JOURNAL OF
THE SENATE

2009 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend J. Brooke Willson, Shady Grove United Methodist Church, Mechanicsville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Lord of all, this Senate convenes in troubled times. The people these Senators represent worry that the hopes and dreams for which they have worked so long and so hard may disappear. With every job lost, every pension diminished, every mortgage foreclosed, every business failed, Your people see their futures darken. Your people, Lord, are crying for courage, for leadership, and for sacrifice for the sake of the common good. Pour out Your Spirit on this Senate for that holy work. Raise them above ideology and politics to true statesmanship. Give them grace to work together to heal the deep hurts of our Commonwealth. Give them strength for the task, health for the journey, compassion for the lost, and the good humor that makes odious tasks bearable. Lead them, O Lord, so they may lead us well in turn. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Blevins, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Locke, Lucas, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, Miller, J.C., Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stolle, Stosch, Stuart, Ticer, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

Finally, we thank You now in advance today for a great day on tomorrow; a day in which Your word will be heard and witnessed like never before. Clerk of the Senate

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Dr. Brian Autry, Parkway Baptist Church, Moseley, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Patrick Henry said that he revered You above all earthly kings. So as a citizen of Your Kingdom I pray on behalf of these elected leaders serving on behalf of my fellow citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Just across the Potomac River, we witnessed yesterday one of our fellow Americans make history. For the 44th time we have been blessed to see the peaceful transition of presidential power. As we recognize that You are the one who gives us great dreams, these lawmakers pause in prayer before You the giver of life to praise You and thank You for blessing this land in so many ways.

We are reminded that You have said, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." George Washington reminded us in his farewell address that morality and faith are the pillars of our society.

You have said, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." We pray for racial reconciliation, economic recovery, moral renewal, and most of all, I pray for spiritual revival.

As we strive to form a more perfect union, we confess that we are imperfect sinners in need of Your forgiveness.

Dear Lord, these Senators have a serious agenda before them.

Lord, I pray that these Senators will not just debate what is right, but do what is right. I pray that they will:

Seek not to be just popular, but prudent.

Submit not just to political platforms, but Your principles.

Serve not just their own good, but for Your glory.

Strive not in fear, but by faith.

From Bristol to the Beach,

From Emporia to Alexandria,

From Pennington Gap to Petersburg,

From the Roanoke Valley to the Rappahannock River,

From the Appalachians to the Atlantic,

All across this place we call Virginia, may we seek Your face, and give thanks for Your grace.

I submit this prayer to You, the all knowing, ever-present, and most powerful God, in the name of Christ my Lord and Savior. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, Miller, J.C., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stolle, Stosch, Stuart, Ticer, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

Almighty God—Dear precious Lord, Bless this Assembly. Gathered here before You Lord are men and women who have as their duty and task—the care of widows and orphans, the care and comfort of the poor and needy, and also the needs of this Your Commonwealth.

As You have blessed us through ages past, bless us again this day.

Grant those before You with Your wisdom and Your discernment in all their deliberations and votes.

Calm their anxieties; quiet their hearts. Give them Your peace as they consider the weighty issues before them.

You alone, O God, know our needs, our wants, and desires. Let them know the difference in their decisions this day and always.

May we always be warmed by Your presence and Grace. Amen.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Gerry Creedon, St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, Arlington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

“I shall announce Your justice to the vast assembly.” Psalms.

God, our Creator, from whom we draw life and breath, preserve us from the over reaching pride of Adam in all our choices that we might respect Your creation and reverence Your dominion over human life and dignity in every circumstance.

Lord of the widow, the orphan and the stranger, show us the ways to protect the poor, the homeless and the vulnerable in the best of times and in the worst of times.

God of justice, help us heed the words of our new president, “The nation cannot prosper long when it favors only the prosperous.” As the nation, so the state.

May we learn from the fiscal crisis that avarice is sinful and damaging to the common good.

Give us the courage O God, to banish from Virginia usury and greed in all of its forms.

Spirit of love; encourage us who live in the Old Dominion to build a new dominion of justice for friend and stranger and a house where all may dwell in peace.

This we ask in the name of the Living God. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Blevins, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, Miller, J.C., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stolle, Stosch, Stuart, Ticer, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

As we gather today, we recognize, honor, and are thankful for Your presence with us on this very special occasion. Our earnest prayer is that You will abide with this assembly of servants as they gather to do what is in the best interest of those whom You have created in Your image here in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Because we are, in reality, one bundle of common humanity, bless us to be thankful for the uniqueness that each of us brings to these important proceedings. Bless those among us who are entrusted with the awesome task and the special blessing of legislative stewardship, toward the end that they will allow You to guide them in their deliberations and decisions.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Bill Shuler, Capital Life Church, Lorton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, As we bow our heads in prayer, we ask that You will honor us with Your presence. In these times of uncertainty may we be certain of You. Grant our new President, Barack Obama, Your grace in his first days in office. Let his leadership be marked by faith, wisdom, courage, health and compassion.

God, teach us in the coming crucial days not simply to acknowledge You but to, with our hearts, trust and serve You. May the Commonwealth of Virginia, our nation and world be a better place because of these Your servants who gather here today. May they honor the office they hold and serve well the nation that they love. Remind each that, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Refresh these Senators. Help them to have a vision of a world that is not yet but ought to be. Make their goals clear, their hearts brave and their actions resolute. Grant them integrity and purpose in their generation. May their daily duties translate into better lives for those they serve. Reward their hard work. Bless their families and staffs.

We pray these things in honor of the one who binds up the broken hearted and proclaims liberty to the captives. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 2009

The Senate met at 11:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Ernest R. Cornwell, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

I come to you in the name of Almighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, hear our prayer, O Lord, for You know our down sitting and up rising and understand our thoughts afar off, shield and defend us from the evil intentions of our enemies and support us under the trials and afflictions we are destined to endure while traveling through this vale of tears. You have promised that where two or three are gathered together in Thy name You will be in their midst and bless them. In Thy name we assemble and humbly beseech Thee to bless us in all our lawful undertaking; we recognize Thee as the Creator and Majestic Power of all the Universe, that even the clouds are but dust under Your feet, the giver of all good gifts and graces and the Author of everlasting life. My prayer is, Lord, through this hour be Thou our guide and by Thy power no foot shall slide. Thou knowest Lord man's sinful state, the source of human woe, his evil heart, his greed and hate, but whither can he go? We are reminded that justice will sooner or later overtake us and although our thoughts, words, and actions may be hidden from the eyes of men. Yet that all seeing eye whose all pervading intelligence the SUN, MOON, AND STARS OBEY, and under whose watchful care even the comets perform their stupendous revolutions pervades the inmost recesses of the human heart and reward us according to our merits. Yet, O Lord, have compassion on the children of Thy creation, administer them comfort in the time of trouble and save them with an everlasting salvation. It is my earnest prayer that when the trials of this probationary state are over we find an entrance through the gates into the City and Temple of our God. Amen.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Oran E. Warder, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

I invite you into a time of silence so that we may be still and know God's presence in our midst ...

As we ask God's blessings upon your work on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia, I pray in the words often attributed to George Washington:

Almighty God, You have given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech You that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy Name we entrust the authority of government, praying especially for those gathered here, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to Your law, we may show forth Your praise among the peoples of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in You to fail; all which we ask through Your most holy name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Blevins, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, Miller, J.C., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stolle, Stosch, Stuart, Ticer, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

Rabbi Devorah Lynn, Beth Sholom Temple, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

We praise You, Makor Habracha, Everflowing Source of All Blessing, for the bounty that You have given this nation, for the gifts You have bestowed upon this Commonwealth of Virginia, and for the wisdom and skills You have brought into this assembly today.

The meaning of our invocation is to bring a Sacred Power, a Holy Energy, a Divine Purpose to this hall of justice and mercy.

We ask the Eternal One to enter our hearts, to be present in each and every one of us in this Senate Chamber, so that we may humbly be the voice of those we represent and the willing hands to act with inspired intention.

We thank You, Source of Righteousness, for this opportunity, as the psalmist wrote, that allows “loving kindness and truth to meet, justice and well being to kiss, so that truth may spring up from the earth and justice look down from heaven”. (Psalm 85)

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Mikel Pugh, Chatham Presbyterian Church, Chatham, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Holy Lord, As this assembly gathers to deliberate the various and complex matters of this day, allow Your Spirit to surround them and guide them through the many trials which are before them. May their hearts be led by Your love, and may their minds be inspired by Your wisdom. May their decision be just and compassionate. And may their hopes be focused upon Your will. Lord, grant that they may find common ground to come to agreements and in dispute may respect and mutual concern rule. May ideas and the objects of others be listened to and dwelled upon so all may be heard. Grant that Thy Spirit may move each Senator in their pursuit to serve those who elected them but may Your purposes be accomplished for You alone are righteous and You alone are glorified. Allow peace to dominate the proceedings of this day and every day so that all may know that You alone are Lord.

We pray these things in the hope and promises of Your glory. Amen.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Canon Dr. Alonzo C. Pruitt, St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God,
Creator and Sustainer,
Great Architect of the Universe,

In every era so beneficently bestowed since creation, You have been the source and substance of good.

Grant, O Great and Dear One, that we may be aligned with good, regardless of popularity, partisan politics, or past positions.

From the heart of this Mother of Presidents, O Source of All Being, we ask Your blessing upon the President of the Senate of Virginia, upon each of the members and staff, upon the Governor of this Commonwealth, and upon all our people.

And if in mere hours, our nation's President will address the country on matters of grave importance, may the deliberations and legislation designed here, always address Your concern for the well being of all, and for the moral, spiritual, economic, and human rights with which we have been so graciously endowed.

In this time of war, we pray for peace, and we ask a blessing upon the men and women of the United States military and their families, and especially upon those who hail from this Old Dominion, for whom we have a love that is ever new.

In this time of relative scarcity, we pray for an abundance of courtesy and compassion, that our choices might reflect Your will, and the wisdom which makes us one. Amen.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2009

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Terre Balof, Unitarian Universalist Community Church, Glen Allen, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Loving Creator, As Your beloved children, we come to You, calling Your name in the faiths that sustain us, committed to religious freedom that is part of our heritage. We ask Your blessing upon the people of this great Commonwealth that reaches from the mountains in the west to the Eastern Shore. We understand that our lives are interwoven in an interdependent web of existence and that the challenges that face some, affect us all. There is much work to be done, beginning in this chamber to sustain the lives of all Virginians. We ask that the lawmakers here today remain focused on the sacred trust that has been granted them by the people of this Commonwealth, that they may shape policies and laws for the state with humility and wisdom for the greatest common good. May they be willing to stand aside from propositions, partisanship and personal agendas that fail to uphold the inherent worth and dignity of all Virginians. May they commit themselves to work collaboratively to seek the highest good for the welfare of Virginia's citizens. We ask Your blessing for the employees of this Commonwealth. May they feel honored and respected for the work they do as they put into practice laws passed for the good of the people—whether their job is in an office, cleaning a building or caring for the citizens of Virginia. In this difficult time in this nation's history, we ask for endurance, forbearance, and creativity, as well as a commitment to work together to find a way through these challenging days. We ask Your blessing on all the people of Virginia—our elders, our diverse families, our children, our workers, our poor and homeless. May each of us commit ourselves to strive to create a Beloved Community within this Commonwealth where all citizens are honored for their worth and dignity and may all Virginians receive that which is sufficient for a fulfilled life.

We ask this in the name of all that is Sacred. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Blevins, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, Miller, J.C., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stolle, Stosch, Stuart, Ticer, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2009

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Mark Mason, Wave Church, Virginia Beach, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we come to You today in humble adoration, acknowledging our dependence upon Your continued favor and mercy. It is with awesome reverence and hopeful expectation that we seek Your blessing on our efforts.

We pray that You would grant us the same fortitude and undaunted courage shown by the many pioneers and patriots who have gone before us. May we be just as willing and just as determined to make the sacrifices necessary for the cause of liberty and justice.

Give us eyes that see adversity as opportunity; and, ears that hear Wisdom's subtle call in every deliberation.

Uphold us in our weakness and remind us continually that You are our source of strength and You are the One who has called us and appointed us for the duty we embrace today.

Now, O God, we begin anew trusting that You will guide us in directing the affairs of this citizenry. Let Your hand rest upon each and every leader in this chamber and may Your favor continue to fall upon the families and the communities of this great nation and great Commonwealth of Virginia. Amen.

Richmond, Virginia 23219-2334

February 12, 2009

Honorable Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate of Virginia
Patrick Henry Building, Room 2010
Richmond, VA 23219

Dear Ms. Schaar:

Section 17.1-511 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, provides that whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of any court of record, the vacancy shall not be filled until, after investigation, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the filling of the vacancy is or is not necessary. Judge William H. Shaw, III., Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, will retire on April 30, 2009, thereby creating a vacancy in the office of judge of that circuit.

The Ninth Judicial Circuit serves the Counties of Charles City, Gloucester, James City, King and Queen, King William, Matthews, Middlesex, New Kent, and York and the cities of Poquoson and Williamsburg. The General Assembly has authorized nine circuit court judgeships for that circuit. The estimated 2007 population of the circuit was 235,987. Based on the information contained in the enclosed report, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the vacancy should be filled in the manner prescribed by law.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Leroy Rountree Hassell, Sr.

The reading of the communications was waived.

The communications were referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

"A. The Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall collect a registration fee of $22.00 beginning July 1, 2009, and continuing through June 30, 2010, for each weights and measures device used by all entities that are subject to weights and measures regulation pursuant to Chapter 56 of Title 3.2 of the Code of Virginia. All such fees collected shall be used solely for the administration of the weights and measures program.

B.1. The Board of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall promulgate a regulation that will be effective July 1, 2010, establishing a schedule of fees to fund the state weights and measures program administered by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and to fund the motor fuels and lubricating oils program. In developing the regulation, the Board shall seek input from representatives from local government, private sector organizations and the public. The regulation adopted by the Board shall provide the Department sufficient resources to support the program and protect the public without placing an undue regulatory burden on the private sector. In establishing an inspection fee for each type of device, the Board shall consider such factors to include, but not limited to, projected workloads such as total number of devices subject to regulation, the types and complexity of devices inspected, the frequency of inspection, sampling and testing costs, and cost containment strategies. The Board shall also consider the size and annual sales volume of businesses as a factor in establishing the fees.

2. The provisions of the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000, et seq.) shall not apply to the adoption of any regulation pursuant to subsection B.1. Notwithstanding any exemption to the contrary, a regulation adopted pursuant to subsection B.1 shall be subject to the requirements set out in §§ 2.2-4007.03, 2.2-4007.04, and 2.2-4007.05, and shall be published in the Virginia Register of Regulations. After the close of the 60-day comment period, the Board may adopt a final regulation. Such regulation shall become effective 15 days after the publication in The Virginia Register, unless the Board has withdrawn or suspended the regulation, or a later date has been set by the Board. The Board shall also hold at least one public hearing on a proposed regulation during the 60-day comment period. The notice of such public hearing shall include the date, time and place of the hearing.

3. Effective July 1, 2010, fees for the inspection of all weights and measures devices shall be collected by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services in accordance with the regulation established pursuant to subsection B.1.

4. Should the Board’s regulation be suspended for any reason, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall collect an annual registration fee of $22.00, continuing until the Board’s regulation becomes effective or is reinstated, for each weights and measures device used by all entities that are subject to weights and measures regulation pursuant to Chapter 56 of Title 3.2 of the Code of Virginia.

C. The Board shall also conduct an analysis of the cost and benefits of privatization of the weights and measures program. This review shall include an analysis of private sector interest and capacity, as well as the ability to ensure adequate consumer protection through a privatized weights and measures inspection program. The analysis shall also consider the ability of the Board to license and certify private sector weights and measures inspectors. The Board shall provide a report on this review to the Governor and the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, the House Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources, the Senate Finance Committee, and the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources by November 1, 2009.”

The Department of Corrections, in cooperation with the Virginia Sheriffs' Association, the Virginia Association of Regional Jails, the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys, and the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission, shall develop a pilot program in selected probation and parole districts, in cooperation with selected local and regional jails. The purpose of the pilot program is to expand the utilization of electronic incarceration programs for nonviolent, lower-risk offenders who have been sentenced by a court to a combination of jail and electronic incarceration, pursuant to Senate Bill 1540 of the 2009 Session of the General Assembly. For purposes of this program, nonviolent offenders are those defined as such, pursuant to Section 17.1-805 of the Code of Virginia for purposes of the felony sentencing guidelines, and lower-risk offenders are those assessed as such, pursuant to the risk assessment instrument promulgated by the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission.

2. “A.1. Effective July 1, 2009, the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Office will cease as an agency and the activities will become effective as the Division of Enterprise Applications, headed by the Chief Applications Officer, under this program.

2. Effective July 1, 2009, the amounts provided in this item include funding for the Division’s operation and projects currently under the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Division (VEAP). The Information Technology Investment Board will not budget any amounts for these projects from revenues it receives from billings or overhead which it charges to other agencies for services, unless it can clearly demonstrate that the project benefits the Commonwealth and is recoverable under Federal overhead guidelines.

3. On July 1 and January 1 of each year, the CAO shall report and recommend to the Chief Information Officer and the Information Technology Investment Board the processes reviewed and the data standards established and adopted in § 2.2-2033, Code of Virginia. The CAO shall report every six months to the Governor and the Information Technology Investment Board progress in the areas the division is responsible for implementing and any agencies and institutions that have not cooperated with the implementation.

B. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law except the limitations imposed by § 2.2-518, § 2.2-4803 and § 2.2-4806, Code of Virginia, Executive Department agencies and institutions may enter into management agreements with CGI Technologies & Solutions, Inc. (CGI) for debt collection and cost recovery services pursuant to Statements of Work 6 and 7 of the Enterprise Applications Master Services Agreement between the Commonwealth of Virginia and CGI. Work on enhanced collections and recoveries shall not proceed if they commit the Commonwealth to expanding or significantly altering any existing federal or state program without the review and approval of the Governor and General Assembly.

2. Moneys resulting from enhanced collections and cost recoveries pursuant to this item shall be held in the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund as established by §2.2-2023, Code of Virginia.

C. Nothing in this item shall prevent Executive Department agencies or institutions from committing resources to support the coordinated efforts of the CAO. Such agency commitments shall be detailed in the CAO’s quarterly reports to the Information Technology Investment Board.

D. Effective July 1, 2009, the working capital advance established for the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Office (VEAP) is hereby brought forward to this item to cover up to $30,000,000 for expenditures from anticipated revenues from enhanced collections and cost recoveries to be collected pursuant to this item and will be deposited to the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund. The repayments of any such working capital advance shall be made from such enhanced collections and cost recoveries. No funds derived from this working capital advance shall be expended without the prior budget approval of the Information Technology Investment Board and the Secretary of Finance. The CAO shall inform the Governor, the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees of the anticipated use.

E. The Department of Planning and Budget shall not take any administrative actions to reduce these amounts without notification to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees.

F. The Information Technology Investment Board shall work with the Secretaries of Technology and Finance to close any projected differences between budgeted funds and projected costs by reducing costs within affected agencies for decentralized services through changes in transformation planning, applications services, and information technology contract support. The Information Technology Investment Board shall report to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees on these efforts by October 1, 2009.”

All such fees collected shall be used solely for the administration of the weights and measures program.

B.1. The Board of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall promulgate a regulation that will be effective July 1, 2010, establishing a schedule of fees to fund the state weights and measures program administered by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and to fund the motor fuels and lubricating oils program. In developing the regulation, the Board shall seek input from representatives from local government, private sector organizations and the public. The regulation adopted by the Board shall provide the Department sufficient resources to support the program and protect the public without placing an undue regulatory burden on the private sector. In establishing an inspection fee for each type of device, the Board shall consider such factors to include, but not limited to, projected workloads such as total number of devices subject to regulation, the types and complexity of devices inspected, the frequency of inspection, sampling and testing costs, and cost containment strategies. The Board shall also consider the size and annual sales volume of businesses as a factor in establishing the fees.

Such regulation shall become effective 15 days after the publication in The Virginia Register, unless the Board has withdrawn or suspended the regulation, or a later date has been set by the Board. The Board shall also hold at least one public hearing on a proposed regulation during the 60-day comment period. The notice of such public hearing shall include the date, time and place of the hearing.

3. Effective July 1, 2010, fees for the inspection of all weights and measures devices shall be collected by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services in accordance with the regulation established pursuant to subsection B.1.

4. Should the Board’s regulation be suspended for any reason, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall collect an annual registration fee of $22.00, continuing until the Board’s regulation becomes effective or is reinstated, for each weights and measures device used by all entities that are subject to weights and measures regulation pursuant to Chapter 56 of Title 3.2 of the Code of Virginia.

C. The Board shall also conduct an analysis of the cost and benefits of privatization of the weights and measures program. This review shall include an analysis of private sector interest and capacity, as well as the ability to ensure adequate consumer protection through a privatized weights and measures inspection program. The analysis shall also consider the ability of the Board to license and certify private sector weights and measures inspectors. The Board shall provide a report on this review to the Governor and the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, the House Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources, the Senate Finance Committee, and the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources by November 1, 2009.”

“G.1. The Department of Corrections, in cooperation with the Virginia Sheriffs’ Association, the Virginia Association of Regional Jails, the Virginia Association of Commonwealth’s Attorneys, and the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission, shall develop a pilot program in selected probation and parole districts, in cooperation with selected local and regional jails. The purpose of the pilot program is to expand the utilization of electronic incarceration programs for nonviolent, lower-risk offenders who have been sentenced by a court to a combination of jail and electronic incarceration. For purposes of this program, nonviolent offenders are those defined as such, pursuant to Section 17.1-805 of the Code of Virginia for purposes of the felony sentencing guidelines, including both current and prior convictions, and lower-risk offenders are those assessed as such, pursuant to the risk assessment instrument promulgated by the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission.

2. The Department shall apply to the Department of Criminal Justice Services for federal funds to support this pilot program under the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant program, from the Commonwealth’s allocation pursuant to the American Recovery and Investment Act of 2009.

3. It is the intent of the General Assembly that, consistent with public safety, at least an additional 500 nonviolent, lower-risk offenders should be placed on electronic incarceration during fiscal year 2010, and that a total of at least an additional 1,600 additional offenders should be placed on electronic incarceration in each year of the 2010-12 biennium. This pilot program may include provisions for charging fees, pursuant to Section 53.1-131.2 of the Code of Virginia, to cover all or part of the cost of the program, with due consideration for indigent offenders for whom the fee may be waived.

3. The Department shall form a task force to address the implementation of this pilot program. The task force shall provide an interim report on or before June 1, 2009, to the Secretary of Public Safety, the Chairmen of the Senate and House Courts of Justice Committees, and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees. All such fees collected shall be used solely for the administration of the weights and measures program.

B.1. The Board of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall promulgate a regulation that will be effective July 1, 2010, establishing a schedule of fees to fund the state weights and measures program administered by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and to fund the motor fuels and lubricating oils program. In developing the regulation, the Board shall seek input from representatives from local government, private sector organizations and the public. The regulation adopted by the Board shall provide the Department sufficient resources to support the program and protect the public without placing an undue regulatory burden on the private sector. In establishing an inspection fee for each type of device, the Board shall consider such factors to include, but not limited to, projected workloads such as total number of devices subject to regulation, the types and complexity of devices inspected, the frequency of inspection, sampling and testing costs, and cost containment strategies. The Board shall also consider the size and annual sales volume of businesses as a factor in establishing the fees.

Such regulation shall become effective 15 days after the publication in The Virginia Register, unless the Board has withdrawn or suspended the regulation, or a later date has been set by the Board. The Board shall also hold at least one public hearing on a proposed regulation during the 60-day comment period. The notice of such public hearing shall include the date, time and place of the hearing.

3. Effective July 1, 2010, fees for the inspection of all weights and measures devices shall be collected by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services in accordance with the regulation established pursuant to subsection B.1.

4. Should the Board’s regulation be suspended for any reason, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall collect an annual registration fee of $22.00, continuing until the Board’s regulation becomes effective or is reinstated, for each weights and measures device used by all entities that are subject to weights and measures regulation pursuant to Chapter 56 of Title 3.2 of the Code of Virginia.

C. The Board shall also conduct an analysis of the cost and benefits of privatization of the weights and measures program. This review shall include an analysis of private sector interest and capacity, as well as the ability to ensure adequate consumer protection through a privatized weights and measures inspection program. The analysis shall also consider the ability of the Board to license and certify private sector weights and measures inspectors. The Board shall provide a report on this review to the Governor and the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, the House Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources, the Senate Finance Committee, and the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources by November 1, 2009.”

For purposes of this program, nonviolent offenders are those defined as such, pursuant to Section 17.1-805 of the Code of Virginia for purposes of the felony sentencing guidelines, including both current and prior convictions, and lower-risk offenders are those assessed as such, pursuant to the risk assessment instrument promulgated by the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission.

"A.1. Effective July 1, 2009, the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Office will cease as an agency and the activities will become effective as the Division of Enterprise Applications, headed by the Chief Applications Officer, under this program.

2. Effective July 1, 2009, the amounts provided in this item include funding for the Division's operation and projects currently under the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Division (VEAP). The Information Technology Investment Board will not budget any amounts for these projects from revenues it receives from billings or overhead which it charges to other agencies for services, unless it can clearly demonstrate that the project benefits the Commonwealth and is recoverable under Federal overhead guidelines.

3. On July 1 and January 1 of each year, the CAO shall report and recommend to the Chief Information Officer and the Information Technology Investment Board the processes reviewed and the data standards established and adopted in § 2.2-2033, Code of Virginia. The CAO shall report every six months to the Governor and the Information Technology Investment Board progress in the areas the division is responsible for implementing and any agencies and institutions that have not cooperated with the implementation.

B. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law except the limitations imposed by § 2.2-518, § 2.2-4803 and § 2.2-4806, Code of Virginia, Executive Department agencies and institutions may enter into management agreements with CGI Technologies & Solutions, Inc. Work on enhanced collections and recoveries shall not proceed if they commit the Commonwealth to expanding or significantly altering any existing federal or state program without the review and approval of the Governor and General Assembly.

2. Moneys resulting from enhanced collections and cost recoveries pursuant to this item shall be held in the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund as established by §2.2-2023, Code of Virginia.

C. Nothing in this item shall prevent Executive Department agencies or institutions from committing resources to support the coordinated efforts of the CAO. Such agency commitments shall be detailed in the CAO’s quarterly reports to the Information Technology Investment Board.

D. Effective July 1, 2009, the working capital advance established for the Virginia Enterprise Applications Program Office (VEAP) is hereby brought forward to this item to cover up to $30,000,000 for expenditures from anticipated revenues from enhanced collections and cost recoveries to be collected pursuant to this item and will be deposited to the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund. The repayments of any such working capital advance shall be made from such enhanced collections and cost recoveries. No funds derived from this working capital advance shall be expended without the prior budget approval of the Information Technology Investment Board and the Secretary of Finance. The CAO shall inform the Governor, the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees of the anticipated use.

E. The Department of Planning and Budget shall not take any administrative actions to reduce these amounts without notification to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees.

F. The Information Technology Investment Board shall work with the Secretaries of Technology and Finance to close any projected differences between budgeted funds and projected costs by reducing costs within affected agencies for decentralized services through changes in transformation planning, applications services, and information technology contract support. The Information Technology Investment Board shall report to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees on these efforts by October 1, 2009.”
