RULINGS OF THE CHAIR AND PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

S.B. 817. Parliamentary inquiry on germaneness of floor amendments. Statement by the Chair. . 576
 S.B. 1018. Parliamentary inquiry as to whether recommendations Nos. 1, 2, and 6 of the Governor violated Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution. 1562
 Parliamentary inquiry restated as to whether recommendations Nos. 1, 2, and 6 of the Governor violated Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution. Statement by the Chair. 1612
 S.B. 1070. Statement by the Chair. 1570
 Parliamentary inquiry as to the procedure when the Governor had returned a recommendation in the form of an amendment in the nature of a substitute and not amendments that were specific and severable. Statement by the Chair. 1570
 Parliamentary inquiry as to the custom, usage, and practice of the Senate upon receiving a recommendation of the Governor to a bill in the form of an amendment in the nature of a substitute. Statement by the Chair. 1571
 Parliamentary inquiry as to whether bill could be referred to the standing committee, which could meet, take up for consideration and report the bill to the Senate, if the Senate determined the Governor failed to send down specific and severable amendments. Statement by the Chair. 1571
 Parliamentary inquiry as to whether the bill would have to have three readings if the Senate determined that the Governor failed to send down specific and severable amendments. Statement by the Chair. 1571
 Parliamentary inquiry as to whether motion to determine whether Governor had sent down specific and severable amendments had precedence over motion to amend the bill in accordance with the recommendation of the Governor. Statements by the Chair. . . . 1572
 Parliamentary inquiry as to whether motion calling for vote on previous question was debatable. Statement by the Chair. 1572

Parliamentary inquiry as to whether the effect of the motion to order the previous question would be to deny a vote on the substitute motion to determine whether the Governor had sent down specific and severable amendments. Statements by the Chair. 1572

Parliamentary inquiry as to whether the defeat of the motion to order the previous question would enable the Senate to vote on the substitute motion to determine whether Governor had sent down specific and severable amendments. Statement by the Chair. 1572

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 19, 2009

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Kathryn Jenkins, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we ask that you bless the leaders of our land, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to other nations of the earth.

To the President and members of the Cabinet, to Governors of States, Mayors of Cities, and to all in administrative authority, grant wisdom and grace in the exercise of their duties.

To Senators and Representatives, and those who make our laws in States, Cities, and Towns, give courage, wisdom, and foresight to provide for the needs of all our people, and to fulfill our obligations in the community of nations.

To the Judges and officers of our Courts give understanding and integrity, that human rights may be safeguarded and justice served.

And finally, teach our people to rely on your strength and to accept their responsibilities to their fellow citizens, that they may elect trustworthy leaders and make wise decisions for the well-being of our society; that we may serve you faithfully in our generation and honor your holy Name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE
MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

A message was received from the House of Delegates by Delegate Griffith, who informed the Senate that the House had agreed to H.J.R. 5004 (five thousand four), as follows; in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5004

Adjournment Sine Die.

WHEREAS, the House of Delegates and the Senate are ready to adjourn sine die; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That a committee of six on the part of the House of Delegates and four on the part of the Senate, be appointed to inform the Governor that the 2009 Special Session I of the General Assembly is ready to adjourn sine die and to inquire if he has any communication to make.

H.J.R. 5004, being of a purely procedural nature, was taken up for immediate consideration and agreed to.

Senator Saslaw was ordered to inform the House of Delegates thereof.

The President appointed Senators Colgan, Saslaw, Whipple, and Norment, the committee on the part of the Senate to inform the Governor that the General Assembly was ready to adjourn sine die and to inquire if he had any communication to make.

Subsequently, Senator Colgan, from the committee to inform the Governor that the General Assembly was ready to adjourn sine die and to inquire if he had any communication to make, reported that the committee had performed that duty.

Senator Colgan moved that the Senate adjourn sine die.

The motion was agreed to.

The President declared the Senate adjourned sine die.
