CERTIFICATION OF THE ACTS OF ASSEMBLY

2015 SPECIAL SESSION I

I, G. Paul Nardo, Clerk of the House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of the Commonwealth, do hereby certify that the 2015 Special Session I of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia, at which the Acts of Assembly herein printed were enacted, convened on Monday, August 17, 2015, remaining in Session until 11:59 a.m., Wednesday, January 13, 2016, ended pursuant to the limitations of House Joint Resolution 5001.

G. PAUL NARDO
Clerk of the House of Delegates and
Keeper of the Rolls of the Commonwealth
RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5001

Limiting legislation to be considered by the 2015 Special Session I of the General Assembly and establishing a schedule for the conduct of business coming before such special session.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015
Agreed to by the Senate, August 17, 2015

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That during the 2015 Special Session I of the General Assembly, summoned by proclamation of the Governor on July 16, 2015, to begin on Monday, August 17, 2015, no bill, joint resolution, or resolution shall be offered in either house during the special session other than those relating to (i) the redrawing of the districts of the members of the United States House of Representatives; (ii) the election of judges and other officials subject to election by the General Assembly; (iii) the rules of procedure or schedule of business of the General Assembly, either of its houses, or any of its committees; (iv) commending and memorial House resolutions that have been filed with the House Clerk's office no later than 9:00 a.m. on Monday, August 17, 2015 and commending and memorial Senate resolutions that have been filed with the Senate Clerk's office no later than 5:00 p.m. on Monday, August 17, 2015; or (v) confirming appointments subject to the confirmation of the General Assembly; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That, after the special session is convened for the first time, it may stand in recess from time to time until reconvened by the joint call of the Speaker of the House of Delegates and the Chair of the Senate Committee on Rules to consider such matters as are provided for in this resolution; and, be it

RESOLVED FINALLY, That members of the General Assembly shall receive session per diem for any day they attend a scheduled floor session at which an attendance roll call is taken. Session per diem shall not be allowed for legislative assistants. Session per diem shall not be allowed for members of the General Assembly during a recess of the special session. However, members may receive compensation while the General Assembly is in recess, as provided in § 30-19.12 of the Code of Virginia and in the 2014-2016 Appropriation Act, as follows: (i) members of any standing committee of the General Assembly; (ii) members of any committee of conference; or (iii) members of any legislative committee, commission, or council established by the General Assembly.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5002

Election of a Supreme Court of Virginia Justice, a General District Court Judge, and a Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court Judge.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015
Agreed to by the Senate, August 17, 2015

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly shall proceed this day
To the election of a Supreme Court of Virginia justice for a term of twelve years commencing September 17, 2015.

To the election of a General District Court judge of the Twenty-sixth Judicial District for a term of six years commencing September 17, 2015.

To the election of a Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court judge of the Fourth Judicial District for a term of six years commencing September 17, 2015.

And that in the execution of the joint order nominations shall be made in the order herein named, and that each house shall be notified of said nominations, and when the rolls shall be called for the whole number, the presiding officers of each house shall appoint a committee of three, which together shall constitute the joint committee to count the vote of each house in each case and report the results to their respective houses. The joint order may be suspended by the presiding officer of either house at any time but for no longer than twenty-four hours to receive the report of the joint committee.

Commending Thomas Briggs Simmons, Jr.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, Thomas Briggs Simmons, Jr., an active young leader in the Courtland community, attained the rank of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts of America in 2015; and

WHEREAS, a senior at Southampton High School, Thomas Simmons is a longtime member of the soccer team and a diligent student; he is a member of the National Honor Society and has taken advanced courses through Paul D. Camp Community College for two years; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Simmons is a respected member of Troop 17 of the Boy Scouts of America, and he was selected by his fellow Scouts to become a member of the prestigious Order of the Arrow in April 2015; and

WHEREAS, to attain the rank of Eagle Scout, Thomas Simmons earned at least 21 merit badges and consistently demonstrated adherence to the ideals of Scout Spirit through his leadership, hard work, and service to the community; and

WHEREAS, as his Eagle Scout service project, Thomas Simmons helped install a flagpole and a flower bed with a masonry border at the Sebrell Community Center in northern Southampton County; the flagpole is easily visible by motorists on nearby Route 35; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Simmons was recognized for his accomplishments at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor ceremony on August 2, 2015; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Thomas Briggs Simmons, Jr., hereby be commended on achieving the rank of Eagle Scout; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Thomas Briggs Simmons, Jr., as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for his contributions to the community.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 502

Commending Sappony Baptist Church.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, Sappony Baptist Church in Stony Creek, one of the first Baptist churches built in the Commonwealth, celebrates more than 240 years of joyfully worshipping in the Baptist tradition and serving and strengthening the Sussex County community in 2015; and

WHEREAS, originally known as Sappony Meeting House, Sappony Baptist Church was established in 1773 with John Rivers as its first pastor; the church opened its doors to all faithful members of the community, regardless of ethnicity or background; and

WHEREAS, a steadfast witness to history, Sappony Baptist Church was the site of an engagement between Confederate and Union forces in the American Civil War; numerous cannonball holes sustained by the church during the battle are still viewable, preserved behind protective glass; and

WHEREAS, throughout its long history, the members of Sappony Baptist Church have nurtured their faith and worked to enhance the entire community; the church has completed numerous renovations and enhancements with the help and generosity of countless local residents; and

WHEREAS, the Sappony Baptist Church congregation has been ably led by many dedicated pastors, all of whom have provided inspiring worship services, sound biblical teachings, and a strong commitment to mission work; and

WHEREAS, an active leader in the region and the faith community, Sappony Baptist Church participated in the World Mission Conference in 1999 and donated to Hurricane Floyd disaster relief in Franklin; the church is also approved for use as a local shelter in times of disaster; and

WHEREAS, Sappony Baptist Church commemorated its anniversary with a special homecoming service and a lunch on June 21, 2015, bringing together current and former members of the congregation to celebrate the church's legacy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Sappony Baptist Church hereby be commended on its contributions to the community on the occasion of its 242nd anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Reverend James Stone, pastor of Sappony Baptist Church, as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for the church's proud history of spiritual leadership and service to Stony Creek and Sussex County.
HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 503

Commending Richard B. Kaufman.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, Richard B. Kaufman, a devoted public servant who has worked to strengthen and enhance the Herndon community for more than two decades, retired as the town attorney of Herndon on June 30, 2015; and
WHEREAS, appointed by the Herndon Town Council to serve as town attorney on October 3, 1994, Richard Kaufman earned respect for his calm and humble demeanor, attention to detail, and commitment to excellent work; and
WHEREAS, Richard Kaufman assisted the Herndon Town Council by preparing and advancing legislative proposals in coordination with other localities and local entities; he also ensured the efficient operation of the town by providing practical solutions and legal support; and
WHEREAS, during his tenure, Richard Kaufman successfully managed numerous complex issues for the Town of Herndon, including the redevelopment of downtown and the Herndon Metro station area; and
WHEREAS, respected in the region and throughout the Commonwealth for his legal expertise, Richard Kaufman served with the Virginia Municipal League and the Local Government Attorneys of Virginia, Inc., and he has authored numerous articles on important legal issues; and
WHEREAS, Richard Kaufman is an exemplar of the dedication and hard work displayed by public servants around the Commonwealth and an embodiment of the spirit of Herndon; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Richard B. Kaufman, a true Virginia gentleman, hereby be commended on the occasion of his retirement as the town attorney of Herndon; and, be it
RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Richard B. Kaufman as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for his exceptional service to the Herndon community and best wishes on his retirement.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 504

Commending Bradford Rundlett.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, Bradford Rundlett, a compassionate spiritual leader whose guiding influence can be felt throughout the Herndon community and the Commonwealth, retired as rector of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church in Herndon in August 2015; and
WHEREAS, Bradford "Brad" Rundlett began his career in ministry with the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany in Spartansburg, South Carolina, where he cultivated his reputation as a unifying leader and a humble servant to the community; he then served at St. James' Episcopal Church in Potomac, Maryland, and St. Andrew the Fisherman Episcopal Church in Mayo, Maryland; and
WHEREAS, after arriving at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church in 1994, Brad Rundlett led efforts to renovate the church and revitalize the congregation; 20 years later, the church has expanded significantly and the congregation has been deeply strengthened; and
WHEREAS, Brad Rundlett lives his faith through his actions, and he has developed a comprehensive mission program at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church; he has supported the Hispanic community in Herndon and founded a youth ministry that serves children in multiple congregations; and
WHEREAS, Brad Rundlett has worked as a missionary in Appalachia, South Dakota, and Haiti, and under his leadership, St. Timothy's Episcopal Church regularly conducts mission trips to Dungannon in Scott County, Chapoteau in Haiti, and Pine Ridge in South Dakota; and
WHEREAS, admired as a devoted mentor and a role model for those seeking a life in ministry, Brad Rundlett served as a field site supervisor and a colloquy mentor for Virginia Theological Seminary, and he has guided many young assistant rectors and seminarians, including those who have gone on to become ministers in other denominations; and
WHEREAS, believing firmly in the power of a strong, united community, Brad Rundlett hosts a monthly lunch with spiritual leaders from other denominations, and his efforts have fostered valuable interfaith dialogue among churches in the Herndon area; he has also studied Jewish history in Israel and Celtic spirituality in Ireland; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Bradford Rundlett hereby be commended for his service to the Herndon community on the occasion of his retirement as rector of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church; and, be it
RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Bradford Rundlett as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for his valuable contributions to his congregation and the residents of the Commonwealth.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 570

Commending the University of Virginia wrestling team.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, the University of Virginia wrestling team won the National Collegiate Athletic Association Atlantic Coast Conference championship in March 2015; and

WHEREAS, in a thrilling upset, the fourth-seeded University of Virginia Cavaliers defeated the second-place University of Pittsburgh Panthers by an impressive margin with a final score of 85.5 to 71; and

WHEREAS, all 10 wrestlers from the University of Virginia contributed to the victory, which was the fifth Atlantic Coast Conference title in program history; each member of the team finished in fourth place or higher; and

WHEREAS, George DiCamillo took first place in the 133-pound weight class, and Nick Sulzer repeated as the conference champion in the 165-pound weight class; four other wrestlers—Nick Herrmann, Andrew Atkinson, Blaise Butler, and Zach Nye—advanced to the final matches in their weight classes; and

WHEREAS, Joe Spisak finished third in his weight class and T.J. Miller, Tyler Askey, and Patrick Gillen all finished fourth in their weight classes; seven of the University of Virginia Cavaliers earned berths at the National College Athletic Association national championships, capping off the outstanding team effort; and

WHEREAS, the victory is a testament to the determination and hard work of the athletes, the able leadership of the coaches and staff, and the passionate support of the entire University of Virginia Wahoo community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That the University of Virginia wrestling team hereby be commended on winning the 2015 National Collegiate Athletic Association Atlantic Coast Conference championship; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Steve Garland, head coach of the University of Virginia wrestling team, as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for the team's accomplishments.
HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 571

Commending Charles L. Werner.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, Charles L. Werner, a dedicated civic servant and a respected expert in fire science and emergency response, retired as chief of the Charlottesville Fire Department in 2015, after a distinguished 41-year career; and

WHEREAS, Charles Werner joined the Harrisonburg Fire Department at the age of 14 as a volunteer, and by the age of 16 he had become the youngest person to serve as a captain; he later joined the Charlottesville Fire Department, where he worked for 37 years and rose through the ranks from firefighter to chief; and

WHEREAS, during his 10-year tenure as chief of the Charlottesville Fire Department, Charles Werner implemented numerous innovative changes to training and technology to better serve the community, while increasing the safety and efficiency of his firefighters and saving taxpayer money; and

WHEREAS, Charles Werner's practices and policies helped drastically reduce fire deaths in the city, and many of his programs have been emulated at fire departments throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, under Charles Werner's able leadership, the Charlottesville Fire Department became one of only 60 departments in the country to receive an Insurance Services Office Class 1 Fire Protection rating; and

WHEREAS, Charles Werner oversaw the construction of a new station, which was recognized as one of the best in the country, and he helped the Charlottesville Fire Department achieve accreditation through the Commission on Fire Accreditation International; and

WHEREAS, a trusted expert in the field, Charles Werner has been called upon to testify before the United States Congress and the Virginia General Assembly, and he has shared his knowledge and experience with other chiefs and members of the media; and

WHEREAS, Charles Werner has held leadership positions in peer and professional organizations at local, state, and national levels; he has helped ensure successful collaborations between departments, government agencies, and other organizations, resulting in valuable improvements to training, techniques, and equipment; and

WHEREAS, Charles Werner has also authored dozens of publications on firefighting and offers his services as an editor and an amateur web designer to firefighting magazines and websites; he has earned numerous awards and accolades at local, state, and national levels for his myriad contributions to the field; and

WHEREAS, striving to further enhance the community, Charles Werner supports the Salvation Army, the American Red Cross, local events and programs to serve and honor veterans, and other service organizations; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Charles L. Werner, a diligent civic servant who has safeguarded the lives and property of Charlottesville residents for 41 years, hereby be commended on the occasion of his retirement as chief of the Charlottesville Fire Department; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Charles L. Werner as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for his lifetime of service to the Charlottesville community.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 572

Commending the University of Virginia baseball team.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, the University of Virginia baseball team achieved the program's first national title, winning the National Collegiate Athletics Association College World Series in June 2015; and

WHEREAS, defeating the reigning champions, the Vanderbilt University Commodores, by a score of 4-2, the University of Virginia Cavaliers finished the season with a 44-24 record and made history as only the third number 3 or number 4 seed to win the championship; and

WHEREAS, the Vanderbilt University Commodores struck early, taking a 2-0 lead in the first inning, but the University of Virginia Cavaliers rallied to tie the game with a two-run home run by Pavin Smith, his first postseason home run and the first given up by the Commodores in the tournament; and

WHEREAS, the University of Virginia Cavaliers took the lead in the top of the fourth inning and scored again in the seventh inning, with runs by Adam Haseley off of singles by Pavin Smith and Kenny Towns; and

WHEREAS, starting pitcher Brandon Waddell made his 53rd career start to set a school record and his fifth College World Series start to tie for fifth all time in championship series starting appearances; and

WHEREAS, with 13 scoreless innings, three wins, and a save, relief pitcher Josh Sborz was named most outstanding player of the tournament and selected for the All-College World Series Team, along with Ernie Clement, Daniel Pinero, Kenny Towns, and Brandon Waddell; and
WHEREAS, under the able leadership of Brian O’Connor, who was named National Coach of the Year by Baseball America, the University of Virginia Cavaliers worked through injuries and adversity to claim the national title, focusing on good pitching and defense; and

WHEREAS, the victory is a testament to the skill and hard work of the athletes, the guidance of the coaches and staff, and the passionate support of the entire University of Virginia Wahoo community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That the University of Virginia baseball team hereby be commended on winning the 2015 National Collegiate Athletics Association College World Series; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Brian O’Connor, head coach of the University of Virginia baseball team, as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for the team's accomplishments.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 573

Commending Arthur Ellsworth Dick Howard.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, in 2015, Arthur Ellsworth Dick Howard, a respected expert on constitutional law and a passionate educator, became the longest-serving faculty member at the University of Virginia School of Law with more than 50 years of diligent service; and

WHEREAS, a native of Richmond, Dick Howard earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Richmond and a law degree from the University of Virginia; he also earned bachelor's and master's degrees as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University; and

WHEREAS, Dick Howard gained an appreciation for how legal systems shape history as a clerk to Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black during the civil rights era; he joined the faculty of the University of Virginia School of Law in 1964 and currently serves as the White Burkett Miller Professor of Law and Public Affairs; and

WHEREAS, Dick Howard served as the executive director of the commission that wrote the current Constitution of Virginia in 1971; he has argued cases before state and federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States, and served as counsel to the Virginia General Assembly and other state and federal bodies; and

WHEREAS, frequently consulted by members of both parties on constitutional issues, Dick Howard has authored numerous books and articles on constitutionalism and is a regular guest legal expert on television news programs; and

WHEREAS, Dick Howard has also offered his expertise to emerging democracies around the world; he became the first non-Czech citizen to receive the Antonin Scalia Medal from the Union of Czech Lawyers for his work to promote civil society in central Europe; and

WHEREAS, Dick Howard has earned numerous other awards, accolades, and honorary degrees, including the University of Virginia's prestigious Thomas Jefferson Award; he was named by Washingtonian magazine as one of the most respected educators in the country and was included on a list of the greatest Virginians of the 20th century by the Library of Virginia and the Richmond Times-Dispatch; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Arthur Ellsworth Dick Howard hereby be commended for his service to the Commonwealth, the United States, and countries around the world on the occasion of his 50th anniversary as a faculty member of the University of Virginia School of Law; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Arthur Ellsworth Dick Howard as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for his legacy of excellence as a legal scholar.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 574

Commending the Lawn at the University of Virginia.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, August 17, 2015

WHEREAS, in 2014, the Lawn at the University of Virginia was named one of the American Planning Association's Great Places in America in the Great Public Space category; and

WHEREAS, the Great Places in America award honors streets, neighborhoods, and public spaces of exemplary character, quality, and planning; recipients meet rigorous standards of architectural significance, accessibility, functionality, and community involvement; and

WHEREAS, designed by Thomas Jefferson as part of his Academical Village concept, the Lawn at the University of Virginia (UVA) is a centralized green space, surrounded by residential and academic buildings and gardens; and

WHEREAS, the Lawn at UVA broke from the traditional English university quadrangle design and has served as a model for other prestigious universities in the United States; the most prominent and recognizable feature of the Lawn at UVA is the Rotunda, which was originally designed as a library; and
WHEREAS, the open-ended design of the Lawn at UVA was meant to encourage a mixed-use campus, where students could live, learn, dine, and enjoy recreational activities in a shared space, and facilitate student and faculty interaction on a regular basis; and

WHEREAS, the University is committed to the upkeep and preservation of the Lawn at UVA as a unique component of Virginia history; the Rotunda is currently undergoing a multimillion-dollar renovation to restore historical features and enhance infrastructure, which is scheduled for completion in 2016; and

WHEREAS, the Lawn at UVA and its surrounding structures are listed on the Virginia Landmarks Register, the National Register of Historic Places, and the list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites and attracts 100,000 visitors to the area each year; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That the Lawn at the University of Virginia hereby be commended on its selection as one of the Great Places in America; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the University of Virginia as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for the University's commitment to upholding Thomas Jefferson's mission to make the Lawn at the University of Virginia an exceptional place to live and learn.
