THE SENATE

2014 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Jay Kelchner, Shady Grove United Methodist Church, Mechanicsville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of us all, an invitation to this Chamber is not only a great honor, but a distinct privilege. So too, is the opportunity to serve here, keeping You as well as all Your people at heart. The voices of the women and men who have spoken here, those who have argued, convinced and conceded here still resonate within these walls and hallow this space.

And so we ask for Your divine presence and blessing upon the entirety of the General Assembly and especially upon this side of the Rotunda, the Senate. Guide the newly elected of our Commonwealth and place it upon their hearts to seek Your guidance and wisdom. Help us to remember that whether elected or chosen, appointed or hired, we are called to navigate the road of responsibility rather than exploit the pathway of privilege.

We also give You thanks for those who have served well their course in time and now are transitioning to new phases of vocation, service and leadership. Of course we ask Your grace to accompany our colleague and friend for his service as President of this Senate and pray that You will guide his path and make his way straight.

For those who remain, give them wisdom to make sound decisions. Grant them courage to take the necessary risks. Instill within them hope for the maintenance of a steadfast spirit. And inspire good humor to help them keep things in perspective. Help them to trust You so that they remain grounded in Your will and attentive to Your leading. And finally, enlighten their path as they take the next best step in leading Your people.

And so we begin. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Herring, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Smith notified the Clerk of his presence.

RULES OF THE SENATE

The President announced that the Senate was operating under the Rules of the Senate as adopted at the 2012 Session, which state, "The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules."

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received and read:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

SENATE

March 29, 2013

The Honorable Robert McDonnell
Office of the Governor
Patrick Henry Building, 3rd Floor
1111 East Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Governor McDonnell:

It is with sincere regret that I write to formally notify you of my intention to resign my seat as Senator, representing the 14th District in the Virginia Senate, effective August 5, 2013. A number of health related issues prevent me from fulfilling the responsibilities of the office and have necessitated my early departure.

I am extremely grateful and honored to have had the privilege to serve the Commonwealth for so many years.

Sincerely,

/s/ Harry Blevins

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
State Board of Elections

August 13, 2013

To The Honorable Clerk of the Senate of Virginia

Madam:

This is to certify that the State Board of Elections, upon examination of the official Abstracts of Votes on file in this office and pursuant to §§ 24.2-680 and 24.2-681 of the Code of Virginia, ascertained and determined that at the special election held on August 6, 2013 for Member of the Senate of Virginia from the Fourteenth District was duly elected for the term ending January 13, 2016, representing the Counties of Isle of Wight (part), and Southampton (part) and the Cities of Chesapeake (part), Franklin (part), Portsmouth (part), Suffolk (part) and Virginia Beach (part) to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of The Honorable Harry B. Blevins.

His certificate of election is enclosed.

Sincerely,

/s/ Donald L. Palmer
Secretary

SENATE OF VIRGINIA

December 5th, 2013

The Honorable Robert McDonnell, Governor
Commonwealth of Virginia
State Capitol
Richmond, VA, 23219

Dear Governor McDonnell,

As you are aware the citizens of Virginia have elected me as the next Lieutenant Governor of Virginia. My swearing in is to be held January 11th, 2014.

Please accept this as my letter of resignation from the Senate of Virginia, to be effective 12:00pm on January 11th, 2014. Serving the people of the 6th Senate district has been an absolute honor and pleasure and I look forward to continuing my service to the people of Virginia through the Lieutenant Governor's office in the years to come.

I would also like to thank you for your service and considerations for my district during your work as our Attorney General and Governor.

Should you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Senator Ralph S. Northam

SENATE OF VIRGINIA

December 18, 2013

Dear Governor McDonnell:

Following my election as the next Attorney General of Virginia, please accept this as my letter of resignation from the Senate of Virginia, effective 12:00 pm noon on January 11, 2014.

It has been a tremendous honor to represent the great people of the 33rd Senate District. I am excited about the opportunity to represent them and all Virginians in the important role of Attorney General of the Commonwealth.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Mark R. Herring

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received:

SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
Supreme Court Building
Richmond, Virginia 23219

April 8, 2013

Hon. Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate of Virginia
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Re: Nineteenth Judicial Circuit

Dear Ms. Schaar:

You will find enclosed herewith, in duplicate, a copy of the report of this Court and the order entered on April 8, 2013 in the matter of the vacancy in the office of judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit.

Copies of this report and order are being sent to Governor McDonnell, Mr. G. Paul Nardo and the Chairs of the Courts of Justice Committees of the House and Senate.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Patricia L. Harrington
Clerk

SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
100 North Ninth Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219-2334

April 8, 2013

The Honorable Susan C. Schaar
Clerk of the Senate
P.O. Box 396
Richmond, Virginia 23218

Dear Ms. Schaar:

Section 17.1-511 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, provides that whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of any court of record, the vacancy shall not be filled until, after investigation, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the filling of the vacancy is or is not necessary. Judge Leslie Alden, Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit, left the bench on July 31, 2012, thereby creating a vacancy in the office of judge of that circuit.

The Nineteenth Judicial Circuit serves the County of Fairfax and the City of Fairfax. Based on the information contained in the enclosed report, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the vacancy should be filled in the manner prescribed by law.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Cynthia D. Kinser

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Monday the 8th day of April, 2013.

A vacancy having occurred in the office of judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit by the retirement of Judge Leslie Alden, and the Court, pursuant to section 17.1-511 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, having secured information concerning the volume of business in the said circuit, is of opinion, for reasons stated in writing in the form of a report to the Governor and to the General Assembly of Virginia and filed herewith, that the amount of business of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit makes the filling of the vacancy necessary. Accordingly, the Court doth certify that there is a necessity for filling the vacancy in the manner provided by law.

And it is ordered that a copy of this order, together with a copy of the report referred to above, be certified to the Governor of Virginia and to the General Assembly of Virginia.

A Copy,
Teste:

/s/ Patricia L. Harrington
Clerk

The reading of the communications was waived.

The communications were referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION

A message was received from the House of Delegates by Delegate Cox, who informed the Senate that the House had agreed to H.J.R. 106 (one hundred six), as follows; in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 106

Notifying the Governor of organization.

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That a committee be appointed, composed of six on the part of the House of Delegates and five on the part of the Senate, to notify the Governor that the General Assembly is duly organized and is ready to receive any communication he may desire to make.

H.J.R. 106, being of a purely procedural nature, was taken up for immediate consideration and agreed to.

Senator Norment was ordered to inform the House of Delegates thereof.

The President appointed Senators Stosch, Norment, McDougle, Saslaw, and McEachin, the committee on the part of the Senate to inform the Governor that the General Assembly was duly organized and ready to receive any communication he may desire to make.

Senator Stosch, from the committee to inform the Governor that the General Assembly was duly organized and ready to receive any communication he may desire to make, reported that the committee had performed that duty and that the Governor would be pleased to address a joint assembly of the legislature.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

A message was received from the House of Delegates by Delegate Cox, who informed the Senate that the House had agreed to H.J.R. 17 (seventeen); in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate:

H.J.R. 17. Providing for certain Joint Assemblies, establishing a schedule for the conduct of business coming before the 2014 Regular Session of the General Assembly of Virginia, and providing for legislative continuity between the 2014 and 2015 Regular Sessions of the General Assembly.

H.J.R. 17 was taken up, read by title the first time, and referred to the Committee on Rules.

A message was received from the House of Delegates by Delegate Cox, who informed the Senate that the House had agreed to H.J.R. 18 (eighteen); in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate:

H.J.R. 18. Establishing a schedule for the conduct of business for the prefiling period of the 2015 Regular Session of the General Assembly of Virginia.

H.J.R. 18 was taken up, read by title the first time, and referred to the Committee on Rules.

IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION

Senator McDougle moved that the Rules be suspended, the Committee on Rules be discharged from further consideration of H.J.R. 17 (seventeen), the second reading of the title be waived, and the joint resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

The motion was agreed to.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--40. NAYS--0. RULE 36--0.

YEAS--Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Herring, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins--40.

NAYS--0.

RULE 36--0.

H.J.R. 17 was read by title the third time.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 17

Providing for certain Joint Assemblies, establishing a schedule for the conduct of business coming before the 2014 Regular Session of the General Assembly of Virginia, and providing for legislative continuity between the 2014 and 2015 Regular Sessions of the General Assembly.

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly shall meet in joint session in the Hall of the House of Delegates on Wednesday, January 8, 2014, at such time as specified by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to receive the Governor of Virginia, and such address as he may desire to make, and that the rules for the government of the House of Delegates and the Senate, when convened in joint session for such purpose, shall be as follows:

Rule I. At the hour fixed for the meeting of the Joint Assembly, the Senators, accompanied by the President and the Clerk of the Senate, shall proceed to the Hall of the House of Delegates and shall be received by the Delegates standing. Appropriate seats shall be assigned to the Senators by the Sergeant at Arms of the House. The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall assign an appropriate seat for the President of the Senate.

Rule II. The Speaker of the House of Delegates shall be President of the Joint Assembly. In case it shall be necessary for the Speaker to vacate the Chair, the President of the Senate shall serve as the presiding officer.

Rule III. The Clerk of the House of Delegates shall be Clerk of the Joint Assembly and shall be assisted by the Clerk of the Senate. The Clerk of the Joint Assembly shall enter the proceedings of the Joint Assembly in the Journal of the House and shall certify a copy of the same to the Clerk of the Senate, who shall enter the same in the Journal of the Senate.

Rule IV. The Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeepers of the House shall act as such for the Joint Assembly.

Rule V. The Rules of the House of Delegates, as far as applicable, shall be the rules of the Joint Assembly.

Rule VI. In calling the roll of the Joint Assembly, the names of the Senators shall be called in alphabetical order, then the names of the Delegates in like order, except that the name of the Speaker of the House shall be called last.

Rule VII. If, when the Joint Assembly meets, it shall be ascertained that a majority of each house is not present, the Joint Assembly may take measures to secure the attendance of absentees, or adjourn to a succeeding day, as a majority of those present may determine.

Rule VIII. When the Joint Assembly adjourns, the Senators, accompanied by the President and the Clerk of the Senate, shall return to their chamber, and the business of the House shall be continued in the same order as at the time of the entrance of the Senators; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the General Assembly shall meet in joint session in the Hall of the House of Delegates on Saturday, January 11, 2014, at such time as specified by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to receive distinguished guests, and then proceed to the inaugural platform to witness the administration of the oath of office to the Attorney General-elect and the inauguration of the Lieutenant Governor-elect and the Governor-elect, and that the rules for the government of the House of Delegates and the Senate, when convened in joint session on that day, shall be the same as previously provided for the Joint Assembly; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the General Assembly shall meet in joint session in the Hall of the House of Delegates on Monday, January 13, 2014, at such time as specified by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to receive the Governor of Virginia, and such address as he may desire to make, and that the rules for the government of the House of Delegates and the Senate, when convened in joint session for such purposes, shall be the same as previously provided for the Joint Assembly; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this resolution and in accordance with the practices of each house, a request to be added as a co-patron shall be received prior to the first vote on the passage of a bill or agreement to a joint resolution or, if the bill or joint resolution is not reported from committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation. A request to be removed as a co-patron shall be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, February 28, 2014; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That any joint resolution creating or continuing a study shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in each house and any resolution creating or continuing a study shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in the respective house; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That any member offering for introduction a bill or joint resolution not submitted to the Division of Legislative Services for drafting is encouraged to submit an electronic version no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day the legislation is introduced; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That for purposes of the procedural deadlines established herein for the 2014 Regular Session of the General Assembly:

“Budget Bill” means the general appropriation bill introduced in each house that authorizes the biennial expenditure of public revenues for the period from July 1, 2012, through June 30, 2014, or July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2016.

“Debt bill” means any bill that authorizes the issuance of debt.

“Legislative day” means the period of time that begins with the call to order by the presiding officer and ends when declared adjourned by the presiding officer. Unless another time is specified, any deadline established in this resolution shall expire at the end of the legislative day.

“Prefiled legislation” means any bill or joint resolution requested from the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, December 6, 2013, and prefiled no later than 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 8, 2014, or any bill or joint resolution not requested from the Division of Legislative Services and prefiled no later than 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 8, 2014.

“Revenue bill” means any bill, except the Budget Bill(s) and debt bills, that increases or decreases the total revenues available for appropriation, including any sales tax exemption bill.

“Unanimous consent” means the affirmation of all the members present in the house of origin. Any legislation intended to be offered for introduction with unanimous consent or with the written request of the Governor shall not require the consent of the house in order for the member to request the Division of Legislative Services to draft such legislation. The Division of Legislative Services shall return such legislation after the original introduction deadline.

“Virginia Retirement System bill” means any bill that amends, adds, repeals, or modifies any provision of any retirement system established in Title 51.1 of the Code of Virginia; and, be it

RESOLVED FINALLY, That the 2014 Regular Session of the General Assembly shall be governed by the following procedural rules, which establish introduction limits and time limitations for elections and for all legislation prefiled and introduced for the 2014 Regular Session except:

House and Senate resolutions, except for the time limitations established in Rules 20 and 22;

Bills and joint resolutions affecting the rules of procedure or the schedule of business of the General Assembly, either of its houses, or any of its committees;

Bills and joint resolutions introduced with unanimous consent either to exceed the introduction limits established in Rule 1 or to exceed the time limitations established in Rules 2, 3, 5, 17, and 22;

Joint resolutions confirming appointments subject to the confirmation of the General Assembly;

Joint commending and memorial resolutions, except for the time limitations established in Rules 15 and 17;

Bills and joint resolutions regarding elections held by the General Assembly during the 2014 Regular Session; or Bills and joint resolutions requested in writing by the Governor.

Rule 1. After the deadline for filing prefiled legislation established by House Joint Resolution No. 570 (2013), no member of the House of Delegates shall introduce more than a combined total of five bills and joint resolutions and no member of the Senate shall introduce more than a combined total of eight bills and joint resolutions.

Rule 2. No bill or joint resolution creating or continuing a study shall be offered in either house after adjournment of that house on Wednesday, January 8, 2014.

Rule 3. No Virginia Retirement System bill shall be offered in either house after adjournment of that house on Wednesday, January 8, 2014.

Rule 4. Except for bills and joint resolutions required to be requested earlier, requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any bill or joint resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, January 10, 2014.

Rule 5. No later than Monday, January 13, 2014, each house shall begin its consideration of any election to fill a seat (i) due to the expiration of a term of a judge; (ii) currently held by a justice or judge serving under a pro tempore appointment of the Governor pursuant to Section 7 of Article VI of the Constitution of Virginia; (iii) currently held by a judge serving under a pro tempore appointment of a circuit court pursuant to § 16.1-69.9:2 of the Code of Virginia; (iv) currently held by a member of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission, State Corporation Commission, or Judicial Inquiry and Review Commission; and (v) currently held by the Auditor of Public Accounts. In the event that the houses cannot agree on any such election before Tuesday, January 14, 2014, such election shall become the subject of a special and continuing joint order in each house, and such special and continuing joint order shall have precedence over all other business of either house, until such time as both houses reach agreement on such election or agree to hold it at another specific time. The Rules of each house, as far as applicable, shall be the rules governing any such election.

Rule 6. Except for bills required to be filed earlier, no bill or joint resolution shall be offered in either house after 3:00 p.m., Friday, January 17, 2014.

Rule 7. No later than Thursday, January 23, 2014, the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System shall submit, in accordance with § 30-19.1:7, impact statements for all Virginia Retirement System bills filed by the first day of session. For any Virginia Retirement System bill filed later than the first day of session, the Board of Trustees shall use due diligence in preparing the impact statement in time for review by the standing committees.

Rule 8. The committees responsible for the consideration of revenue bills in the houses of introduction shall complete their work on such bills no later than midnight, Tuesday, February 11, 2014.

Rule 9. Except for the Budget Bill(s) and revenue bills, beginning Wednesday, February 12, 2014, the House of Delegates shall consider only Senate bills, Senate joint resolutions, House bills with Senate amendments, and House joint resolutions with Senate amendments; the Senate shall consider only House bills, House joint resolutions, Senate bills with House amendments, and Senate joint resolutions with House amendments; and each house may consider conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto to the end that the work of each house may be disposed of by the other.

Rule 10. The houses of introduction shall complete their consideration of all revenue bills, except for conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto, no later than Friday, February 14, 2014.

Rule 11. The committees responsible for the consideration of the Budget Bill(s) in the houses of introduction shall complete their work on such bill(s) no later than midnight, Sunday, February 16, 2014, and any amendments proposed by such committees shall be made available to their respective houses no later than noon, Tuesday, February 18, 2014.

Rule 12. The houses of introduction shall complete their consideration of the Budget Bill(s), except for conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto, no later than Thursday, February 20, 2014.

Rule 13. The committees responsible for consideration of revenue bills of the other house shall complete their consideration of such bills no later than midnight, Tuesday, February 25, 2014.

Rule 14. No later than midnight, Wednesday, February 26, 2014, each house shall complete consideration of the Budget Bill(s) and all revenue bills of the other house, except for conference reports and other privileged matters relating thereto, and the appointing authority shall appoint the conferees to such bills.

Rule 15. Requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any joint commending or memorial resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, February 28, 2014.

Rule 16. The first conference on any revenue bills shall complete its deliberations no later than midnight, Saturday, March 1, 2014, and the report of such conference shall be made available to all members of the General Assembly no later than noon, Monday, March 3, 2014.

Rule 17. No joint commending or memorial resolution shall be offered in either house after 5:00 p.m., Monday, March 3, 2014.

Rule 18. Beginning Tuesday, March 4, 2014, neither house shall receive from any committee any bill or joint resolution acted on by any committee later than midnight, Monday, March 3, 2014.

Rule 19. No later than Tuesday, March 4, 2014, each house shall begin consideration of joint resolutions to fill any existing or pending vacancy on (i) the Supreme Court of Virginia, (ii) the Court of Appeals of Virginia, (iii) any circuit or district court of the Commonwealth, (iv) the State Corporation Commission, (v) the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission, (vi) the Judicial Inquiry and Review Commission, and (vii) the Auditor of Public Accounts. In the event that the houses cannot agree on the filling of any such vacancy before Wednesday, March 5, 2014, such vacancy shall become the subject of a special and continuing joint order in each house, and such special and continuing joint order shall have precedence over all other business of either house, until such time as both houses reach agreement or either house votes to suspend or discharge the order. The Rules of each house, as far as applicable, shall be the rules governing the filling of any such vacancy.

Rule 20. Requests for the drafting, redrafting, or correction of any single-house commending or memorial resolution shall be submitted to and received by the Division of Legislative Services no later than 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, March 4, 2014.

Rule 21. Any conference committee on the Budget Bill(s) shall complete its deliberations and make the report of such conference available to the General Assembly as soon as practicable. Neither house shall consider such conference report earlier than 36 hours after receipt, unless both houses respectively determine to proceed earlier by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting in each house. No engrossment of the Budget Bill(s) shall be required in either house, and any conference on the Budget Bill(s) shall consider, as the basis of its deliberations, the Budget Bill(s) as recommended by the Governor and introduced in the House and the amendments thereto proposed by each house.

Rule 22. No single-house commending or memorial resolution shall be offered in either house after 5:00 p.m., Thursday, March 6, 2014.

Rule 23. Except for joint resolutions affecting the rules of procedure or the schedule of business of the General Assembly, beginning Friday, March 7, 2014, the House shall consider only Senate joint resolutions and House joint resolutions with Senate amendments; the Senate shall consider only House joint resolutions and Senate joint resolutions with House amendments; and each house may consider conference reports or joint resolutions and other privileged matters relating thereto, to the end that the work of each house may be disposed of by the other.

Rule 24. This session of the General Assembly shall adjourn sine die no later than the legislative day of Saturday, March 8, 2014.

Rule 25. Pursuant to Section 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, the General Assembly shall reconvene Wednesday, April 23, 2014, for the purpose of considering bills that may have been returned by the Governor with recommendations for their amendment and bills and items of appropriation bills, including the general appropriation act, that may have been returned by the Governor with his objections.

Rule 26. Pursuant to Section 7 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, legislative continuity is hereby provided for between sessions occurring during the terms for which members of the House of Delegates are elected, in conformity with the Rules of the House of Delegates and the Rules of the Senate.

Rule 27. The conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any House committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, and any interim study commission created pursuant to a House measure shall be governed by the Rules of the House of Delegates; the conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any Senate committee, any joint subcommittee of Senate and House committees, and any interim study commission created pursuant to a Senate measure shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate. If a House measure and a Senate measure create the same study, the conduct of business of the study shall be governed by the rules of the house of the chairman of the study, or in the case of co-chairmen, the rules of the house as agreed upon by the co-chairmen.

Rule 28. Interim meetings of any standing committee, joint committee, joint subcommittee, legislative commission, or any other interim study subcommittee or study commission shall be held on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday during the first and third full weeks of the month, unless otherwise authorized by the Speaker of the House of Delegates or the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Rules, as may be appropriate for the house in which the chairman serves.

Rule 29. Any staff member assigned to work for, and support the efforts of, any committee of the House or Senate, any subcommittee of any such committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, or any interim study commission shall work under the direction of the chairman of such committee, subcommittee, joint subcommittee, or interim study commission.

Rule 30. The standing committees of the General Assembly shall complete their consideration of all legislation continued by them from the 2014 Regular Session no later than midnight, Wednesday, December 3, 2014.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 9, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

Almighty and eternal God, in Your kindness, You bring all that is good into creation. Guide our elected officials and grant them wisdom, so that people may continue to enjoy the blessings of life and liberty which You envisioned, especially here in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Lord, You guide and govern everything with order and love. Bless this assembly. Fill them with the spirit of Your goodness so they may always act according to Your will, and their decisions may be for the greater good of all the people they serve.

God of justice, it is through You that authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment is decreed. Assist with Your spirit of counsel and fortitude the legislators of this Commonwealth. May they always seek the ways of righteousness, justice and mercy. Grant them courage, that they may enact public policies with honesty and integrity.

Move the hearts of all our elected officials to fulfill their sacred duty worthily and well. Help them to extend the mantle of protection to our most vulnerable residents, and to uphold the values of life, and liberty for all.

We ask all this as we ask everything, in Your great name. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Nicholas G. Bacalis, Saints Constantine & Helen Greek Orthodox Cathedral, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and Merciful Lord, we thank You for the beginning of our 2014 Legislative Session. We thank You for those who have faithfully served in this august chamber.

We ask for Your blessings upon our Presiding Officer Lt. Governor Bill Bolling and our retiring Senator Harry Blevins as they make their transitions.

We pray for Senators Ralph Northam and Mark Herring as they assume the responsibilities of their new roles.

We thank You for preserving Senator Creigh Deeds through his tragedy and pray that the flaws in the system may be corrected.

We further pray for Your guidance as we face the issues that affect the citizens of the Commonwealth.

Guide us in our deliberations, grant us wisdom, understanding, and the fortitude to stand up for what is right and not to succumb to partisan politics.

Bless those who serve in the various capacities that guide the functioning of our Senate.

For You are the One who blesses and sanctifies all, and to You we offer glory and thanksgiving, to the ages of ages. Amen.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 2014

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Wallace Adams-Riley, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Holy and Living God, You have made us, Your daughters and Your sons, in Your image and just as You bless us, You call us to bless one another.

On this important day in the life of our Commonwealth, as we prepare to inaugurate the 72nd Governor of Virginia, we pray for these Your servants, the Senators of Virginia and for all our elected leaders.

We pray, Lord, that You stir the imaginations and the spirits and the hearts of these men and women, that You would lift them up to new heights in their leadership and in their service, helping them to see and know things that they have never before seen and known. Give them the wisdom and the courage and the humility to find that common ground to which You summon us.

We pray in the name of a God who calls us to justice and to greatness. A greatness not of a worldly sort but a greatness of the heart, a greatness of the spirit.

We pray this for the sake of all Your children, for the sake of all Virginians. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

The Reverend Beverly Ashburn, Pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, Newport News, led the Joint Assembly in the following invocation:

Most gracious God our Father we come thanking you for this day you created and we rejoice in. Thanking you Lord for allowing us to be witnesses to this inaugural ceremony of the 72nd Governor-Elect of Virginia Terry McAuliffe, Lieutenant Governor-Elect Ralph Northam, and Attorney General-Elect Mark Herring.

We pray Lord as we celebrate the swearing-in of our elected officials that you will grant unto them your divine wisdom.

As Terry, our other elected officials, and the General Assembly embark on this new journey, lead and guide them when they are faced with difficult situations and circumstances. Let them as David did look to the hills from which cometh their help knowing that their help will come from The Lord.

Help them to remember you are the source that is dependable

You are the advocate that is understanding

You are the counselor that is wise.

We pray Lord that you would bless and protect our first family, Dorothy McAuliffe, Peter, Sally, Mary, Jack and Dori along with the families of all our elected officials.

Lord we ask your blessings and guidance upon Governor-Elect McAuliffe's cabinet, with elected and appointed leaders, and General Assembly that they may work in harmony for the common good of the citizens of this great Commonwealth of Virginia.

Governor McAuliffe, Lieutenant Governor Northam, and Attorney General Herring as I close this prayer may the Lord bless and keep you. May The Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; may The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give you peace. In Jesus' name I offer this prayer. Amen.

United States Naval Academy Midshipmen John S. McAuliffe, Logan M. Burchett, Keaton G. Dille, George R. Jamison, and Colin A. Jester led the Joint Assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The Chiefs and Representatives of Virginia's Indian Tribes performed a ceremony recognizing the Honorable Terence R. McAuliffe as the 72nd Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia and blessing the Capitol grounds with best wishes for a successful administration and stronger ties between Virginia's indigenous people and the Commonwealth.

Rabbi Jack Moline of Agudas Achim Congregation, Alexandria, offered the following benediction:

Author of liberty, Power that has made and preserved us a nation,

Bring down your blessings upon this Commonwealth, on our new Governor, our new Lieutenant Governor, our new Attorney General, on all who exercise just and rightful authority, on their families who sustain them, on their constituents who rely upon them, on the heroes proved in liberating strife who protect them and who protect us.

Accept our gratitude for those who complete their service on this day.

Guardian, Well-spring of creation,

We stand today on the parted shores of history, aware of our receding past, uncertain of what lies ahead tomorrow.

Awaken us to this new day.

Disturb us by what we have yet to repair in this broken world.

Thrill us by our accomplishments and thus inspire us to join with Governor McAuliffe in seeking the promise of our first families and our most recent arrivals.

Let our hearts be filled with compassion, our thoughts be steeped in wisdom, and our will-power strengthened with confidence to see our elders sustained, our children nurtured, and people of every age and circumstance, from the Blue Ridge to the Chesapeake, standing on common ground for Virginia.

You who are called by a multitude of names, bring down your blessings on these dear people who shoulder this burden for us all, keep us in life, sustain us and enable us to reach such moments as these.

Amen.

On motion of the Senator from Arlington, Senator Favola, one thousand copies of the Governor's address were ordered to be printed as Senate Document No. 1B.

On motion of the Senator from Franklin, Senator Stanley, the Joint Assembly adjourned sine die.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Journal of the House of Delegates in relation to the address of the Governor to the Joint Assembly on January 11, 2014.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Antonio O. Clinkscales, Mount Tabor Baptist Church, Milford, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

All wise and eternal Father, thank You for Your sufficient grace and endless mercy that affords us the opportunity to be a part of Your day; a day for us to rejoice and to be glad for all of Your many blessings.

I ask for Your abundant blessings upon the elected officials of this Body who are involved in purposeful work under the high honor of serving the great citizens of the entire Commonwealth with decisions that are divinely inspired by You and are beneficial to all in this wonderful State.

Grant each servant leader:

- Wisdom to govern amid differences in opinion and method
- A sense of welfare for the true needs of the people
- A keen thirst for justice
- A continued confidence to stand for righteous
- Personal peace and joy that will sustain them not only throughout today, this year's session, or their tenure BUT until their earthly assignment is complete.

Individually and collectively we petition You, our unifying Father, let the forward agenda be Your agenda that transcends party lines and meets the core of human betterment that brings prosperity and peace from the Tidewater to the foothills and to everywhere in between.

It's in Your name I pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Ralph S. Northam
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Lawrence R. Chottiner, Salisbury Presbyterian Church, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and Eternal God, we pause to offer to You our thanks for the blessings of this day; the gifts of life and light, of common cause and of distinguishing differences, and of the hope that ignites within our spirits the desire to find the way forward into the days that lie ahead. For the decisions of this day that will become the architects of our future, we pray that You inspire wisdom and compassion; that the guiding vision, that dream of our ancestors to create a land of freedom and peace, a land where all might pursue the exercise of their talents and time, might be realized through all that is said and done here.

Gracious God, You stand with us, even when we fail to see You. Be in the midst of these men and women, called to serve this Commonwealth that through them all people might be able to say, "well done."

And now come and be near to all, O God, and to each give what is needed; for this prayer is offered in Your holy name and to Your praise and glory. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Jeanne Pupke, First Unitarian Universalist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of many names and God beyond all meaning, receive our humble prayer.

We acknowledge Your blessing upon all of Virginia and ask You to forgive us the times when we have momentarily forgotten the abundance You have placed before us.

We recommit ourselves to trust in Your goodness and in the goodness of our people.

Let our service be worthy of Your gifts to us. And, may Your wisdom be upon us, our Governor, our Lieutenant Governor, the officials and all those who serve our Commonwealth. When difficult decisions are before them grant them both intelligence, mercy and strength to further their collaboration.

And we pray that You continue to bless this Senate body with the vision for a future that secures happiness for all citizens, now and in generations to come.

May their efforts help lead our state ever toward a greater equality, prosperity and peace.

We offer this prayer in humility and gratitude.

Let the people say, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2014

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Teresa McRoberts, Shady Grove United Methodist Church - Short Pump, Glen Allen, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of Justice and Mercy, we gather this morning under the power of Your Spirit as those who would be leaders of the Commonwealth of Virginia and followers of Your divine will.

We thank You that You have called each Senator here for his or her appointed work and pray that their discourse is characterized by respect for one another and that their deliberation is filled with wisdom and discernment.

In a time when fear and doubt, distrust and anxiety lurk and threaten the order of our society, we recognize the need for integrity and incorruptibility in our leaders and in their work. Where power struggles and divisiveness would detract from development, growth and productivity for our Commonwealth, we pray for Your will for the promotion of human dignity and life-sustaining community. We ask that You bless and consecrate the work of this body, so that the reports and actions of those gathered here are for the common good and to Your glory.

We ask this blessing for the lawmakers present here, for those who are tending to their business elsewhere, for our Lieutenant Governor Ralph Northam, for our Governor, Terry McAuliffe and for all the staff and volunteers who see to the details of leading Virginia during this session and in the future weeks and months. May the Senators and the staff who support them be authentic representatives of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and may all of us be agents of Your justice and mercy. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Michael Grooms, Rainbow Forest Baptist Church, Troutville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Thou Eternal God, out of whose absolute power and infinite intelligence the whole universe has come into being, we humbly confess that we have not loved Thee with our hearts, souls and minds, and we have not loved our neighbors as Christ loved us.

We have all too often lived by our own selfish impulses rather than by the life of sacrificial love as revealed by Christ. We often give in order to receive. We love our friends and hate our enemies. We go the first mile but dare not travel the second. We forgive but dare not forget.

And so as we look within ourselves, we are confronted with the appalling fact that the history of our lives is the history of an eternal revolt against You. But Thou, O God, have mercy upon us. Forgive us for what we could have been but failed to be. Give us the intelligence to know Your will. Give us the courage to do Your will. Give us the devotion to love Your will. In the name and spirit of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

A quorum was present.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Gernard E. Reed, Mulberry Baptist Church, Emmerton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God and our Heavenly Father, we praise and magnify Your Holy, righteous, tremendous, perfect, Almighty and Everlasting Name. We praise You as the God who sits high and looks low; God who opens doors which no man can shut and shuts doors which no man can open.

We present ourselves to You as empty pitchers before a filled fountain; ready for reproof, and for correction and for instruction in righteousness; with Your word hidden in our hearts that we may not sin against You.

O Lord, we thank You for this day of perfect sunrise, overcast skies and forecast of snow. We thank You for Your manifold blessings, and the arduous task of this Senate. We, likewise, thank You for our health and strength, provisions and livelihood.

We beseech You, O Lord, in Your wise providence to guide us in our conversation, association and deliberation. Please, O Lord, clear our minds and direct us to perform our awesome task on behalf of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Humbly submitted by Your servant on behalf of many servants through Your vessel. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend H. Carson Rhyne, Jr., Presbytery of the James, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of us all: Protestant, Jewish, Catholic, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, unbelievers,
We give You praise, honor, and glory.

Remind us as leaders of this Commonwealth that You are our God.

Instill in us the attitude of being servants for You and the great people of this Commonwealth.

Remind us we are here to serve You and our people, not a party or an ideology.

Remind us we do not have all the answers and can learn from one another.

Remind us to look beyond our own personal desires and the next election.

Remind us who we serve and why.

So much to remember and so much to do. We exist only by Your grace, and we govern only by Your grace. Forgive our foibles and shortcomings. Therefore we shall give praise and honor where it belongs—to You and not to ourselves.

Thank You, O God. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Bruce A. Gray, Richmond Fire Department, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

In his Benediction at President Obama's Second Inauguration, the Reverend Luis Leon called to mind the Prophet Micah, who said:

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness and always walk humbly with God?

Gracious God, may Your presence inspire and give courage to the members of the Senate of Virginia as they meet to conduct the business of the Commonwealth.

May they be guided always by the principles of justice for all people—rich and poor; black, white, Asian, Native American, Hispanic; male and female; gay and straight—to support those who have power and those who have none. May they seek true justice for all the people of our state.

May their love of kindness be shown by their compassion for those who have serious needs; who work hard, but don't have enough food or other necessities of life; who don't have a safe place to live or a place to call home; who know all kinds of violence in their lives; and those who suffer from mental illness.

May those who meet here in the Senate during this session, know that they have the power to do good, but know that to accomplish that good they need to walk humbly with one another even when they disagree; let genuine humility be at the center of their lives and their work.

Loving God, let Your blessing be upon these Senators (and the staff members who support their work, and the student pages), that they may do justice; love kindness; walk humbly together with You and with each other, so that they may serve the common good. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Deeds, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--33. NAYS--5. RULE 36--0.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend James L. Porter, McKendree United Methodist Church, Manquin, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we give You thanks for all of the blessings You have poured out upon all of us this past year, and though it has been a difficult time for many of our citizens, we ask and believe that You will bless our country and the Commonwealth of Virginia in 2014.

We thank You that we live in a country and a state where our leaders are elected by a majority of the people rather than selectively chosen by only a few.

We thank You for our elected leaders, and we ask that You give them the wisdom to enact legislation that will enable our citizens to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Please bless this delegation and help everyone here to aspire to the highest ideals of their own personal faith as well as to the high ideals of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Let there be a spirit of mutual cooperation in this chamber that crosses every boundary so that the will of the people will be carried out for the mutual benefit of all of our citizens.

Please bless this day as we ask for Your guidance on so many important issues, and help us remember to respond to Your graciousness by giving You all of the praise and glory. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Willard Maxwell, Jr., New Beech Grove Baptist Church, Newport News, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty Creator, we give thanks for the United States and its government. We hold up in prayer before You the men and women who are in positions of authority. We pray and intercede for the President, the Representatives, the Senators, the judges of our land, the policemen and the policewomen, as well as the governors and mayors, and for all those who are in authority over us in any way. We pray that Your spirit rests upon them.

We believe that skillful and godly wisdom has entered into the heart of our President, Senate, and Congress. Discretion watches over them; understanding keeps them and delivers them from self-centered decisions.

God, we ask that You compass our government with men and women who make their hearts and ears attentive to godly counsel and do what is right in Your sight. We pray that You cause them to be men and women of integrity who hear Your voice concerning this great nation and lead us to the best of their abilities. We pray that the upright shall dwell in our government and push the agendas that are best for Your people, and not agendas born out of selfish ambition and personal gain.

We thank You, God, for these men and women who are assembled here today, that are called to lead our state of Virginia. We ask that You bless this meeting with a spirit of collaboration and cooperation and dismantle and annihilate all spirits of competition, dissension, and strife. We pray that this meeting is effective, productive, and edifies not only our great state of Virginia, but also our nation. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

The Chair ruled that the Senate was operating under the general rules of parliamentary procedure.

RULES OF THE SENATE INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 26

Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the following are adopted as the Rules of the Senate to supersede all previous Rules of the Senate:

RULES OF THE SENATE

I.

Presiding Officer.

1. The presiding officer of the Senate shall be the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth as the President of the Senate in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

2 (a). There shall be elected by the Senate, ~~on the first day of the session following the election of the Senate,~~ a President pro tempore who shall ~~serve for a term of four years thereafter continue in office until another is chosen~~ and be a senior member in the Senate.

2 (b). In the event of the absence, disability or vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall carry out the duties of the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer. Further, the President pro tempore shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate.

2 (c). The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open session, or if he is absent, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

2 (d). In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, or whenever the powers and duties of the Governor shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall have the right to name, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer during his absence; and the Senator so named shall have the right to name, in open session, or in writing, if he is absent, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

3. The presiding officer, after taking the Chair pursuant to these Rules, and a quorum being present, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The reading of the Journal may be waived by a majority of those Senators present and voting. The reading of the Journal may be waived at a reconvened session of a special session by at least two members present and voting, only if there is no business to consider in accordance to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia. Any errors in the entries shall be corrected, and the Journal being found correct, shall be signed by the presiding officer for that day and the Clerk of the Senate. The Journals, when so signed, shall be the official records of the proceedings of the Senate.

4. If any question is put upon a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall state the same without argument.

II.

Membership, Attendance, and Adjournment.

5. A member of the Senate shall be a Senator elected to represent one of the 40 senatorial districts. A majority of Senators shall constitute a quorum to do business; two may adjourn, and nine may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. However, not less than 16 may meet by proclamation of the Governor under the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution. At a special session or a reconvened session of a special session when there is no business to consider in accordance with Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia, two members may convene the Senate, dispense with the reading of the Journal, recess or adjourn the Senate.

6. No Senator shall absent himself from the service of the Senate without leave.

III.

The Pages.

7. The Senate shall elect 11 Pages representing each of the Congressional districts and five Pages shall be appointed by the following: one by the Lieutenant Governor; one by the President pro tempore; one by the chair of the caucus of the majority party; one by the majority leader; and one by the minority leader. The Pages shall be no less than 13 and no more than 14 years of age at the time of election or appointment, shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall be elected or appointed for a term of one year. No Page shall be eligible for reelection. Any such Page so elected or appointed may be suspended or dismissed for cause by the Clerk of the Senate.

IV.

The Clerk of the Senate.

8 (a). A Clerk of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate for a term of four years and shall thereafter continue in office until another is chosen. The oath of office shall be administered to the Clerk of the Senate by any person qualified by law to administer oaths. If a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Senate occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, a successor shall be elected by the Committee on Rules to serve until the first day of the next session, at a meeting to be called by the Chair, or in his absence or inability to act, the next senior member of such Committee able and willing to do so. At least five days notice by certified mail of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given all members of the Committee, and, at such meeting, the person receiving the votes of a majority of the members present and voting shall be elected to fill the vacancy.

8 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of the public seal and design of armorial bearings of the Senate.

8 (c). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of all records and papers of the Senate and the Clerk shall not suffer any such records or papers to be taken from the Clerk's desk or out of the Clerk's custody by any person except the Chair or the clerk of a Committee, or any Senator on taking receipts for same. Amendments agreed to by the Senate shall be handled only by the Clerk of the Senate, or staff members designated by the Clerk.

8 (d). It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to refer all bills and resolutions to the appropriate standing Committee or the Committee on Rules as provided in these Rules. If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing committee or the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

8 (e). The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list of the Senators in order of seniority. Seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the Senate. However, if a Senator has previous interrupted service in the Senate, then the beginning date of such previous Senate service shall qualify the Senator for seniority before those Senators elected at the same time not having previous service in the Senate, and if a Senator has previous service in the House of Delegates then seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the House of Delegates and shall qualify the Senator to seniority before those Senators elected to the Senate at the same time not having previous service in the House of Delegates.

Senators elected at the same time without previous service in the Senate or House of Delegates shall have their seniority determined by a public drawing of lots, conducted by the Clerk of the Senate, to which all Senators involved shall be invited to attend. After the name of each Senator there shall be indicated the name of the political party under which the Senator was elected or abbreviation of the same; e.g., "Rep." or "Dem." If a Senator was not elected as a nominee of a political party, then such Senator shall be listed as an Independent, or "Ind."; however, if any Senator is elected at a special or general election and such Senator has, prior to such election, declared himself in writing a member of a political party during and prior to such election and the political party of his choice did not hold a convention or call a primary election for such election, such Senator shall be listed as a member of the party of which he declared himself a member.

8 (f). The Clerk of the Senate, after the election of Senators, shall assign chamber desks to the individual Senators with the Senators elected as members of the majority party in the Senate in the chamber area beginning at the ~~south~~ north side of the chamber until all such desks have been assigned, and then the Senators elected as members of the minority party in the Senate, and then any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. The Clerk of the Senate shall also assign office space in such buildings as may be made available for the use of the Senate. Whenever feasible, the Clerk of the Senate shall give due consideration in assigning chamber desks and office space to the seniority and request of a Senator. However, the chamber desk or office space of a Senator having immediate prior service in the Senate shall not be reassigned unless he shall so request the Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

8 (h). During the sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

9. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be read the succeeding day, unless the reading thereof is waived as provided in these Rules; it shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk of the Senate and delivered to the Senators without delay.

10 (a). The Clerk of the Senate shall appoint a chief deputy clerk and such staff as necessary to perform the work of the Senate. The Clerk may also appoint such number of messengers as may be required. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such committee clerks as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chairs of the several Committees. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such additional committee staff as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. All committee clerks so appointed shall remain in the Capitol or other legislative facilities during the daily sessions of the Senate, and committee clerks shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation by the Clerk of the Senate and with the approval of the Chair of each such Committee. Additional committee staff shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair on the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. Each clerk shall perform any other duties that the Clerk of the Senate shall require, when not employed by their respective standing Committees. Clerks may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. Additional committee staff may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Clerk of the Senate shall have supervision over all employees of the Senate. During sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

10 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

11 (a). Before reading each bill or resolution by title, the Clerk of the Senate shall announce, either by individual bill or resolution or en bloc, whether it is the first, second, or third time of such reading.

11 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall keep at the Clerk's desk, during the sittings of the Senate, a calendar which shows the business of the Senate. The Clerk shall have printed and placed on the desk of each member, before the assembling of the Senate each day, a calendar of pending bills and resolutions. The Clerk shall prepare a list of all bills and resolutions offered on the preceding day, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills or resolutions, and the Committees to which the same have been referred under these Rules.

12. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate, without special order therefor, to communicate to the House of Delegates any action of the Senate upon business coming from the House of Delegates, or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body, but no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the Senate while it remains open for consideration.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed and bound with the manual and rules, etc., the Constitution of Virginia and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators. Supplements to said manual shall be issued as circumstances may require.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

14 (b). In the discharge of all the duties assigned to the Clerk, and such other duties as the Clerk may from time to time undertake, the Clerk shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules.

V.

Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeepers.

15. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected by the Senate, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Committee on Rules for a term not exceeding four years. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules, his duties shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

16. Except by order of the Senate, no Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms on any grounds other than to quell a breach of the peace until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections and reported to the Senate.

17 (a). The Doorkeepers shall be constantly at their post during the daily sessions of the Senate and shall permit no one to enter freely or remain upon the floor of the Senate during the daily session, except the President of the Senate; members of the General Assembly; officers and employees of the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates; and, representatives of the news media in such numbers as may be seated in accommodations provided for them at the press tables. The Committee on Rules shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber.

17 (b). Members of a Senator's family and such persons whom a Senator may invite shall be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery. Representatives of the news media who cannot be accommodated with seats at press tables on the floor may also be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery.

17 (c). Fifteen minutes prior to the convening of every daily session, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the Senate of all persons other than those who are authorized to be there during each session and shall not permit unauthorized persons upon the floor of the Senate for five minutes following the conclusion of every daily session.

17 (d). Interviews are not allowed in the Senate Chamber during the daily session or during the recesses during the daily session. Interviews in the Senate Chamber shall end 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the daily session and shall not commence until five minutes after the adjournment of the daily session.

17 (e). Whenever any person requests an interview with a Senator or the Clerk of the Senate, a Doorkeeper shall send the request by a Page.

Standing Committees.

18. At the commencement of each session after the election of Senators, a nominations report shall be submitted by the majority caucus to elect members to the standing Committees and the Committee on Rules ~~for a term current coincident with their term of office~~ in such numbers as hereinafter set forth. Such members shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. The President of the Senate shall be empowered to break a tie vote, where there is an equal division among the Senators, on matters pertaining to committee assignments and other matters relating to the organization of the Senate.

18 (a). A Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning agriculture; air and water pollution and solid waste disposal; conservation of land and water resources; crustaceans and bivalves; all matters of environment, forest, fresh and salt water fishing, game, mining, parks and recreation, and petroleum products.

18 (b). 18 (c). A Committee for Courts of Justice, 15 Senators, to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.

It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee for Courts of Justice for any judicial position.

Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee for Courts of Justice shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.

18 (d). A Committee on Education and Health, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning education; human reproduction; life support; persons under disability; public buildings; public health; mental health; mental retardation and health professions.

18 (e). A Committee on Finance, ~~15~~-17 Senators, to consider matters concerning auditing; bills and resolutions for appropriations; the budget of the Commonwealth; claims; general and special revenues of the Commonwealth; all taxation and all matters concerning the expenditure of funds of the Commonwealth.

18 (f). A Committee on General Laws and Technology, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning affirmation and bonds; the boundaries, jurisdiction and emblems of the Commonwealth; cemeteries; condominiums; consumer affairs; fire protection; gaming and wagering; housing; inter- or intra-government information technology applications and uses other than those proposed or used to support the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate; land offices; landlord and tenant; libraries; military and war emergency; nuisances; oaths; professions and occupations (except the health and legal professions); religious and charitable matters; state governmental reorganization; veterans' affairs; warehouses; and matters not specifically referable to other Committees, including, but not limited to, matters relating to technology, engineering, or electronic research, development, policy, standards, measurements, or definitions, or the scientific, technical, or technological requirements thereof, except for those affecting the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate.

18 (g). A Committee on Local Government, 15 Senators, to consider matters of local government in the counties, cities, towns, regions or districts, planning boards and commissions and authorities, except matters relating to the compensation of elected officeholders, where funds of the Commonwealth are involved.

18 (h). A Committee on Privileges and Elections, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning voting; apportionment; conflict of interests, except those concerning members of the judiciary or solely the legal profession, provided that any such matter, after being reported by the Committee, shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice for consideration of the matters relating only to members of the judiciary or solely to the legal profession; constitutional amendments; elections; elected officeholders; reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator; and nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth (except Justices and Judges of the Commonwealth). It shall consider all grievances and propositions, federal relations and interstate matters. It shall examine the oath taken by each Senator and the certificate of election furnished by the proper office and report thereon to the Senate. It shall review and report as may be required in cases involving financial disclosure statements and shall recommend disciplinary action by majority vote where appropriate. It shall report in all cases involving contested elections the principles and reasons upon which their resolves are founded. It shall determine and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel as set forth in the statutes.

Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

18 (i). A Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning alcoholic beverages; correctional and penal institutions; morals; social services and welfare; and substance abuse.

18 (j). A Committee on Transportation, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning airports; airspaces; airways; the laws concerning motor vehicles relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations; heliports; highways; port facilities; public roads and streets; transportation safety; public waterways; railways; seaports; transportation companies or corporations; and transportation public utilities. Any matter relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations which include a change in a penalty shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

VII.

Committee on Rules.

19 (a). A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators to comprise not more than 17. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees or commissions; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees and commissions in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. Senate membership on all joint subcommittees and commissions with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

19 (i). The Chair of the Committee on Rules may direct the Clerk to refer to the Committee on Rules any Senate legislation, which in the opinion of the Chair of the Committee on Rules was substantially amended by the House of Delegates and is pending before the Senate as unfinished business. The Committee shall meet and after considering the legislation, the Committee shall take a vote either (i) to report to the Senate the legislation with the recommendation that the House amendment (s) be adopted or (ii) to pass the legislation by indefinitely.

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and as nearly as practicable with equal membership of resident Senators from the several congressional districts of the Commonwealth as the same exist on the date of election of the Senate. ~~Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office.~~ No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a ~~two-thirds~~ majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair, except that in the case of the Committee for Courts of Justice and the Committee on Finance, the first two Senators named to these Committees shall be Co-Chairs. All references in these Rules to the Chair of a standing Committee shall be interpreted to include and apply to the Co-Chairs. ~~However, a~~ Senator shall not serve as Chair of ~~only one of the~~ more than two standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, in writing on committee proxy forms, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd-numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Rerefer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Finance Committee.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.

Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) A roll call of members present.

(c) The reading of the Journal.

(d) A period to be called the "morning hour," for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk's desk at any time after the "morning hour," with leave of the Senate.

(e) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

(f) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

(g) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a "special morning session," at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such "special morning session" shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The "special morning session" shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designation "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar," and be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) which receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee, or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions which do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted material or words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Resolution" or "Senate Joint Resolution" shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of "House Bill" or "House Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates who requests in writing to the Clerk that he be added as a co-patron of any bill or resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk that his name be removed as a co-patron of any bill or resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, and thereafter his name shall not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, nor shall his name be listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules.

No Senator may introduce more than a combined total of ten commending and memorial resolutions each session, except for the Chair of the Committee on Rules when introducing such resolutions according to custom or protocol.

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution which has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.

The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.

Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.

Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the chief patron(s) of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting; and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

XIII.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of audible electronic devices used for transmitting and receiving communications is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. The use of cellular telephones is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

(i) A motion to adjourn.

(ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.

(iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.

(iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.

(v) A motion to close debate.

(vi) A motion to limit debate.

(vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.

(viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.

(ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

(i) A motion for a special and continuing order.

(ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken.

However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter.

Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

54. When, pursuant to the Constitution, the Senate sits as a Court for the trial of impeachments, the Rules covering the same shall be as the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the United States Senate when sitting on Impeachment Trials.

XXI.

Votes Required.

55. The votes required shall be as set forth in the Appendix to these Rules.

XXII.

Construction of Rules.

56. The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules or unless directed by the Senate whose membership has changed due to the election of a Senator or whose President of the Senate has changed due to the election of a new Lieutenant Governor. In the construction of the Rules, reference shall be had to the following sources in the following order:

- (a) Jefferson’s Manual of Parliamentary Practice.
- (b) Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure.
- (c) Standing Rules for Conducting Business in the Senate of the United States.

RECESS

At 1:20 p.m., Senator Norment moved that the Senate recess until 1:55 p.m.

The motion was agreed to.

The hour of 1:55 p.m. having arrived, the Chair was resumed.

RULES OF THE SENATE
IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION

S.R. 26 (twenty-six), being of a purely procedural nature, was taken up for immediate consideration.

Senator McEachin moved that S.R. 26 be ordered to be engrossed and agreed to.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Chair had ruled that the Rules of the Senate adopted in January of 2012 were null and void.

The Chair stated that the Senator was correct.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Senate was without any effective and enforceable Rules on January 24, 2013, when the Senator from Norfolk became a new member of the Senate.

The Chair stated that the Rules of the Senate had been in order until questioned, and then the Senate was operating under the general rules of parliamentary law.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McEachin propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether it was appropriate for the Clerk to answer a Senator's question during the course of debate.

The Chair stated that it was appropriate for the Clerk to answer a question from a Senator.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether Rule 19 (i) of the proposed Rules of the Senate contained in S.R. 26 would negate the Chair's ability to rule on the germaneness of an amendment proposed by the House of Delegates to a Senate bill.

The Chair stated that Rule 19 (i) of the proposed Rules of the Senate contained in S.R. 26 would not take away the Chair's ability to rule on the germaneness of an amendment proposed by the House of Delegates to a Senate bill.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to when the Chair would have an opportunity to rule on the germaneness of an amendment proposed by the House of Delegates to a Senate bill if the bill was never returned to the body in accordance with Rule 19 (i) of the proposed Rules of the Senate contained in S.R. 26.

The Chair stated that he had already given his ruling.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether Rule 56 of the proposed Rules of the Senate contained in S.R. 26 would operate to make the Rules of the Senate null and void if there was an election of another Senator during the remainder of the term of the current Senators.

The Chair stated that the Rules of the Senate could be changed if directed by the Senate.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Senate would need to elect a Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms because the previous Rules of the Senate had been ruled to be null and void.

The Chair stated that if the Senate adopted the proposed Rules of the Senate contained in S.R. 26, the Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms would not need to be reelected.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Senate without Rules of the Senate in effect had an elected Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Chair stated that he had already made his ruling.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Senate currently had a Clerk of the Senate and a Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Chair stated that it was the customary practice of the Senate that the Clerk of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms continue in office until they resign or they are replaced. The Chair stated further that the Rules of the Senate from 1990 provided that the Clerk of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms are each elected for a four-year term or until another is elected to the position.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Rules of the Senate from 1990 were in effect.

The Chair stated that in answering the Senator's previous parliamentary inquiry he had stated that the Senate Rules of 1990 provided that the Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms are elected for four-year terms and serve until another is elected to the position.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Senate had agreed to the Rules of the Senate in January of 2012, which had been in effect for some period of time.

The Chair stated that the Senator was correct.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Rules of the Senate agreed to in January of 2012 would have superseded other Rules adopted in the past.

The Chair stated that he had already given his ruling and that the Senator could ask additional questions or could continue the debate of S.R. 26.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Chair could clarify his ruling with further explanation.

The Chair stated that the ruling was as clear as the Chair could construct.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to the meaning of the repetition and placement of Appendix No. 26 on lines 1061 through 1064 of S.R. 26.

The Chair stated that the repetition of Appendix No. 26 on lines 1061 through 1064 of S.R. 26 was a drafting error.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the President of the Senate was aware of any other drafting error contained in S.R. 26.

The Chair stated that he would inform the Senator of any other drafting errors contained in S.R. 26 after the Senate returned from its recess.

RECESS

At 3:15 p.m., Senator Norment moved that the Senate recess until 3:25 p.m.

The motion was agreed to.

The hour of 3:25 p.m. having arrived, the Chair was resumed.

S.R. 26 (twenty six) was taken up.

Senator Norment offered the following amendment:

1. Line 362, introduced
 all of lines 362 through 367

On motion of Senator Norment, the reading of the amendment was waived.

Senator Norment moved that the amendment be agreed to.

The question was put on agreeing to the amendment.

The yeas and nays were called for by the Chair.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--20. NAYS--20. RULE 36--0.

YEAS--Black, Carrico, Cosgrove, Garrett, Hanger, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Reeves, Ruff, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins--20.

RULE 36--0.

There being an equal division, the President cast his vote in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

The President voted nay.

The final vote is as follows:

YEAS--20. NAYS--21. RULE 36--0.

The amendment was rejected.

Senator McEachin offered the following amendment:

1. Line 1061, introduced
all of lines 1061 through 1064

On motion of Senator McEachin, the reading of the amendment was waived.

On motion of Senator McEachin, the amendment was agreed to.

Senator Saslaw offered the following amendment:

1. Line 367, introduced, after indefinitely.
insert
Provided however, this Rule shall not apply to revenue or expenditure bills.

On motion of Senator Saslaw, the reading of the amendment was waived.

On motion of Senator Saslaw, the amendment was agreed to.

On motion of Senator McEachin, the resolution was ordered to be engrossed.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 26

Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the following are adopted as the Rules of the Senate to supersede all previous Rules of the Senate:

RULES OF THE SENATE

I.

Presiding Officer.

1. The presiding officer of the Senate shall be the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth as the President of the Senate in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

2 (a). There shall be elected by the Senate, ~~on the first day of the session following the election of the Senate,~~ a President pro tempore who shall ~~serve for a term of four years thereafter continue in office until another is chosen~~ and be a senior member in the Senate.

2 (b). In the event of the absence, disability or vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall carry out the duties of the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer. Further, the President pro tempore shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate.

2 (c). The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open session, or if he is absent, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

2 (d). In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, or whenever the powers and duties of the Governor shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall have the right to name, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer during his absence; and the Senator so named shall have the right to name, in open session, or in writing, if he is absent, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

3. The presiding officer, after taking the Chair pursuant to these Rules, and a quorum being present, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The reading of the Journal may be waived by a majority of those Senators present and voting. The reading of the Journal may be waived at a reconvened session of a special session by at least two members present and voting, only if there is no business to consider in accordance to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia. Any errors in the entries shall be corrected, and the Journal being found correct, shall be signed by the presiding officer for that day and the Clerk of the Senate. The Journals, when so signed, shall be the official records of the proceedings of the Senate.

4. If any question is put upon a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall state the same without argument.

II.

Membership, Attendance, and Adjournment.

5. A member of the Senate shall be a Senator elected to represent one of the 40 senatorial districts. A majority of Senators shall constitute a quorum to do business; two may adjourn, and nine may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. However, not less than 16 may meet by proclamation of the Governor under the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution. At a special session or a reconvened session of a special session when there is no business to consider in accordance with Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia, two members may convene the Senate, dispense with the reading of the Journal, recess or adjourn the Senate.

6. No Senator shall absent himself from the service of the Senate without leave.

III.

The Pages.

7. The Senate shall elect 11 Pages representing each of the Congressional districts and five Pages shall be appointed by the following: one by the Lieutenant Governor; one by the President pro tempore; one by the chair of the caucus of the majority party; one by the majority leader; and one by the minority leader. The Pages shall be no less than 13 and no more than 14 years of age at the time of election or appointment, shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall be elected or appointed for a term of one year. No Page shall be eligible for reelection. Any such Page so elected or appointed may be suspended or dismissed for cause by the Clerk of the Senate.

IV.

The Clerk of the Senate.

8 (a). A Clerk of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate for a term of four years and shall thereafter continue in office until another is chosen. The oath of office shall be administered to the Clerk of the Senate by any person qualified by law to administer oaths. If a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Senate occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, a successor shall be elected by the Committee on Rules to serve until the first day of the next session, at a meeting to be called by the Chair, or in his absence or inability to act, the next senior member of such Committee able and willing to do so. At least five days notice by certified mail of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given all members of the Committee, and, at such meeting, the person receiving the votes of a majority of the members present and voting shall be elected to fill the vacancy.

8 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of the public seal and design of armorial bearings of the Senate.

8 (c). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of all records and papers of the Senate and the Clerk shall not suffer any such records or papers to be taken from the Clerk's desk or out of the Clerk's custody by any person except the Chair or the clerk of a Committee, or any Senator on taking receipts for same. Amendments agreed to by the Senate shall be handled only by the Clerk of the Senate, or staff members designated by the Clerk.

8 (d). It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to refer all bills and resolutions to the appropriate standing Committee or the Committee on Rules as provided in these Rules. If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing committee or the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

8 (e). The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list of the Senators in order of seniority. Seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the Senate. However, if a Senator has previous interrupted service in the Senate, then the beginning date of such previous Senate service shall qualify the Senator for seniority before those Senators elected at the same time not having previous service in the Senate, and if a Senator has previous service in the House of Delegates then seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the House of Delegates and shall qualify the Senator to seniority before those Senators elected to the Senate at the same time not having previous service in the House of Delegates. Senators elected at the same time without previous service in the Senate or House of Delegates shall have their seniority determined by a public drawing of lots, conducted by the Clerk of the Senate, to which all Senators involved shall be invited to attend. After the name of each Senator there shall be indicated the name of the political party under which the Senator was elected or abbreviation of the same; e.g., "Rep." or "Dem." If a Senator was not elected as a nominee of a political party, then such Senator shall be listed as an Independent, or "Ind."; however, if any Senator is elected at a special or general election and such Senator has, prior to such election, declared himself in writing a member of a political party during and prior to such election and the political party of his choice did not hold a convention or call a primary election for such election, such Senator shall be listed as a member of the party of which he declared himself a member.

8 (f). The Clerk of the Senate, after the election of Senators, shall assign chamber desks to the individual Senators with the Senators elected as members of the majority party in the Senate in the chamber area beginning at the ~~south~~ north side of the chamber until all such desks have been assigned, and then the Senators elected as members of the minority party in the Senate, and then any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. The Clerk of the Senate shall also assign office space in such buildings as may be made available for the use of the Senate. Whenever feasible, the Clerk of the Senate shall give due consideration in assigning chamber desks and office space to the seniority and request of a Senator. However, the chamber desk or office space of a Senator having immediate prior service in the Senate shall not be reassigned unless he shall so request the Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

8 (h). During the sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

9. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be read the succeeding day, unless the reading thereof is waived as provided in these Rules; it shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk of the Senate and delivered to the Senators without delay.

10 (a). The Clerk of the Senate shall appoint a chief deputy clerk and such staff as necessary to perform the work of the Senate. The Clerk may also appoint such number of messengers as may be required. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such committee clerks as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chairs of the several Committees. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such additional committee staff as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. All committee clerks so appointed shall remain in the Capitol or other legislative facilities during the daily sessions of the Senate, and committee clerks shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation by the Clerk of the Senate and with the approval of the Chair of each such Committee. Additional committee staff shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair on the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. Each clerk shall perform any other duties that the Clerk of the Senate shall require, when not employed by their respective standing Committees. Clerks may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. Additional committee staff may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Clerk of the Senate shall have supervision over all employees of the Senate. During sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

10 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

11 (a). Before reading each bill or resolution by title, the Clerk of the Senate shall announce, either by individual bill or resolution or en bloc, whether it is the first, second, or third time of such reading.

11 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall keep at the Clerk's desk, during the sittings of the Senate, a calendar which shows the business of the Senate. The Clerk shall have printed and placed on the desk of each member, before the assembling of the Senate each day, a calendar of pending bills and resolutions. The Clerk shall prepare a list of all bills and resolutions offered on the preceding day, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills or resolutions, and the Committees to which the same have been referred under these Rules.

12. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate, without special order therefor, to communicate to the House of Delegates any action of the Senate upon business coming from the House of Delegates, or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body, but no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the Senate while it remains open for consideration.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed and bound with the manual and rules, etc., the Constitution of Virginia and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators. Supplements to said manual shall be issued as circumstances may require.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

14 (b). In the discharge of all the duties assigned to the Clerk, and such other duties as the Clerk may from time to time undertake, the Clerk shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules.

V.

Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeepers.

15. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected by the Senate, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Committee on Rules for a term not exceeding four years. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules, his duties shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

16. Except by order of the Senate, no Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms on any grounds other than to quell a breach of the peace until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections and reported to the Senate.

17 (a). The Doorkeepers shall be constantly at their post during the daily sessions of the Senate and shall permit no one to enter freely or remain upon the floor of the Senate during the daily session, except the President of the Senate; members of the General Assembly; officers and employees of the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates; and, representatives of the news media in such numbers as may be seated in accommodations provided for them at the press tables. The Committee on Rules shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber.

17 (b). Members of a Senator's family and such persons whom a Senator may invite shall be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery. Representatives of the news media who cannot be accommodated with seats at press tables on the floor may also be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery.

17 (c). Fifteen minutes prior to the convening of every daily session, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the Senate of all persons other than those who are authorized to be there during each session and shall not permit unauthorized persons upon the floor of the Senate for five minutes following the conclusion of every daily session.

17 (d). Interviews are not allowed in the Senate Chamber during the daily session or during the recesses during the daily session. Interviews in the Senate Chamber shall end 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the daily session and shall not commence until five minutes after the adjournment of the daily session.

17 (e). Whenever any person requests an interview with a Senator or the Clerk of the Senate, a Doorkeeper shall send the request by a Page.

VI.

Standing Committees.

18. At the commencement of each session after the election of Senators, a nominations report shall be submitted by the majority caucus to elect members to the standing Committees and the Committee on Rules ~~for a term current coincident with their term of office~~ in such numbers as hereinafter set forth. Such members shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. The President of the Senate shall be empowered to break a tie vote, where there is an equal division among the Senators, on matters pertaining to committee assignments and other matters relating to the organization of the Senate.

18 (a). A Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning agriculture; air and water pollution and solid waste disposal; conservation of land and water resources; crustaceans and bivalves; all matters of environment, forest, fresh and salt water fishing, game, mining, parks and recreation, and petroleum products.

18 (b). A Committee on Commerce and Labor, 16 Senators, to consider all matters concerning banking; commerce; commercial law; corporations; economic development; industry; insurance; labor; manufacturing; partnerships; public utilities, except matters relating to transportation; tourism; workmen's compensation and unemployment matters.

18 (c). A Committee for Courts of Justice, 15 Senators, to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.

It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee for Courts of Justice for any judicial position.

Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee for Courts of Justice shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.

18 (d). A Committee on Education and Health, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning education; human reproduction; life support; persons under disability; public buildings; public health; mental health; mental retardation and health professions.

18 (e). A Committee on Finance, ~~15~~-17 Senators, to consider matters concerning auditing; bills and resolutions for appropriations; the budget of the Commonwealth; claims; general and special revenues of the Commonwealth; all taxation and all matters concerning the expenditure of funds of the Commonwealth.

18 (f). A Committee on General Laws and Technology, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning affirmation and bonds; the boundaries, jurisdiction and emblems of the Commonwealth; cemeteries; condominiums; consumer affairs; fire protection; gaming and wagering; housing; inter- or intra-government information technology applications and uses other than those proposed or used to support the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate; land offices; landlord and tenant; libraries; military and war emergency; nuisances; oaths; professions and occupations (except the health and legal professions); religious and charitable matters; state governmental reorganization; veterans' affairs; warehouses; and matters not specifically referable to other Committees, including, but not limited to, matters relating to technology, engineering, or electronic research, development, policy, standards, measurements, or definitions, or the scientific, technical, or technological requirements thereof, except for those affecting the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate.

18 (g). A Committee on Local Government, 15 Senators, to consider matters of local government in the counties, cities, towns, regions or districts, planning boards and commissions and authorities, except matters relating to the compensation of elected officeholders, where funds of the Commonwealth are involved.

18 (h). A Committee on Privileges and Elections, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning voting; apportionment; conflict of interests, except those concerning members of the judiciary or solely the legal profession, provided that any such matter, after being reported by the Committee, shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice for consideration of the matters relating only to members of the judiciary or solely to the legal profession; constitutional amendments; elections; elected officeholders; reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator; and nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth (except Justices and Judges of the Commonwealth). It shall consider all grievances and propositions, federal relations and interstate matters. It shall examine the oath taken by each Senator and the certificate of election furnished by the proper office and report thereon to the Senate. It shall review and report as may be required in cases involving financial disclosure statements and shall recommend disciplinary action by majority vote where appropriate. It shall report in all cases involving contested elections the principles and reasons upon which their resolves are founded. It shall determine and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel as set forth in the statutes.

Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

18 (i). A Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning alcoholic beverages; correctional and penal institutions; morals; social services and welfare; and substance abuse.

18 (j). A Committee on Transportation, 15 Senators, to consider matters concerning airports; airspaces; airways; the laws concerning motor vehicles relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations; heliports; highways; port facilities; public roads and streets; transportation safety; public waterways; railways; seaports; transportation companies or corporations; and transportation public utilities. Any matter relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations which include a change in a penalty shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

VII.

Committee on Rules.

19 (a). A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators to comprise not more than 17. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees or commissions; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees and commissions in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. Senate membership on all joint subcommittees and commissions with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

19 (i). The Chair of the Committee on Rules may direct the Clerk to refer to the Committee on Rules any Senate legislation, which in the opinion of the Chair of the Committee on Rules was substantially amended by the House of Delegates and is pending before the Senate as unfinished business. The Committee shall meet and after considering the legislation, the Committee shall take a vote either (i) to report to the Senate the legislation with the recommendation that the House amendment (s) be adopted or (ii) to pass the legislation by indefinitely. [Provided however, this Rule shall not apply to revenue or expenditure bills.]

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and as nearly as practicable with equal membership of resident Senators from the several congressional districts of the Commonwealth as the same exist on the date of election of the Senate. ~~Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office.~~ No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a ~~two-thirds~~ majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair, except that in the case of the Committee for Courts of Justice and the Committee on Finance, the first two Senators named to these Committees shall be Co-Chairs. All references in these Rules to the Chair of a standing Committee shall be interpreted to include and apply to the Co-Chairs. ~~However, a~~ Senator shall not serve as Chair of ~~only one of the~~ more than two standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election either by self-declaration or through other conduct as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate, he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, in writing on committee proxy forms, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd-numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Refer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Finance Committee.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.

Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) A roll call of members present.

(c) The reading of the Journal.

(d) A period to be called the “morning hour,” for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk’s desk at any time after the “morning hour,” with leave of the Senate.

(e) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

(f) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

(g) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a “special morning session,” at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such “special morning session” shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The “special morning session” shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designation “Uncontested Calendar” and “Regular Calendar,” and be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) which receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee, or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions which do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted material or words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Resolution" or "Senate Joint Resolution" shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of "House Bill" or "House Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates who requests in writing to the Clerk that he be added as a co-patron of any bill or resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk that his name be removed as a co-patron of any bill or resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation, and thereafter his name shall not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill or resolution, nor shall his name be listed on such bill or resolution at its next printing, if any.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules.

No Senator may introduce more than a combined total of ten commending and memorial resolutions each session, except for the Chair of the Committee on Rules when introducing such resolutions according to custom or protocol.

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution which has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.

The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.

Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.

Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the chief patron(s) of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting; and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

XIII.

Debate.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of audible electronic devices used for transmitting and receiving communications is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. The use of cellular telephones is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

- (i) A motion to adjourn.
- (ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.
- (iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.
- (iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.
- (v) A motion to close debate.
- (vi) A motion to limit debate.
- (vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.
- (viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.
- (ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

- (i) A motion for a special and continuing order.
- (ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken.

However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter.

Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

54. When, pursuant to the Constitution, the Senate sits as a Court for the trial of impeachments, the Rules covering the same shall be as the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the United States Senate when sitting on Impeachment Trials.

XXI.

Votes Required.

55. The votes required shall be as set forth in the Appendix to these Rules.

XXII.

Construction of Rules.

56. The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules or unless directed by the Senate whose membership has changed due to the election of a Senator or whose President of the Senate has changed due to the election of a new Lieutenant Governor. In the construction of the Rules, reference shall be had to the following sources in the following order:

- (a) Jefferson’s Manual of Parliamentary Practice.
- (b) Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure.
- (c) Standing Rules for Conducting Business in the Senate of the United States.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Gerry Creedon, Holy Family Catholic Church, Dale City, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

“Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God” says the Prophet. In our private and our public lives we are called to integrity and fairness. Citizens of this historic state cannot by small acts of charity avoid the weightier duty of justice. May those who represent us by their example and leadership call us to a greater sense of solidarity and concern for the common good.

Let the cold icy blasts of winter awaken all of us to the vulnerability of the many who attempt to live without shelter. May the God of compassion move government and private sector toward a new partnership in the too long struggle to end the scandal of homelessness.

We seek the dominion of justice and a house for all in the name of the One who tabernacles and pitches his tent among us. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougale, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Reeves, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--37. NAYS--3. RULE 36--0.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 2014

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Tom Waltz, Saint James Presbyterian Church, King William, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

I am honored to be here.

I ask that we pause to remember one of the great Virginians—James Madison—our fourth president.

A noted columnist applied a famous quote to Madison, saying:

“If we really believed that the pen is mightier than the sword, our nation’s capitol would be Madison, DC.”

Madison said this about the newly formed United States of America:

“The happy union of the states is a wonder, their constitution a miracle, their example the hope of liberty throughout the world.”

When Madison was called “The Father of the Constitution,” he protested, saying:

“The constitution is not the offspring of a single brain, but the work of many heads and many hands.”

Let us pray together.

God of all that is, we pause to ask You for inspiration for all of these elected officials, that their work together may produce good government and just laws that further the economic opportunities for all Virginians.

May the miracle of democracy that Madison noted persist, as this Senate body puts heads and hands together to pass laws that meet the complex needs of our time.

May the hope of liberty that Madison praised so highly continue to be the hope for all Virginians.

And may the humility that such a great man as Madison displayed be the model for all of us.

May such a modesty flourish here among you, along with your important work together.

Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Normont, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators McEachin and Puller notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Wexton, the reading of the Journal was waived.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

Chief Stephen R. Adkins, Chickahominy Tribe, Charles City, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

“Great Spirit, the loving Father of all nations.” We come seeking Your favor on the Senate of the Commonwealth of Virginia at the convening of today’s session. We ask You to surround the members of this chamber with Your love, mercy and grace. We ask that their hearts be filled with wisdom, compassion and understanding.

Father I ask You to cause these men and women to pause, to be still and to know that You are God. As these Senators go about their daily tasks, I pray that they will understand that they are not here by accident or happenstance, let them know that they have been called to be at this place at this time to work for the common good of humankind and the Commonwealth of Virginia. Cause them to prayerfully consider the duties to which they have been called, give them the courage to both lead and serve with humility.

As this body meets both in committee and collectively let the product of their actions demonstrate to the Nation that doing the right thing for the right reason transcends partisan division and moves the Commonwealth forward in a way that ensures all Virginians have access to those God-given rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Father enable these legislators to enact laws that ensure a level playing field for all who seek to prepare themselves to be productive citizens, equipped to assume their places in a global marketplace.

Finally, I ask You to bless all of the leadership of the Commonwealth, those who protect and serve, those who teach our children and young adults, those who care for the sick and elderly and those who provide spiritual nurturing.

Finally our Father I pray that this Senate may complete this session with a clear conscience knowing they have given their very best to enhance the quality of life for all Virginians. Now Father God, Creator and Sustainer of life, I commend this prayer to You and ask Your continued blessings upon the Commonwealth of Virginia and all of those assembled here today.

In the Holy name of God we pray. “Nah Rec” Amen.

Clerk of the Senate

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. A. Lincoln James, Jr., Trinity Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Might every head be bowed.

O Sovereign God of this massive universe, He who created all things in love, we now ask Your blessings upon this hallowed house that Your powerful, persuasive presence may give divine guidance to these legislators who have been elected at the will of the people of the Commonwealth.

At this fateful moment in the long and variegated history of our state, give these elected officials guidance to govern with justice, grace and compassion that will bring honor to Your name and bring Your blessings to mankind. Hold them in the center of Your peace. Keep them in the hollow of Your hand. Surround them in the eternal circumference of Your love.

In the name of the great God of the universe, it is done by faith.

Might the people of faith say, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

Rabbi Brett Isserow, Beth El Hebrew Congregation, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Thank you for this honor and thank you for your service to our State.

We give thanks for the gifts of mind, body and spirit.

The gift of mind which allows us to deliberate rationally and with intelligence.

The gift of body which permits us to put our decisions into action, spurning convenience and expedience.

And the gift of spirit which ensures that we act with consideration and concern for every person, always aware of the fact that each of us contains within us a spark of the Divine.

May we, with the help of that which each of us regard as holy, within or without, work toward a future that is imbued with justice, equality and compassion and may this be Your will and ours! Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 78

Ratifying the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution.

WHEREAS, a concurrent or joint resolution is a resolution adopted by both houses of a bicameral legislature, which does not require the signature of the chief executive; and a concurrent resolution is sufficient for a state's ratification of an amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress adopted the 27th Amendment to the United States Constitution, the so-called Madison Amendment, relating to compensation of members of Congress; and

WHEREAS, the Madison Amendment was proposed by our first Congress and only recently ratified by three-fourths of the states, and the Archivist of the United States certified the 27th Amendment on May 18, 1992, or 203 years after it was first proposed; and

WHEREAS, the founders of our nation, James Madison included, did not favor further restrictions to Article V of the United States Constitution, the amending procedure; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution is harder to amend than any other constitution in history; and

WHEREAS, the restricting time limit for the Equal Rights Amendment ratification is in the resolving clause and is not a part of the amendment proposed by Congress and already ratified by 35 states; and

WHEREAS, constitutional equality for women and men continues to be a timely issue in the United States and worldwide, and a number of other nations have achieved constitutional equality for their women and men; and

WHEREAS, since Congress passed a time extension for the Equal Rights Amendment on October 20, 1978, Congress has demonstrated that a time limit in a resolving clause can be disregarded if it is not a part of the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, Congress is in a unique position to judge the tenor of the nation, to be aware of the political, social, and economic factors affecting the nation, and to be aware of the importance to the nation of the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, if an amendment to the United States Constitution has been proposed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress and ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures, it is for Congress to determine the validity of the state ratifications occurring after a time limit in the resolving clause, but not in the amendment itself; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia hereby ratify and affirm the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution proposed by the United States Congress on March 22, 1972, and ratified by 35 state legislatures. The complete text of House Joint Resolution 208 proposing the Equal Rights Amendment follows:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 208

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to equal rights for men and women.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

“Article--

“Section 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

“Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

“Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.”

RESOLVED FURTHER, That certified copies of this joint resolution be forwarded by the Clerk of the Senate to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, the members of the Virginia delegation to the House of Representatives and the United States Senate, and the Archivist of the United States at the National Archives and Records Administration of the United States.

Senator Lucas requested that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of Greenville County Deputy Sheriff Percy Lee House III.

On motion of Senator Colgan, the Senate, in memory of Greenville County Deputy Sheriff Percy Lee House III, adjourned until tomorrow at 12 m.

Ralph S. Northam

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Darrell K. White, Bethlehem Baptist Church, Gum Springs, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God our Creator, Thou who art the Custodian of the time and eternity, we humbly bow before Thy presence with reverence and respect. Someone has said that if we take time or make time to think of God we will be bombarded by undeserved blessings prompting us to give thanks. We take this moment to T-H-I-N-K of You, so that we might begin this session giving T-H-A-N-K-S to You. Thank You for this day and for another opportunity to partner with You in drafting and crafting legislation that will transform an "Old Dominion" into a relevant Dominion for its citizens.

I lift the women and men who through the eyes of their constituency embody the courage and vision to see, yea discern, a 21st century Commonwealth. A Commonwealth unmarked and unmarred by laws and policies that cater to the haves while ignoring the have-nots. Remind them today as they discuss, debate, and cast a vote that in whatever the sacred parchment they turn to for wisdom, You have always positioned Yourself on the side of the marginalized. Restore their sight to see the whole of Virginia and not just the part they represent. Like the hand depends on each finger for strength, help these Senators to see that the thumb of Northern Virginia needs the index finger of Central Virginia; and the middle finger of Southwest Virginia needs the ring finger of Tidewater and the pinkie finger of the Eastern Shore.

Grant that their legislative record will reveal when tallied up, that they were not simply concerned with being on the right side of history, but even more on the right side of what it means to be their brother and sister's keeper. Jog their memory of the charge that they must keep and the God they have been gifted to glorify.

We lay and leave these petitions within the counsel of Thy purposeful Will. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Obenshain, the reading of the Journal was waived.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 27

Celebrating the life of the Honorable Elise B. Heinz.

WHEREAS, the Honorable Elise B. Heinz, a former member of the Virginia House of Delegates who ably represented the residents of Arlington and Alexandria and a longtime member of the Arlington community, died on January 19, 2014; and

WHEREAS, a native of Plainfield, New Jersey, Elise Heinz moved to Mason Neck in 1949; she graduated from George Washington High School in Alexandria and later earned a bachelor's degree from Wellesley College; and

WHEREAS, in 1961, Elise Heinz earned a law degree from Harvard University, where she was elected as an editor of the Harvard Law Review and graduated as one of only five women in a class of 460; after graduation, she moved to Arlington and would proudly call the area home for the rest of her life; and

WHEREAS, Elise Heinz practiced law with a firm in Washington, D.C., until 1964, then did legal work for the Peace Corps, for the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, and for a federal appellate court judge; she subsequently opened her own firm, where she practiced law until 1990; and

WHEREAS, a passionate and devoted advocate for women's rights, Elise Heinz led efforts to reform discriminatory laws and secure ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, desirous to be of further service to the Commonwealth, Elise Heinz ran for and was elected to the Virginia House of Delegates in 1977, where she represented the residents of the 23rd District for two terms; and

WHEREAS, Elise Heinz worked to enact important legislation and served on several committees, including Conservation and Natural Resources, General Laws, and Privileges and Elections; and

WHEREAS, after completing her service in the General Assembly, Elise Heinz remained a leader in the Arlington community; she was an outspoken champion of women's rights for much of her life and continued to serve the Commonwealth as a Virginia representative on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Historical Park Advisory Commission; and

WHEREAS, throughout her life, Elise Heinz donated her time and talents as a volunteer with many civic and service organizations, including the American Civil Liberties Union, the Women's Legal Defense Fund, the Alexandria United Way, the Arlington County School Board, and the Virginia Advisory Committee of the United States Commission on Civil Rights; and

WHEREAS, a woman of great integrity, Elise Heinz served the community, the Commonwealth, and the nation with distinction; and

WHEREAS, Elise Heinz will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her husband of 52 years, James E. Clayton; sons Jonathan and David, and their families; numerous other family members and friends; and colleagues on both sides of the aisle; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of the Honorable Elise B. Heinz, a respected public servant and an admired member of the Arlington community; and, be it RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of the Honorable Elise B. Heinz as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for her memory.

S.R. 27, on motion of Senator Favola, was ordered to be engrossed and was agreed to by a unanimous standing vote.

Ralph S. Northam

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2014

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Robert M. Chapman II, Market Street United Methodist Church, Onancock, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Sovereign God, You remain forever in wisdom, holiness, justice and truth. We invoke Your infinite presence today for this session of the Senate. Endow these Your elected servants of the Commonwealth with strong character, wisdom, discernment and engagement in their responsibilities to govern the Old Dominion. Guide and embolden them as Your servant leaders in the matters of Your concern and resolve. Call them toward the substantive issues and responsibilities of freedom, equality, poverty, mental illness, human trafficking and substance abuse.

Impart not only upon them, but all of Your people: educators, public workers, and our brave members of the Armed Services to remember who we are as responsible citizens. Recall unto us our diverse heritage, as in the tribes of the Pamunkey, Mattaponi and the Chickahominy. Grant us resolve to have vision, as courageous Virginians who pointed the way: explorer Meriwether Lewis, the rebellious Nat Turner and the spirited Pearl Bailey.

Receive our thanksgiving for such high places as Mount Rogers, beautiful flowing rivers such as the James, and for the smell of creeks and marshes hugging the Chesapeake Bay. For hogs, soybeans, cattle, textiles and equipment, You continue to remain faithful in wonder and endowment. Virginians in name, Your children in identity, we remain grateful for free will, Your order and creation. Protect these, Your men and women of the Senate, from personal neglect and abuse of power, and resolve to care for their loved ones while they are away from home. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Ruff notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Colgan, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Sterling W. Severns, Tabernacle Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we gather on the other side of Sabbath prepared to begin again.

We enter into this historic chamber with a keen awareness that there is much work to be done. We look back ... we can no longer see where the journey began. We look forward ... with a renewed sense of purpose... with eyes firmly fixed on the horizon.

The challenges that we face as leaders of this great Commonwealth are both new and strangely familiar all at the same time. We pray that the lessons shared by those that have come before us will guide us as we move forward together. We pray that voices of unity and vision will set the tone this day and that our motives will remain true to the task at hand.

God, as we come together this afternoon, we pray that You will bring us together. Open our eyes and make us aware of Your presence among us. Help us to see the potential You've bestowed upon each and every leader in this room and give us the necessary wisdom we need to listen.

We have come to work together today for the common good of the Commonwealth ... a place each and every one of us calls "home."

It is by Your grace that we seek discernment and it is by Your love that we begin again.

Hear our prayer. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

§ 2.2-3103. Prohibited conduct.

No officer or employee of a state or local governmental or advisory agency shall:

1. Solicit or accept money or other thing of value for services performed within the scope of his official duties, except the compensation, expenses or other remuneration paid by the agency of which he is an officer or employee. This prohibition shall not apply to the acceptance of special benefits that may be authorized by law;

2. Offer or accept any money or other thing of value for or in consideration of obtaining employment, appointment, or promotion of any person with any governmental or advisory agency;

3. Offer or accept any money or other thing of value for or in consideration of the use of his public position to obtain a contract for any person or business with any governmental or advisory agency;
4. Use for his own economic benefit or that of another party confidential information that he has acquired by reason of his public position and which is not available to the public;
5. Accept any money, loan, gift, favor, service, or business or professional opportunity that reasonably tends to influence him in the performance of his official duties. This subdivision shall not apply to any political contribution actually used for political campaign or constituent service purposes and reported as required by Chapter 9.3 (§ 24.2-945 et seq.) of Title 24.2;
6. Accept any business or professional opportunity when he knows that there is a reasonable likelihood that the opportunity is being afforded him to influence him in the performance of his official duties;
7. Accept any honoraria for any appearance, speech, or article in which the officer or employee provides expertise or opinions related to the performance of his official duties. The term "honoraria" shall not include any payment for or reimbursement to such person for his actual travel, lodging, or subsistence expenses incurred in connection with such appearance, speech, or article or in the alternative a payment of money or anything of value not in excess of the per diem deduction allowable under § 162 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time. The prohibition in this subdivision shall apply only to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Governor's Secretaries, and heads of departments of state government;
8. Accept a gift from a person who has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance of the officer's or employee's official duties under circumstances where the timing and nature of the gift would cause a reasonable person to question the officer's or employee's impartiality in the matter affecting the donor. Violations of this subdivision shall not be subject to criminal law penalties; ~~or~~
9. Accept gifts from sources on a basis so frequent as to raise an appearance of the use of his public office for private gain. Violations of this subdivision shall not be subject to criminal law penalties; or
10. Use his public position to retaliate or threaten to retaliate against any person for expressing views on matters of public concern or for exercising any right that is otherwise protected by law.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2014

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Mat Brown, Branch's Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Divine Creator, we acknowledge with great joy every good and perfect gift that has come from Your hands—and among these we are especially thankful for life and for the freedoms we enjoy.

God of Grace and Truth, we pray for our leaders—may the decisions they make not be guided by lust for power or gain, “But let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.” (Amos 5:24)

And now in the words of the great hymn, “Oh, God, our help in ages past, our hope for the years to come; be Thou our guide while life shall last, and our eternal home.” Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Michael Simone, Spring Branch Community Church, Virginia Beach, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

While chartered on February 8th, it was on this date, February 13, 1693, that The College of William & Mary opened its doors. The College was founded by royal charter to ...

“make, found and establish a certain Place of Universal Study, a perpetual College of Divinity, Philosophy, Languages, and other good arts and sciences... to be supported and maintained, in all time coming.”

Heavenly Father, grant today wisdom, vision and courage to every student in every school in this Commonwealth. Give to all who teach patience, joy and perseverance. We are thankful today, for a system of education that sustains hearts and grows minds. May this governing body watch diligently over each community of learning. May this governing body always remember that Divine reverence is the beginning of knowledge. On this day may we discover hope and healing and power and strength through diligent investments of humility and grace.

Lord, may an abundance of good works, motivated by love, abide in the hearts of these leaders who labor for freedom, truth and responsible citizenship. Years from today, might the sum of this gathering be measured by tangible blessings upon blessings. May the leadership impact, of a myriad of governing decisions, leave a legacy of faithfulness to all generations. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators Marsh and Martin notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Stanley, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2014

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Wayne L. Ball, St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

All Powerful and Everliving God, You created the universe and made all people by nature equally free and independent and possessors of certain inherent rights.

We ask You now to bless the 40 men and women who have been charged with the responsibility of serving as the Senate of Virginia. May the Seal of the Senate serve as a constant reminder that ours is a Commonwealth of immigrants, where people for more than four centuries, have come seeking to fulfill their greatest aspirations.

In a world torn by division, we ask You to unite this chamber. May their deliberations reflect the highest tradition of Senates throughout the centuries. May they seek only the common good of people of this great Commonwealth, and may the Senate of Virginia flourish.

We ask this through You who are the one true source of justice, God forever and ever. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Miller, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

Ralph S. Northam
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Leonard N. Smith, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Arlington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Merciful God, we gather in our capital city to commence another day of business. Although many anticipate business as usual, make this session today a day of business unusual.

Allow an unusual spirit of humility and harmony to overtake the occupants of this assembly room.

Thank You for the diversity of culture, faith, gender, ideals, parties and race in each of us. Instill in every Senator the value of recognizing the differences of the others, so that no one's dreams, district or goals will be valued above any of their other colleagues'.

Help these legislators to see unselfishly the needs of the Commonwealth through the window of diversity and not the microscope of their personal predisposition and elevate their avowed obligation over their personal objectives.

Remind them that differences of opinion should never prevent them from working together for the good of the Commonwealth.

Make each legislator sensitive to the needs of the people in their districts, but do not let them become insensitive to the needs of the broader community.

Help them to remember that they are not in Richmond to fight their own personal battles, and the good people of their districts did not send them here to use their seat as a stepping-stone to further their own political aspirations.

Shield each Senator and their family from unmerited criticism, malicious inquiry and misguided reporters who seek to ruin their reputations, so that they can focus on the issues of the day and not their future fate.

Prevent the members of this legislative body, from becoming rubber stamps of party politics and losing themselves in the matters that really do not matter.

Cause them to channel their passion into causes greater than their party's political agenda, so that the needs of people can always be placed above any political party.

Keep their minds, so that they will not be chained to the past nor their governance poisoned by their personal agendas.

Finally, remind those who have been designated seats in this room that they are seat warmers for the next generation. Just as someone warmed the seat for them, grant each the sensitivity to the need for him or her to warm this same seat for others.

This we pray, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Locke, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

YEAS--34. NAYS--6. RULE 36--0.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Jane Lyon, Antioch Baptist Church, Red Oak, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, we acknowledge that You are Creator, God and we are the work of Your creative power. We acknowledge that we bear Your image.

We are thankful for the opportunity to live in this Commonwealth and to be a part of these United States. Thankful for the freedom. Thankful for these public servants who represent us to legislate and govern. Thankful for the vision, spirit and will that moved and led our forefathers to declare these self-evident truths that “all (women &) men are created equal and endowed by their CREATOR with certain rights....” Among these are the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of our dreams and our callings.

Grant this body the wisdom and discernment to render themselves to You—the One whose image we bear. Help them consider that the decisions they make bear the mark of a “government of the people, by the people, for the people.” Give them the courage to decide and legislate based on the greater good, and not on what is in the best interest of a few.

God bless this body, this Commonwealth, these United States and the world in which we are located. Remind us and enable us to live with the awareness that what affects one affects all. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A quorum was present.

President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Michael Hirsch, Calvary Christian Church, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, I humbly acknowledge that all power belongs to You, and thank You for these whom You have ordained. May You bless them and their families with Your grace and peace.

May they establish and promote such laws and policies that further Your kingdom while enabling all Virginians to lead quiet and peaceable lives in all godliness and honesty.

Father, as we must be subject to every ordinance for Your sake, we ask Your mercies of continued guidance so they may never be a terror to good works, but ever be a terror to those that are evil.

As ministers of God for the good of the people, may these public servants stand in unity and one accord, working together for good. May Your Spirit grant them that striving together which produces the greatest agreement for good.

Lord, while trembling in the presence of great power, I ask that we remember the least of these and thank You for Your grace to follow the example of Christ in being a servant to all.

I ask these mercies in the name of my Lord and Savior. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2014

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend David Clark, Mizpah Christian Church, Goochland, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we come before Your throne of grace today to thank You for the blessing of Your appointed leadership of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

I thank You for the men and women that have given of their time and talents to serve this great Commonwealth. I know it is a daunting task, one that requires great integrity, selfless service and commitment. And for the service these men and women have provided, I thank You.

I pray that You give each of them clarity of mind, wisdom to make the decisions that are in line with Your will and discernment to know how to lead even when it is not popular. For Father, You have placed each of them here in this place of leadership, at this time, and for Your purpose to represent Your people.

I pray for the Commonwealth of Virginia, that You will allow us to lead by example, that You grace us with Your loving hand of protection and a peace that only You can provide.

Father I pray that You allow each Senator here to understand and appreciate the privilege that You have granted them in representing and guiding this Commonwealth to a bright future.

Father I pray that each vote be made with a clear conscience, a sincerity of heart, and with the people of this Commonwealth in mind. Father, help our leaders to remember that each decision made here will affect someone's daughter, son, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, business owners, farmers, service members, and those so often marginalized by society. Help them to remember their oath and calling to represent the people of this Commonwealth to the best of their ability.

And Father I pray for the families of these Senators as often times unpopular votes are felt most often by those that stand behind and support their loved one. I pray that You allow them to stand firmly in support of the decisions that their loved ones have made.

I make this petition to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Alexander, Barker, Black, Carrico, Colgan, Cosgrove, Deeds, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Garrett, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, Martin, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins, Wexton.

A. The Department of Social Services shall require localities to report all expenditures on designated social services, regardless of reimbursement from state and federal sources. The Department of Social Services is authorized to include eligible costs in its claim for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Maintenance of Effort requirements.

B. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the Commissioner, Department of Social Services shall work with localities that seek to voluntarily merge and consolidate their respective local departments of social services. No funds appropriated under this act shall be used to require a locality to merge or consolidate local departments of social services.

C. The Commissioner, Department of Social Services, in consultation with relevant state and local agencies, shall develop proposed criteria for assessing funding requests for addressing space needs among local departments of social services, as well as proposed consolidated human services buildings. The criteria shall include but not be limited to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, access to public transportation, life safety issues, condition of current space and related major building systems, impact on service delivery, and other factors as may be appropriate. The department shall use the criteria to prioritize local requests for increased state reimbursement for renovating existing space, relocating or constructing new space. For those jurisdictions that, when applying such criteria, achieve high priority ranking for increased state reimbursement, yet initiate local funding actions to address critical space needs or to consolidate human services, they shall nevertheless retain their ranking on the prioritized list of projects for increased state reimbursement for renovating existing space, relocating or constructing new space. The department shall forward a prioritized list of projects to the Secretary of Health and Human Resources and the Department of Planning and Budget by November 1 of each year for consideration by the Governor in the development of the budget. The department shall also submit a copy of the list of prioritized projects by November 1 of each year, to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees.

D.1. Out of this appropriation, $473,844 the first year and $473,844 the second year from the general fund and $781,791 the first year and $781,791 the second year from nongeneral funds shall be provided to support the statewide 2-1-1 Information and Referral System which provides resource and referral information on many of the specialized health and human resource services available in the Commonwealth, including child day care availability and providers in localities throughout the state, and publish consumer-oriented materials for those interested in learning the location of child day care providers.

2. The Department of Social Services shall request that all state and local child-serving agencies within the Commonwealth be included in the Virginia Statewide Information and Referral System as well as any agency or entity that receives state general fund dollars and provides services to families and youth. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources, the Secretary of Education and Workforce, and the Secretary of Public Safety shall assist in this effort by requesting all affected agencies within their secretariats to submit information to the statewide Information and Referral System and ensure that such information is accurate and updated annually. Agencies shall also notify the Virginia Information and Referral System of any changes in services that may occur throughout the year.

3. The Department of Social Services shall communicate with child-serving agencies within the Commonwealth about the availability of the statewide Information and Referral System. This information shall also be communicated via the Department of Social Services' broadcast system on their agency-wide Intranet so that all local and regional offices can be better informed about the Statewide Information and Referral System. Information on the Statewide Information and Referral System shall also be included within the department's electronic mailings to all local and regional offices at least biannually.

E.1. Out of this appropriation, $2,000,000 the first year and ~~$7,500,000~~ $11,871,198 the second year from the general fund and $44,500,000 the first year and $8,200,000 the second year from nongeneral funds shall be provided to modernize eligibility determination systems in the Department of Social Services. If any additional funding is needed, the department shall complete modernization efforts within existing resources.

2. Within 30 days of awarding a contract related to the eligibility project, the Department of Social Services shall provide the Chairmen of House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees, and Director, Department of Planning and Budget with a copy of the contract including costs.

3. Beginning July 1, 2012, the Department of Social Services shall also provide semi-annual progress reports that must include a current project summary, implementation status, accounting of project expenditures and future milestones. All reports shall be submitted to the Chairmen of House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees, and Director, Department of Planning and Budget.

F. Out of this appropriation, $522,286 the second year from the general fund and $1,924,019 the second year from nongeneral funds shall be provided to supplement management and programmatic support of the agency's eligibility systems modernization effort. In addition, eight positions are added in FY 2013. These resources shall be dedicated to the modernization project until its completion or the end of FY 2017, whichever comes first.

G. On or before June 30, 2013 the Department of Social Services shall deposit to the general fund $2,371,057 resulting from the identification of a prior period general fund refund.

C. The State Comptroller shall revert to the general fund a balance of $568,516 on or before June 30, 2015, and a balance of $398,978 on or before June 30, 2016, representing savings from the following vacant judgeships, due to the retirement of the incumbent judges:

1. One Circuit Court judgeship in the Second Circuit, which is expected to become vacant as of December 31, 2014, and which is expected to be filled effective July 1, 2015.
2. One General District Court judgeship in the Thirteenth District, which is expected to become vacant as of July 31, 2014, and which will no longer be authorized as of that date, pursuant to Senate Bill 443.
3. One Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court judgeship in the Thirteenth District, which is expected to become vacant as of December 31, 2014, and which will no longer be authorized as of that date, pursuant to Senate Bill 443.

4. One newly authorized General District Court judgeship in the Eleventh District, which is not expected to be filled until July 1, 2015.

D. With the exceptions as noted in paragraph C. above, the provisions of Senate Bill 443, as adopted by the Senate, shall govern the appointment of judges to the Circuit and District Courts of the Commonwealth."

Explanation:

(This amendment specifies the 401 judgeships for which funding is included in this act as of July 1, 2014, out of the 429 judgeships authorized by Senate Bill 443, as adopted by the Senate, for the Circuit, General District, and Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Courts. The total of 401 judgeships includes 155 Circuit Court judges, 121 General District Court judges, and 125 Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court judgeships funded as of July 1, 2014. During fiscal year 2015, certain retirements and the election of one new judgeship, as specified in this item, will result in a net reduction in the total number of judgeships funded to 399 as of July 1, 2015. These adjustments result in projected unexpended balances of $568,516 the first year and $398,978 the second year, which will be transferred to the general fund on or before June 30 of each year. Page 44, line 14, strike "$449,649,742" and insert "$450,091,543".

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $441,801 each year from the general fund to support the participation of Sheriffs' deputies and regional jail correctional officers in the master deputy program. The budget as introduced included approximately 23.5 percent of the amounts necessary to fully fund 655 sheriffs' deputies and regional jail officers for which program criteria allow participation. This amendment would increase the amounts provided to about 50 percent of the amounts necessary to align the salaries of these deputies and officers with others in their offices that also meet the criteria but are already funded for program participation. This represents the next step in the implementation of this career development program.)

The salary supplement shall be based upon the levels of service offered by the commissioner of the revenue for his/her locality and shall be in accordance with the following schedule:

- a. 4.7 percent increase for all commissioners of the revenue who certify their compliance with the established minimum criteria for the Commissioners of the Revenue Career Development Program;
- b. 2.3 percent additional increase for all commissioners of the revenue who certify their compliance with the established minimum criteria for the Commissioners of the Revenue Career Development Program and provide state income tax or real estate services as described in the minimum criteria for the Commissioners of the Revenue Career Development Program; and
- c. 2.3 percent additional increase for all commissioners of the revenue who certify their compliance with the established minimum criteria for the Commissioners of the Revenue Career Development Program and provide state income tax and real estate services, as described in the minimum criteria for the Commissioners of the Revenue Career Development Program.

C.1. Subject to appropriations by the General Assembly for this purpose, the Compensation Board shall provide for a Deputy Commissioners Career Development Program.

2. For each deputy commissioner selected by the commissioner of the revenue for participation in the Deputy Commissioners Career Development Program, the Compensation Board shall increase the annual salary established for that position by 9.3 percent, following receipt of the commissioner of the revenue's certification that the minimum requirements of the Deputy Commissioners Career Development Program have been met, and provided that such certification is submitted by the commissioner of the revenue as part of the annual budget request to the Compensation Board on or before February 1st of each year for an effective date of salary increase of the following July 1."

"I. In accordance with the provisions of § 19.2-349, Code of Virginia, attorneys for the Commonwealth may employ individuals, or contract with private attorneys, private collection agencies, or other state or local agencies, to assist in collection of delinquent fines, costs, forfeitures, penalties, and restitution. If the attorney for the Commonwealth employs individuals, the costs associated with employing such individuals may be paid from the proceeds of the amounts collected provided that the cost is apportioned on a pro rata basis according to the amount collected which is due the state and that which is due the locality. If the attorney for the Commonwealth does not undertake collection, the attorney for the Commonwealth shall, as soon as practicable, take steps to ensure that any agreement or contract with an individual, attorney or agency complies with the terms of the current Master Guidelines Governing Collection of Unpaid Delinquent Court-Ordered Fines and Costs Pursuant to Virginia Code § 19.2-34 9 promulgated by the Office of the Attorney General, the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court, the Department of Taxation, and the Compensation Board ("the Master Guidelines"). Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the delinquent amounts owed shall be increased by seventeen (17) percent to help offset the costs associated with employing such individuals or contracting with such agencies or individuals. If such increase would exceed the contracted collection agent's fee, then the delinquent amount owed shall be increased by the percentage or amount of the collection agent's fee. Collection fees shall be paid on a contingency basis, except for the administrative cost imposed by a treasurer or local governing body pursuant to § 58.1-3958, Code of Virginia. The attorneys for the Commonwealth shall account for the amounts collected and the fees and costs associated with the collections consistent with procedures issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts."

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the language implementing the collection of delinquent fines, costs, forfeitures, penalties, and restitution, by the Commonwealth's Attorneys. The revised language provides for a consistent collection fee of 17 percent across all localities, eliminates the higher 25 percent collection fee for delinquent accounts over six months, and ensures that contracting is updated to comply with the 2013 legislative policy changes intended by the original language amendment in Item 72.J. in Chapter 806, Acts of Assembly 2013.)

Explanation:

(This amendment strikes reference to the Virginia Wine Board and instead lists the appropriate special fund for which general fund appropriation for the board is to be deposited. The introduced language incorrectly directs that general fund appropriation be set aside for the Wine Board rather than for deposit to the special fund utilized by the Wine Board, the Virginia Wine Promotion Fund. As provided for in § 3.2-3005, Code of Virginia, any appropriation provided for the Wine Board is to be deposited to the Wine Promotion Fund. Explanation:

(This amendment eliminates remaining funding for the college partnership lab schools initiative intended to test innovative approaches to teaching. After several rounds of grant applications and awards, there is approximately $800,000 in uncommitted balances in FY 2014 remaining from this program. Companion amendments capture the unspent balances in FY 2014.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides planning funds for development of a comprehensive data system compliant with federal Individual Education Plan (IEP) requirements. The system will be designed in collaboration with local school systems to be compatible with systems already operating in the local schools. The purpose is to strengthen case management strategies for IEP students and enhance the state's ability to draw down additional Medicaid and other federal dollars.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides support with the Western Virginia Public Education Consortium (WVPEC) to partner with 20 school divisions in southwestern Virginia. In addition, WVPEC collaborates with Virginia Tech and Radford University to provide workshops for school administrators and aspiring superintendents as well as professional development for school personnel and students. The WVPEC was codified in 2000, § 22.1-354.1, and its governing board consists of 34 members that include the superintendents from participating school divisions 11 members of the House of Delegates and four members of the Senate.)

Explanation:

(This amendment restores and provides additional state funding for Project Discovery of Virginia, which helps at-risk students stay in high school and enter college. Project Discovery alumni graduate from high school and attend college at higher rates than their socioeconomic peers. Federal support has been eliminated or reduced in recent years, including a loss of $435,000 from the federal College Access Challenge Grant as Virginia did not meet the maintenance of effort requirement. As a result, program reserves were depleted in FY 2014, leaving the program's financial future in doubt. This amendment will support existing programs, including Abingdon, Charlottesville, Chesapeake, Franklin, Henrico, Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke, Shenandoah, Tazewell, Williamsburg, and others; support continued expansion identified in a 2009 SCHEV study to be funded under the now eliminated federal college access challenge grant, such as Page, Shenandoah, Fredericksburg, Colonial Heights, Petersburg, and Dinwiddie; and if possible support expansion into newer areas also identified in the 2009 SCHEV study, such as Campbell, Halifax, Hanover, and Spotsylvania.)

Next priority shall be given to schools based on need, based on state accreditation ratings or similar federal designations.
b. In the case of any school division with schools that are in Denied Accreditation status that apply for funds, the school division shall also consult with the Superintendent of Public Instruction or designee on all recommendations regarding instructional programs or instructional personnel prior to submission to the local board for approval.
c. Out of this appropriation, $613,312 each year from the general fund is provided for planning grants of no more than $50,000 each for local school divisions pursuing the creation of new year-round school programs for divisions or individual schools in support of the findings from the 2012 JLARC review. School divisions must submit applications to the Department of Education by August 1 of each year. Priority shall be given to schools based on need, based on state accreditation ratings or similar federal designations. Applications shall include evidence of commitment to pursue implementation in the upcoming school year. If balances exist, existing extended school year programs may be eligible to apply for remaining funds.

"18. Beginning with the 2016-18 biennium, the Department of Education shall account for extended school year models in the rebenchmarking of the Standards of Quality by providing the state share for the additional days of instruction provided."

Explanation:

(This amendment adds to funding in the introduced budget for extended learning time models to provide for start-up grants of up to $300,000 per school per year, depending on the extended school year model adopted and would cap planning grants at $50,000 per school division. In addition, the amendment directs the Department of Education to account for extended school year models in the rebenchmarking of the SOQ in future biennia. This amendment supports the finding in the 2012 JLARC study on year round schooling that such schedules can improve student performance in schools with high percentages of at-risk students. Seven school divisions applied for and received a planning grant in FY 2014 for year round schooling.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides funding to implement the strategic plan to establish and validate the Virginia STEAM Academy, which would be a residential facility designed to foster the educational development of Virginia high school students who are academically talented in the areas of science, technology, engineering, and applied mathematics. It would also serve all schools in the Commonwealth through research and outreach. Explanation:

(This amendment provides general fund assistance for the Achievable Dream program operated in partnership with Newport News Public Schools instead of state assistance currently being provided via tax credits for donations. "An Achievable Dream Inc." would still be eligible, but "An Achievable Dream Middle and High School, Inc." would not. The introduced budget proposed eliminating the funding for this rebenchmarking adjustment. Some school divisions may elect to direct these additional resources towards salary increases or bonuses, while others may use them towards retirement contribution rate increases or other school expenses. For illustrative purposes, the state's share of a one percent salary increase for SOQ teachers and support staff would be about $40 million per year. The amendment also directs the Department of Education to collect teacher turnover rates by school division in the annual teacher salary survey data collection and discontinues the requirement to collect average salary data at the school level.)

"b) Beginning with the FY 2016 budget year, Head Start count information shall be based on the most recent data available each fall, and shall be updated annually."

Explanation:

(This amendment 1) funds Virginia Preschool Initiative for At-Risk Four-Year-Olds (VPI) slots at the greater of the values in the budget as introduced or FY 2014 actual slots used, 2) increases in the second year the per pupil amount by almost $100, and 3) directs the Department of Education to update Head Start count data used in the formula for the VPI, and 4) continues to allow expansion grants if any balances remain, per existing language. To determine the number of slots funded per locality, the number of four-year-olds served in Head Start is subtracted from the estimated number of at-risk four-year-olds by locality. Currently, the initial Head Start count data is not updated during the biennium. For example, for the 2014-16 biennium, the Head Start count would be based on the 2012-13 school year. Given the federal reductions to Head Start during the 2013-14 school year, updating the data for FY 2016 would likely provide some slots back to school divisions that lost funding due to sequestration a year sooner. Preliminary information from the Department of Social Services indicates the Head Start count may have been reduced by about 1,000 children in the 2013-14 school year.)

Explanation:

(This amendment reduces the first year amount for the Strategic Compensation Grants Initiative from $7.5 million to $4.5 million and removes second year funding. Thirteen school divisions applied for and were awarded grants totaling $4.5 million in FY 2014. This amendment gives priority to new divisions that did not apply in FY 2014, would require a local match for any re-applicants, and if not enough applications are submitted would allow the Department of Education to offer funding up to the amounts allocated in FY 2014 for those divisions that did not provide 2 percent salary increases in FY 2014.)

Explanation:

(In order to benefit from the operational efficiencies that can allow more resources to support improved student achievement levels and in lieu of transferring certain Petersburg City Schools to the Opportunity Educational Institution, this amendment provides funding in support of transitional incentive costs of a School Services Agreement (SSA) and Tuition Contract to be negotiated between Petersburg and Chesterfield. Upon signature of a Memorandum of Understanding by the two local governments and two school divisions by April 1, 2014 towards development of a more detailed on-going Agreement that would be implemented no later than the 2014-15 school year, the parties may jointly apply for transitional incentive costs which may be based on part of the difference in per pupil spending between the two school divisions. The parameters of the Agreement may include components included in the long-standing Fairfax County and City SSA, under which Fairfax County Public Schools manages and operates the schools, hires and pays staff and develops curriculum, while the City School Board and Superintendent are responsible for the management of the contract and the city-owned buildings. For FY 2012, total operating spending from all sources for Chesterfield Schools was $8,755 per pupil (with FY 2012 enrollment of 58,432 students), compared with $10,655 per pupil in Petersburg (4,104 students), which includes on-going federal School Improvement Grant allocations to raise achievement in persistently lowest achieving schools.)

Explanation:

(This amendment reflects savings by using a three-year average of free lunch eligibility rather than a one-year snapshot of free lunch eligibility in the calculation of the K-3 Class Size Reduction program. Required K-3 school ratios for the program range from 19 to 1 for schools with 30 percent to 45 percent of students eligible for free lunch to 14 to 1 for schools with 75 percent of more students eligible for free lunch.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides a net of $3.0 million the first year and $3.2 million the second year from the general fund to reflect additional sales tax revenues collected as a result of 1) the passage of Senate Bill 100 related to satellite television equipment ($2.8 million per year), 2) an adjustment to the expected impact of the 'Amazon' sales tax bill, and 3) Senate Bill 611 related to compliance ($2.2 million per year). The additional sales tax revenues for public education from these three components total $6.8 million the first year and $7.4 million the second year and the SOQ Basic Aid offset is estimated at $3.7 million the first year and $4.1 million in the second year. Companion amendments to the front page and Item 3-5.03 reflect the revenues and transfer amounts.)

Out of this appropriation, $50,000 the first year and $50,000 the second year is designated to cover direct administrative costs for this program."

Page 143, strike lines 7-9 and insert:

"3. The amount of the grant for an eligible student shall approximate the difference between the costs of tuition and mandatory educational and general fees paid by the recipient at a Virginia two-year public institution of higher education and the cost of such tuition and fees at a Virginia four-year public institution of higher education, as determined by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia. The actual amount of the award depends on the number of students eligible under §§ 23-38.10:9 through 23-38.10:13, Code of Virginia. Changes that decrease the grant amount shall be determined by the Council."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $2.4 million GF in the first year and $3.0 million GF in the second year to provide additional funding to the Two-Year Transfer Grant program. This amendment is a companion to SB 429. The language changes generally would allow transfer grant recipients to receive awards that approximate the difference between the costs of tuition and mandatory educational and general fees paid by the recipient at a Virginia two-year public institution and the cost of such tuition and fees at a Virginia four-year public institution of higher education.)

N. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall implement a module dedicated to veterans and military personnel on the Virginia Education Wizard website, and provide coordination of a consortium between James Madison University, Old Dominion University, University of Virginia, Virginia Tech and the Virginia Community College System to develop and administer a pilot program geared towards assisting Virginia's veterans and military members in applying previous military training and education towards completing existing bachelor's degree and professional certificate programs.

O. By October 15, 2014 the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, in cooperation with the Virginia Department of Education and providers, shall submit a follow-up report to the 2009 Statewide Examination of College Access Services and Resources in Virginia including incorporating relevant longitudinal data now available as appropriate. The review shall evaluate progress on the previously identified areas for increased provider activity: addressing younger students, as early as kindergarten; computer skill training; test preparation assistance; financial literacy; parental programs; and the emotional and logistical transition to college for under-represented populations and first-generation students. In addition, the report shall include any further recommendations for improving statewide coordination, support, information-sharing, and data gathering to address the varied needs identified.

P. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall update instructional and research space planning guidelines during the 2014-2016 biennium.

Q. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall review policies governing land acquisition and site preparation as provided for in § 4-4.01 of this Act at the Virginia Community College System and shall provide recommendations to the Chairmen of House Appropriations and Senate Finance by November 1, 2014. The Council will consult with the System during this review."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $211,000 GF and 3.0 GF FTEs in the first year and $220,196 GF and 3.0 GF FTEs in the second year for operations and for the Council to conduct activities, assessments, and studies related to higher education. The work group shall propose recommendations that may include federal changes including modifications to provisions within the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010. The work group shall consider strategies to (i) define and collect data to create a profile of health care in Virginia, (ii) establish statewide baselines and goals for healthcare spending, quality, and other measures as appropriate, (iii) use existing health care spending programs to accelerate the trend toward coordinated, risk-based care, (iv) encourage consumer selection of high-value care based on cost and quality data, and promote market competition, (v) reform health care regulations to promote system efficiency, and (vi) promote better population health and personal responsibility in health care. The Secretary shall provide annual updates on the work group's findings and recommendations to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees, beginning November 1, 2014."

Explanation:

(This language amendment requires the Secretary of Health and Human Resources, in consultation with the Office of the Governor, to create the Alliance of Stakeholders to Transform the Health Care System work group. The goal of the group is to improve access to quality, affordable healthcare through public or private programs, including a robust safety net in order to reduce the overall trajectory of increasing costs in healthcare. The work group will be headed by the Secretary of Health and Human Resources but include stakeholders from policymakers, state agency heads, employers, providers and consumers. The work group will consider strategies to (i) define and collect data to create a profile of health care in Virginia, (ii) establish statewide baselines and goals for healthcare spending, quality, and other measures as appropriate, (iii) use existing health care spending programs to accelerate the trend toward coordinated, risk-based care, (iv) encourage consumer selection of high-value care based on cost and quality data, and promote market competition, (v) reform health care regulations to promote system efficiency, and (vi) promote better population health and personal responsibility in health care.)

Explanation:

(This amendment reduces $1.4 million GF the second year, reflecting a revised estimate of the number of foster care children that will gain eligibility for coverage through the federal Fostering Connections Act and therefore transfer from CSA to the Title IV-E foster care program funded through the Department of Social Services. The introduced budget includes an initiative to expand access to foster care and adoption subsidies for youth who currently age out at 18. The initial estimate of $2.9 million in GF savings assumed that 51 percent of foster care children funded through CSA would transfer to DSS. The revised estimate assumes 75 percent of foster care children will be transferred, consistent with findings from national consultants who have examined implementation of this issue in other states.)

an evaluation of the initiative in cooperation with public officials in Planning District 16 and report its findings to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees no later than six months after the completion of the pilot program."

Explanation:

(This language amendment requires that the two-year pilot program included in Senate Bill 153 to transfer youth from approved private school special educational programs to a public school special educational program established in Planning District 16 be implemented at no additional cost to the Commonwealth. The amendment also requires CSA to conduct an evaluation of the initiative in cooperation with public officials in Planning District 16. Funding is contingent upon final passage of Senate Bill 153.)

The center is also prohibited from filling vacant positions, unless employment at the center drops below 75 positions. The department may issue a new request for proposal that allows for a reduction in required staffing by 50 percent in the event that no bids are received for the new contract."

Explanation:

(This amendment restores $5.0 million NGF each year and language from the previous year's budget that required any request for proposal issued for basic relay services to require minimum employment levels. Proposed budget language allows the department to rebid the contract at a lower employment level in the event that no bids are received for the contract. The introduced budget assumed savings of $5.0 million NGF from renegotiating the contract without the employment level requirement.)

"2. There is hereby appropriated sum-sufficient nongeneral funds for the Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS) to pay the state share of supplemental payments for qualifying private hospital partners of Type One hospitals (consisting of state-owned teaching hospitals) as provided in the State Plan for Medical Assistance Services. Qualifying private hospitals shall consist of any hospital currently enrolled as a Virginia Medicaid provider and owned or operated by a private entity in which a Type One hospital has a non-majority interest. The supplemental payments shall be based upon the reimbursement methodology established for such payments in Attachments 4.19-A and 4.19-B of the State Plan for Medical Assistance Services. DMAS shall enter into a transfer agreement with any Type One hospital whose private hospital partner qualifies for such supplemental payments, under which the Type One hospital shall provide the state share in order to match federal Medicaid funds for the supplemental payments to the private hospital partner. The department shall have the authority to implement this reimbursement change effective upon passage of this act for all payment periods approved in the State Plan, and prior to the completion of any regulatory process undertaken in order to effect such change.

3. The Department of Medical Assistance Services shall promulgate regulations to make supplemental payments to Medicaid physician providers with a medical school located in Eastern Virginia that is a political subdivision of the Commonwealth. The amount of the supplemental payment shall be based on the difference between the average commercial rate approved by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and the payments otherwise made to physicians. Funding for the state share for the Medicaid payments are authorized in Item 243. The department shall have the authority to implement these reimbursement changes consistent with the effective date in the State Plan amendment approved by CMS and prior to completion of any regulatory process in order to effect such changes.

4. The Department of Medical Assistance Services shall have the authority to amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance to establish a supplemental payment for physicians who are members of a practice plan affiliated with a city-owned, long stay hospital. The supplemental payment for each physician shall be based on the difference between the upper payment limit approved by CMS and the reimbursement otherwise payable to physicians from all other existing payments made under the State Plan effective July 1, 2014. There is hereby appropriated sum-sufficient funds for the Department of Medical Assistance Services to pay the state share of supplemental payments for qualifying physicians. However, the department shall not submit the State Plan amendment until it has contracted with all eligible hospitals to transfer funds to the department for use as the state share. As part of the contract, the hospital must represent that it has the authority to make these transfers and that the funds used will comply with federal law for use as the state share. If the hospital is unable to comply with the contract, the department shall have the authority to repeal the supplemental payments. The department shall have the authority to implement the reimbursement change effective upon approval of the State Plan amendment by CMS and prior to the completion of any regulatory process undertaken in order to effect such change.

5. The Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS) shall have the authority to amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance Services (State Plan) to implement a supplemental Medicaid payment for local government-owned nursing homes. The total supplemental Medicaid payment for local government-owned nursing homes shall be based on the difference between the Upper Payment Limit of 42 CFR §447.272 as approved by CMS and all other Medicaid payments subject to such limit made to such nursing homes. There is hereby appropriated sum-sufficient funds for DMAS to pay the state share of the supplemental Medicaid payment hereunder. However, DMAS shall not submit such State Plan amendment to CMS until it has entered into an intergovernmental agreement with eligible local government-owned nursing homes which requires them to transfer funds to DMAS for use as the state share for the supplemental Medicaid payment each is entitled to and to represent that each has the authority to transfer funds to DMAS and that the funds used will comply with federal law for use as the state share for the supplemental Medicaid payment. If a local government-owned nursing home is unable to comply with the intergovernmental agreement, DMAS shall have the authority to modify the State Plan. The department shall have the authority to implement the reimbursement change effective upon approval of the State Plan amendment by CMS and prior to the completion of any regulatory process undertaken in order to effect such change.

6. Approval of all the supplemental Medicaid payments included in paragraph EEEE. of this item are contingent upon final approval of a program to allow individuals to purchase health care coverage as contemplated under the fourth enactment clause of this Act."

Explanation:

(This amendment reduces $1.4 million GF each year from the introduced budget to provide supplemental physician payments to Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters. Funding instead will be used to offset the cost of restoring inflation for all Virginia hospitals that was reduced by $36 million GF in the budget as introduced. The amendment also provides DMAS with the authority to make supplemental payments to three hospitals and five government-owned nursing homes in order to generate additional federal Medicaid funding for these entities. The amendment provides DMAS with the authority to make supplemental payments to Culpeper Hospital with state funds currently appropriated to UVA Medical Center. Also, the amendment provides DMAS with the authority to make supplemental payments to physicians of Eastern Virginia Medical School (EVMS) with state funds provided by EVMS. In addition, the amendment provides DMAS with the authority to establish a supplemental payment for physicians who are members of a practice plan affiliated with a city-owned, long stay hospital (Lake Taylor Transition Care Hospital). Further, the amendment adds language authorizing DMAS to make Medicaid supplemental payments for qualifying local government-owned nursing homes. The state's share of the supplemental payments will be provided by the local government-owned nursing homes. Finally, language is added making the approval of Medicaid supplemental payments in this item contingent upon final approval of a program to allow individuals to purchase health care coverage as contemplated under the fourth enactment clause of this Act.)

Access to dental care is expected to reduce costs associated with Medicaid-covered newborns as women with gum disease have been found to be seven times more likely to have a pre-term or low birth-weight baby. Explanation:

(This amendment reduces $7.8 million GF and $7.8 million NGF the first year for Medicaid-funded, home- and community-based Intellectual Disabilities (ID) and Developmental Disability (DD) waiver slots consistent with the Department of Justice (DOJ) Settlement Agreement. The introduced budget over-funded the number of community-based ID and DD waiver slots required under the settlement agreement by 225 ID and 10 DD waiver slots in FY 2015. The settlement agreement dictates that the number of slots created in excess of the "requirement shall be counted towards the slots required to be created in the subsequent fiscal year." In FY 2014, more than 350 ID and 55 DD waivers were created above the settlement agreement's requirement, therefore fewer slots are required in FY 2015. Language is also included requiring a comprehensive review of the growth of the ID waiver program that has increased by $474 million since FY 2000, an increase of 341 percent; these figures do not include the cost of providing acute medical services to this population.)

"KKK. The Department of Medical Assistance Services shall amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance to convert the current cost-based payment methodology for nursing facility operating rates in 12 VAC 30-90-41 to a price-based methodology effective July 1, 2014. The new price-based payment methodology shall be implemented in a budget neutral manner.

1. The department shall calculate prospective operating rates for direct and indirect costs in the following manner:
 - a. The department shall calculate the cost per day in the base year for direct and indirect operating costs for each nursing facility. The department shall use existing definitions of direct and indirect costs.
 - b. The initial base year for calculating the cost per day is cost reports ending in calendar year 2011. The department shall rebase prices in fiscal year 2018 and every three years thereafter using the most recent reliable calendar year cost-settled cost reports for freestanding nursing facilities that have been completed as of September 1.

c. Each nursing facility's direct cost per day shall be neutralized by dividing the direct cost per day by the raw Medicaid facility case mix that corresponds to the base year by facility.

d. Costs per day shall be inflated to the midpoint of the fiscal year rate period using the moving average Virginia Nursing Home inflation index for the 4th quarter of each year (the midpoint of the fiscal year). Costs in the 2011 base year shall be inflated from the midpoint of the cost report year to the midpoint of fiscal year 2012 by pro-rating fiscal year 2012 inflation and annual inflation after that. Annual inflation adjustments shall be based on the last available report prior to the beginning of the fiscal year and corrected for any revisions to prior year inflation.

e. Prices will be established for the following peer groups using a combination of Medicare wage regions and Medicaid rural and bed size modifications based on similar costs.

- 1) Direct Peer groups
 - Northern Virginia MSA
 - Other MSAs
 - Northern Rural
 - Southern Rural
- 2) Indirect Peer Groups
 - Northern Virginia MSA
 - Rest of State – Greater than 60 Beds
 - Other MSAs
 - Northern Rural
 - Southern Rural
 - Rest of State – 60 Beds or Less

f. The price for each peer group shall be based on the following adjustment factors:

- 1) Direct - 105 percent of the peer group day-weighted median neutralized and inflated cost per day for freestanding nursing facilities.
 - 2) Indirect - 100.7 percent of the peer group day-weighted median inflated cost per day for freestanding nursing facilities.
- g. Facilities with costs projected to the rate year below 95 percent of the price shall have an adjusted price equal to the price minus the difference between their cost and 95 percent of the unadjusted price. Adjusted prices will be established at each rebasing. New facilities after the base year shall not have an adjusted price until the next rebasing. The "spending floor" limits the potential gain of low cost facilities, thereby making it possible to implement higher adjustment factors for other facilities at less cost.
- h. Individual claim payment for direct costs shall be based on each resident's Resource Utilization Group (RUG) during the service period times the facility direct price (similar to Medicare).
- i. Resource Utilization Group (RUG) is a resident classification system that groups nursing facility residents according to resource utilization and assigns weights related to the resource utilization for each classification. The department shall use RUGS to determine facility case mix for cost neutralization in determining the direct costs used in setting the price and for adjusting the claim payments for residents. The department may elect to transition from the RUG-III 34 Medicaid grouper to the RUG-IV 48 grouper in the following manner.
- 1) The department shall neutralize direct costs per day in the base year using the most current RUG grouper applicable to the base year.
 - 2) The department shall utilize RUG-III 34 groups and weights in fiscal year 2015 for claim payments.
 - 3) Beginning in fiscal year 2016, the department may elect to implement RUG-IV 48 Medicaid groups and weights for claim payments.
 - 4) RUG-IV 48 weights used for claim payments will be normalized to RUG-III 34 weights as long as base year costs are neutralized by the RUG-III 34 group. In that the weights are not the same under RUG IV as under RUG III, normalization will insure that total payments in direct using the RUGs IV 48 weights will be the same as total payments in direct using the RUGs-III 34 grouper.

j. The department shall transition to the price-based methodology over a period of four years, blending the price-based rate described here with the cost-based rate based on current law with the following adjustments. The facility cost-based operating rates shall be the direct and indirect rates for fiscal year 2015 based on facility case mix neutral rates modeled after the law that would have been in effect in fiscal year 2015 absent this amendment and using base year data from calendar year 2011 inflated to the rate year. Based on a four-year transition, the rate will be based on the following blend:

- 1) Fiscal year 2015 - 25 percent of the price-based rate and 75 percent of the cost-based rate.
- 2) Fiscal year 2016 - 50 percent of the price-based rate and 50 percent of the cost-based rate.
- 3) Fiscal year 2017 - 75 percent of the price-based rate and 25 percent of the cost-based rate.
- 4) Fiscal year 2018 - 100 percent of the price-based (fully implemented).

During the first transition year for the period July 1, 2014 through October 31, 2014, DMAS shall case-mix adjust each direct cost component of the rates using the average facility case mix from the two most recent finalized quarters (September and December 2013) instead of adjusting this component claim by claim.

Cost-based rates to be used in the transition for facilities without cost data in the base year but placed in service prior to July 1, 2013 shall be determined based on the most recently settled cost data. If there is no settled cost report at the beginning of a fiscal year, then 100 percent of the price-based rate shall be used for that fiscal year. Facilities placed in service after June 30, 2013 shall be paid 100 percent of the price-based rate.

2. Prospective capital rates shall be calculated in the following manner.
 - a. Fair rental value per diem rates for the fiscal year shall be calculated for all freestanding nursing facilities based on the prior calendar year information aged to the fiscal year and using RS Means factors and rental rates corresponding to the fiscal year. There will be no separate calculation for beds subject to and not subject to transition.

b. The department shall develop a procedure for mid-year fair rental value per diem rate changes for nursing facilities that put into service a major renovation or new beds. A major renovation shall be defined as an increase in capital of $3,000 per bed. The nursing facility shall submit complete pro forma documentation at least 60 days prior to the effective date and the new rate shall be effective at the beginning of the month following the end of the 60 days. The provider shall submit final documentation within 60 days of the new rate effective date and the department shall review final documentation and modify the rate if necessary effective 90 days after the implementation of the new rate. No mid-year rate changes shall be made for an effective date after April 30 of the fiscal year.

c. The rental rate shall be 8.75 percent in fiscal year 2015, 8.5 percent in fiscal year 2016, 8.25 percent in fiscal year 2017 and 8.0 percent in fiscal year 2018 and future years.

d. These FRV changes shall also apply to specialized care facilities.

e. The capital per diem rate for hospital-based nursing facilities shall be the last settled capital per diem.

3. Prospective Nurse Aide Training and Competency Evaluation Programs (NATCEP) rates shall be the Medicaid per diem rate in the base year inflated to the rate year based on inflation used in the operating rate calculations.

4. A prospective rate for criminal records checks shall be the per diem rate in the base year.

5. The department shall have the authority to implement these payment changes effective July 1, 2014 and prior to completion of any regulatory process in order to effect such changes."

Explanation:

(This budget-neutral language amendment requires the Department of Medical Assistance Services to implement a fully prospective, price-based payment methodology for nursing facility services to be phased in over four years beginning July 1, 2014. The new methodology, which grew out of budget language adopted by the 2013 General Assembly, is designed to facilitate the transition of individuals receiving nursing home services to managed care under the dual eligible demonstration project, which is designed to improve coordination of care and potentially reduce costs.)

Explanation:

(This amendment replaces language included in the introduced budget that requires the Department of Medical Assistance Services to amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance to make a budget neutral change to the Mental Health Support Services rate from an hourly unit to a quarter hour unit and instead prohibits DMAS from modifying the unit of service or rate of reimbursement for Mental Health Skill-Building Services (MHSS) prior to review by the 2015 General Assembly. Explanation:

(This amendment adds $1.0 million the first year and $1.4 million the second year from the general fund for two new Permanent Supportive Housing programs to include housing assistance and Intensive Community Treatment (ICT), a smaller team version of Programs for Assertive Community Treatment (PACT) to serve and house 100 individuals with serious mental illness (SMI). Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) reduces and prevents homelessness among adults with SMI and, by ensuring stable affordable housing with intensive supportive services, significantly reduces high-cost emergency and institutional care. Housing assistance budgets will be based on HUD Fair Market Rental Rates after accounting for participants' contributions and ICT services will be provided by a mobile, self-contained interdisciplinary team of at least five full-time equivalent clinical staff for individuals with SMI who are at high risk for hospitalization, emergency room intervention, arrest, and displacement from housing due to their need for intensive outreach and treatment.)

Explanation:

(This amendment adds $336,320 the first year and $336,893 the second year from the general fund to hire security personnel and provide funding for the monthly VITA charge associated with a DS3 line at the Commonwealth Center for Children and Adolescents (CCCA). Western State Hospital (WSH) and the CCCA have shared a campus and numerous support and ancillary services including security and telecommunications and network services. WSH has a new facility which opened October 2013. However, the new campus is no longer located adjacent to the CCCA and is several miles away. Although many shared services will be maintained, CCCA will incur additional operating costs as a result of Western State's move, as some services can no longer be shared due to the increased distance, such as the DS3 connection to the Commonwealth of Virginia network. In addition, the security staff at WSH will no longer be located close enough for appropriate emergency response.)

Any funds that remain unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall be made available for the same purpose in the second year of the biennium.

2. Out of this appropriation, $375,000 the first year shall be used for capital costs at Hiram Davis Medical Center to ensure sufficient medical capacity is available to serve patients with medical needs when the state becomes the facility of last resort."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $4.4 million GF the first year to ensure sufficient bed and medical capacity is available at state mental health facilities to be the provider of last resort if an individual who is held under an emergency custody order is determined to need temporary detention and treatment and an appropriate facility cannot be located within a 24-hour period. The amendment adds $4.1 million GF the first year to create 30 beds at three state mental health facilities. Other amendments provide additional resources to reduce the reliance upon state mental health facilities for inpatient psychiatric treatment, therefore, funding is only provided in the first year. Any unexpended funds in FY 2015 for bed capacity can be carried forward until the next year. Funding included in the introduced budget added 20 acute mental health treatment beds at Eastern State Hospital. Finally, $375,000 GF the first year is included for infrastructure improvements at Hiram Davis Medical Center to ensure appropriate medical care is available if an individual is placed in a state mental health facility.)

Explanation:

(This amendment adds $500,000 each year from the general fund to restore funding for Long-term Employment Support Services, a program designed to assist people with disabilities who are working in supportive competitive employment. Funding for these services has been reduced by 26.9 percent since 2008, while the need for services increased by about one percent each year in the past four years. Explanation:

(This amendment restores $306,866 from the general fund each year for centers for independent living (CILs). Funding for CILs was reduced by 7.5 percent in fiscal year 2009. CILs provide peer monitoring, independent living skills training, information and referral services, and advocacy. This resulted in fewer independent living services to people who are at risk of nursing facility and other institutional placements. In addition, the reduction decreased availability of technical assistance to local governments and other entities that are working to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and other disability rights provisions.)

Explanation:

(This technical amendment moves an appropriation between services areas within a program and will have no impact on agency operations or services. The Department of Social Services (DSS) currently expends all local DSS appropriations from a single service area (46010), thereby creating a single pool for local dollars. The introduced budget attempted to consolidate all appropriation from the two separate service areas (46003 and 46006) into the new one so that the Appropriation Act would reflect agency operations. However, a portion of the local funding ($21.6 million) left in service area (46003) was not moved into the single pool (46010). This technical change is necessary so the budget is transparent and the total support for eligibility operations is not understated.)

B. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall provide written notice to each locality of the amount of its fines reversion as defined in A. above and shall provide a copy of the notice to the State Comptroller.

C. Each locality receiving notice that it has a fines reversion as defined in A. above shall submit a payment to the State Comptroller for the entire amount of the reversion by August 1 for deposit into the Literary Fund."

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the provision included in the 2012 appropriation act concerning the reversion of one-half of the amount of revenues collected by localities based on local ordinances, which was in excess of 50 percent of the total collections from fines and fees. The 2012 appropriation act included language directing the Office of the State Inspector General to review this procedure. This revised language is based on the findings and recommendations in the Inspector General's report, which was released in May 2013. This revised language now restricts the consideration of revenues to be addressed by the Auditor of Public Accounts for this purpose to fines and forfeitures, thereby excluding Sheriffs' and certain other fees from the calculation. In addition, the percentage threshold, above which one half of the excess revenues are to be returned for deposit into the Literary Fund, is increased from 50 to 65 percent.

Finally, the process for reverting the funds has been simplified. A companion amendment to Item 37 in this act provides for the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court to ensure the deposits of these funds for the Commonwealth by the courts.)

"3. That § 30-347 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 30-347. Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission; membership; terms; compensation and expenses; definition.

A. The Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission (the Commission) is established as a commission in the legislative branch of state government. The purpose of the Commission shall be to review, ~~recommend and approve~~ and monitor such innovation and reform proposals affecting the implementation of Title XIX and Title XXI of the Social Security Act, ~~including eligibility and financing for proposals set out in Item 307 of this as set forth in the general appropriation~~ act. Specifically, the Commission shall review and monitor (i) the development of such reform proposals; (ii) progress in obtaining federal approval for such reforms such as benefit design, service delivery, payment reform, and quality and cost containment outcomes; and (iii) implementation of such reform measures.

B. The Commission shall consist of 12 members as follows: the chair of the House Committee on Appropriations, or his designee, and four members of the House Committee on Appropriations appointed by the chair and the chair of the Senate Finance Committee, or his designee, and four members of the Senate Finance Committee appointed by the chair. In addition, the Secretaries of Finance and Health and Human Resources shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members of the Commission.

C. Members shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office. Vacancies for unexpired terms shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments. Members may be reappointed for successive terms.

D.1- The members of the Commission shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually. A majority of the voting members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at the call of the chairman or whenever the majority of the members so request. The Commission shall meet bimonthly beginning in June 2013, or as soon as possible thereafter.

~~2- An affirmative vote by three of the five members of the Commission from the House of Delegates and three of the five members of the Commission from the Senate shall be required to endorse any reform proposal to amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act, and any waivers thereof, to implement coverage for newly eligible individuals pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1396d(y)(1)[2010] of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.~~

E. Legislative members of the Commission shall receive such compensation as provided in § 30-19.12, and nonlegislative members shall receive such compensation as provided in § 2.2-2813.

4. That the Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall develop and implement a program to allow individuals described in 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(10)(A)(i)(VIII) to purchase health care coverage through a private insurance network, which shall be designed to promote efficiency, accountability, personal responsibility, and competitive, value-based purchasing of health care and ensure a model of health coverage for participants that is fiscally sustainable and cost effective. Such program shall include: (i) requirements for a health benefit package based on the Anthem KeyCare 30 Plan; (ii) requirements to include traditional and community-based behavioral health services; (iii) systems for determining eligibility for participation in the program; (iv) provisions for payment of premium assistance for participants; (v) requirements for cost-sharing of up to 5 percent of total household income for health care expenses, as appropriate; (vi) requirements for personal responsibility and accountability related to the delivery of health care such as appropriate use of health care services to avoid overutilization of emergency care and to promote healthy behaviors; (vii) provisions for participation in work search activities for participants not currently employed, receiving unemployment compensation benefits, enrolled as full-time students, or caring for dependent family members under 12 months of age or disabled family members of any age; (viii) provisions for monitoring and oversight of the use of health care services to ensure appropriate utilization; (ix) establishment of a Health Reform and Innovation Fund to consist of projected general fund savings, identified in consultation with the Secretary of Finance, that are attributable to coverage for program participants related to behavioral health services, inmate health care and indigent care and used to provide grants of up to $3.5 million annually to reduce the rate of growth of health care spending; (x) establishment of a Taxpayer Recovery Fund to consist of taxes and other payments paid by residents of the Commonwealth to the federal government and recovered by the Commonwealth and used to support the program; and (xi) a provision for termination of the program if revenues received by the Taxpayer Recovery Fund are less than the commitments set forth in 42 C.F.R. § 433.10(c)(6). The Secretary shall seek all federal approvals necessary to implement the provisions of this enactment clause.

5. That the Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall apply for available federal funding for the purpose of establishing and operating marketplace Virginia to include but not be limited to eligibility, enrollment, consumer assistance, plan management and financial management.

6. That the second enactment of Chapter 679 of the Acts of Assembly of 2013 is repealed."

Explanation:

(This amendment adds four enactment clauses to the appropriation act.

Enactment clause 3 removes the requirement that the Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission (MIRC) recommend and approve Medicaid reform proposals and deletes a requirement that the Commission must approve by an affirmative vote an expansion of Medicaid to newly eligible individuals.

Enactment clause 4 requires the Secretary of Health and Human Resources to develop and implement a program to allow low-income uninsured Virginians to purchase health care coverage through a private insurance network. The program must include: (i) requirements for a health benefit package based on the Anthem KeyCare 30 Plan; (ii) requirements to include traditional and community-based behavioral health services; (iii) systems for determining eligibility for participation in the program; (iv) provisions for payment of premium assistance for participants; (v) requirements for cost-sharing of up to 5 percent of total household income for health care expenses, as appropriate; (vi) requirements for personal responsibility and accountability related to the delivery of health care such as appropriate use of health care services to avoid overutilization of emergency care and to promote healthy behaviors; (vii) provisions for participation in work search activities for participants not currently employed, receiving unemployment compensation benefits, enrolled as full-time students, or caring for dependent family members under 12 months of age or disabled family members of any age; (viii) provisions for monitoring and oversight of the use of health care services to ensure appropriate utilization; (ix) establishment of a Health Reform and Innovation Fund to consist of projected general fund savings, identified in consultation with the Secretary of Finance, attributable to coverage for program participants related to behavioral health services, inmate health care and indigent care and used to provide grants of up to $3.5 million annually to reduce the rate of growth of health care spending; (x) establishment of a Taxpayer Recovery Fund to consist of taxes and other payments paid by residents of the Commonwealth to the federal government and recovered by the Commonwealth and used to support the program; and (xi) a provision for termination of the program if revenues received by the Taxpayer Recovery Fund are less than the commitments set forth in 42 C.F.R. § 433.10(c)(6). The Secretary shall seek all federal approvals necessary to implement the provisions of this enactment clause.

Enactment clause 5 requires the Secretary of Health and Human Resources to apply for available federal funding for the purpose of establishing and operating marketplace Virginia to include but not be limited to eligibility, enrollment, consumer assistance, plan management and financial management.

Enactment clause 6 repeals the second enactment of Chapter 679 of the Acts of Assembly of 2013 related to the creation of a health benefit exchange.)

3. That the Code of Virginia is amended and re-enacted by adding a new Section 46.2-689.10, relating to annual motor vehicle registration fees for diesel-powered passenger vehicles, and amending and re-enacting Section 58.1-2259 as follows:

"46.2-689.10. Refund for Certain Diesel Passenger Vehicles.

The Department of Motor Vehicles shall discount by $20.00 per year the fees provided in §§ 46.2-694 and 46.2-697, Code of Virginia, for any person registering or renewing the registration of any vehicle (i) that is designed to be powered by diesel fuel, (ii) that is either a passenger car, a pickup or panel truck, or a truck, as those terms are defined in § 46.2-100, Code of Virginia, and (iii) that, if it is a truck, has a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less. The Department shall provide such discounted fees to vehicle registrants and shall not provide any refunds under subsection E of § 58.1-2259, Code of Virginia, to persons purchasing diesel fuel. Each discount provided by the Department shall be deducted from those portions of the registration fees that are to be deposited to the Highway Maintenance and Operating Fund.

§ 58.1-2259. Fuel uses eligible for refund of taxes paid for motor fuels.

A. A refund of the tax paid for the purchase of fuel in quantities of five gallons or more at any time shall be granted in accordance with the provisions of § 58.1-2261 to any person who establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such person has paid the tax levied pursuant to this chapter upon any fuel:

1. Sold and delivered to a governmental entity for its exclusive use;
2. Used by a governmental entity, provided persons operating under contract with a governmental entity shall not be eligible for such refund;
3. Sold and delivered to an organization described in subdivision 2 of § 58.1-2226 or subdivision 2 of § 58.1-2250 for its exclusive use in the operation of an aircraft;
4. Used by an organization described in subdivision 2 of § 58.1-2226 or subdivision 2 of § 58.1-2250 for its exclusive use in the operation of an aircraft, provided persons operating under contract with such an organization shall not be eligible for such refund;
5. Purchased by a licensed exporter and subsequently transported and delivered by such licensed exporter to another state for sales or use outside the boundaries of the Commonwealth if the tax applicable in the destination state has been paid, provided a refund shall not be granted pursuant to this section on any fuel which is transported and delivered outside of the Commonwealth in the fuel supply tank of a highway vehicle or an aircraft;
6. Used by any person performing transportation under contract or lease with any transportation district for use in a highway vehicle controlled by a transportation district created under the Transportation District Act of 1964 (§ 15.2-4500 et seq.) and used in providing transit service by the transportation district by contract or lease, provided the refund shall be paid to the person performing such transportation;

7. Used by any private, nonprofit agency on aging, designated by the Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services, providing transportation services to citizens in highway vehicles owned, operated or under contract with such agency;

8. Used in operating or propelling highway vehicles owned by a nonprofit organization that provides specialized transportation to various locations for elderly or disabled individuals to secure essential services and to participate in community life according to the individual's interest and abilities;

9. Used in operating or propelling buses owned and operated by a county or the school board thereof while being used to transport children to and from public school or from school to and from educational or athletic activities;

10. Used by buses owned or solely used by a private, nonprofit, nonreligious school while being used to transport children to and from such school or from such school to and from educational or athletic activities;

11. Used by any county or city school board or any private, nonprofit, nonreligious school contracting with a private carrier to transport children to and from public schools or any private, nonprofit, nonreligious school, provided the tax shall be refunded to the private carrier performing such transportation;

12. Used in operating or propelling the equipment of volunteer firefighting companies and of volunteer rescue squads within the Commonwealth used actually and necessarily for firefighting and rescue purposes;

13. Used in operating or propelling motor equipment belonging to counties, cities and towns, if actually used in public activities;

14. Used for a purpose other than in operating or propelling highway vehicles, watercraft or aircraft;

15. Used off-highway in self-propelled equipment manufactured for a specific off-road purpose, which is used on a job site and the movement of which on any highway is incidental to the purpose for which it was designed and manufactured;

16. Proven to be lost by accident, including the accidental mixing of (i) dyed diesel fuel with tax-paid motor fuel, (ii) gasoline with diesel fuel, or (iii) undyed diesel fuel with dyed kerosene, but excluding fuel lost through personal negligence or theft;

17. Used in operating or propelling vehicles used solely for racing other vehicles on a racetrack;

18. Used in operating or propelling unlicensed highway vehicles and other unlicensed equipment used exclusively for agricultural or horticultural purposes on lands owned or leased by the owner or lessee of such vehicles and not operated on or over any highway for any purpose other than to move it in the manner and for the purpose mentioned. The amount of refund shall be equal to the amount of the taxes paid less one-half cent per gallon on such fuel so used which shall be paid by the Commissioner into the state treasury to the credit of the Virginia Agricultural Foundation Fund;

19. Used in operating or propelling commercial watercraft. The amount of refund shall be equal to the amount of the taxes paid less one and one-half cents per gallon on such fuel so used which shall be paid by the Commissioner into the state treasury to be credited as provided in subsection D of § 58.1-2289. If any applicant so requests, the Commissioner shall pay into the state treasury, to the credit of the Game Protection Fund, the entire tax paid by such applicant for the purposes specified in subsection D of § 58.1-2289. If any applicant who is an operator of commercial watercraft so requests, the Commissioner shall pay into the state treasury, to the credit of the Marine Fishing Improvement Fund, the entire tax paid by such applicant for the purposes specified in § 28.2-208;

20. Used in operating stationary engines, or pumping or mixing equipment on a highway vehicle if the fuel used to operate such equipment is stored in an auxiliary tank separate from the fuel tank used to propel the highway vehicle, and the highway vehicle is mechanically incapable of self-propulsion while fuel is being used from the auxiliary tank; or

21. Used in operating or propelling recreational and pleasure watercraft.

B. 1. Any person purchasing fuel for consumption in a solid waste compacting or ready-mix concrete highway vehicle, or a bulk feed delivery truck, where the vehicle's equipment is mechanically or hydraulically driven by an internal combustion engine that propels the vehicle, is entitled to a refund in an amount equal to 35 percent of the tax paid on such fuel. For purposes of this section, a "bulk feed delivery truck" means bulk animal feed delivery trucks utilizing power take-off (PTO) driven auger or air feed discharge systems for off-road deliveries of animal feed.

2. Any person purchasing fuel for consumption in a vehicle designed or permanently adapted solely and exclusively for bulk spreading or spraying of agricultural liming materials, chemicals, or fertilizer, where the vehicle's equipment is mechanically or hydraulically driven by an internal combustion engine that propels the vehicle, is entitled to a refund in an amount equal to 55 percent of the tax paid on such fuel.

C. Any person purchasing any fuel on which tax imposed pursuant to this chapter has been paid may apply for a refund of the tax if such fuel was consumed by a highway vehicle used in operating an urban or suburban bus line or a taxicab service. This refund also applies to a common carrier of passengers which has been issued a certificate pursuant to § 46.2-2075 or 46.2-2099.4 providing regular route service over the highways of the Commonwealth. No refund shall be granted unless the majority of the passengers using such bus line, taxicab service or common carrier of passengers do so for travel of a distance of not more than 40 miles, one way, in a single day between their place of abode and their place of employment, shopping areas or schools.

If the applicant for a refund is a taxicab service, he shall hold a valid permit from the Department to engage in the business of a taxicab service. No applicant shall be denied a refund by reason of the fee arrangement between the holder of the permit and the driver or drivers, if all other conditions of this section have been met.

Under no circumstances shall a refund be granted more than once for the same fuel. The amount of refund under this subsection shall be equal to the amount of the taxes paid, except refunds granted on the tax paid on fuel used by a taxicab service shall be in an amount equal to the tax paid less $0.01 per gallon on the fuel used.

Any refunds made under this subsection shall be deducted from the urban highway funds allocated to the highway construction district, pursuant to Article 1.1 (§ 33.1-23.01 et seq.) of Chapter 1 of Title 33.1, in which the recipient has its principal place of business.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all provisions of law applicable to the refund of fuel taxes by the Commissioner generally shall apply to the refunds authorized by this subsection. Any county having withdrawn its roads from the secondary system of state highways under provisions of § 11 Chapter 415 of the Acts of 1932 shall receive its proportionate share of such special funds as is now provided by law with respect to other fuel tax receipts.

D. Any person purchasing fuel for consumption in a vehicle designed or permanently adapted solely and exclusively for bulk spreading or spraying of agricultural liming materials, chemicals, or fertilizer, where the vehicle's equipment is mechanically or hydraulically driven by an internal combustion engine that propels the vehicle, is entitled to a refund in an amount equal to 55 percent of the tax paid on such fuel.

~~E. Any person purchasing diesel fuel used in operating or propelling a passenger car, a pickup or panel truck, or a truck having a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less is entitled to a refund of a portion of the taxes paid in an amount equal to the difference between the rate of tax on diesel fuel and the rate of tax on gasoline and gasohol pursuant to § 58.1-2217. For purposes of this subsection, "passenger car," "pickup or panel truck," and "truck" shall have the meaning given in § 46.2-100. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, diesel fuel used in a vehicle upon which the fuels tax has been refunded pursuant to this subsection shall be exempt from the tax imposed under Chapter 6 (§ 58.1-600 et seq.).~~

F. Refunds resulting from any fuel shipments diverted from Virginia shall be based on the amount of tax paid for the fuel less discounts allowed by § 58.1-2233.

G. Any person who is required to be licensed under this chapter and is applying for a refund shall not be eligible for such refund if the applicant was not licensed at the time the refundable transaction was conducted. "

Explanation:

(This amendment modifies provisions of House Bill 2313 as adopted by the 2013 General Assembly relating to the provision of a refund on gasoline taxes paid by diesel powered passenger vehicles of 10,000 or fewer pounds. As adopted, HB 2313 provides a mechanism whereby owners of diesel passenger vehicles may apply for and receive a refund for the portion of motor fuel taxes they are charged that is in excess of the amount paid by gasoline powered passenger vehicles. This process has proven to be cumbersome. As an alternative, this language would reduce the annual vehicle registration fee paid by owners of these diesel passenger vehicles in an amount

b. The nongeneral fund capital outlay decentralization programs initiated pursuant to § 4-5.08b of Chapter 912, 1996 Acts of Assembly as continued in subsequent appropriation acts are hereby made permanent. Decentralization programs for which institutions have executed memoranda of understanding with the Secretary of Administration pursuant to the provisions of § 4-5.08b of Chapter 912, 1996 Acts of Assembly shall no longer be considered pilot projects, and shall remain in effect until revoked.

c. Institutions wishing to participate in a nongeneral fund capital outlay decentralization program for the first time shall submit a letter of interest to the appropriate Cabinet Secretary. Within 90 calendar days of the receipt of the institution's request to participate, the responsible Cabinet Secretary shall determine whether the institution meets the eligibility criteria and, if appropriate, establish a decentralization program at the institution. The Cabinet Secretary shall report to the Governor and Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees by December 1 of each year all institutions that have applied for inclusion in a decentralization program and whether the institutions have been granted authority to participate in the decentralization program.

d. The provisions identified in § 4-5.08 f and § 4-5.08 h of Chapter 1042 of the Acts of Assembly of 2003 pertaining to pilot programs for selected capital outlay projects and memoranda of understanding in institutions of higher education are hereby continued. Notwithstanding these provisions, those projects shall be insured through the state's risk management liability program.

e. If during an independent audit conducted by the Auditor of Public Accounts, the audit discloses that an institution is not performing within the terms of the memoranda of understanding or their addenda, the Auditor shall report this information to the Governor, the responsible Cabinet Secretary, and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees.

f. Institutions that have executed memoranda of understanding with the Secretary of Administration for nongeneral fund capital outlay decentralization programs are hereby granted a waiver from the provisions of § 2.2-4301, Competitive Negotiation, subdivision 3a, Code of Virginia, regarding the not to exceed amount of $100,000 for a single project, the not to exceed sum of $500,000 for all projects performed, and the option to renew for two additional one-year terms.

g. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or this act, delegations of authority in this act to the Governor shall apply only to agencies and personnel within the Executive Department, unless specifically stated otherwise.

“18. Out of this appropriation, up to $1,050,000 the first year and $600,000 the second year from the general fund is provided as additional state support for Petersburg City Schools, and requires a local match based on the Composite Index, for hiring certified teachers, mentoring programs that involve the business community, and other wrap around services. The funding may also be used to support continuing Lead Turnaround Partners in those schools no longer eligible as a “priority” school for federal School Improvement Grant funding and/or additional technical assistance provided by the Department of Education. The Office of School Improvement within the Department of Education shall supervise the distribution of these funds, consistent with the adopted Corrective Action Plan required by the Memorandum of Understanding.”

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The Chair ruled that the amendment offered by Senator Marsh to S.B. 30 was out of order, the amendment proposed by the Senate Committee on Finance (Item 36 #11s) having been agreed to.

Senator Miller offered the following amendment:

1. Line 39, introduced, at the beginning of line 39

Veterans Affairs and Homeland Security	Item 462 1s
Department of Veterans Services

Language:

“B. The Department of Veterans Services shall engrave the names and homes of record of all Virginians who rendered faithful military service and paid the ultimate sacrifice in a combat zone in the War on Terror, on the walls of the Virginia War Memorial’s current, permanent Shrine of Memory, pursuant to Senate Bill 987 of the 2013 General Assembly. It is the intention of the General Assembly that these names be engraved on the walls of the Shrine of Memory not later than December 31, 2014, with funds appropriated to this Item.”

On motion of Senator Miller, the reading of the amendment was waived.

On motion of Senator Miller, the amendment was agreed to.

Senator Stosch moved that the Rules be suspended and the third reading of the title of S.B. 30 as required by Article IV, Section 11, of the Constitution, be dispensed with.

The motion was agreed to.
