Amend
\text{ə-mend}'

To change the wording or meaning of a bill, constitution, etc.

Bill
\text{bil}'

An idea or plan for a possible new law.

Branches of Government
\text{brənch-iz}' \text{guv'-ərn-mənt}'

The three branches of government are the executive, legislative, and judicial.

Calendar
\text{kəl'-ən-dər}

A list of the days, weeks, and months of a particular year.

The General Assembly meets annually, starting the second Wednesday in January, for 60 days in even-numbered years and 30 days in odd-numbered years.

Capitol
\text{kæp'-ət-l}

The building where a state's government meets. The architecture of the Virginia State Capitol was designed by Thomas Jefferson after a Classical Roman temple in Nîmes, France.

Capital
\text{kap'-ət-l}

The city where the government of a state is located.

The capital of Virginia is located in Richmond, near the James River. The capital of the United States is Washington DC, which is located north of Richmond.

Commonwealth
\text{kəm'-ən-welth}'

A government based upon the power of the people united for the common good or common wealth.

Virginia, Kentucky, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania are all Commonwealths.

The General Assembly
\text{jən'-ər-əl} \text{ə-sem'-bli}'

The legislative branch of Virginia government that makes state laws. The General Assembly consists of the House of Delegates and the Senate.

Governor
\text{guv'-ə-nər}

A person who is the state's top elected official and is the head of the executive branch of government.

Community
\text{kə-mə-myōō'-ə-nə-tē}

A group of people living in a particular place or area.

Citizen
\text{sət-zən}

A member of a state or nation who owes allegiance to its government and is entitled to its protection.

Constitution
\text{kən-stish'-ən}

A member of a state or nation who owes allegiance to its government and is entitled to its protection.

An official document that establishes the basic principles of government.

Constituent
\text{kən-stitch'-ənt}

A person who is represented by an elected official.

Government
\text{guv'-ərn-mənt}

A representative group of people who make rules and laws, carry out rules and laws, and decide if rules and laws have been broken.

Law
\text{lô}

Rules people live by.

For example, you must obey traffic signs.
Legislator

An elected member of a legislative body who acts for or represents others.

A legislator in Virginia is known as a Delegate or Senator.

Representative Democracy

A government in which people vote for (elect) a smaller group of citizens to make rules and laws for everyone.

Rules

What people must or must not do.

Patriotic

Having and showing respect and love for your country.

For example, July 4th is the day the United States of America celebrates its independence and many people wear red, white, and blue, and display the American flag.

Session

The time period the General Assembly meets to conduct business.

Symbol

A sign or object that stands for something else.

The Dogwood is the State Flower.

Population

Number of people living in a community.

Each House of Delegates member represents approximately 80,000 citizens. Each Senate member represents approximately 176,000 citizens.

Tax

The money that you have to pay to the government so that it can provide public services.

Tradition

A custom or belief that happens over a long period of time.

For example, the Virginia General Assembly has met since 1619.

Veto

To not approve or reject a bill.

Virginia House of Burgesses

In 1619, the first elected representative legislative assembly in North America met at Jamestown.

Vote

An expression of your choice, usually by raising your hand or writing on a piece of paper.