WHEREAS, a native of Suffolk, Fred Cherry learned the value of hard work and responsibility at a young age as the child of farmers; he graduated from Virginia Union University in 1951; and

WHEREAS, desirous to be of service to his country, Fred Cherry joined the United States Air Force and flew more than 100 combat missions during the Korean War and the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, on October 22, 1965, Fred Cherry was shot down over North Vietnam; he sustained severe injuries during ejection and was captured immediately upon landing; he was held in captivity for 2,671 days, including 702 days in solitary confinement, and courageously endured torture and harsh reprisals by enemy forces; and

WHEREAS, during his captivity, the North Vietnamese paired Fred Cherry with Porter Halyburton, a white southerner, in hopes of creating and exploiting racial tensions between the men as a propaganda victory; the two men instead supported and inspired each other, building the foundation for a lifelong friendship; and

WHEREAS, Fred Cherry was released on February 12, 1973, and was in the first group of prisoners of war to return to the United States; he earned the Air Force Cross for his personal fortitude and persistence in the face of extreme mistreatment; and

WHEREAS, after attending the National War College and the Defense Intelligence School in Washington, D.C., Fred Cherry retired from the United States Air Force in 1981 as a joint staff officer assigned to the Defense Intelligence Agency; and

WHEREAS, Fred Cherry was featured in a public television documentary about prisoners of war in Vietnam, and he and Porter Halyburton gave talks about their experiences at military institutions and colleges; they were the subject of the book, Two Souls Indivisible: The Friendship That Saved Two POWs in Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, Fred Cherry will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his longtime partner, Debra; his children, Frederick, Donald, Fred, Deborah, and Cynthia, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of Colonel Fred V. Cherry, Sr., USAF, Ret., a distinguished veteran of the Korean and Vietnam Wars; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Colonel Fred V. Cherry, Sr., USAF, Ret., as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 86

Commending Smith Mountain Lake.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 11, 2016

WHEREAS, for 50 years, Smith Mountain Lake, nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, has been a place of respite and relaxation for thousands of sportsmen, water enthusiasts, and nature lovers; and

WHEREAS, Smith Mountain Lake was formed when Appalachian Power, which is a unit of American Electric Power, embarked on a massive hydroelectric power project to dam the Roanoke River; construction began in 1960, and the lake was officially completed in 1966; and

WHEREAS, Smith Mountain Lake, which is southeast of the City of Roanoke and southwest of the City of Lynchburg, has more than 580 miles of shoreline; it teems with wildlife and is a well-known fishing destination; and

WHEREAS, over the years, Smith Mountain Lake, which is the largest inland water recreation area wholly in the Commonwealth, became a popular vacation destination; houses, condominiums, and holiday homes were built by people who were drawn to the spectacular woodland beauty that surrounds the lake; and

WHEREAS, with campgrounds, marinas, golf courses, shops, restaurants, and a variety of lodging options, Smith Mountain Lake has become a premier destination, and today, more than 12,000 people call Smith Mountain Lake home; and

WHEREAS, the population of Smith Mountain Lake increases by another 50,000 people during the summer; vacationers appreciate the serenity and outstanding vistas that surround them, and they frequently take advantage of the many programs and activities that are held around the lake; and

WHEREAS, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the creation of Smith Mountain Lake, a multitude of events and programs are planned for 2016, including a triathlon, a birthday party, fishing tournaments, regattas, races, festivals, and tours; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Smith Mountain Lake hereby be commended on the occasion of its 50th anniversary in 2016; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Vicki Gardner, executive director of the Smith Mountain Lake Regional Chamber of Commerce, as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration and appreciation for the organization's work to ensure that Smith Mountain Lake remains an outstanding destination for all Virginians.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 87

Commemorating the 235th anniversary of the defense of Richmond in 1781.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 11, 2016

WHEREAS, 235 years ago, in January 1781, the traitor Benedict Arnold, on his first command for the British Army after his defection from the Continental Army under the command of George Washington, invaded Virginia with a force of 1,600 men; and

WHEREAS, that invasion force made its way through the undefended capital city of Richmond, compelling the evacuation of Governor Thomas Jefferson and other leaders of the Commonwealth and the withdrawal of important stores and materiel; and

WHEREAS, the entire city and its outskirts required a defense, and there were only 200 Virginia militiamen under the command of Colonel John Nicholas to defend the capital; and

WHEREAS, these 200 brave Virginians, outnumbered eight to one, lacked anything near the artillery, land and river transportation, supplies, and materiel of the invading enemy; and

WHEREAS, despite a sparse population from which to draw men, impassable waterways, and other obstacles to a proper defense, these brave Virginians defended their capital city, engaging Benedict Arnold's picket on January 4, 1781, on the outskirts of Richmond, in what is now the western edge of the historic Fan District; and

WHEREAS, in prelude to the ultimate Revolutionary War victory at Yorktown 10 months later, Colonel John Nicholas and the Richmond militiamen used unconventional tactics and, accounts say, "Repulsed Arnold's attack" and had it "driven in" before Arnold's ultimate brief occupation and burning of Richmond; and

WHEREAS, in defense of their homes and to secure the liberties of American independence, Colonel John Nicholas and the Virginians under his command made a significant contribution to the founding of an independent Commonwealth of Virginia and United States of America, free of British rule; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the 235th anniversary of the defense of Richmond in 1781 hereby be commemorated; and, be it
RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's appreciation for the historical significance of this Revolutionary War battle in the City of Richmond.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 88

Commending the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 11, 2016

WHEREAS, the residents of the Sleepy Hollow community of Fairfax County established the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association in 1941; and
WHEREAS, over the past 75 years the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association has represented, protected, and served the residents of the community, located at the eastern edge of Fairfax County near Falls Church and Arlington; and
WHEREAS, during the early years of the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association, World War II was on residents' minds, and the association was concerned with supporting the war effort through civil defense and victory gardens; and
WHEREAS, by the early 1950s, the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association had taken the lead in the development of a neighborhood swimming pool and recreation center, and such annual traditions as the fall cleanup and Christmas decoration contest were already well-established; and
WHEREAS, in the 1960s, the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association spearheaded the successful efforts to prevent annexation of the neighborhood by the City of Falls Church and to defeat several rezoning plans; and
WHEREAS, through the years, various committees of the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association have grappled with such issues as public school boundaries, public water and sewage systems, street lighting, zoning, area revitalization, and public safety; and
WHEREAS, the Sleepy Hollow community, a warm and friendly neighborhood only 20 minutes from the White House, has established a year-round series of events that encourage residents to take part in community life; and
WHEREAS, the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association sponsors neighborhood picnics, the Halloween parade, the Easter Egg Hunt, the Taste of the Hollow, and other such events to bring the neighborhood together and to preserve the unique spirit of the Sleepy Hollow community; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association hereby be commended on the occasion of its 75th anniversary; and, be it
RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Sleepy Hollow Citizens' Association as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's congratulations and admiration for the group's contributions to the Fairfax County community.
