HOUSE OF DELEGATES
2015 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend L. Jack Howell, Pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Norfolk, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father,

It is to you that we lift our prayers as You are our only hope and our greatest joy; for in you we live and move and have our being. You have given these leaders this position and these opportunities. Make them modest, joyful stewards of your calling upon their lives. As these women and men begin another session of governing, protect them in their travels and labors. Endow them with the humility that comes from seeing their transience, the wisdom that comes from seeing their limitations, and the graciousness that comes from seeing your tenderness in their failures.

Father of the fatherless, give them mercy for the vulnerable and bring justice to the oppressed. King of glory, keep from them this session the vanity and ambition which makes one intemperate and uncharitable. Lord of Lords, in their fears and insecurities, make them to know the grace that you extend to them. In their labors and fatigue, make them to know the rest that you provide for them. And in their governance, make them to know the creativity and discernment that you offer to them.

Please, Father, bless this session and bless our Commonwealth through their efforts. Make these women and men to know your never-ending mercies and overflowing compassion. And give all of us joyful, eager hearts to serve you, our King and Lord, for we pray all of this through your powerful Name. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The National Anthem was performed by the Richmond Symphony Chorus.

The Speaker made the following remarks to open the 2015 Regular Session:

Before we begin, I want to welcome all of you to Mr. Jefferson's Capitol. It is good to be back and I look forward to another productive session.

I especially welcome the five new members who are with us today. You and your family are making a unique sacrifice for a unique opportunity. Thank you for your willingness to serve our Commonwealth and its people.

As I have said many times before, it is an honor to serve as Speaker and an honor to serve in this distinguished body with you. This is my 13th session as Speaker and I continue to be humbled by this job each and every day. And like all of you, I continue to be humbled by the tasks we face as a legislature.

It is said quite often – public service is a privilege. None of us are entitled to the seats we hold in this body.

Perhaps now – more than any time in recent memory, we must be mindful of the trust that our fellow citizens have placed in us – and the expectations...duties...and obligations inherent to the positions we hold. Our fellow citizens demand honor...integrity...and civility.

I would encourage all of us – Republicans and Democrats alike – to renew our commitment to meet those standards.

As with every session, this year brings its own set of challenges, but I am confident that we will respond with solutions and leadership.

Our economy faces headwinds as a result of changing federal policies. Long-term growth and economic success will require renewed efforts by all of us.

Our goal remains to create an environment that inspires entrepreneurs, attracts new businesses and provides hard-working Virginians with good-paying job opportunities.

We must also continue to build on the efforts of previous years to reform...improve...and increase access to education across the Commonwealth. Already this year, a number of proposals have been put forward to support our teachers, give local school leaders more flexibility in the accreditation process and better measure student success. These ideas have drawn broad, bipartisan support. Our goal should be to build a foundation on which each student and teacher can succeed in the classroom.

Virginia is fortunate to have some of the best colleges and universities in the world. But too many of our young people are being saddled with student debt. Making college more affordable is critical to the long-term success of our Commonwealth. Legislation has been introduced to reduce student athletic fees, give smaller and mid-sized schools more flexibility and incentivize the creation of affordable degree programs in high-demand fields. These are good ideas on which we can all work together.

We will also work to amend the Commonwealth's two-year budget. Of course, most of our work was completed when we were here last November – a testament to bipartisanship and the leadership of this body. However, there is more to be done. Our goal is to adopt a conservative, responsible budget that is structurally balanced and funds the core functions of government.

I know that Chairman Jones and Vice Chairman Landes, as well as the entire Appropriations Committee, are committed to making the budget process more transparent for our members and the public. I thank them for this and am confident that we will deliver a budget on time and without delay.

There will be areas of disagreement. There will be frank and candid negotiations over the budget.

There have been countless hours of debate on Medicaid expansion – and I expect there will be more. There are a number of other issues that I don't need to list.

Disagreement can be productive, but it can also be disruptive and degrading to the tone and stature of this body. Our goal is to ensure the former – not the latter. The people of Virginia do not mind that we disagree, but they do expect us to do so in a manner consistent with our state's proud history and traditions.

I will conclude by again thanking each of you for your service and dedication to this body, the Commonwealth and its people. We do face challenges, but I am confident we will offer solutions and leadership. And I am hopeful that we can do so with honor...integrity...and civility.

Thank you.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend C. Steven Vaughan, Senior Pastor of Second Branch Baptist Church, Chesterfield, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we give you thanks for this day. This is a day that you have made and we rejoice in it!

From the mountains to the sea we serve the people of this great Commonwealth, a responsibility not taken lightly. The responsibility can be all-consuming and we bear that weight with great honor and humility. Burn that responsibility deep within our hearts, our minds, our very souls, so that we might work in a way that lifts the burdens from upon the shoulders of those who have called us to serve.

Help us, as leaders, to remember the brokenhearted, that we might be a blessing to them. Help us to remember the down and out, that we might give a hand up. Help us to remember every man and woman, every child, so that decisions made before You would strengthen and bring encouragement to families across this Commonwealth.

Almighty God, you have blessed us with these servant leaders, and so we place them before you. We are asking you to work through them through the course of decisions that are made.

We pause too, to remember and pray for others who have assumed the responsibility to protect and serve, who stand in harm's way on our behalf.

We pray for our police, who not only across this Commonwealth, but across this nation, even around the world, have come under attack. We pray for our service men and women, for they too, are under attack. They serve often away from their families for months at a time and so we ask that your presence with them would encourage them wherever they are. Would you protect those who protect us?

Almighty God, remind us throughout this day and in the days to come of Your presence and Your provision. These things we bring before you today. Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend James Richardson, Rector and Chaplain of St. Paul's Memorial Church, Charlottesville, offered the following prayer:

Gracious and loving God, as we honor in the next few days the memory of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., we come before you with gratitude for his prophetic life and service, and we give thanks for the opportunity to serve in our own time.

Give us the eyes to see the possibilities others do not see, and the ears to hear the people whose voices are seldom heard. May our lawmakers risk something big for something good; may they remember that the world is too large for anything but compassion, and too small for anything but cooperation.

May God kindle in our hearts the courage to break down the boundaries that divide us, the wisdom to lift up those who are poor, sick, oppressed and afraid, and the strength to work tirelessly to make real our nation's promise of equal justice for all.

May our lawmakers build this great Commonwealth not just for ourselves but as a beacon to the world for generations to come. In this we pray. AMEN.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Gary S. Hamrick, Senior Pastor of Cornerstone Chapel, Leesburg, offered the following prayer:

Father in Heaven,

I thank You that "Your mercies are new every morning, that Your compassions fail not; great is Your faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:22-23).

You tell us in Your Word to pray for "kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness" (1 Timothy 2:2). So today, I lift up to You this great Body of men and women in the House of Delegates...help them, in the words of the prophet Micah, "to act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with [their] God" (Micah 6:8).

I pray that they would not bow to the pressure of their critics or become blinded by the flattery of their supporters, but that they would be men and women of principle where conscience and character count.

Thank you, Father, for their service to our Commonwealth. May You bless them, their families, and their constituents. May You bless our Governor, Lt. Governor, and our Great Commonwealth. And may You be glorified in our Nation.

I ask these things in the Name of Jesus my Lord. Amen.

Our Heavenly Father,

Thank You for this privilege You have given me today to be with these men and women. Thank You for the freedom that You have given to us as American citizens. Most of all I thank You for our spiritual freedom that we have in Your SON, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Help these leaders to have wisdom and understanding to make decisions that will honor You and to ensure that future generations will also have the kind of country that we have enjoyed.

May You give us love one-for-another and unite us with a spirit of unity. Remove our pride and stubbornness, and let us all do our part in making America a great nation.

Eternal God our Father, ruler of Heaven and earth.
We entrust these Delegates that represent this great state of Virginia into your hands.

May they understand that you alone God, are the giver and true source of our cherished rights - to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

We pray your spirit reclaim this your state for your glory. Dwell among the leaders of this great House of Delegates today. Let your spirit open their hearts to the great wealth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedoms of mankind.

Let them realize true leadership is rooted in seeking and doing God's will above all else; so give these your Delegates the guidance, vision and the courage they'll need to deliberate over decisions affecting the people and future of this state.

Lead them into this New Year with a spirit of cooperation and love. And may they know the blessings of your presence in their deliberations on today. All this we ask in the name of our Heavenly Father. Amen.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by M. Kirkland Cox, Speaker pro tempore thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Paul David Washer, Founder and Director of HeartCry Missionary Society, Radford, offered the following prayer:

My God & Savior,

I praise and honor you, for you are the most High God, King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Your dominion is an everlasting dominion and your kingdom endures from generation to generation (Daniel 4:34). It lies within Your hand alone to make great and to strengthen (I Chronicles 29:12), to exalt and humble both men and nations. You nullify the counsels of those who oppose you and frustrate the plans of the peoples who will not listen, and yet your counsel stands forever, and the plans of your heart from generation to generation (Psalm 33:10-11).

Grant therefore that this house might walk before you with a deep and enduring reverence, with a holy fear; that it might seek your wisdom in the manner that you have ordained and order its judgments according to your will, for your glory, and for the good of all men. Fulfill your word in both judgment and blessing by opposing the proud and giving grace to the humble (I Peter 5:5). Grant repentance where needed and give grace to all.

I ask this in the Name of the one Mediator between God and men - Jesus Christ.

Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Honorable Kathy J. Byron, the Gentlewoman from Bedford, offered the following prayer:

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6)

Heavenly Father, Creator of all things. We all have so much to be thankful for that your hand has provided. Forgive us for those times we allow our busy schedules to consume us and we fail to seek your will. We come to you today asking for your guidance, your wisdom, and your strength.

Help us to engage in meaningful discussion; allow us to listen to one another and nurture the bonds of community.

Fill us with your grace, Lord God, as we make decisions that will affect our family, friends, and citizens of this great Commonwealth.

And continue to remind us that all that we do as individuals, and as public servants, is for the pursuit of truth for the greater Glory of You, and for the service of humanity.

Now we ask your continued blessing on each one here that you would grant them safe journeys to their homes this weekend, special times with their loved ones, and refresh them for the work they have left to be done in the weeks ahead.

We ask these things in your name, the name above all.

Amen.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Marc W. Rickabaugh, Pastor of Restoration Church (UMC), Charlottesville, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and Loving God,
the One who creates and redeems and sustains all things, and the Wellspring of all that is good,

As we gather on this day and begin another session of the House of Delegates in Virginia,

We give you thanks for the gifts of life and liberty, and for the opportunity to serve the people of this great nation and this honorable Commonwealth.

With your grace and mercy, O God, would you now prepare our hearts and minds and spirits to do the work of this day, and to complete each task with right discernment and steadfast integrity.

Enable us, O Lord, to speak with wisdom and respect and understanding, and to bear the strength of conviction with the humility to listen.

Grant us courage that we may face the difficult decisions and contentious issues before us with confidence and restraint.

And give us compassion, O God, that we may do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly in your ways. Open our ears that we may hear, open our eyes that we may see, and open our hands that we may serve all under our leadership, most especially those who are the least of these in our midst.

O Lord, would you place your hand of blessing on this body of legislators, that they may never forget your plans for us and for all who call Virginia home, plans to prosper us and not to harm us,
plans to give us hope and a future.

And may your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven, nothing more and nothing less.

Amen.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend James E. Parke, Retired, Catholic Diocese of Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Blessed are you, O God of the universe. You have blessed men and women with so many talents and gifts. You have called us to serve one another as brothers and sisters.

In your plan, you have called men and women to serve in the roles of governing the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Indeed, it is a daunting task that faces each of our delegates gathered this day before you.

Give them wisdom to discern the complexities of so many issues; give them courage to make decisions for all who live in cities, in towns, in hollows and for all who have no home today.

Give each of these delegates a deep sense of justice and compassion to make laws that will allow all to live in safety and peace.

For all you have already given us, we give thanks and offer our Amen!

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Caitlin Thomas Deyerle, Pastor of Southminster Presbyterian Church, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

God of heaven and earth, you have created us and set out a vision for your creation that all people might live together in peace and justice, and that those who govern would do so with your Spirit of humility and wisdom in their hearts.

Look upon this gathering of civic leaders here today. Each one of them have felt a calling deep within their hearts, a calling to be a shepherd of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia and to do their part to ensure fairness and safety in our land.

Renew that call in their hearts today. Strengthen their ties of mutual regard that they might work together across the boundaries that divide them. Give them a clear purpose and a straight path. Bless them with wisdom to do what is right and the courage to see beyond themselves. All these things we pray in your Holy Name. Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend R. Stewart McCarter, Lead Pastor of Southside Baptist Church, Suffolk, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in Heaven who is the Almighty God, We come into your presence in the authority of your Son, Jesus Christ to place this body before you in order to ask you for your wisdom, guidance, and leadership on their behalf. We acknowledge that true wisdom comes only from you. You have instituted governments among men to protect the freedom of the righteous and punish the lawbreaker. We stand here in your presence at the beginning of a new day of deliberation and action, and pray that our every thought and every action will be according to your will. We thank you for your provisions and your presence. We know that our every action is watched by you who are the supreme judge of all. All here who do this work answer to the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia, also we know that we will stand in your judgment, and that you have given us this place of responsibility, therefore, we implore your help. You alone have the provisions we need in order to fulfill your will, and you have promised to provide in abundance if we would but call out to you. Today, we call with confidence that we may complete the work you have given us for this day, knowing that tomorrow is not promised. May we meet the unique test of this day with your enabling grace, to your glory and our good.

Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Jonathan A. Ytterock, Pastor of Mount Horeb Presbyterian Church, Grottoes, offered the following prayer:

Holy God, our governor and sustainer, your glory shines throughout world, and even here.
And so as we gather now into this place of governing and leadership, we pray, O Lord, that your wisdom and guidance would fill our minds and our hearts.

May those who have been called here as delegates and representatives, who hold office in this great state of Virginia, and who work to uphold our cities and towns, our people, and the very communities in which we live,
be guided by your will that they may do their work in a spirit of kindness, justice, and sound judgment.
By your power, break down any barriers before them today, and scatter any selfishness, reconcile divisions and give them, rather, strength and courage to face the work at hand.

As you call each of us to different tasks and give us strengths and gifts to carry out your purposes, help those here today to use the authority you have granted them to serve faithfully and to promote the common good for all people.
In the name of Jesus Christ the Lord we pray. Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Rabbi Jennifer C. Weiner, Congregation Adat Reyim, Springfield, offered the following prayer:

As we begin our work here today, we offer our words in the spirit of our individual beliefs.
To the One who inspires us to work for the betterment of our state,
To the One who brings us together to feed those who are hungry and in need of shelter,
To the One who creates the goodness in our world,
May we act out of goodness and be sincere in our work.
Let us join in the celebration of humanity and our achievements,
Yet, may we remember that our work has only just begun to protect the rights of others.
As this day progresses, may we come together to learn to understand and respect each other and see each other as individuals with the same goals: to help protect those living within our Commonwealth, to further the educational achievements of those in our region, and to be advocates for those who feel they are without a voice.
On this day, we ask for our work to be blessed.
Amen.

We thank you for the gift of life that you have given to each of us. Dear God, our Heavenly Father, we thank You for another beautiful day of life. We pray for your blessings upon this General Assembly that You will guide and direct each lawmaker in accordance to your holy and everlasting will. Lord, when we are wrong, make us willing to change and when we are right, make us easy to live with.

Please strengthen us, Lord, that the power of our example will far exceed the authority of our rank. Help us, Lord, to always realize that only when we have kneeled before You can we stand before men. Bless each person again this day. Speak to each heart with wisdom from on high and may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Please receive our thanks and petitions, in the name of Jesus we pray, Amen.

Dear Father in Heaven,

Today, Father, we thank you for another day of life – another opportunity to serve You and serve our many brothers and sisters in this great Commonwealth.

Today, Father, we ask for Your wisdom and Your guidance for all that transpires here in these halls as these dedicated men and women tackle issues of great complexity and impact.

Today, Father, we ask that You help each of us courageously stand for righteousness and liberty as did the patriots who built this great country.

Today, Father, we ask that You hear our prayers of thankfulness for Your abundant blessings, and that you direct us in blessing others.

And today, Father, we ask for Your hand of protection on those who vigilantly protect us and who serve us in times of need and distress – those here in our community, around our state, in our nation, and around the world.

I pray all of this in the name of my Lord, Jesus.

Amen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Eung Yul Ryoo, Senior Pastor of Korean Central Presbyterian Church, Centreville, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God,

Creator and Upholder of the Universe,
We give thanks for the salvation of Jesus Christ and praise for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Bless the members of the House of Delegates.
Impart upon them with the wisdom to fulfill their duties towards the people bestow upon them the courage to choose right, in love and righteousness and bless them to work for the benefit of this country and its people.

Bless our service to this country
So that her children would grow in peace and health
So that her youth would pursue and accomplish noble dreams
So that her citizens would work with contentment in their occupations
Let all who have gathered here sacrifice what has been given to us for the fulfillment of this heavenward ideal.

May our service not be used to gratify our own thoughts and desires but may they be the building blocks upon which the hopes of our citizens may be firmly established.

We pray this all in the name of Jesus. Amen.

"36. Compensation Supplements

a.1) The appropriation in this item includes $55,017,912 the second year from the general fund for the state share of a payment equivalent to a 1.5 percent salary incentive increase, effective August 1, 2015, for funded SOQ instructional and support positions. Funded SOQ instructional positions shall include the teacher, guidance counselor, librarian, instructional aide, principal, and assistant principal positions funded through the SOQ staffing standards for each school division in the biennium.

2) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the instructional and support position salaries be improved in school divisions throughout the state by at least 1.5 percent in the second year. Sufficient funds are appropriated in this act to finance, on a statewide basis, the state share of a 1.5 percent salary increase for funded SOQ instructional and support positions, effective August 1, 2015, to school divisions which certify to the Department of Education, by June 15, 2015, that salary increases of a minimum average of 1.5 percent have been provided in the second year by January 1, 2016, to instructional and support personnel. In certifying that the salary increases have been provided, school divisions may not include any salary increases that were provided in the second year solely to offset the cost of required member contributions to the Virginia Retirement System under § 51.1-144, Code of Virginia.

b. The state funds for which the division is eligible to receive shall be matched by the local government, based on the composite index of local ability-to-pay, which shall be calculated using an effective date of January 1, 2016, as the basis for the local match requirement for both funded SOQ instructional and support positions.

c. This funding is not intended as a mandate to increase salaries."

a. The governing board of each public institution of higher education shall annually review their in-place strategic plan or develop and adopt a new strategic plan that reflects the goals and objectives of the Virginia Higher Education Opportunity Act (Top Jobs Act) and the Restructured Higher Education Financial and Administrative Operations Act (Restructuring Act), identifies a coordinated approach to state and regional goals, and emphasizes the future needs for higher education in the Commonwealth. Specifically, each strategic plan shall incorporate the goals of (i) providing affordable access for all; (ii) optimizing student success for work and life; (iii) driving market based changes and improvements through innovation and investment; (iv) short and long term financial viability of the institution; (v) faculty development; and (vi) advancing the economic and cultural prosperity of the Commonwealth and its regions. The strategic plan shall offer multiple tactical strategies for achieving these goals.

c. By December 1 of each year, public higher education institutions shall report to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees on the status, including timeline, of the development of their new strategic plan or the implementation and results of their in-place strategic plan, including a detailed timeline of when the implementation will occur."

Implement JLARC Recommendations

"§ 4-9.05 IMPLEMENT JLARC RECOMMENDATIONS

a. The Boards of Visitors at each Virginia public four-year higher education institution, to the extent practicable, shall:

1. require their institutions to clearly list the amount of the athletic fee on their website's tuition and fees information page. The page should include a link to the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia's tuition and fee information. The boards should consider requiring institutions to list the major components of all mandatory fees, including the portion attributable to athletics, on a separate page attached to student invoices;

2. assess the feasibility and impact of raising additional revenue through campus recreation and fitness enterprises to reduce reliance on mandatory student fees. The assessments should address the feasibility and impact of raising additional revenue through charging for specialized programs and services, expanding membership, and/or charging all users of recreation facilities;

3. direct staff to perform a comprehensive review of the institution's organizational structure, including an analysis of spans of control and a review of staff activities and workload, and identify opportunities to streamline the organizational structure. Boards should further direct staff to implement the recommendations of the review to streamline their organizational structures where possible;

4. require periodic reports on average and median spans of control and the number of supervisors with six or fewer direct reports;

5. direct staff to revise human resource policies to eliminate unnecessary supervisory positions by developing standards that establish and promote broader spans of control. The new policies and standards should (i) set an overall target span of control for the institution, (ii) set a minimum number of direct reports per supervisor, with guidelines for exceptions, (iii) define the circumstances that necessitate the use of a supervisory position, (iv) prohibit the establishment of supervisory positions for the purpose of recruiting or retaining employees, and (v) establish a periodic review of departments where spans of control are unusually narrow; and,
  6. direct institution staff to set and enforce policies to maximize standardization of purchases of commonly procured goods, including use of institution-wide contracts;
  7. consider directing institution staff to provide an annual report on all institutional purchases, including small purchases, that are exceptions to the institutional policies for standardizing purchases.
- b. The State Council on Higher Education for Virginia, to the extent practicable, shall:
1. convene a working group of institution financial officers to create a standard way of calculating and publishing mandatory non-E&G fees, including for intercollegiate athletics;
  2. update the state's Chart of Accounts for higher education in order to improve comparability and transparency of mandatory non-E&G fees, with input from the Department of Accounts, the Department of Planning and Budget, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and institutional staff. This process should be coordinated with the standardization of tuition and fee reporting;
  3. convene a working group of institutional staff to develop instructional and research space guidelines that adequately measure current use of space and plans for future use of space at Virginia's public higher education institutions;
  4. coordinate a committee of institutional representatives, such as the previously authorized Learning Technology Advisory Committee. In addition to the objectives set out in the Appropriation Act for the Learning Technology Advisory Committee, the committee should identify instructional technology initiatives and best practices for directly or indirectly lowering institutions' instructional expenditures per student while maintaining or enhancing student learning;
  5. update the underlying data for the base adequacy model and make additional modifications to the formula as warranted. SCHEV should ensure that future updates or revisions to base adequacy occur every six years as part of the state's strategic planning process. The update and modification to the base adequacy model should be completed in coordination with the re-basing of appropriated and actual salary averages, as recommended in JLARC's 2013 Review of Academic Spending and Workload at Virginia's Public Higher Education Institutions; and,
  6. modify its current capital prioritization process to (i) ensure objective analysis of institutions' capital requests and (ii) provide a statewide prioritization of higher education capital requests that may be used to determine which projects should be recommended to receive funding. It should provide the Six-Year Capital Outlay Plan Advisory Committee with a draft of the revised prioritization process for feedback and approval.
- c. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 23-9.14:1, the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall annually train boards of visitors members who serve on finance and facilities subcommittees. The training should address the types of information members should request from institutions to inform decision making, such as performance measures, benchmarking data, the impact of financial decisions on student costs, and past and projected cost trends. Boards of Visitors members serving on finance and facilities subcommittees should, at a minimum, participate in the training within their first year of membership on the subcommittee. SCHEV should obtain assistance in developing or delivering the training from relevant agencies such as the Department of General Services and past or present finance officers at Virginia's public four-year institutions, as appropriate.
- d. The Department of Planning and Budget shall revise the formula used to make allocation recommendations for the state's maintenance reserve funding to account for higher maintenance needs resulting from poor facility condition, aging of facilities, and differences in facility use. Beginning with fiscal year 2016, the Department of Planning and Budget shall submit these recommendations to the Governor and General Assembly no later than November 1 of each year.
- e. The Six-Year Capital Outlay Plan Advisory Committee, the Department of Planning and Budget, and others as appropriate shall use the results of the prioritization process established by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia in determining which capital projects should receive funding.
- f. Beginning with fiscal year 2016, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall include in its audit plan for each public institution of higher education a review of progress in implementing the JLARC recommendations contained in paragraph § 4-9.05 a."

Delegate Surovell propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the Committee amendment or the floor amendment offered by Delegate Berg would be considered first.

The Speaker stated that the floor amendment offered by the Gentleman from Frederick was in conflict with the Committee amendment and would be considered first.

Delegate Orrock raised a point of order that the floor amendment offered by Delegate Berg reinserted language that had been vetoed by the Governor as part of his actions to the original bill last year and would inquire as to whether the amendment was properly before the House.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman from Caroline was correct and that an amendment could not be drawn to language that technically was no longer in the bill.

The Speaker stated further that the floor amendment offered by the Gentleman from Frederick, Delegate Berg, was out of order and the Chair would so rule.

The question on the Committee amendment was put, the yeas and nays being called for, and decided in the affirmative.

On motion of Delegate Cox, the House adjourned at 3:51 p.m.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend F. Elizabeth Givens, Lead Pastor of Welborne United Methodist Church, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

God of all creation,
we pause in this moment to breathe deeply and to remember that each of us, and all of us as a community, are but one small part of your expansive world.

Our minds and hearts are full of details and tasks, legislation and initiatives,
commitments and causes.

Help us to remember that we are more than these things, because we are your people, claimed by your extravagant love.

May our work this day be about living with justice, offering extravagant mercy,
seeking deep wisdom and discernment and being mindful of your entire created order, and our place in it.

We offer this prayer with gratitude for your perfect love for our imperfect work, and with a renewed commitment to lives that are mindful of your presence and grace.

Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2015

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Charles D. Whitlow, Lead Pastor of The Community Church, Ashburn, offered the following prayer:

Our father, you said that it is good and pleasing in your sight that all kinds of prayers and thanksgiving be made on behalf of all people, but especially for our leaders and government officials. The directions they set and the decisions they make affect our ability to lead peaceful, quiet & godly lives.

So, I pray for these, our representatives that you would give them the knowledge of truth, that they would eagerly desire this with their hearts & minds.

Recognizing your magnanimous offer—announced to us many centuries ago by Isaiah through the inspiration of your Spirit to us a child is born, to us a son is given

May these who hold positions of authority receive your gift of expert counsel, divine strength, an everlasting family and an all-encompassing peace.

Grant them the tangible help of your Holy Spirit

This is I pray according to your will and

Through the name of Jesus, your son.

Amen.

RESOLUTIONS
REGULAR CALENDAR

S.J.R. 268 (two, sixty-eight) was taken up.

An amendment in the nature of a substitute was proposed by the Committee on Rules, and printed separately, with its title reading as follows:

Directing the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission to study the Commonwealth's Medicaid program. Report.

Delegate Toscano raised a point of order that the resolution, as agreed to by the Senate, directed the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission (JLARC) to study pathways for determining eligibility for Medicaid-funded, long-term care; but that the substitute proposed by the House Committee on Rules directed JLARC to study not only long-term care, but the Medicaid system as a whole and would inquire as to whether the Committee substitute was germane.

The Speaker stated that the original resolution dealt with studying a portion of Medicaid and that while the House substitute broadened that study, it still dealt with the issue of Medicaid.

The Speaker stated further that the Committee substitute was germane and the Chair would so rule.

The Committee substitute was agreed to.
