislative Services shall return such legislation after the original introduction deadline.

“Virginia Retirement System bill” shall mean any bill that amends, adds, repeals, or modifies any provision of any retirement system established in Title 51.1 of the Code of Virginia; and, be it

RESOLVED FINALLY, That the 2015 Regular Session of the General Assembly shall be governed by the following procedural rules, which establish introduction limits and time limitations for elections and for all legislation prefiled and introduced for or continued to the 2015 Regular Session except:

House and Senate resolutions, except for the time limitations established in Rules 20 and 22;

bills and joint resolutions affecting the rules of procedure or the schedule of business of the General Assembly, either of its houses, or any of its committees;

bills and joint resolutions introduced with unanimous consent either to exceed the introduction limits established in Rule 1 or to exceed the time limitations established in Rules 3, 4, 7, and 17;

joint resolutions confirming appointments subject to the confirmation of the General Assembly;

joint commending and memorial resolutions, except for the time limitations established in Rules 15 and 17;

bills and joint resolutions regarding elections held by the General Assembly during the 2015 Regular Session;

bills and joint resolutions requested in writing by the Governor; or bills and joint resolutions related to the redrawing of the districts of the members of the United States House of Representatives.

Rule 1. After the deadline for filing prefiled legislation established by House Joint Resolution No. 18 (2014), no member of the House of Delegates shall introduce more than a combined total of five bills and joint resolutions and no member of the Senate shall introduce more than a combined total of eight bills and joint resolutions. Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule and in accordance with House Rule 37, no member of the House of Delegates may introduce more than 15 bills during the 2015 Regular Session.

Rule 2. Neither house of the General Assembly shall receive from any committee any bill or joint resolution that was continued on the agenda of such committee and acted upon later than midnight, Wednesday, December 3, 2014. For purposes of this rule, a motion to refer a measure to another committee shall be treated as an action by a committee.

Rule 3. No bill or joint resolution creating or continuing a study shall be offered in either house after the adjournment of that house on Wednesday, January 14, 2015.

Rule 4. No Virginia Retirement System bill shall be offered in either house after adjournment of that house on Wednesday, January 14, 2015.

Rule 5. Except for bills and joint resolutions required to be requested earlier, requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any bill or joint resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, January 16, 2015.

Rule 6. No later than Monday, January 19, 2015, each house shall begin its consideration of any election to fill any judicial seat in the courts of the Commonwealth, or to fill a seat on any commission or office elected by the General Assembly. In the event that the houses cannot agree on such election before Tuesday, January 20, 2015, such election shall become the subject of a special and continuing joint order in each house, and such special and continuing joint order shall have precedence over all other business of either house, until such time as both houses reach agreement on such election or agree to hold it at another specific time. The Rules of each house, as far as applicable, shall be the rules governing such election.

Rule 7. Except for bills required to be filed earlier, no bill or joint resolution shall be offered in either house after 3:00 p.m., Friday, January 23, 2015.

Rule 8. No later than Friday, January 23, 2015, the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System shall submit, in accordance with § 30-19.1:7, impact statements for all Virginia Retirement System bills filed by the first day of session. For any Virginia Retirement System bill filed later than the first day of session, the Board of Trustees shall use due diligence in preparing the impact statement in time for review by the standing committees.

Rule 9. The committees responsible for the consideration of revenue bills in the houses of introduction shall complete their work on such bills no later than midnight, Thursday, February 5, 2015.

Rule 10. The committees responsible for the consideration of the Budget Bill in the houses of introduction shall complete their work on such bill no later than midnight, Sunday, February 8, 2015, and any amendments proposed by such committees shall be made available to their respective houses no later than noon, Tuesday, February 10, 2015.

Rule 11. Except for the Budget Bill, beginning Wednesday, February 11, 2015, the House of Delegates shall consider only Senate bills, Senate joint resolutions, House bills with Senate amendments, and House joint resolutions with Senate amendments; the Senate shall consider only House bills, House joint resolutions, Senate bills with House amendments, and Senate joint resolutions with House amendments; and each house may consider conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto to the end that the work of each house may be disposed of by the other.

Rule 12. The houses of introduction shall complete their consideration of the Budget Bill, except for conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto, no later than Thursday, February 12, 2015.

Rule 13. The committees responsible for the consideration of revenue bills of the other house shall complete their consideration of such bills no later than midnight, Tuesday, February 17, 2015.

Rule 14. No later than midnight, Wednesday, February 18, 2015, each house shall complete its consideration of the Budget Bill and all revenue bills of the other house, except for conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto, and the appointing authority shall appoint the conferees to such bills.

Rule 15. Requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any joint commending or memorial resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, February 20, 2015.

Rule 16. The first conference on any revenue bills shall complete its deliberations no later than midnight, Saturday, February 21, 2015, and the report of such conference shall be made available to all members of the General Assembly no later than noon, Monday, February 23, 2015.

Rule 17. No joint commending or memorial resolution shall be offered in either house after 5:00 p.m., Monday, February 23, 2015.

Rule 18. Beginning Tuesday, February 24, 2015, neither house shall receive from any committee any bill or joint resolution acted on by any committee later than midnight, Monday, February 23, 2015.

Rule 19. No later than Tuesday, February 24, 2015, each house shall begin its consideration of any election to fill any judicial seat in the courts of the Commonwealth, or to fill a seat on any commission or office elected by the General Assembly. In the event that the houses cannot agree on such election before Wednesday, February 25, 2015, such election shall become the subject of a special and continuing joint order in each house, and such special and continuing joint order shall have precedence over all other business of either house, until such time as both houses reach agreement on such election, or either house votes to suspend or discharge the order. The Rules of each house, as far as applicable, shall be the rules governing such election.

Rule 20. Requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any single-house commending or memorial resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 24, 2015.

Rule 21. Any conference committee on the Budget Bill shall complete its deliberations and make the report of such conference available to the General Assembly as soon as practicable. Neither house shall consider such conference report earlier than 36 hours after receipt, unless both houses respectively determine to proceed earlier by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in each house. No engrossment of the Budget Bill shall be required in either house, and any conference on the Budget Bill shall consider, as the basis of its deliberations, the Budget Bill as recommended by the Governor and introduced in the House and the amendments thereto proposed by each house.

Rule 22. No single-house commending or memorial resolution shall be offered in either house after 5:00 p.m., Thursday, February 26, 2015.

Rule 23. Except for joint resolutions affecting the rules of procedure or the schedule of business of the General Assembly, beginning Friday, February 27, 2015, the House of Delegates shall consider only Senate joint resolutions and House joint resolutions with Senate amendments; the Senate shall consider only House joint resolutions and Senate joint resolutions with House amendments; and each house may consider conference reports or joint resolutions and other privileged matters relating thereto, to the end that the work of each house may be disposed of by the other.

Rule 24. This session of the General Assembly shall be extended beyond the 30-day period provided in Section 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia and shall adjourn sine die no later than Saturday, February 28, 2015.

Rule 25. Pursuant to Section 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, the General Assembly shall reconvene Wednesday, April 15, 2015, for the purpose of considering bills that may have been returned by the Governor with recommendations for their amendment and bills and items of appropriation bills, including the general appropriation act, which may have been returned by the Governor with his objections.

Rule 26. The conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any House committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, and any interim study commission created pursuant to a House measure shall be governed by the Rules of the House of Delegates; the conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any Senate committee, any joint subcommittee of Senate and House committees, and any interim study commission created pursuant to a Senate measure shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate. If a House measure and a Senate measure create the same study, the conduct of the business of the study shall be governed by the rules of the house of the chairman of the study, or in the case of co-chairmen, the rules of the house as agreed upon by the co-chairmen.

Rule 27. Interim meetings of any standing committee, joint committee, joint subcommittee, legislative commission, or any other interim study subcommittee or study commission shall be held on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday during the first and third full weeks of the month, unless otherwise authorized by the Speaker of the House of Delegates or the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Rules, as may be appropriate for the house in which the chairman serves.

Rule 28. Any staff member assigned to work for, and support the efforts of, any committee of the House or Senate, any subcommittee of any such committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, or any interim study commission shall work under the direction of the chairman of such committee, subcommittee, joint subcommittee, or interim study commission.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Carroll Londoner, River Road Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank You for the wisdom, intelligence, and courage of our founders who experimented with new forms of liberty and freedom that created our Republic. We thank You for the strong history of stalwart leaders You have raised up in the Commonwealth of Virginia to direct the governance of this State, that all may benefit from good government.

In these early legislative days in this Senate, we pray we may search our hearts, souls, and minds honestly to assess our deepest motives for serving this Commonwealth. May we be less concerned with power, position, party and personal gain than we are with providing the best public service to all citizens of the State. We pray that our better selves will prevail as we wrestle with complicated and testy issues. Give us keen perceptions, good ears, and a sense of humor to perceive and hear all sides of issues before making our decisions. Remind us, O God, that by seeking Your providential guidance we exercise the rights of free citizens to express our differences with limited rancor and freedom from retribution.

O God, today we remember Virginia's military men and women serving in the far places of the world demonstrating the ways of democracy for those who know it not. As they protect our freedoms, may we honor their service by exercising the best of democratic behaviors on the floor of this chamber. We pray for Your divine providence, blessing, and protection for all America's military as they fight terrorism wherever it is to be found.

We pray Your continued benevolent protection and blessings upon the unity and strength of this nation and our Commonwealth, reminding us that we are at our best when we strive to promote justice, freedom, democracy, and peace within this Commonwealth. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator McWaters, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend William L. Davis, Jr., Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal and Almighty God, we gather together here today with intent on doing good work. But we must first pause to seek blessings from You on the challenging tasks before us. Bless our efforts with clear insight, our deliberations with wisdom, our work with clarity and accuracy that only You can provide. We seek to represent honestly and well those who have given us this task. Help each representative and this governing body to serve with respect for all and to make decisions that promote the common good. As trusted servants, we pray for openness to others' ideas and beliefs, respectful of our differences and not threatened by them, and may true courage fill each heart, mind, and spirit. May fear be replaced with insight and competence. Help us all to be patient and kind in our interactions. By working together, may we find a common ground, enabling us to move forward with a shared purpose of which You will be pleased. We make these petitions in faith. Amen.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Teresa McRoberts, Skipwith United Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O Lord our God, having crossed the threshold of a new year and having begun a new session of the General Assembly, we give You thanks—

- for the change of seasons that gives our lives rhythm,
- for the lengthening of days that brings more light into our lives,
- for the democracy that people died to implement and preserve,
- for the freedom of movement and the wide range of choices that we enjoy.

Even as we give thanks for the beauty and opportunity of this great Commonwealth, we are cognizant of the challenges of our times and we acknowledge the imperfection and the chaos that characterize our culture.

In the midst of controversy over the value of human lives and surrounded by injustice and uncertainty, we pray that those assembled here in the Senate and in the House of Delegates would use their talents and gifts to promote justice, mercy and peace.

May the power of Your Holy Spirit be at work in the words and actions of this body.

Guide and bless these men and women who have been sent here by the people of Virginia to lead and to legislate; and more than that, may these lawmakers, their leader Lieutenant Governor Northam, and Governor McAuliffe be ablaze with Your spirit of wisdom and discernment.

Keep true in all these leaders their integrity and sense of stewardship. And continue to engender in them humility and respect for both the process and the people whom they serve.

All this we ask, knowing You are a God who creates life and possibility from dust and dry bones and who values human adherence to Your values and obedience to Your will. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Edwards notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Locke, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION

Senator McDougle, by leave, under Senate Rule 11 (b) presented the following resolution:

S.R. 70. Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

Patron--McDougle

IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION

S.R. 70 (seventy), being of a purely procedural nature, was taken up for immediate consideration.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 70

Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the following are adopted as the Rules of the Senate to supersede all previous Rules of the Senate:

RULES OF THE SENATE

I.

Presiding Officer.

1. The presiding officer of the Senate shall be the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth as the President of the Senate in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

2 (a). There shall be elected by the Senate, on the first day of the session following the election of the Senate, a President pro tempore who shall serve for a term of ~~four years~~ coincident with the member's current term of office and be a senior member in the Senate.

2 (b). In the event of the absence, disability or vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall carry out the duties of the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer. Further, the President pro tempore shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate.

2 (c). The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open session, or if he is absent, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

2 (d). In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, or whenever the powers and duties of the Governor shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall have the right to name, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer during his absence; and the Senator so named shall have the right to name, in open session, or in writing, if he is absent, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

3. The presiding officer, after taking the Chair pursuant to these Rules, and a quorum being present, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The reading of the Journal may be waived by a majority of those Senators present and voting. The reading of the Journal may be waived at a reconvened session of a special session by at least two members present and voting, only if there is no business to consider in accordance to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia. Any errors in the entries shall be corrected, and the Journal being found correct, shall be signed by the presiding officer for that day and the Clerk of the Senate. The Journals, when so signed, shall be the official records of the proceedings of the Senate.

4. If any question is put upon a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall state the same without argument.

II.

Membership, Attendance, and Adjournment.

5. A member of the Senate shall be a Senator elected to represent one of the 40 senatorial districts. A majority of Senators shall constitute a quorum to do business; two may adjourn, and nine may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. However, not less than 16 may meet by proclamation of the Governor under the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution. At a special session or a reconvened session of a special session when there is no business to consider in accordance with Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia, two members may convene the Senate, dispense with the reading of the Journal, recess or adjourn the Senate.

6. No Senator shall absent himself from the service of the Senate without leave.

III.

The Pages.

7. The Senate shall elect 11 Pages representing each of the Congressional districts and five Pages shall be appointed by the following: one by the Lieutenant Governor; one by the President pro tempore; one by the chair of the caucus of the majority party; one by the majority leader; and one by the minority leader. The Pages shall be no less than 13 and no more than 14 years of age at the time of election or appointment, shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall be elected or appointed for a term of one year. No Page shall be eligible for reelection. Any such Page so elected or appointed may be suspended or dismissed for cause by the Clerk of the Senate.

IV.

The Clerk of the Senate.

8 (a). A Clerk of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate for a term of four years and shall thereafter continue in office until another is chosen. The oath of office shall be administered to the Clerk of the Senate by any person qualified by law to administer oaths. If a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Senate occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, a successor shall be elected by the Committee on Rules to serve until the first day of the next session, at a meeting to be called by the Chair, or in his absence or inability to act, the next senior member of such Committee able and willing to do so. At least five days notice by certified mail of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given all members of the Committee, and, at such meeting, the person receiving the votes of a majority of the members present and voting shall be elected to fill the vacancy.

8 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of the public seal and design of armorial bearings of the Senate.

8 (c). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of all records and papers of the Senate and the Clerk shall not suffer any such records or papers to be taken from the Clerk's desk or out of the Clerk's custody by any person except the Chair or the clerk of a Committee, or any Senator on taking receipts for same. Amendments agreed to by the Senate shall be handled only by the Clerk of the Senate, or staff members designated by the Clerk.

8 (d). It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to refer all bills and resolutions to the appropriate standing Committee or the Committee on Rules as provided in these Rules. If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing committee or the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

8 (e). The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list of the Senators in order of seniority. Seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the Senate. However, if a Senator has previous interrupted service in the Senate, then the beginning date of such previous Senate service shall qualify the Senator for seniority before those Senators elected at the same time not having previous service in the Senate, and if a Senator has previous service in the House of Delegates then seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the House of Delegates and shall qualify the Senator to seniority before those Senators elected to the Senate at the same time not having previous service in the House of Delegates. Senators elected at the same time without previous service in the Senate or House of Delegates shall have their seniority determined by a public drawing of lots, conducted by the Clerk of the Senate, to which all Senators involved shall be invited to attend. After the name of each Senator there shall be indicated the name of the political party under which the Senator was elected or abbreviation of the same; e.g., "Rep." or "Dem." If a Senator was not elected as a nominee of a political party, then such Senator shall be listed as an Independent, or "Ind."; however, if any Senator is elected at a special or general election and such Senator has, prior to such election, declared himself in writing a member of a political party during and prior to such election and the political party of his choice did not hold a convention or call a primary election for such election, such Senator shall be listed as a member of the party of which he declared himself a member.

8 (f). The Clerk of the Senate, after the election of Senators, shall assign chamber desks to the individual Senators with the Senators elected as members of the majority party in the Senate in the chamber area beginning at the south side of the chamber until all such desks have been assigned, and then the Senators elected as members of the minority party in the Senate, and then any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. The Clerk of the Senate shall also assign office space in such buildings as may be made available for the use of the Senate. Whenever feasible, the Clerk of the Senate shall give due consideration in assigning chamber desks and office space to the seniority and request of a Senator. However, the chamber desk or office space of a Senator having immediate prior service in the Senate shall not be reassigned unless he shall so request the Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

8 (h). During the sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

9. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be read the succeeding day, unless the reading thereof is waived as provided in these Rules; it shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk of the Senate and delivered to the Senators without delay.

10 (a). The Clerk of the Senate shall appoint a chief deputy clerk and such staff as necessary to perform the work of the Senate. The Clerk may also appoint such number of messengers as may be required. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such committee clerks as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chairs of the several Committees. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such additional committee staff as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. All committee clerks so appointed shall remain in the Capitol or other legislative facilities during the daily sessions of the Senate, and committee clerks shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation by the Clerk of the Senate and with the approval of the Chair of each such Committee. Additional committee staff shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair on the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. Each clerk shall perform any other duties that the Clerk of the Senate shall require, when not employed by their respective standing Committees. Clerks may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. Additional committee staff may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Clerk of the Senate shall have supervision over all employees of the Senate. During sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

10 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

11 (a). Before reading each bill or resolution by title, the Clerk of the Senate shall announce, either by individual bill or resolution or en bloc, whether it is the first, second, or third time of such reading.

11 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall keep at the Clerk's desk, during the sittings of the Senate, a calendar which shows the business of the Senate. The Clerk shall have printed and placed on the desk of each member, before the assembling of the Senate each day, a calendar of pending bills and resolutions. The Clerk shall prepare a list of all bills and resolutions offered on the preceding day, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills or resolutions, and the Committees to which the same have been referred under these Rules.

12. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate, without special order therefor, to communicate to the House of Delegates any action of the Senate upon business coming from the House of Delegates, or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body, but no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the Senate while it remains open for consideration.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed and bound with the manual and rules, etc., the Constitution of Virginia and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators. Supplements to said manual shall be issued as circumstances may require.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

14 (b). In the discharge of all the duties assigned to the Clerk, and such other duties as the Clerk may from time to time undertake, the Clerk shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules.

V.

Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeepers.

15. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected by the Senate, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Committee on Rules for a term not exceeding four years. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules, his duties shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

16. Except by order of the Senate, no Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms on any grounds other than to quell a breach of the peace until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections and reported to the Senate.

17 (a). The Doorkeepers shall be constantly at their post during the daily sessions of the Senate and shall permit no one to enter freely or remain upon the floor of the Senate during the daily session, except the President of the Senate; members of the General Assembly; officers and employees of the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates; and, representatives of the news media in such numbers as may be seated in accommodations provided for them at the press tables. The Committee on Rules shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber.

17 (b). Members of a Senator's family and such persons whom a Senator may invite shall be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery. Representatives of the news media who cannot be accommodated with seats at press tables on the floor may also be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery.

17 (c). Fifteen minutes prior to the convening of every daily session, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the Senate of all persons other than those who are authorized to be there during each session and shall not permit unauthorized persons upon the floor of the Senate for five minutes following the conclusion of every daily session.

17 (d). Interviews are not allowed in the Senate Chamber during the daily session or during the recesses during the daily session. Interviews in the Senate Chamber shall end 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the daily session and shall not commence until five minutes after the adjournment of the daily session.

17 (e). Whenever any person requests an interview with a Senator or the Clerk of the Senate, a Doorkeeper shall send the request by a Page.

17 (f). A Doorkeeper shall direct all persons not entitled to entry on the floor of the Senate, as set out above, to the gallery of the Senate.

VI.

Standing Committees.

18. At the commencement of each session after the election of Senators, a nominations report shall be submitted by the majority caucus to elect members to the standing Committees and the Committee on Rules for ~~a term current~~ terms coincident with their ~~term~~ terms of office in such numbers as hereinafter set forth. Such members shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. The President of the Senate shall be empowered to break a tie vote, where there is an equal division among the Senators, on matters pertaining to committee assignments and other matters relating to the organization of the Senate.

18 (a). A Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning agriculture; air and water pollution and solid waste disposal; conservation of land and water resources; crustaceans and bivalves; all matters of environment, forest, fresh and salt water fishing, game, mining, parks and recreation, and petroleum products.

18 (b). A Committee on Commerce and Labor, ~~46-15~~ 15 Senators, to consider all matters concerning banking; commerce; commercial law; corporations; economic development; industry; insurance; labor; manufacturing; partnerships; public utilities, except matters relating to transportation; tourism; workmen's compensation and unemployment matters.

18 (c). A Committee for Courts of Justice, 15 Senators, to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.

It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee for Courts of Justice for any judicial position.

Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee for Courts of Justice shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.

18 (d). A Committee on Education and Health, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning education; human reproduction; life support; persons under disability; public buildings; public health; mental health; mental retardation and health professions.

18 (e). A Committee on Finance, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning auditing; bills and resolutions for appropriations; the budget of the Commonwealth; claims; general and special revenues of the Commonwealth; all taxation and all matters concerning the expenditure of funds of the Commonwealth.

18 (f). A Committee on General Laws and Technology, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning affirmation and bonds; the boundaries, jurisdiction and emblems of the Commonwealth; cemeteries; condominiums; consumer affairs; fire protection; gaming and wagering; housing; inter- or intra-government information technology applications and uses other than those proposed or used to support the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate; land offices; landlord and tenant; libraries; military and war emergency; nuisances; oaths; professions and occupations (except the health and legal professions); religious and charitable matters; state governmental reorganization; veterans' affairs; warehouses; and matters not specifically referable to other Committees, including, but not limited to, matters relating to technology, engineering, or electronic research, development, policy, standards, measurements, or definitions, or the scientific, technical, or technological requirements thereof, except for those affecting the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate.

18 (g). A Committee on Local Government, 15 Senators, to consider matters of local government in the counties, cities, towns, regions or districts, planning boards and commissions and authorities, except matters relating to the compensation of elected officeholders, where funds of the Commonwealth are involved.

18 (h). A Committee on Privileges and Elections, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning voting; apportionment; conflict of interests, except those concerning members of the judiciary or solely the legal profession, provided that any such matter, after being reported by the Committee, shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice for consideration of the matters relating only to members of the judiciary or solely to the legal profession; constitutional amendments; elections; elected officeholders; reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator; and nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth (except Justices and Judges of the Commonwealth). It shall consider all grievances and propositions, federal relations and interstate matters. It shall examine the oath taken by each Senator and the certificate of election furnished by the proper office and report thereon to the Senate. It shall review and report as may be required in cases involving financial disclosure statements and shall recommend disciplinary action by majority vote where appropriate. It shall report in all cases involving contested elections the principles and reasons upon which their resolves are founded. It shall determine and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel as set forth in the statutes.

Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

18 (i). A Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning alcoholic beverages; correctional and penal institutions; morals; social services and welfare; and substance abuse.

18 (j). A Committee on Transportation, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning airports; airspaces; airways; the laws concerning motor vehicles relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations; heliports; highways; port facilities; public roads and streets; transportation safety; public waterways; railways; seaports; transportation companies or corporations; and transportation public utilities. Any matter relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations which include a change in a penalty shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

VII.

Committee on Rules.

19 (a). A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, , consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators to comprise not more than 17. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees or commissions; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees and commissions in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. Senate membership on all joint subcommittees and commissions with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and as nearly as practicable with equal membership of resident Senators from the several congressional districts of the Commonwealth as the same exist on the date of election of the Senate. Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office. No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a ~~two-thirds~~ two-thirds majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair, except that in the case of the Committee for Courts of Justice and the Committee on Finance, the first two Senators named to these Committees shall be Co-Chairs. All references in these Rules to the Chair of a standing Committee shall be interpreted to include and apply to the Co-Chairs. A Senator shall serve as Chair of only one of the standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, in writing on committee proxy forms, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd-numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Rerefer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Finance Committee.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.
Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) A roll call of members present.

(c) The reading of the Journal.

(d) A period to be called the "morning hour," for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk's desk at any time after the "morning hour," with leave of the Senate.

(e) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

(f) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

(g) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a "special morning session," at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such "special morning session" shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The "special morning session" shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designation "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar," and be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) which receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee, or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions which do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted material or words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Resolution" or "Senate Joint Resolution" shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of "House Bill" or "House Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates who requests in writing to the Clerk that he be added as a co-patron of any bill or resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk that his name be removed as a co-patron of any bill or resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, and thereafter his name shall not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, nor shall his name be listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules.

No Senator may introduce more than a combined total of ten commending and memorial resolutions each session, except for the Chair of the Committee on Rules when introducing such resolutions according to custom or protocol.

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution which has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.

The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.

Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided, or in the case of judicial elections. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.

Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the chief patron(s) of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting; and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

Debate.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of audible electronic devices used for transmitting and receiving communications is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. The use of cellular telephones is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

(i) A motion to adjourn.

(ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.

(iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.

(iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.

(v) A motion to close debate.

(vi) A motion to limit debate.

(vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.

(viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.

(ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

(i) A motion for a special and continuing order.

(ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken.

However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter.

Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

54. When, pursuant to the Constitution, the Senate sits as a Court for the trial of impeachments, the Rules covering the same shall be as the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the United States Senate when sitting on Impeachment Trials.

XXI.

Votes Required.

55. The votes required shall be as set forth in the Appendix to these Rules.

XXII.

Construction of Rules.

56. The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules. In the construction of the Rules, reference shall be had to the following sources in the following order:

- (a) Jefferson's Manual of Parliamentary Practice.
- (b) Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.
- (c) Standing Rules for Conducting Business in the Senate of the United States.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Jeanne Pupke, First Unitarian Universalist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of many names, hear us as we continue this day of service to the people of this Commonwealth.

We pray this day for the well-being of all within Virginia and without, knowing that You have blessed us with a land that nurtures and sustains us. Help us to serve the children as they become our future leaders, the laborers who make possible the comforts we enjoy, the adults who make Virginia a place for love and family.

Bless these legislators, as they seek to assure justice, opportunity, mercy, and compassion are present in the law and policy of our land. May they have courage, commitment, and faith in the goodness to which You call us.

Let the Senate say, "Amen."

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Martin, McDougle McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators Barker, Marsden, and Petersen notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Deeds, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Randall Cox, Cliffview Church of God, Galax, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we give You thanks for this day.

We pray, "Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever." Amen. (Matthew 6:9-13)

We pray Your blessings, guidance, and protection will be upon the members of this meeting and the people represented in this house; that You, O God, will give wisdom and strength for the service of our state.

Being directed by Your Spirit to do what is well pleasing in Your sight, knowing that we will one day stand in a greater room to give an account for the decisions made in this room, may each one be faithful to perform the duty of their office impartially, representing power and authority given by Your hand to these men and women sent here to direct us to Your will.

May all that is done this day be for Your glory and honor, in Jesus' name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, McEachin, Miller, Obenshain, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 2015

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Lawrence R. Chottiner, Salisbury Presbyterian Church, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we turn to You in prayer asking that these words offered by one voice might become the prayer of many voices. We are thankful for the privileges of our freedoms. We remember the challenges these privileges bring to us. We realize the differences that separate us from You and from one another. We recognize the burden of responsibility that is borne on the shoulders of any to whom others look for leadership. May Your powerful presence be felt in this place and speak with the still, small voice of encouragement.

We give thanks today, bountiful God, for our homes and for our families; we give thanks for the people around us, serving beside us; we give thanks for the simple necessities of life, so often overlooked: a cooked meal, a cold glass of water, a refreshing breeze, the prospect of springtime and of rebirth. Help us always to live with gratitude, realizing that to count our blessings is to realize our good fortune.

O God of the ages, in these days of unrest, days of uncertainty, days where the broken places in the fabric of our common life have been exposed, grant that vision that desires You to be our best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, Your presence our light. Lead us forward into the future that Your will might be done and hope be reborn among us; for it is in Your holy name that we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator McWaters notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Petersen, the reading of the Journal was waived.

MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Adrain Bowie, Metropolitan Community Church of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear Creator: In Your many sacred names we come today. Giving You thanks for Your everlasting love, grace, and mercy. Let us be grateful for the freedoms we share as we raise our voices in self expression and visualize a just society for all.

I ask that You give these womyn and men, these elected decision makers in the Commonwealth, a quest for informed wisdom and spiritual insight throughout this year, 2015.

May they be impregnated with a renewed attitude and a fresh exhilarating spirit that doesn't echo the historic past, but represents the authentic consciousness of we, all the people in Virginia.

Please grant this assembly healthy bodies, physical strength, and the mental fortitude to be their best selves as they sojourn together to make wise decisions as lawmakers.

In Your holy names I pray. Amen and Ashé.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 217

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Virginia by adding in Article X a section numbered 7-B, relating to special funds for transportation purposes.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend the Constitution of Virginia by adding in Article X a section numbered 7-B as follows:

ARTICLE X
TAXATION AND FINANCE

Section 7-B. Transportation Funds.

(a) The General Assembly shall maintain permanent and separate Transportation Funds. The Commonwealth Transportation Fund, Transportation Trust Fund, Highway Maintenance and Operating Fund, any other Fund established by general law for transportation, and all subsidiary accounts and parts thereof, shall be deemed Transportation Funds for purposes of this section.

(b) There shall be deposited to the Transportation Funds all revenues dedicated to the Transportation Funds under provisions of general law, but excluding a general appropriation law, in effect on January 1, 2016. However, the General Assembly may by general law, but excluding a general appropriation law, make changes to the revenues dedicated and paid into the Transportation Funds. Money in the Transportation Funds may be invested as authorized by law.

(c) The General Assembly shall appropriate Transportation Funds only for purposes of (i) financing, acquiring, constructing, improving, maintaining, and operating transportation systems in the Commonwealth, and all purposes incidental thereto; (ii) furthering the interests of the Commonwealth in highways, public transportation, railways, seaports, and airports; and (iii) providing for the operations of state agencies related to transportation.

(d) The General Assembly may borrow from Transportation Funds for other purposes only by a vote equal to or greater than two-thirds plus one of the members voting in each house, including a majority of the members elected to that house. The name of each member voting and how he voted shall be recorded in the journal of each house. Any amount borrowed shall be repaid to the Transportation Funds, with reasonable interest, not later than the end of the fourth full fiscal year following the effective date of the borrowing.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 284

Proposing an amendment to Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to districts for the House of Representatives and General Assembly; district criteria; Virginia Redistricting Commission.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE II
FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 6. Apportionment; districts for the House of Representatives and General Assembly; Virginia Redistricting Commission.

(a) Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established by the ~~General Assembly Virginia Redistricting Commission. Every electoral district shall be composed of contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable, representation in proportion to the population of the district.~~ The General Assembly shall reapportion the Commonwealth shall be redistricted into electoral districts in accordance with this section in the year ~~2011~~ 2021 and every ten years thereafter.

(b) The Virginia Redistricting Commission shall consist of seven members. No member of the Commission or a member of his or her immediate family shall be a member or employee of the Congress of the United States or of the Virginia General Assembly, or be currently employed to lobby before any of these legislative bodies. Of the seven members, four shall be identified as members of political parties and three shall be independent public officials whose positions require the exercise of apolitical or nonpartisan judgment and discretion.

(c) The President pro tempore of the Senate, the leader in the Senate of the political party holding the most seats in the Senate other than the political party of the President pro tempore, the Speaker of the House of Delegates, and the leader in the House of Delegates of the political party holding the most seats in the House of Delegates other than the political party of the Speaker each shall appoint a member of his political party.

(d) The three independent public officials shall be the Auditor of Public Accounts, the State Inspector General, and the Executive Director of the Virginia State Bar.

(e) The members of the Commission shall take the oath of office administered by the Chief Justice of the Virginia Supreme Court or his or her designee. The Commission members shall elect their chairperson by simple majority vote. If the members are unable to achieve a majority vote, the chairperson shall be designated by the Chief Justice. All administrative and procedural decisions by the Commission shall be by a majority vote of four members. Final approval or adoption of redistricting plans shall be by a majority vote of five of the seven members of the Commission, including at least one vote from each of the political parties represented and from among the independent members.

(f) Every electoral district shall be constituted so as to adhere to the following criteria, in the order of priority in which the criteria are hereby set forth:

(1) Existing political boundaries shall be respected to the maximum extent possible. Political boundaries shall include the boundaries of counties, cities, towns, county magisterial and election districts, municipal councilmanic districts, and voting precincts. If a departure from existing political boundaries is necessary in order to comply with other districting criteria, the district lines shall be drawn utilizing clearly observable physical boundaries such as highways, roads, railroad lines, rivers, streams, and other natural or man-made features observable on official maps.

(2) Legislative and congressional districts shall be established on the basis of population. Senate and House of Delegates districts, respectively, shall each have a population that is as substantially equal to the population of every other such district as practicable. Congressional districts shall have populations that are as nearly equal as practicable. The Commission shall be guided by the most recent federal and state judicial decisions defining standards for equal population for the respective districts, including permissible deviations from ideal population if the deviation is necessary in order to achieve some other legitimate districting criterion.

(3) Districts shall be drawn in accordance with the requirements of federal and state laws, and judicial decisions interpreting such laws, that address racial and ethnic fairness, including the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution and the provisions of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended.

(4) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of contiguous territory. A district shall be deemed contiguous if it is possible to travel from one point in the district to any other point in the district without crossing the boundary of the district. Territory that touches the rest of a district only by a point shall not be deemed contiguous territory. Districts divided by water shall be deemed contiguous if a common means of transport, such as a bridge or ferry, connects the two parts of the district or, if the water were to be removed, the land on one side of the district would be contiguous with the land on the other side of the district.

(5) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of compact territory. Districts shall not be oddly shaped or have irregular or contorted boundaries, unless justified because the district adheres to political subdivision lines. Fingers or tendrils extending from a district core shall be avoided, as shall thin and elongated districts and districts with multiple core populations connected by thin strips of land or water. The Commission shall employ one or more standard numerical measures of individual and average district compactness to provide an objective assessment of a districting plan's compactness, both statewide and district-by-district.

(g) The Commission shall not include political data or election results as part of a redistricting database, and no district shall be drawn using political data or election results in order to favor a political party or incumbent legislator. This prohibition includes using addresses of incumbent legislators, political affiliations of voters, and previous election results. This prohibition shall not apply to minority or ethnic districts drawn pursuant to subdivision (f) (3) if an analysis of election data is required in order to determine if racial or ethnic minorities can elect candidates of their choice.

(h) The Commission, by a majority vote of five of its seven members as prescribed in subsection (e), shall certify the establishment of House of Delegates districts and Senate districts to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within thirty days of receipt by the Governor of the official decennial census redistricting numbers for Virginia or by the first day of June of the year following the year in which the census is taken, whichever is earlier. The Commission, by the same majority vote, shall certify the establishment of House of Representatives districts to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within sixty days of receipt by the Governor of the official decennial census redistricting numbers for Virginia or by the first day of July following the year in which the census is taken, whichever is earlier. The Commission may solicit, receive, and consider redistricting plans from the general public in establishing electoral districts.

(i) The Commission shall hold at least three public hearings in different parts of the Commonwealth to receive and consider comments from the public on the various plans subject to consideration. The Commission shall conduct its meetings and certify the adoption of plans in an open public meeting or meetings located in the City of Richmond, allowing for comment and input from the public in its consideration of proposed redistricting plans. The Commission shall give notice of its meetings at least forty-eight hours in advance in either print or electronic media, or both. If the Commission is unable to certify the establishment of districts within the prescribed time by a majority vote as prescribed in subsection (e), the two districting plans receiving the greatest number of votes among the Commission shall be submitted to the Supreme Court of Virginia, which shall approve and certify whichever of the two plans most closely adheres to the requirements of this Constitution and the Constitution and laws of the United States.

(j) The Commission shall be provided office space in the offices of the Division of Legislative Services, and the General Assembly shall provide all such funds as may be necessary for the efficient and independent operation of the Commission, including sums sufficient to hire legal counsel, demographic experts, and such other staff as may be necessary to provide for the day-to-day operations of the Commission.

(k) Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution to the contrary and except as otherwise required by the Constitution or laws of the United States, no court of the Commonwealth other than the Supreme Court of Virginia shall have jurisdiction over any judicial proceeding challenging the appointment of the members to the Commission or an action of the Commission, including the establishment of districts. The Supreme Court of Virginia shall have original jurisdiction in mandamus or prohibition to address any of the aforementioned issues, or any act, or failure to act in a timely manner, as may be alleged against the Commission. In any such cases, the Supreme Court shall give priority on the docket, and may expedite any such claim, including by deciding the matter on the papers without argument as may be deemed appropriate by the Court.

(l) If a plan certified by the Commission is declared unlawful, the Commission shall reconvene and adopt another district plan within such shorter period of time as prescribed by the Court or as otherwise may be necessary to ensure that the new plan is effective for the next succeeding primary and general election for all members of the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates.

(m) Any ~~such~~ decennial reapportionment law shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.

(n) The districts delineated in the decennial reapportionment law shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is required to be enacted. A member in office at the time that a decennial redistricting law is enacted shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Raymond A. Bell, Jr., Mount Hope Baptist Church, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, we ask You to smile upon our state Senate and enable them to serve in spirit and truth. Our eyes and our hearts are focused on You as they attempt to serve the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Let us not forget the less fortunate, the elderly and those individuals who cannot speak for themselves. Remind us, God, of the call upon our lives as legislators with a fiduciary responsibility that cannot be compromised. Continue to offer healing to the family members who serve in this august body.

In Your glorious name we pray, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Nicholas G. Bacalis, Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Cathedral, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and merciful Lord, we bow our heads in gratitude for the abundant blessings bestowed upon us, for this beautiful Virginia day, for the bounties of our land, for the stability of our society, and for the diversity of the citizens of our Commonwealth.

We thank You for the privilege of being the elected leaders serving in this esteemed body, which allows us to serve our fellow citizens.

We thank You for the gift of freedom, and for the ideals toward which we strive of human dignity and justice for all.

We seek Your guidance in maintaining and working toward these goals.

Lead us in the deliberations and decisions in which we participate, granting us discernment of the issues for the greater good.

Allow us to reconcile differences and bring to resolution the many difficult issues which we face.

Bless us, our associates, those who support the functioning of our Senate, our families, and the members of the communities we represent with well-being.

For You are the One who bestows these blessings, for which we offer our thanksgiving and gratitude. Amen.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Gerry Creedon, Holy Family Catholic Church, Dale City, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

In the words of Pope Francis, "The various political, social and economic actors are called upon to promote a different approach, based on justice and solidarity, to ensure the possibility of dignified work for all."

God of Creation, through our labor we recreate our society. Bless the work of this Senate and its consideration of the ways to support the workers of Virginia. May our efforts make it possible for workers to receive the remuneration that will allow their families to live in dignity. May the rewards of employment enable families to meet the basic needs of food, shelter and education. Too many children go to school hungry. We pray for those who are underpaid and for those who are exploited because of their legal status.

Let us also strive for a private and public educational system that will offer the skills needed in a modern economy.

For these purposes, we seek the Godly virtues of wisdom, creativity and compassion. "Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain." Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator McEachin notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Alexander, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--35. NAYS--3. RULE 36--0.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 2015

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. John William Turner, St. James Presbyterian Church, King William, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Creator of all that is, all that ever was, and all that ever shall be: this place that stretches from the mountains to the sea, that for more than 400 years has been called Virginia, and for centuries before that was called Tsenacommacah, is a garden of Your creation. Bless all the families and communities represented here; bless the deliberations of the leaders Your people have chosen to be in this room. Help it to be that our stewardship of Your garden and all the resources and blessings You have bestowed upon it will be acceptable in thy sight and will ensure that our children's children's children will be proud to be called Virginians. Remind us too, in the poet's phrase, it is "the heart, benevolent and kind, that most resembles God." Bless us all, and bless us kindly. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Barker notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Locke, the reading of the Journal was waived.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

Pastor Brad Houff, Hope Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God Almighty, we worship You as the sovereign creator and sustainer of all things. You put the moon and stars in place, the heavens and the earth display Your glory. You are high and lifted up but You are also a God who is near to us. You are as close as the air that we breathe. You have brought life and light and love into our world and we pray that today we can reflect those things to the world around us. You are a God who is both righteous and merciful. You are holy and right when You judge. Yet You are merciful and have not treated us as our sins deserve. Help us on this day to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with You, our God. I ask Your blessing on these leaders and the work that they do this day. We pray that You would give them wisdom and that You would give them sound judgment, that You would give them all that they need to do the work before them. We pray that what happens here today would be for Your glory and for the good of our Commonwealth. We pray all of this knowing that the kingdom, the power and the glory are Yours both now and forever more. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTIONS ON THIRD READING

S.J.R. 216 (two hundred sixteen) was read by title third time.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 216

Ratifying the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution.

WHEREAS, a concurrent or joint resolution is a resolution adopted by both houses of a bicameral legislature, which does not require the signature of the chief executive; and a concurrent resolution is sufficient for a state's ratification of an amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress adopted the 27th Amendment to the United States Constitution, the so-called Madison Amendment, relating to compensation of members of Congress; and

WHEREAS, the Madison Amendment was proposed by our first Congress and only recently ratified by three-fourths of the states, and the Archivist of the United States certified the 27th Amendment on May 18, 1992, or 203 years after it was first proposed; and

WHEREAS, the founders of our nation, James Madison included, did not favor further restrictions to Article V of the United States Constitution, the amending procedure; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution is harder to amend than any other constitution in history; and

WHEREAS, the restricting time limit for the Equal Rights Amendment ratification is in the resolving clause and is not a part of the amendment proposed by Congress and already ratified by 35 states; and

WHEREAS, constitutional equality for women and men continues to be a timely issue in the United States and worldwide, and a number of other nations have achieved constitutional equality for their women and men; and

WHEREAS, since Congress passed a time extension for the Equal Rights Amendment on October 20, 1978, Congress has demonstrated that a time limit in a resolving clause can be disregarded if it is not a part of the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, Congress is in a unique position to judge the tenor of the nation, to be aware of the political, social, and economic factors affecting the nation, and to be aware of the importance to the nation of the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, if an amendment to the United States Constitution has been proposed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress and ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures, it is for Congress to determine the validity of the state ratifications occurring after a time limit in the resolving clause, but not in the amendment itself; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia hereby ratify and affirm the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution proposed by the United States Congress on March 22, 1972, and ratified by 35 state legislatures. The complete text of House Joint Resolution 208 proposing the Equal Rights Amendment follows:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 208

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to equal rights for men and women.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

“Article--

“Section 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

“Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

“Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.”; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit certified copies of this joint resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, the members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation, and the Archivist of the United States at the National Archives and Records Administration of the United States.

S.J.R. 216, on motion of Senator Ebbin, was agreed to.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 233

Proposing an amendment to Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to districts for the House of Representatives and General Assembly; district criteria.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE II
FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 6. Apportionment; district criteria.

(a) Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established by the General Assembly. ~~Every electoral district shall be composed of contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable, representation in proportion to the population of the district.~~ The General Assembly shall reapportion the Commonwealth into electoral districts in accordance with this section in the year ~~2011~~ 2021 and every ten years thereafter.

(b) Every electoral district shall be constituted so as to adhere to the following criteria, in the order of priority in which the criteria are hereby set forth:

(1) Existing political boundaries shall be respected to the maximum extent possible. Political boundaries shall include the boundaries of counties, cities, towns, county magisterial and election districts, municipal councilmanic districts, and voting precincts. If a departure from existing political boundaries is necessary in order to comply with other districting criteria, the district lines shall be drawn utilizing clearly observable physical boundaries such as highways, roads, railroad lines, rivers, streams, and other natural or man-made features observable on official maps.

(2) Legislative and congressional districts shall be established on the basis of population. Senate and House of Delegates districts, respectively, shall each have a population that is as substantially equal to the population of every other such district as practicable. Congressional districts shall have populations that are as nearly equal as practicable. The General Assembly shall be guided by the most recent federal and state judicial decisions defining standards for equal population for the respective districts, including permissible deviations from ideal population if the deviation is necessary in order to achieve some other legitimate districting criterion.

(3) Districts shall be drawn in accordance with the requirements of federal and state laws, and judicial decisions interpreting such laws, that address racial and ethnic fairness, including the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution and the provisions of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended.

(4) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of contiguous territory. A district shall be deemed contiguous if it is possible to travel from one point in the district to any other point in the district without crossing the boundary of the district. Territory that touches the rest of a district only by a point shall not be deemed contiguous territory. Districts divided by water shall be deemed contiguous if a common means of transport, such as a bridge or ferry, connects the two parts of the district or, if the water were to be removed, the land on one side of the district would be contiguous with the land on the other side of the district.

(5) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of compact territory. Districts shall not be oddly shaped or have irregular or contorted boundaries, unless justified because the district adheres to political subdivision lines. Fingers or tendrils extending from a district core shall be avoided, as shall thin and elongated districts and districts with multiple core populations connected by thin strips of land or water. The General Assembly shall employ one or more standard numerical measures of individual and average district compactness to provide an objective assessment of a districting plan's compactness, both statewide and district-by-district.

(6) Consideration may be given to communities of interest by creating districts that do not carve up homogeneous neighborhoods or separate groups of people living in an area with similar interests or needs in transportation, employment, or culture.

(c) The General Assembly shall not include political data or election results as part of a redistricting database, and no district shall be drawn using political data or election results in order to favor a political party or incumbent legislator. This prohibition includes using addresses of incumbent legislators, political affiliations of voters, and previous election results. This prohibition shall not apply to minority or ethnic districts drawn pursuant to subdivision (b) (3) if an analysis of election data is required in order to determine if racial or ethnic minorities can elect candidates of their choice.

(d) Any such decennial reapportionment law shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.

(e) The districts delineated in the decennial reapportionment law shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is required to be enacted. A member in office at the time that a decennial redistricting law is enacted shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 238

Proposing an amendment to Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to the qualifications of voters.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE II
FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 1. Qualifications of voters.

In elections by the people, the qualifications of voters shall be as follows: Each voter shall be a citizen of the United States, shall be eighteen years of age, shall fulfill the residence requirements set forth in this section, and shall be registered to vote pursuant to this article. No person who has been convicted of a felony shall be qualified to vote unless his civil rights have been restored by the Governor or other appropriate authority. However, the General Assembly may by general law provide for the restoration of civil rights to persons who have been convicted of nonviolent felonies and who have completed service of their sentences, including any period or condition of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, subject to the conditions, requirements, and definitions set forth in that law. As prescribed by law, no person adjudicated to be mentally incompetent shall be qualified to vote until his competency has been reestablished.

The residence requirements shall be that each voter shall be a resident of the Commonwealth and of the precinct where he votes. Residence, for all purposes of qualification to vote, requires both domicile and a place of abode. The General Assembly may provide for persons who are employed overseas, and their spouses and dependents residing with them, and who are qualified to vote except for relinquishing their place of abode in the Commonwealth while overseas, to vote in the Commonwealth subject to conditions and time limits defined by law. The General Assembly may provide for persons who are qualified to vote except for having moved their residence from one precinct to another within the Commonwealth to continue to vote in a former precinct subject to conditions and time limits defined by law. The General Assembly may also provide, in elections for President and Vice President of the United States, alternatives to registration for new residents of the Commonwealth.

Any person who will be qualified with respect to age to vote at the next general election shall be permitted to register in advance and also to vote in any intervening primary or special election.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 5 of Article VIII of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE VIII EDUCATION

Section 5. Powers and duties of the Board of Education.

The powers and duties of the Board of Education shall be as follows:

(a) Subject to such criteria and conditions as the General Assembly may prescribe, the Board shall divide the Commonwealth into school divisions of such geographical area and school-age population as will promote the realization of the prescribed standards of quality, and shall periodically review the adequacy of existing school divisions for this purpose.

(b) It shall make annual reports to the Governor and the General Assembly concerning the condition and needs of public education in the Commonwealth, and shall in such report identify any school divisions which have failed to establish and maintain schools meeting the prescribed standards of quality.

(c) It shall certify to the school board of each division a list of qualified persons for the office of division superintendent of schools, one of whom shall be selected to fill the post by the division school board. In the event a division school board fails to select a division superintendent within the time prescribed by law, the Board of Education shall appoint him.

(d) It shall have authority to approve textbooks and instructional aids and materials for use in courses in the public schools of the Commonwealth.

(e) Subject to such criteria and conditions as the General Assembly may prescribe, it shall have authority to establish charter schools within the school divisions of the Commonwealth.

(f) Subject to the ultimate authority of the General Assembly, the Board shall have primary responsibility and authority for effectuating the educational policy set forth in this Article, and it shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by law.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Rabbi Steven I. Rein, Agudas Achim Congregation, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

This week, 72 years ago, our nation mourned the loss of hundreds of men aboard the U.S.A.T. Dorchester. Of particular note is the image of four Army chaplains of different faiths who brought hope in despair and light in the wake of darkness. There are many narratives embedded in this remarkable story—above all is witnessing four individuals unique in conviction who joined hands as one. They represent the complementarity of individuals possessing unique qualities and a unique message that together comprise this great Commonwealth and this great nation. Like the great Assembly before me, on that fateful night four individuals banded together as one with a unified calling and a singular mission. God of all humanity, we pray that You grant us the ability to find strength in our diversity by focusing on the unity we share. May the Merciful One bless all those that serve our Commonwealth and may we find grace and favor in the sight of God and humankind. And let us say: Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Cosgrove notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator McDougle, the reading of the Journal was waived.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 269

Applying to the Congress of the United States to call an amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress.

WHEREAS, the Founders of the United States Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against excessive use of power by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has created a mounting national debt exceeding $17 trillion through improper and imprudent spending; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has usurped the legitimate roles of the states through unfunded federal mandates; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has ceased to operate under a proper interpretation of the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people, particularly for the generations to come, by proposing amendments to the United States Constitution through a convention of the states under Article V to place clear restraints on these and related excessive uses of power; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia hereby make application to the Congress of the United States to call an amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the other states be encouraged to make similar applications for an amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That this application shall constitute a continuing application for such amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of two-thirds of the states have made applications on the same subject and such convention has been called by the Congress of the United States; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the General Assembly of Virginia adopt this application with the following understandings (as the term “understandings” is used within the context of “reservations, understandings, and declarations”):

1. An application to Congress for an Article V convention confers no power on Congress other than to perform a ministerial function to “call” a convention;

2. This ministerial duty shall be performed by Congress only when Article V applications for substantially the same purpose are received from two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states;

3. The power of Congress to “call” a convention solely consists of the authority to name a reasonable time and place for the initial meeting of the Convention;

4. Congress possesses no power whatsoever to name delegates to said convention, as this power remains exclusively within the authority of the legislatures of the several states;

5. Congress possesses no power to set the number of delegates to be sent by any state;

6. Congress possesses no power whatsoever to determine any rules for said convention;

7. By definition, a convention of states means that states vote on the basis of one state, one vote;

8. A convention of states convened pursuant to this application is limited to consideration of topics specified herein and no other;

9. The General Assembly of Virginia may provide instructions to its delegates (commissioners);

10. The General Assembly of Virginia may recall its delegates at any time for breach of their duties or violation of their instructions;

11. Pursuant to the text of Article V, Congress may determine whether proposed amendments shall be ratified by the legislatures of the several states or by special state ratification conventions; the General Assembly of Virginia recommends that Congress specify its choice of ratification methodology contemporaneously with the call for the convention;

12. Congress possesses no power whatsoever with regard to the Article V convention beyond the two powers acknowledged herein; and

On motion of Senator Locke, a leave of absence for the day was granted Senator Lucas on account of pressing personal business.

On motion of Senator Deeds, a leave of absence for the day was granted Senator Puller on account of pressing personal business.

On motion of Senator Stosch, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 12 m. The Clerk was ordered to receive the committee reports.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

The following bill, having been considered by the committee in session, was reported by Senator Ruff from the Committee on General Laws and Technology:

President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Leonard L. Willis, Carver Memorial Presbyterian Church, Newport News, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear Almighty God, Creator of all that we enjoy and share, we come this day thankful that You are our God, the One who sits high on the throne of grace and mercy; that You, moment by moment, shower us with Your blessings because of

- Your love, for us
- Your presence among us
- Your peace that covers us and
- Your power that encourages us to do our best in serving You and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Today, as this Session of the Virginia Senate opens, grant the leaders assembled generous wisdom

- to advocate
- to legislate and
- to govern wisely, responding to the needs of the citizens of this great Commonwealth.

Holy God, help us understand that nothing can be accomplished in this Chamber apart from You.

In this time of social, political, and economic challenge, remind us to seek You first, in the midst of all deliberations, believing that Your will, will be done, through those who acknowledge and accept You.

Guide us to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly before You, as laws are legislated that reflect Your standards.

Please, Lord, hear our prayers we humbly pray, in the name we hold above all names. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Petersen, Reeves, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators Edwards, Obenshain, Ruff, and Stosch notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Miller, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 327

Celebrating the life of the Honorable James Brady Murray.

WHEREAS, the Honorable James Brady Murray of Earlysville, a dedicated conservationist, businessman, and public servant who ably represented the residents of the Counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, and Greene and the City of Charlottesville in the House of Delegates for eight years, died on January 2, 2015; and

WHEREAS, a native of Allenhurst, New Jersey, James Murray was born on the Fourth of July in 1920; he earned a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University and a degree in electrical engineering from Yale University; and

WHEREAS, joining many of the other young men of his generation as a member of the United States Navy during World War II, James Murray served on aircraft carriers in the Pacific Ocean and was stationed in Coronado, California; and

WHEREAS, after his honorable military service, James Murray moved to New York and became president of Murray Manufacturing, the electrical equipment company founded by his grandfather, Thomas E. Murray; and

WHEREAS, in 1953, James Murray relocated to the Commonwealth and founded Panorama Farms, where he began a long, fulfilling career as a farmer and conservationist; he presided over the Virginia Water Project and served on the Thomas Jefferson Sustainability Council and the Virginia Nature Conservancy Board, where he worked to balance responsible economic growth with conservation efforts; and

WHEREAS, James Murray taught at the University of Virginia and established and managed a local branch of Murray Manufacturing, which created 700 new job opportunities in Albemarle County; and

WHEREAS, desirous to be of further service to the community and the Commonwealth, James Murray ran for and was elected to the Virginia House of Delegates; representing the residents of the Counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, and Greene, as well as part of the City of Charlottesville, he served four terms from 1974 to 1982; and

WHEREAS, James Murray sponsored and supported many important pieces of legislation, including bills to designate the Rivanna as a National Wild and Scenic River, establish Piedmont Virginia Community College, allow organ donor designations on driver's licenses, and grant health maintenance organizations the right to operate in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, James Murray served the community as the chair of the Albemarle County Electoral Board for 15 years, the chair of Piedmont Virginia Community College, director of the United Virginia Bank of Charlottesville, director of the Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce, and a board member of several other agencies and civic organizations; and

WHEREAS, James Murray earned many awards and accolades for his leadership and service, including the Paul Goodloe McIntire Citizenship Award and the Virginia Conservationist of the Year award in 1991; a man of great integrity, he served the Commonwealth with the utmost professionalism, dedication, and distinction; and

WHEREAS, predeceased by his wife, Bunny, and one son, Latham, James Murray will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his seven sons, 23 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, numerous other family members and friends, and colleagues on both sides of the aisle; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of the Honorable James Brady Murray, a respected businessman, passionate conservationist, and dedicated public servant; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of the Honorable James Brady Murray as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

S.J.R. 327, on motion of Senator Deeds, was ordered to be engrossed and was agreed to by a unanimous standing vote.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2015

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend James L. Porter, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we give You thanks for all of the blessings You have poured out upon all of us this past year, and though it has been a difficult time for many of our citizens, we ask and believe that You will bless our country and the Commonwealth of Virginia in 2015.

We thank You that we live in a country and a state where our leaders are elected by a majority of the people rather than selectively chosen by only a few.

We thank You for our elected leaders, and we ask that You give them the wisdom to enact legislation that will enable our citizens to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Please bless this delegation and help everyone here to aspire to the highest ideals of their own personal faith as well as to the high ideals of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Let there be a spirit of mutual cooperation in this chamber that crosses every boundary so that the will of the people will be carried out for the mutual benefit of all of our citizens.

Please bless this day, as we ask for Your guidance on so many important issues, and help us remember to respond to Your graciousness by giving You all of the praise and glory. Amen.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Jacob Sahms, Blandford United Methodist Church, Petersburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of grace and truth, we thank You for the way that You have been faithful to us, and ask Your blessing today on those gathered here. We ask that You would strengthen our bodies to do good; that You would free our minds from worries which might distract us, and make us stand tall with the knowledge that You have called us to do this work.

Grant us courage to share our voice without fear of repercussion, wisdom to recognize what we do not understand, patience to listen and to hear from those we disagree with, and hearts like Yours for reconciliation, justice, and peace.

We hope to represent You in how we think, speak, and act, and ask that You would show us how we might serve each other better, that we might enable justice to roll like a mighty river and righteousness like a never-failing stream, that our communities would be a safe haven where all will be welcome, and our world would be a place where all have enough. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 305

Proposing an amendment to Section 14 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to powers of the General Assembly; limitations.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 14 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE IV
LEGISLATURE

Section 14. Powers of General Assembly; limitations.

The authority of the General Assembly shall extend to all subjects of legislation not herein forbidden or restricted; and a specific grant of authority in this Constitution upon a subject shall not work a restriction of its authority upon the same or any other subject. The omission in this Constitution of specific grants of authority heretofore conferred shall not be construed to deprive the General Assembly of such authority, or to indicate a change of policy in reference thereto, unless such purpose plainly appear.

The General Assembly shall confer on the courts power to grant divorces, change the names of persons, and direct the sales of estates belonging to infants and other persons under legal disabilities, and shall not, by special legislation, grant relief in these or other cases of which the courts or other tribunals may have jurisdiction.

The General Assembly may regulate the exercise by courts of the right to punish for contempt.

The General Assembly may suspend or nullify any or all portions of any administrative rule or regulation by joint resolution agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house. [ ~~When the General Assembly is not in a regular session, a standing committee from each house acting jointly or a joint legislative commission as designated by the General Assembly may suspend any or all portions of any administrative rule or regulation until the end of the next regular session.~~ ]

The General Assembly's power to define the accrual date for a civil action based on an intentional tort committed by a natural person against a person who, at the time of the intentional tort, was a minor shall include the power to provide for the retroactive application of a change in the accrual date. No natural person shall have a constitutionally protected property right to bar a cause of action based on intentional torts as described herein on the ground that a change in the accrual date for the action has been applied retroactively or that a statute of limitations or statute of repose has expired.

The General Assembly shall not enact any local, special, or private law in the following cases:

- (1) For the punishment of crime.
- (2) Providing a change of venue in civil or criminal cases.
- (3) Regulating the practice in, or the jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceedings or inquiry before the courts or other tribunals, or providing or changing the methods of collecting debts or enforcing judgments or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate.
- (4) Changing or locating county seats.
- (5) For the assessment and collection of taxes, except as to animals which the General Assembly may deem dangerous to the farming interests.
- (6) Extending the time for the assessment or collection of taxes.
- (7) Exempting property from taxation.
- (8) Remitting, releasing, postponing, or diminishing any obligation or liability of any person, corporation, or association to the Commonwealth or to any political subdivision thereof.

(9) Refunding money lawfully paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth or the treasury of any political subdivision thereof.

(10) Granting from the treasury of the Commonwealth, or granting or authorizing to be granted from the treasury of any political subdivision thereof, any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, agent, or contractor.

(11) For registering voters, conducting elections, or designating the places of voting.

(12) Regulating labor, trade, mining, or manufacturing, or the rate of interest on money.

(13) Granting any pension.

(14) Creating, increasing, or decreasing, or authorizing to be created, increased, or decreased, the salaries, fees, percentages, or allowances of public officers during the term for which they are elected or appointed.

(15) Declaring streams navigable, or authorizing the construction of booms or dams therein, or the removal of obstructions therefrom.

(16) Affecting or regulating fencing or the boundaries of land, or the running at large of stock.

(17) Creating private corporations, or amending, renewing, or extending the charters thereof.

(18) Granting to any private corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege, or immunity.

(19) Naming or changing the name of any private corporation or association.

(20) Remitting the forfeiture of the charter of any private corporation, except upon the condition that such corporation shall thereafter hold its charter subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the laws passed in pursuance thereof.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2015

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Monty Guice, Swift Creek Baptist Church, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Lord, thank You for ordaining government. We are to live according to Your laws, and by the laws of our country and state. And thank You for ordaining government leaders. Thank You for them. Encourage them in their service. Bless them in their work. Remind them that they are serving people, and that by serving people, they are ultimately serving You.

Give them concern to make the right decisions. Give them wisdom to know what the right decision is, to discern between right from wrong, and good from best. Give them conviction to believe in that decision, to stand for the right things, and to stand against the wrong things. Give them character to not only make these right decisions, but to be the right person.

And finally, give them courage to follow through on the right thing, even when others criticize.

We pray this in Jesus' name: the One who had concern, wisdom and discernment, conviction, character, and courage, and who demonstrated and modeled that for us to follow. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Brian Bales, Christian Fellowship Church, Ashburn, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Maker of heaven and earth, we gather here today in Your presence as servants. Servants of Your desires, servants of Your will and servants of the people, You have appointed us to represent here in the Commonwealth.

Father, in light of that reality, it is my desire to pray a blessing on these men and women who have gathered to do a task that is so easily criticized by people who neither know their hearts nor their dedication to the work at hand. While we recognize we gather under different ideologies and viewpoints, we also recognize that the desire of each person's heart is to do that which is good for every citizen.

And in recognition of that desire, Father, we must also recognize that on our own we cannot accomplish this task. No matter the intelligence, insight or wisdom You have bestowed on any one person in this room, it pales in comparison to Your intelligence, insight and wisdom. It is by Your hand that You put this world together and it is by Your hand that it still spins on its axis. This is beyond even the greatest of earthly minds to comprehend. We are grateful that You have asked us to come to You in confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

On this day, at the beginning of this session, we now come to You asking to receive the mercy, grace, and wisdom that You dispense to those who come to You and ask with servant hearts.

Help us to remember who You are. Help us to remember who we are. Help us to remember who we serve, and help us to look to You, God, as our ultimate example of how to serve those around us. Bless these men and women, Father, as only You can.

In the name of Your son, Jesus, I ask. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Hanger, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 740

Celebrating the life of the Honorable James Brady Murray.

WHEREAS, the Honorable James Brady Murray of Earlysville, a dedicated conservationist, businessman, and public servant who ably represented the residents of the Counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, and Greene and the City of Charlottesville in the Virginia House of Delegates for eight years, died on January 2, 2015; and

WHEREAS, a native of Allenhurst, New Jersey, James Murray was born on the Fourth of July in 1920; he earned a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University and a degree in electrical engineering from Yale University; and

WHEREAS, joining many of the other young men of his generation as a member of the United States Navy during World War II, James Murray served on aircraft carriers in the Pacific Ocean and was stationed in Coronado, California; and

WHEREAS, after his honorable military service, James Murray moved to New York and became president of Murray Manufacturing, the electrical equipment company founded by his grandfather, Thomas E. Murray; and

WHEREAS, in 1953, James Murray relocated to the Commonwealth and founded Panorama Farms, where he began a long, fulfilling career as a farmer and conservationist; he presided over the Virginia Water Project and served on the Thomas Jefferson Sustainability Council and the Virginia Nature Conservancy Board, where he worked to balance responsible economic growth with conservation efforts; and

WHEREAS, James Murray also taught at the University of Virginia and established and managed a local branch of Murray Manufacturing, which created 700 new job opportunities in Albemarle County; and

WHEREAS, desirous to be of further service to the community and the Commonwealth, James Murray ran for and was elected to the Virginia House of Delegates; representing the residents of the Counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, and Greene, as well as part of the City of Charlottesville, he served four terms from 1974 to 1982; and

WHEREAS, James Murray sponsored and supported many important pieces of legislation, including bills to designate the Rivanna as a National Wild and Scenic River, establish Piedmont Virginia Community College, allow organ donor designations on driver's licenses, and grant health maintenance organizations the right to operate in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, James Murray also served the community as the chair of the Albemarle County Electoral Board for 15 years, the chair of Piedmont Virginia Community College, director of the United Virginia Bank of Charlottesville, director of the Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce, and a board member of several other agencies and civic organizations; and

WHEREAS, James Murray earned many awards and accolades for his leadership and service, including the Paul Goodloe McIntire Citizenship Award and the Virginia Conservationist of the Year award in 1991; a man of great integrity, he served the Commonwealth with the utmost professionalism, dedication, and distinction; and

WHEREAS, predeceased by his wife, Bunny, and one son, Latham, James Murray will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his seven sons, 23 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, numerous other family members and friends, and colleagues on both sides of the aisle; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of the Honorable James Brady Murray, a respected businessman, passionate conservationist, and dedicated public servant; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of the Honorable James Brady Murray as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

Introduction

This document contains the Senate Finance Committee's amendments to Senate Bill 800, as introduced, the amended Budget Bill for the 2014-16 biennium. The amendments are presented in order of Revenue Estimates, Operating Expenses, Capital Outlay, Miscellaneous Provisions and General Provisions.

For ease of review, the amendments are listed sequentially by bill part, and by bill item number. A brief explanation of the purpose of each amendment is also provided.

Increased or (decreased) appropriations are drawn to the item amounts shown in the "appropriation" column in Senate Bill 800. Fund sources are designated either General Fund (GF) or Nongeneral Fund (NGF). Resulting changes in the subprogram level and fund source are reflected when the bill is enrolled.

Please feel free to contact the Senate Finance Committee staff at 698-7480 should you need additional information on these amendments.

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the procedures for the deposit of local fines and fees into the State Treasury. A companion amendment to Section 3-6.05 of this act removes local fees from the calculation of the amounts to be returned to the Literary Fund and provides that one-half of the amount by which local fines and forfeitures exceed 65 percent of total collections be returned to the Literary Fund. This amendment provides that only the state collections are to be deposited into the State Treasury. The current language requires that all local collections be deposited into the State Treasury, which in turn requires that checks for the local amounts not transferred to the Literary Fund be sent back to the localities. The intent of this amendment is to eliminate that administrative expense.)

With the exception of the provisions of subparagraphs N.2. and N.4. of this item, grant payments from the Fund shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 45.1-394, Code of Virginia.

2. A producer shall be eligible for a grant from the Biofuels Production Fund established under § 45.1-393, Code of Virginia, only for each gallon of neat biofuels that it produces in the Commonwealth on or after January 1, 2014, which gallon has also been sold by the producer to customers.

3. The Secretary of Agriculture and Forestry shall assist any producer that commences qualifying sales of neat biofuels within the period specified in subparagraph N.1. of this item in identifying potential producers of agricultural feedstock sources within 100 miles of the primary biofuels production site and shall examine the feasibility of establishing a cooperative association to meet the feedstock requirements of any such producer. The Secretary of Agriculture and Forestry and the Secretary of Natural Resources shall work within the structure of existing funding for agricultural best management practices from the Water Quality Improvement Fund to develop additional incentives to encourage farmers to produce winter cover crops utilized in biofuels production.

4. As part of the certification process required pursuant to § 45.1-394 D, Code of Virginia, to be eligible for a grant pursuant to this appropriation, the producer shall also provide evidence that feedstock used in the production of the qualifying neat biofuels was derived from Virginia-grown agricultural products to the greatest extent such feedstock materials are available from Virginia sources.

5. To be eligible for a grant under this section for 2015 production of neat advanced biofuels or neat biofuels, a producer must show he has made a good faith effort to produce the same using feedstock that is not derived from corn or the corn kernel, stalk, or any other part of the plant. Further, no grant shall be awarded for neat advanced biofuels or neat biofuels produced in 2016 or thereafter using feedstock derived from corn or the corn kernel, stalk, or any other part of the plant."

after the initial implementation year, depending on the extended school year model adopted, with full funding for schools that operate with at least 20 additional days of instruction. The per school amount may be up to $400,000 in the case of schools Denied Accreditation. After an eligible program's third year, per school funding shall be provided based on the state's share. Schools shall remain eligible for the state's share of on-going funding for extended school year if they are (i) not fully accredited, (ii) are designated priority or focus schools, or (iii) have student eligibility for free or reduced lunch of greater than 50 percent."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding to increase from $2.4 million to $10.1 million funding for a targeted extended school year incentive and establishes a predictable funding formula to encourage those school divisions that may most benefit from adding additional instructional days distributed throughout the year to do so. Funding is based on start-up grants of $300,000 per school for a three-year period to establish extended school year programs in certain eligible schools and the state's share of on-going funding beyond the three-year initial period. The per school amounts may be up to $400,000 in the case of schools that were Denied Accreditation at the time of initial implementation as an additional incentive amount. To date, at least 31 schools in 13 school divisions either have extended year programs, had been awarded planning grants or start-up grants, or have expressed interest. In addition to existing programs in 11 schools in Bristol, Henrico, Loudoun, Lynchburg, and Richmond -- in FY 2015, Petersburg, Galax and Henrico received start-up grants to begin extended school year programs in six schools for the 2014-15 school year; Roanoke also received a start-up grant for three schools; and Harrisonburg, Manassas Park, and Radford received planning grants for nine schools.)

a.1) Subject to revenue estimates for Fiscal Year 2015 being met or exceeded, there is herewith appropriated a sum of $50,200,747 from the general fund in the second year to be used only for compensation supplements as stated in paragraphs 2) and 3) below.

2) The appropriation in this item includes $50,200,747 the second year from the general fund for the state share of a payment equivalent to a 1.5 percent salary incentive increase, calculated based on ten months, for funded SOQ instructional and support positions. Funded SOQ instructional positions shall include the teacher, guidance counselor, librarian, instructional aide, principal, and assistant principal positions funded through the SOQ staffing standards for each school division in the biennium.

3) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the instructional and support position salaries be improved in school divisions throughout the state by at least 1.5 percent in the second year. Sufficient funds are appropriated in this act to finance, on a statewide basis, the state share of a 1.5 percent salary increase for funded SOQ instructional and support positions, for ten months, to school divisions which certify to the Department of Education, by June 15, 2015, that salary increases of at least a minimum of 1.5 percent have been provided in the first or second year by January 1, 2016, to instructional and support personnel. In certifying that the salary increases have been provided, school divisions may not include any salary increases that were provided in the second year solely to offset the cost of required member contributions to the Virginia Retirement System under § 51.1-144, Code of Virginia.

b. The state funds for which the division is eligible to receive shall be matched by the local government, based on the composite index of local ability-to-pay, which shall be calculated using an effective date of January 1, 2016, as the basis for the local match requirement for both funded SOQ instructional and support positions.

c. This funding is not intended as a mandate to increase salaries.

Page 142, after line 48, insert: "i. The per pupil amount for Governor's Schools includes an additional $71.50 per pupil as an add-on for the 1.5 percent compensation supplement."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $50.2 million for the state's share of a 1.5 percent salary increase for funded SOQ instructional and support positions. Although funding is calculated based on ten months of the year, local school divisions have the flexibility to determine the specific effective date, no later than January 1, 2016. In FY 2014, the last time the state provided compensation supplement incentive funding, 14 school divisions did not provide the minimum salary increase in order to qualify for the state matching funds. In addition, in FY 2015 when the state did not provide any incentive, all but 36 school divisions did take some local action to address teacher salaries. A corresponding additional amount of $208,725 is included to increase the Governor's Schools per pupil amount by a like increase.)

The Department shall collect and compile the results and no later than August 1, 2016 shall submit the report to the Governor and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees".

Explanation:

Explanation:

(This amendment requires DOE to offer any unobligated balances for one-time grants, with priority to proposals to expand the use of partnerships with either non-profit or for-profit providers, as is currently allowed but limited in actual use. This is in lieu of new provisions proposed in the introduced budget authorizing unused but appropriated funds for the Virginia Preschool Initiative for at-risk four-year-olds to school divisions that have used 100 percent of their state allocated slots and also have waiting lists beginning the second year (instead of sweeping end-of-year balances that may exist even after assumed nonparticipation). Under the introduced budget, the number of slots allocated would have been determined using the balance of the number of slots estimated to calculate the FY 2016 appropriation and the number of actual slots to be used for FY 2016 as reported on the May 15th Pre-K grant proposals submitted by school divisions. Explanation:

(This amendment would provide language to allow the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV) to transfer surplus funds from one financial assistance program to another experiencing a projected deficit. SCHEV administers a number of financial aid programs and while funding is sufficient in most years, there are occasions when a deficit is realized in one or more programs. Under the proposed language, no funds would be transferred from a program until all priority students have received a full award based upon beginning-of-the-year projections. In development of this program, the Secretary's office shall be assisted by the Department of Medical Assistance Services, the Virginia Center for Healthcare Innovation, the Virginia Hospital and Healthcare Association and other affected stakeholders. The resulting hospital provider assessment program developed by the Secretary shall not be implemented until after June 30, 2016.

2. As part of the development of a hospital provider assessment program, the Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall also develop as an option a more limited program that is focused on supporting the indigent care and graduate medical education costs at private teaching hospitals in the Commonwealth. This limited hospital provider assessment program developed by the Secretary shall not be implemented until after June 30, 2016.

3. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall also undertake a review of a program that would provide supplemental payments for qualifying private hospitals as provided for in the State Plan for Medical Assistance Services amendments 11-018 and 11-019 submitted to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services on or about December 20, 2011. If the Secretary deems that such a program would be consistent with the goals of an assessment program as stated in subparagraph 1, then implementation of this program may be implemented after June 30, 2016.

4. The hospital provider assessment program developed by the Secretary of Health

5. The Secretary shall report to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees by November 2, 2015 on the appropriate details regarding the hospital provider assessment program, which shall include: (i) the structure, collection process, and amount of the assessment; (ii) the process for supplemental payments; (iii) an estimate by hospital of the net financial impact of the program; and (iv) an implementation timeline. In addition, the Secretary shall include in his report details on the requirements of subparagraphs 2, 3, and 4.

6. The Secretary is authorized to direct the appropriate agency to submit requests for federal preapproval of a program or programs developed pursuant to subparagraphs 1, 2 and 3.

7. Out of this appropriation, $50,000 the second year from the general fund is provided for consulting and legal services related to the development of a provider assessment program. If this funding can be matched with federal funds, then the Department of Planning and Budget may transfer this appropriation to the Department of Medical Assistance Services."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $50,000 from the general fund the second year for consulting and legal costs as part of the requirement for the Secretary of Health and Human Resources to develop various health care provider assessments and report on the details of such programs to the General Assembly by November 2, 2015. Explanation:

(This amendment adds language requiring the Virginia Department of Health (VDH) with assistance from the Department of Health Professions to issue guidelines on the prescription of certain pain medicines. Opioid overdose continues to be a major public health problem in the United States. It has contributed significantly to accidental deaths among those who use prescription opioids. Opioid overdose is the number one cause of accidental death in the United States, eclipsing automobile accidents (unintentional opioid overdose kills one person every 36 minutes in this country). This increase coincides with a nearly fourfold increase in the use of prescribed opioids for the treatment of pain. With appropriate education, patients on long-term opioid therapy, and others at risk for overdose, can benefit from the availability of FDA approved opioid antagonists to utilize in the event of a known or suspected overdose. VDH guidelines will assist in mitigating the risk of opioid overdose and adverse reactions in cases of overdose.)

Explanation:

(This amendment modifies language to eliminate the increase in restaurant permit fees from the savings strategy in the introduced budget which would have generated $3.8 million in savings to the state from additional revenue in fiscal year 2016 by raising restaurant annual permit fees from $40.00 to $285.00. Intellectual Disability and IFDDS waivers and six percent for EPSDT nursing to be equal to the private duty nursing rates in the Technology Assisted Waiver effective July 1, 2015. "

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding to increase rates for in-home residential services, day services, therapeutic consultation, congregate residential, and skilled nursing effective July 1, 2015. These increases are based on the analysis from the recent rate study of Medicaid waiver rates, which indicates that the rates are far from adequate to build the appropriate community capacity to move individuals out of state training centers. The Intellectual Disability, Developmental Disability and Day Support waivers are currently being redesigned and will likely change in FY 2017. This amendment would be a significant investment in the new rates to move the Commonwealth forward to a more community-based system for individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding in the second year and adds language to offset savings assumed in the Department of Medical Assistance Services budget from pending and reducing payment for claims from emergency room physicians who treat Medicaid recipients when a retrospective review determines that the individuals could have received care in an outpatient setting. Emergency room physicians have no choice in treating individuals who present in emergency rooms and must do so as required by federal law. The department shall have the authority to implement these reimbursement changes effective July 1, 2015, and prior to completion of any regulatory process undertaken in order to effect such change."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding for Physician Supplemental Payments for additional support for Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters (CHKD). These payments help cover the cost of caring for thousands of children facing life-threatening illnesses, traumatic injuries and chronic conditions as well as those who need access to routine well-child care regardless of their families' ability to pay for services. These payments also ensure that CHKD's patients have access to every type of pediatric subspecialist, surgeon and pediatrician needed in a highly coordinated, efficient and regionalized system of care in greater Hampton Roads. Furthermore, Physician Supplemental Payments help CHKD address critical workforce development needs as the region's only teaching hospital for pediatrics, for the EVMS pediatric and family medicine residencies, and for every school of nursing within the region. Physician Supplemental Payments currently cover less than a third of CHKD's $13 million physician costs.)

Explanation:

(This amendment adds $221,568 from general fund in the second year to offset a reduction in Health Care Fund revenue as a result of reversing the proposed tax stamp roll fee of $12 per roll that was included in the introduced budget. Revenue in the Health Care Fund is used as state match for the Medicaid Program, so any revenue adjustment requires an offsetting general fund amount.)

Effective July 1, 2015, the Department of Medical Assistance Services shall amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance to reimburse the price-based operating rate rather than the transition operating rate to any nursing facility whose licensed bed capacity decreased by at least 30 beds after 2011 and whose occupancy increased from less than 70 percent in 2011 to more than 80 percent in 2013. The department shall have the authority to implement this reimbursement change effective July 1, 2015 and prior to completion of any regulatory process in order to effect such change.

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding to hold harmless any nursing facility which was negatively impacted by the conversion from a cost-based reimbursement methodology to a price-based reimbursement methodology for Medicaid nursing facility payments because the methodology did not account for recent facility improvements to provide high quality care. The transition rates that would be imposed on such facilities are based on a three-year period, which penalizes facilities which have recently improved care and invested significant funds to improve the facility. Language is added to outline criteria to reimburse facilities in such circumstances at the price-based operating rate instead of the transition operating rate effective July 1, 2015.)

This initiative is part of the "A Healthy Virginia" plan announced last fall. Based on more recent information, the Department of Medical Assistance Services doesn't expect to spend as much funding for behavioral homes in FY 2016. The budget still includes $5.0 million in total funds for this initiative.)

Explanation:

(This amendment reduces $7.8 million from the general fund and $7.8 million nongeneral fund in the second year that represents the funding for Intellectual Disability and Developmental Disability waiver slots that were removed in the 2014 Session. These slots were removed because they exceeded the mandatory number required by the Department of Justice (DOJ) Settlement Agreement. While the funding in FY 2015 was removed, the FY 2016 funding was not. This funding was added in the introduced budget assuming the requirement to pay overtime would take effect. Explanation:

(This amendment reduces $4.8 million the first year and $9.5 million the second year from the general fund and a corresponding increase in the Health Care Fund to reflect a revised estimate of tobacco tax revenues that are deposited to the Health Care Fund. This estimate assumes tobacco tax projections will remain at the level collected in FY 2014. Explanation:

(This amendment adds language directing the Department of Medical Assistance

Services to survey and assess the costs for providers to participate in the Commonwealth Coordinated Care program, a demonstration program involving the care of individuals dually eligible for the Medicare and Medicaid programs. When the program was implemented, many long-term care providers contracted with managed care plans to provide coordinated services to this population. Explanation:

(This amendment provides authority for the Department of Medical Assistance Services to increase payments to Medicaid managed care organizations to allow Eastern Virginia Medical School (EVMS) to receive federally funded Physician Supplemental Payments from serving enrollees in the Virginia Medicaid Managed Care Program. Explanation:

(This amendment modifies the definition of eligibility criteria for the Medicaid Alzheimer's Assisted Living waiver to more broadly define eligible individuals that may be served by the waiver program. Currently, eligibility criteria for the waiver set forth in the Virginia Administrative Code defines those eligible as individuals with a diagnosis of Alzheimer's or a related dementia, however, it does not recognize the similar needs of individuals with other types of dementia. Explanation:

(This amendment reverses an action in the introduced budget to move $400,000 from the general fund the first year to the second year. The Settlement Agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice required the Commonwealth to provide $800,000 for rental subsidies for current individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities receiving waiver services. One-half of the funding was moved to the second year to ensure the subsidies are on-going, however existing budget language already allows this funding to be carried forward into the second year for this purpose.)

Explanation:

(This amendment alters the funding methodology used to distribute funds to Child Advocacy Centers (CACs) which has become outdated due to a substantial growth in CACs and a shift in the number of CACs from associate membership to accredited membership. The proposed change anticipates continued growth of satellite centers which are not supported by the current formula. The proposed formula (i) provides incentives for National Children's Advocacy Accreditation; (ii) eliminates pitting one CAC against another; (iii) eliminates subjective criteria; and (iv) provides fairness in distribution.)

(This amendment provides $3,461,000 and 32 positions the second year from nongeneral funds for combatting cigarette trafficking, pursuant to Senate Bill 1230, as recommended by the Crime Commission. Senate Bill 1230 also creates a new licensure process for the sale of tobacco at the wholesale and retail levels, and transfers the regulation of the distribution of cigarettes and other tobacco products from the Department of Taxation to the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. A companion amendment reduces the Department of Taxation budget by $361,000 GF to reflect the transfer of this responsibility to ABC. A second companion amendment to Item 3-1.01 in Part 3 of this Act reduces the transfer of nongeneral funds from ABC to the general fund by $361,000, which enables ABC to spend an equal amount of nongeneral funds on tobacco enforcement. This amount, $361,000 NGF, is included in this amendment. A third companion amendment to the Revenue Page reflects the reduction in the ABC transfer for operational efficiencies. These amendments are contingent upon the passage of Senate Bill 1230.)

"D.1. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the funds appropriated in this Item be expended primarily for activities involving the licensing of alcoholic beverage manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers and the enforcement of administrative regulations. The authority to enforce the criminal laws of the Commonwealth granted pursuant to Section 4.1-105, Code of Virginia, should only be exercised ancillary to such administrative enforcement.

2. Not later than 90 days after enactment of this Act, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall formulate and begin to implement a plan to effect the following: (a) an increase in the number of administrative inspections conducted at licensed premises; (b) an increased review and analysis of the reports filed by mixed beverage licensees, and an increase in the number of audits to insure compliance with the food-to-beverage ratio required of such licensees; and, (c) an increase in specialized industry compliance services provided to the manufacturing and wholesale tiers of the alcoholic beverage industry. Copies of the plan shall be forwarded to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Committee on General Laws and Senate Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services.

3. Not later than June 30, 2016, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall report to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Committee on General Laws and Senate Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services on its progress on implementation of the plan."

Explanation:

(This amendment expresses the intent of the General Assembly that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control should concentrate its enforcement efforts on the administrative regulation of the alcoholic beverage industry, and requires a plan within 90 days of the enactment of this Act and a report by June 30, 2016, to address this concern. From fiscal year 2009 to 2014 the number of annual licenses issued by the department has increased ten percent from 16,503 to 18,171, and the number of special agents has increased by a similar percentage from 90 to 100. However, the number of administrative inspections over the same period has declined over 14 percent, from 10,346 to 8,884 inspections. A similar concern exists with respect to the enforcement of the food-to-beverage ratio required of mixed beverage restaurants, so it is also the intent of this amendment that the department should significantly increase its inspections and audits of the annual reports submitted by mixed beverage licensees.)

"P.1. The Department of Corrections shall develop and issue a Request for Proposals for the comprehensive management and provision of health care services for all inmates confined in DOC facilities statewide. This RFP shall focus on identifying health care quality management models that use best practices and cost containment methods employed by prison health care management and Medicaid managed care organizations in delivering provider-managed and outcome-based comprehensive health care services. These services shall include consolidated management and operational responsibility for delivering all primary and speciality care, nursing x-ray, dialysis, dental, medical supplies, laboratory services, pharmaceuticals, as well as all off-site care, case management and related services. Specific information shall be sought on (1) determining how existing state-funded managed care networks can be leveraged; (2) identifying federal health care funding opportunities, including Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), or other funding sources; (3) identifying the state-of-the-art in care coordination, quality management, utilization review, audit, and fraud control; and (4) identifying innovative correctional health care management systems being used or developed in other states. A report summarizing the responses to the Request for Proposals and estimating the potential long-term savings from the approaches identified in the responses shall be provided to the Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security, the Directors of the Departments of Planning and Budget and Human Resources Management, and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees, by September 15, 2015."

2. The Department of Corrections shall cancel and reissue the Request for Proposals dated August 4, 2014, for the delivery of inmate health care. The revised RFP shall provide that the contractor shall assume full financial risk for the payment of off-site (out-of-prison) inpatient as well as outpatient services, and claims processing and payment. The benefit of any Medicaid or other third-party reimbursement for hospital or other services shall accrue to the contractor. A report summarizing the results of the new Proposals shall be presented to the Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security, the Directors of the Departments of Planning and Budget and Human Resources Management, and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees by September 15, 2015.

3. The Department shall prepare a report on steps required to separate the Department from reliance on a private contractor as of July 1, 2016, for the delivery of inmate health care at multiple facilities, and to provide the same services internally using either state employees or individual contract medical personnel. The Department of Human Resources Management and the Department of Planning and Budget shall provide technical assistance to the Department as needed. In preparing this report, the Department shall assume that it shall have flexibility as needed to adjust salary schedules, work schedules, and other factors as needed in order to offer competitive compensation packages to recruit and retain qualified health care professionals. A report on the costs and benefits of internal state operation of inmate health care services shall be presented to the Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security, the Directors of the Departments of Planning and Budget and Human Resources Management, and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees by September 15, 2015."

Explanation:

(This amendment directs the Department of Corrections to provide three reports concerning the provision of inmate health care. These reports would be available to the Governor and the General Assembly prior to a final decision by the department on extending the current interim contract for inmate health care. The first of the three reports would contain the preliminary results of a Request for Proposals for the comprehensive management of inmate health care statewide for all facilities for the department. The second report would contain the results of new Proposals to be submitted in response to a new RFP to replace the August 4, 2014 Request for Proposals for inmate health care at certain DOC state facilities. The third report would provide cost estimates for DOC to provide inmate health care internally without a private contractor.)

3. Senate Bills 1230 and 1231 ($50,000)".

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the language concerning the Corrections Special Reserve Fund. The introduced budget included $150,000 for the projected corrections bedspace impact of three proposed bills which required a deposit into the Corrections Special Reserve Fund, but these three bills were not adopted by the Senate. This language allocates the $150,000 which was included in the introduced budget to reflect the fiscal impact of Senate Bills 1056, 1188, 1230, and 1231, which were adopted by the Senate. Senate Bills 1230 and 1231 contain identical criminal penalties for the purchase of cigarettes using a forged business license, a business license obtained under false pretenses, or a forged or invalid Virginia sales and use tax exemption certificate obtained under false pretenses. For this reason, one deposit of $50,000 is made to account for the same change in criminal penalties for both Senate Bill 1230 and Senate Bill 1231. Accordingly, for each of the four bills this amendment provides the required deposit into the Corrections Special Reserve Fund.)

Included in this amount are the costs associated with classified employees of institutions of higher education.

2. As provided in paragraph O of this Item, $22,100,000 shall be used to support the general fund portion of costs associated with a three percent cost of living base adjustment for all state supported local employees and Constitutional officers effective September 1, 2015.

Q. The Department of Human Resources Management shall increase the maximum salaries for each band within the Commonwealth's Classified Compensation Plan by three percent on July 1, 2015. No salary increase shall be granted to any employee as a result of this action.

R. 1. The Director of the Department and Planning and Budget shall transfer amounts to affected agencies and institutions of higher education as necessary.

2. The Director of the Department of Planning and Budget shall administratively increase nongeneral fund appropriations as required to implement the base budget adjustment.

S. As provided in paragraph O of this Item, $14,364,608 shall be provided to increase faculty salaries at institutions of higher education by the equivalent of two percent effective August 10, 2015. Institutions may award the salary increase on the basis of merit so as not to exceed an average of two percent at each institution each year.

T. Except as provided elsewhere in this act, the following agency heads, at their discretion, may implement the provisions of new or existing performance-based pay plans effective July 1, 2015 in lieu of other pay actions which may be authorized within this Item.

1. The heads of agencies in the Legislative and Judicial Departments;
2. The Commissioners of the State Corporation Commission and the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission;
3. The Attorney General;
4. The Director of the Virginia Retirement System;
5. The Director of the State Lottery Department;
6. The Director of the University of Virginia Medical Center;
7. The Executive Director of the Virginia College Savings Plan; and,
8. The Executive Director of the Virginia Port Authority. "

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $84.3 million in the second year in support of the general fund share of a three percent cost-of-living adjustment for state and state supported local employees.)

A. Subject to the conditions set out in Paragraph C of this Item, the Virginia Public Building Authority (VPBA), pursuant to § 2.2-2260 et. seq., Code of Virginia, is authorized to issue bonds or notes in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $67,000,000 plus amounts to fund related issuance costs, and other financing expenses in accordance with § 2.2-2260 et. seq., Code of Virginia.

B. For the purpose of certifying the availability of state matching funds to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, the amount authorized above provides state support estimated at $33,000,000 for the Hampton Roads Veterans Care Center and $34,000,000 for the Northern Virginia Veterans Care Center. Federal funding is currently estimated at $60,618,036 for the Hampton Roads Veterans Care Center and $62,979,796 for the Northern Virginia Veterans Care Center.

C. Any issuance of bonds pursuant to this Item is contingent upon certification from the Virginia Department of Veterans Services to the State Treasurer and the Director, Department of Planning and Budget that a federal grant or grants have been awarded for the Hampton Roads Veterans Care Center and/or the Northern Virginia Veterans Care Center projects. Upon that same certification, the Director, Department of Planning and Budget shall appropriate up to the amounts provided above the allocable authorizations related to bond proceeds and federal grant funds to the Virginia Department of Veterans Services so that the project or projects may proceed without further action by the Commonwealth, in accordance with 38 CFR 59.50 and 38 CFR 59.70(b)."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding of $67.0 million in VPBA bond proceeds for the Northern Virginia and Hampton Roads Veterans Care Centers. The projects had previously been prospectively funded with treasury loans until such time as federal matching funds became available for construction.)

Explanation:

(This language amendment would allow $1.5 million to be reimbursed for planning funds related to an Advanced Manufacturing Apprentice Academy Center (AMAAC) and four Regional Centers of Excellence. A federal grant is to be obtained for this purpose and previous budget language authorized $25 million in bond proceeds as a potential state contribution upon receipt of the federal grant, as certified by the Virginia Economic Development Partnership (VEDP) and the Commonwealth Center for Advanced Manufacturing (CCAM). Reimbursement would occur once a federal grant is received for this purpose.)

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2015

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Leonard N. Smith, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Arlington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, thank You for the cherished opportunity to congregate in this historic chamber today. We do so with a spirit of gratitude and humility.

Thank You for the life we are afforded to live, and the liberty we are privileged to enjoy in our great country and Commonwealth.

At the start of this new day of deliberations and decisions, we pray that You will give our state Senators the personal and corporate grace to once again conduct the affairs of Virginia with dignity and discipline.

Although the affairs of the day will be conducted within the confines of this chamber, we pray that the walls that surround our leaders will not confine their thinking, nor that their view of the broader community will be restricted.

Give to these distinguished men and women a heart to help, hands to heal, a mind to serve, and the will to be the negotiators of transformation and not the protectors of the past.

Give to each Senator the humility to serve, the grace to forgive and an unconditional love for others. Help them to love people more than their position, and value their oath more than political opportunities.

Let their decisions always be guided by justice, equality and fairness and not party politics or personal bias. Don't allow these leaders to become unresponsive to the pain and plight of people of every race, nationality, religion, gender, and political persuasion.

God, keep these ladies and gentlemen from becoming intoxicated by the hype of their public office, to the point that they ignore the hazards of their office.

Protect and preserve each legislator and their families from cruel constituents, petty politicians, and malicious journalists who desire to misinterpret their action and destroy their character.

I pray that You help each Senator to be mindful of their personal human frailties, so that they will not seek to expose or exploit the frailties of their colleagues.

Finally, help us all to embrace our right to be human but never forget our moral mandates and the ethical expectations that govern our lives.

This we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators Dance and Howell notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Howell, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--32. NAYS--5. RULE 36--0.

YEAS--Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Norment, Obenshain, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton--32.

President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Travis Witt, Evington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God in heaven and Comforter on earth, on this President's Day, February 16, 2015, in the year of our Lord Christ, may each Senator of the Commonwealth of Virginia remember the words of our third President, Thomas Jefferson who said, "God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God? Indeed I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that His justice cannot sleep forever."

May we today also acknowledge Black History Month, started in 1926 by Virginian Carter Woodson to preserve the stories of families and black heroes and celebrated in February to acknowledge the birthdays of two famous Americans, Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. May each Senator in this chamber remember and consider practicing the words of Frederick Douglass when they vote on or debate any bill. "I have but one great political idea, that idea is an old one....Nevertheless, it is very generally trampled on and disregarded. The best expression of it I found in the Bible. It is in substance—righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people....This constitutes my politics....I feel it is my duty to do all in my power to infuse this idea into the public mind, that it may be practiced."

And finally, may the Senators find gratitude in the words of another President from Virginia, James Madison. "No people ought to feel greater obligations to celebrate the goodness of the Great Disposer of Events and of the Destiny of Nations than the people of the United States; ... and to the same Divine Author of Every Good and Perfect Gift we are indebted for all those privileges and advantages, religious as well as civil, which are so richly enjoyed in this favored land..."

In the mighty name of the Redeemer of Mankind, Jesus Christ, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Stuart, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--32. NAYS--4. RULE 36--0.

YEAS--Alexander, Barker, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Dance, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougale, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton--32.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Honorable A. Donald McEachin, Henrico, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Creator God, we gather today as we have each day of this session to do the people's business. I ask that You bless each Senator gathered here. Give each of us the wisdom to do what is in the best interest of the people of Virginia.

We ask a special blessing for Toddy and Louise. We acknowledge You as the greatest of physicians. Bless them and restore their health.

We thank You for this special place we call Virginia. We have no doubt that You were thinking about us when You planted that very first dogwood tree. We love our sweet Virginia breeze.

Continue to bless this land and indeed all of Your creation. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2015

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Joan S. Parrott, First Baptist Church Hampton, Hampton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God, You who are our refuge and strength, a very present help in the time of trouble: God of Abraham and Sarah; God of Hagar and Ishmael; God of Isaac and Rebecca; God of Jacob and Leah and Rachel; God of Moses, Miriam and Aaron; God of Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Archbishop Oscar Romero and Mother Teresa; God of Martin and Coretta and Malcolm and Betty; God of us all; God of every good and perfect thing; we have come to say thank You!

We thank You for giving us another beautiful day, one more opportunity to get it right. We thank You for Your amazing grace, abounding forgiveness and unlimited mercy.

We ask You to forgive us. Forgive us when we have forgotten where You have brought us from.

Forgive us when we have been conceited, selfish and self-centered, and deaf to the voices of others and unkind to those who do not share our opinions. Help us!

Please help us! Help us to be concerned about what You are concerned about, and grieved by what makes You cry. Let all of the “words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight.” Grant us the wisdom, courage and strength to care for the most vulnerable and disenfranchised in our society. Help us to see things through Your kaleidoscopic lens of love. Fill our hearts with Your compassion so that we may feed, clothe, and provide shelter for those who are in need.

In all of our deliberations and legislations, let us remember what Prophet Micah told us that You require, “to love kindness, to do justice and walk humbly with our God.” Please help us to consistently do Your will.

Help us to remember the many oaths that we have taken and be faithful in our relationships, marriages, offices, obligations and assignments. Help us always to serve in love, with our whole hearts, souls, and minds. And we will be so grateful to give You the glory, honor and praise, forevermore.

In the name of the One who said, “My strength is made perfect in your weakness;” to the Sovereign One who “restores our souls, and makes us lie down in green pastures;” to the Indivisible One who said, “Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God;” to our Way-maker, who “has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and a sound mind;” in the name of everything that is right, just, honorable, pure, excellent and holy. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Colgan, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Lewis, Locke, Marsden, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Howell notified the Clerk of her presence.

On motion of Senator Smith, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

Amendments

to

Senate Bill 800

(as Introduced)

Senate Finance Committee

February 10, 2015

Introduction

This document contains the Senate Finance Committee's amendments to Senate Bill 800, as introduced, the amended Budget Bill for the 2014-16 biennium. The amendments are presented in order of Revenue Estimates, Operating Expenses, Capital Outlay, Miscellaneous Provisions and General Provisions.

For ease of review, the amendments are listed sequentially by bill part, and by bill item number. A brief explanation of the purpose of each amendment is also provided.

Increased or (decreased) appropriations are drawn to the item amounts shown in the "appropriation" column in Senate Bill 800. Fund sources are designated either General Fund (GF) or Nongeneral Fund (NGF). Resulting changes in the subprogram level and fund source are reflected when the bill is enrolled.

Please feel free to contact the Senate Finance Committee staff at 698-7480 should you need additional information on these amendments.

Language

Language:

Page 26, line 6, after "the deposit of all" insert "Commonwealth".

Page 26, line 7, strike "Item 43" and "Item 44" and insert "Item 40" and "Item 41".

Page 26, line 8, strike "45" and "Item 46" and insert "42" and "Item 43".

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the procedures for the deposit of local fines and fees into the State Treasury. A companion amendment to Section 3-6.05 of this act removes local fees from the calculation of the amounts to be returned to the Literary Fund and provides that one-half of the amount by which local fines and forfeitures exceed 65 percent of total collections be returned to the Literary Fund. This amendment provides that only the state collections are to be deposited into the State Treasury. The current language requires that all local collections be deposited into the State Treasury, which in turn requires that checks for the local amounts not transferred to the Literary Fund be sent back to the localities. The intent of this amendment is to eliminate that administrative expense.)

Language

Language:

- Page 81, following line 38, insert:
"K. The Department of Forestry shall evaluate the cost and feasibility of providing retirement credits for special forest wardens who participate directly in extinguishing forest fires. As part of this evaluation, the Department shall consider a methodology for the calculation of creditable hours for direct participation in extinguishing a forest fire. In determining cost, retirement credits can be used to offset not more than five years of service for participation in an unreduced service retirement allowance. Each month of service would be eliminated at the rate of one month for each 173 hours of retirement credit. In no case should creditable service or compensation be allowed for the retirement credits.

In conducting the evaluation, the Department of Human Resources Management and Virginia Retirement System shall provide all required technical assistance. The Department of Forestry shall provide this report to the Governor and the chairmen of the House Committee on Appropriations and the Senate Committee on Finance not later than October 1, 2015."

Explanation:

(This amendment directs the Department of Forestry to evaluate both the potential costs and funding options for providing up to five years of creditable service for individuals directly engaged in forest fire suppression efforts.)
