THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Jon Dupin, Brentwood Church, Forest, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, You are good and You are great. You are love and justice, grace and truth, friend and father. And You’ve placed Your melody within us, to guide our hearts and minds, our lives and laws towards Your goodness and away from what is not of You.

Oh, what a promise You voice to those who sing along with You: a land that is humble and yet courageous, merciful and yet strong, so generous and so prosperous. You are good and You are great, and You grant us the potential to be both.

Let these men and women, who are husbands and wives, mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, experience Your favor, wisdom and unity as they serve our Commonwealth. They face much adversity and criticism, pressures and responsibilities, so I ask that You strengthen their faith, their families and make bright their futures. You are good and You are great.

I pray this with a whole heart and one of love and respect for these, my governing leaders. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 2017

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Dennis R. Di Mauro, Trinity Lutheran Church, Warrenton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Lord, in Romans 13 You tell us that You ordain the power of government, and so we know that You ordain and appoint the leaders of our great Commonwealth. Leading the people of Virginia is a God-given responsibility.

We also know that leadership is not always easy. The members of our Senate work long, stressful, and often thankless hours for the people of our Commonwealth. They must balance the needs of their constituents, their leadership, and the pressures of the press. And so they need Your help. Shower them with all Your love and grace, so that they may perform their duties knowing that You love them and will be with them through it all.

But we also know that each gift of leadership requires a reciprocal response of faithfulness: a willingness to follow Your Holy Will, as found in sacred scripture, to defend the most vulnerable in our society. So we ask You to guide this body in respecting human life from the moment of conception until natural death, in shielding our young people from the scourge of illicit drugs, in finding affordable health care for our citizens, and in protecting the marginalized, the immigrant, and the needy from exploitation.

And to accomplish all that, grant us Your power and grace to work in mutual respect and abiding love for one another, imitating the one who sacrificed everything on Calvary so that our world might be healed…Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen.

MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Michelle C. Thomas, Holy & Whole Life Changing Ministries International, Lansdowne, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God our Father, the One who is known by many names, Bread of Life, Shepherd of Souls, Rock in a Weary Land, Shelter in the Time of Storm, Balm in Gilead, Way Maker, Wonderful Counselor, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, Light of the World, we honor You this afternoon and we invite Your presence, Your peace and Your power into this sacred place, where life-changing decisions are made on behalf of Your people.

Although this is certainly a different time, our petition this morning isn’t much different from the days of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. So as Your son Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., once prayed, “Help us to seek that which is high, noble and good. Help us in the moment of difficult decision. Help us to work with renewed vigor for a warless world, a better distribution of wealth, and a brotherhood that transcends race or color.”

God grant that right here in Virginia and all over this nation, we will choose the high way; a way in which men will live together as brothers; a way in which every man will respect the dignity and worth of all human life; a way that allows justice to run down like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream; a way in which men will do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God; a way in which men will be able to stand up, and in the midst of oppression, in the midst of darkness and agony, they will be able to stand there and love their enemies. Bless those persons that curse them. Pray for those individuals that spitefully use them. And this is the way that will bring us once more into that society which we think of as the brotherhood of man. This will be that day when white people, African Americans, Hispanics, Jews, Muslims, atheists, Sikhs, Hindus and Christians will join together and stretch out across the divides of race, religion, culture, class, and Democratic and Republican party lines and be able to cry out: “Free at last! Free at last! Great God Almighty, we are free at last!”

God grant Virginia lawmakers in the House and Senate the courage to be participants in this renewed commitment to “one nation under God with liberty and justice for all.” Give us the courage and wisdom to work together to usher in a new day of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for every citizen. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum was present.

The Reverend Ray Dawson, Cliffview Church of God, Galax, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, Lord of all creation, I come before You on behalf of this 2017 General Assembly session, representing the Commonwealth of Virginia. I pray Your wisdom would prevail in every deliberation, Your heart would prevail in every passion displayed, and Your will prevail in every determination of this body. Grant unto every member the courage to speak with conviction, to stand with compassion, and to sit with listening ear and heart. May good things be determined for the Commonwealth from this floor and in every aspect of the governance of its constituency. May the decisions of this institution be tempered with genuine concern, bipartisan effort, and pure, human empathy. Let every consideration be the result of strong desire to do the will of God, to ensure the work of noble causes, and to fulfill the wishes of faithful citizens. We pray humbly that the efforts and enactments of Virginia’s governing bodies be an inspiration to this nation and the world. When eyes are cast upon us, let them see diversity balanced with the desire for unity. Let them hear many voices, but a harmony of hope, and let them behold a celebration of cultures in congruency living together purposefully and peacefully. I pray that You, Lord God, will bless the United States of America, the Commonwealth of Virginia, and every nation that does not forget You. In the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray. Wednesday, January 18, 2017 -192- JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. John F. Sloop, Spring Hill Presbyterian Church, Staunton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, we gather in this historic chamber knowing that You love us and are very much concerned about everything that goes on in this Capitol today.

As our Senators seek to be good stewards of the trust placed in them by “we the people,” may they be guided by that same divine Providence that guided our Founding Fathers at the birth of our nation.

Lord, we confess our human frailties and pray to be delivered from taking up today’s agenda out of pure self-interest or peer pressure, but rather lead us, Lord, to “do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with our God.”

Father, grant to each Senator today: wisdom in their thinking on the issues, courage in their convictions, and above all, grace and humility in their attitudes toward each other.

And when the work of this day is done, may each one hear the Master say, “Well done, my good and faithful servant.”

And now Father, with gratitude for all the blessings You’ve bestowed on our Commonwealth, and with deep respect for the faith traditions of all present in this chamber, I offer my prayer in the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus, the Christ. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Peake, the reading of the Journal was waived.

Ralph S. Northam
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate
The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Michael Honaker, River of Life Pentecostal Church, Dublin, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we are both honored and humbled to gather in this Senate Chamber today, knowing that each of us is appointed to Your Kingdom for such a time as this. As we look upon the world in which we find ourselves living, we hear the words of the great patriot, Thomas Paine, ringing ever true in our ears, “These are the times that try men’s souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country, but he that stands by it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly: it is dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to put a proper price upon its goods; and it would be strange indeed if so celestial an article as freedom should not be highly rated.”

With the great calling we have accepted, with the tremendous responsibility with which we are entrusted, and with the appropriate accountability to which we are held, may we put aside partisan division. May we overcome yesterday’s offenses. May we rise up and prevail over personal ambition. May we put aside political strategy and may we come together in unity and harmony for the citizens of Virginia. May we find answers to hard questions and generate solutions to seemingly impossible problems.

In the course of the passionate deliberations that take place among our chosen and entrusted leaders who serve, work, and sacrifice in these chambers, may they work to discover the shared good that will benefit all Virginians. May each of these dedicated men and women remain steadfastly committed to the professional bearing, the civil politeness, and the intelligent insight which is commensurate with the highly respected positions our Senators hold.

It is in these stations of trust, honor and respect that we, the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia, have placed our faith and hope in the persons who occupy the Senate of Virginia. We understand that these forty men and women will represent not only their respective districts’ constituents, but also they will strive to find the necessary leadership and stewardship that will serve as a facilitator for safer communities, improved standards of living and abounding opportunities for all of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

As these men and women carry out their sacred duties and solemn obligations, I pray that You will instill courage and impart intellect, as You, the God who created, sustains and protects us, will lead, guide and direct the path and decisions of this body. May this be done for both Your glory and our advancement.

Give to us who are gathered in this place, as well as to all people elsewhere, an unmistakable sense of Your presence, that we may learn to understand each other, to respect each other, to work with each other, to live with each other and to both be good and do good by and for each other. Because in this, so shall we make our Commonwealth and our nation great in its goodness and good in its greatness.

May all that is done on this day by these legislators and leaders be for Your greater honor and for Your glory. And all of this we pray, we pray in the name that is above every name, the name of Your Son and our Savior, Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum was present.
After the roll call, Senators Barker and Ebbin notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Chafin, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:

Almighty God, we pause to acknowledge You.

As a citizen of this great Commonwealth, I pray for each and every one of these legislators. I am grateful for their sacrificial service, not only here in Richmond these six weeks, but also back in their home jurisdictions throughout the rest of the year when they have to tend to countless Senate-related functions.

I also pray that You would grant them wisdom for the many issues that they deliberate upon today. And may they also possess a spirit of cooperation as they seek win/win solutions for the plethora of challenges that face us. And may You bestow upon them health and stamina to prevail when the pace becomes wearisome.

God, we thank You for Virginia. May Your sovereign hand rest upon this beautiful place to live. Thank You for Your bountiful blessings. In Your name, we pray. Amen.

The Reverend Leon Benjamin, New Life Harvest Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, thank You for letting us be here in Your mighty presence. Thank You, Lord for strengthening us for this day. Thank You for giving us everything we need to collaborate and to make decisions that will be for the good of the people. Bless this wonderful state of Virginia, our Governor, Terry McAuliffe and our Lieutenant Governor, Ralph Northam.

Lord, we thank You for all our Senators, all of us gathered here. We pray that You will enable each and every one of them to work together to be in unison. We pray the spirit of unity will engulf this room, that everything that is spoken will be done in love, in honor, and in humility. Father, we ask that You will now grace us, this wonderful state of Virginia, to be a beacon of life for many others.

Let there be a pattern. Let there be things that will be done here in the supernatural that will help all people across racial and denominational lines. We thank You, Father, right now, that You will get all the glory today. You will get all the honor and all of the praise. We thank You, Lord, that this is the day that You have made, and we will rejoice and be glad in it. All these blessings we ask in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

Let everyone say, Amen.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Joshua N. King, Sr., Zion Baptist Church, Hampton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, our Father, we come to say thank You for these men and women who are committed to service. Our prayer is that You crown them with Solomon’s wisdom and the patience of Job. Work in them, through them, and for them so citizens of this Commonwealth will see You in them. Guide their decisions not by partisanship but by fellowship. Ground their hearts in fervent love for You and one another. Remind them their collective voices are the guardians of the least, left out, and less fortunate. Let unity sustain, secure, and strengthen this session so it will be peaceful, productive, and unproblematic. Never let them forget the honor afforded them to be humble, but most of all never let them believe they can accomplish this great task without Your presence in their lives in this sacred chamber. Father, with You, unity can find its way back to our beloved state to be a shining example to our nation. Lastly, Heavenly Father, breathe Your blessings collectively on them, our President, Donald J. Trump, along with Governor Terry McAuliffe, Lieutenant Governor Ralph Northam, and President pro tempore Steve Newman, and bless these United States of America. Father, this is our prayer. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Andrew George, Clover Hill Assembly of God, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God, we thank You for a new day You have blessed us with. Your grace and Your mercies are new every morning and this day is no different. We acknowledge Your goodness, we acknowledge Your greatness, and we acknowledge Your presence in this moment. Of all the things You are doing across an entire universe, You care enough to hear our prayers as we offer them to You in faith.

God, I’m asking right now that You would increase Your presence in the lives, homes and relationships of those that are present here today. Your love is amazing, Your compassion is unchanging and Your wisdom is infinite.

Let every home that is represented here be an oasis from the turmoil in our world.
Let every home that is represented here be a place of rest and rejuvenation.
Let every home here be a conduit for that love our world so desperately needs. As people from all over the community walk into our homes, let them experience Your peace, joy and inner healing. I pray the hurting and the broken would come and experience rest in these places.
I speak over the relationships in this place, both personally and professionally, that You would give us eyes to see and ears to hear what Your heart experiences.
I’m confident this has been prayed countless times from others, but let the wisdom of God be evident in this place. Let the unity be evident to the watching world. Let this assembly be a model for others in our great nation to follow.
I bless every individual in this place with the richest blessings of heaven and I humbly submit this prayer in the name above every name, in Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Matthew D. Bates, Centenary United Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of power and might, God of justice and mercy,
We assemble today as fellow citizens of this Commonwealth to thank You for the blessings You have bestowed on us and those who have come before us. We thank You for the gift of Your creation. We are grateful for the beauty we enjoy each day and are reminded that this beauty is pure gift. We thank You for abundant resources that sustain our lives, yet over which You appoint us to be faithful stewards.

We thank You for the common ties and concerns that bind us together. Though we may differ in many ways, we all stand in need of Your guidance and blessing. Though we may have different opinions or be members of different parties or be members of different religious traditions, remind us that we are all Your children, that we all bear Your divine image, and that we need one another’s gifts, companionship, and patience, to be whole.

We thank You for those who give of their time and abilities to serve the people of this Commonwealth. We ask Your blessing on this body as it deliberates. Help each member of this house to find the grace to listen as well as to speak. Grant each one the grace to refuse to allow disagreement to be a reason for enmity. Bless us all with the humility to recognize the limits of our human understanding.

Forgive us when we fail to remember the most vulnerable in our society. Forgive us when we mix selfish motives with noble ones. Forgive us when our actions bring injury or harm whether by intention or ignorance.

Now, we pray that You would bless these, Your servants, with gratitude for the opportunities before them to advance the well-being of the citizens of Virginia. Give them, this day and all days, clarity of mind, devotion to truth, humility of spirit, and good will toward one another. Do not let this prayer or any other be merely a perfunctory ritual, but a genuine moment of opening our feeble minds and spirits to the outpouring of Your divine grace. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator McClellan, the reading of the Journal was waived.

If the cable operator elects to relocate its facilities underground, the cable operator may participate with the utility in a joint relocation of the overhead lines to underground or may engage its own contractors to undertake its relocation work if it deems it appropriate to do so. In all cases, the cable operator shall be responsible for all costs related to the relocation of cable facilities and, unless otherwise agreed between the utility and the cable operator, the cable operator shall cease all use of such poles and shall relocate or remove its facilities from the poles on or before 90 days after the utility gives written notice to the cable operator that it has relocated its distribution tap lines underground. Clerk of the Senate
In the presence of all here gathered, and those ancestors who came before us, and those who will be born and will fill these rooms after we have gone—in the presence of the Divine known by many names, and by no name—let us join our hearts and minds in prayer and invocation.

Spirit of life and love that moves and breathes and holds us all, awaken in us the recognition of Your power and wisdom. Bless these elected leaders of our Commonwealth. Help them be ever mindful of the inheritance of the American dream which they are called to uphold. May their hearts be open to include in all their decisions the well-being of the one and all in this Commonwealth. May they show special compassion for the vulnerable—children and elders, the poor and the ill, and those with disability mental and physical. May they protect the God-given rights of all people, of every race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender and religion. For all are the children of the universe, and these leaders here in this Senate hold their safety in sacred trust. In the name of all that is holy, Amen.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 231

Proposing an amendment to Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to apportionment; Virginia Redistricting Commission; criteria for legislative and congressional districts.

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE II
FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 6. Apportionment; Virginia Redistricting Commission.
(a) Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established by the General Assembly Virginia Redistricting Commission. Every electoral district shall be composed of contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable, representation in proportion to the population of the district. The General Assembly Virginia Redistricting Commission shall reapportion the Commonwealth into electoral districts in accordance with this section in the year 2021 and every ten years thereafter.

Any such decennial reapportionment law shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.

The districts delineated in the decennial reapportionment law shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is required to be enacted. A member in office at the time that a decennial redistricting law is enacted shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled.

(b) The Virginia Redistricting Commission shall consist of seven members. No member of the Commission or member of his immediate family shall be a member or employee of the United States Congress or of the Virginia General Assembly or be employed to lobby before any of these legislative bodies. The members of the Commission shall be appointed with due consideration to geographic diversity. Of the seven members, four shall be identified as members of political parties and three shall be independent public officials whose positions require the exercise of apolitical or nonpartisan judgment and discretion.

(1) The members of the Commission shall be composed as follows:

(A) The President pro tempore of the Senate, the leader in the Senate of the political party holding the most seats in the Senate other than the political party of the President pro tempore, the Speaker of the House of Delegates, and the leader in the House of Delegates of the political party holding the most seats in the House of Delegates other than the political party of the Speaker each shall appoint a member of his political party.

(B) The three independent public officials shall be the Auditor of Public Accounts, the State Inspector General, and the Executive Director of the Virginia State Bar.

(2) The members of the Commission shall take the oath of office administered by the Chief Justice of the Virginia Supreme Court or his designee. The Commission members shall elect their chairperson by simple majority vote. If the members are unable to achieve a majority vote, the chairperson shall be designated by the Chief Justice. All administrative and procedural decisions by the Commission shall be by a majority vote of at least four members. Final approval or adoption of redistricting plans shall be by a majority vote of at least five of the seven members of the Commission, including at least one vote from each of the political parties represented and from among the independent members.

(3) Appointments shall be made on or before July 1 of the year in which the census is taken and shall be certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth on or before July 15 of that year. The term of office of each member of the Commission shall expire upon the appointment of the first member of the succeeding Commission. Vacancies in the membership of the Commission occurring prior to the certification by the Commission of the districts for the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates or during any period in which the districts established by the Commission may be or are under challenge in court shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments were made within five days of their occurrence.

(c) In the calendar year following each decennial census of the United States, the Virginia Redistricting Commission shall establish the districts for the House of Representatives of the United States and for the Senate and the House of Delegates of the General Assembly and shall apportion the members of the House of Representatives and the members of the Senate and the House of Delegates among the districts, respectively. Every congressional and legislative district shall be constituted so as to adhere to the following standards and criteria:

(1) Legislative and congressional districts shall be established on the basis of population. Senate and House of Delegates districts shall each have a population that is as substantially equal to the population of every other respective district as practicable. Congressional districts shall have populations that are as nearly equal as practicable. The Commission shall be guided by the most authoritative federal and state judicial decisions defining standards for equal population for the respective districts. Variations in the size of districts, within the deviations permitted by applicable law, may be permitted if necessary to facilitate compliance with one or more of the other standards or criteria set forth in this section.

(2) Districts shall be drawn in accordance with the requirements of all applicable federal and state laws and judicial decisions interpreting such laws, including the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution, the provisions of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, and any other such laws addressing racial and ethnic fairness.

(3) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of contiguous territory. A district shall be deemed contiguous if it is possible to travel from one point in the district to any other point in the district without crossing the boundary of the district. Territory that touches the rest of a district only by a point shall not be deemed contiguous territory. Districts divided by water shall be deemed contiguous if a common means of transport, such as a bridge or ferry, connects the two parts of the district or, if the water were to be removed, the land on one side of the water would be contiguous with the land on the opposite side of the water. Connections by water running downstream or upriver are not permissible.

(4) Each legislative and congressional district shall be composed of compact territory, such that nearby areas of population are not bypassed for more distant populations. Districts shall not be oddly shaped or have irregular or contorted boundaries, unless justified because the district adheres to political subdivision lines or well recognized communities of interest. Fingers or tendrils extending from a district core shall be avoided, as shall thin and elongated districts and districts with multiple core populations connected by thin strips of land or water. The Commission shall employ one or more standard numerical measures of individual and average district compactness to provide an objective assessment of a districting plan’s compactness, both statewide and district-by-district.

(5) Existing political boundaries shall be respected to the maximum extent possible and departures from existing political boundaries may be permitted only if necessary to comply with one or more of the other standards or criteria set forth in this section. Political boundaries shall include the boundaries of counties, cities, towns, county magisterial and election districts, municipal councilmanic districts, and voting precincts. If a departure from existing political boundaries is necessary in order to comply with other districting criteria, the district lines shall be drawn utilizing clearly observable physical boundaries such as highways, roads, railroad lines, rivers, streams, and other natural or man-made features observable on official maps.
(6) Existing communities of interest shall be respected to the maximum extent practicable. Districts should be drawn in such a way as to avoid dividing communities of interest without violating the requirements of the preceding subsections. District lines shall not be drawn to divide homogeneous neighborhoods or any geographically defined group of people living in an area who share similar social, cultural, and economic interests. Other examples of communities of interest are recognized minority and ethnic enclaves, residential subdivisions, and recognized but unincorporated areas. A community of interest does not include a community based upon political affiliation or relationship with a political party, elected official, or candidate for office.

(d) No districts shall be drawn for the purpose of favoring or disfavoring any political party, incumbent legislator or member of Congress, or potential candidate. Political data, including addresses of incumbent legislators or members of Congress, political affiliations of voters, or previous election results, shall not be used in the drawing of any legislative or congressional district, except as may be necessary to ensure that racial or ethnic minorities are able to elect a preferred candidate of choice in a district drawn pursuant to subdivision (c) (2).

(e) The Commission, by a majority vote of at least five of its seven members as prescribed in subdivision (b) (2), shall certify the establishment of House of Delegates districts and Senate districts to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within thirty days of receipt by the Governor of the official decennial census redistricting numbers for Virginia or by the first day of June of the year following the year in which the census is taken, whichever occurs later. The Commission, by the same majority vote, shall certify the establishment of House of Representatives districts to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within sixty days of receipt by the Governor of the official decennial census redistricting numbers for Virginia or by the first day of July following the year in which the census is taken, whichever occurs later. The Commission may solicit, receive, and consider redistricting plans from the general public in establishing electoral districts.

If the Commission is unable to certify the establishment of districts within the prescribed time by a majority vote as prescribed in subdivision (b) (2), the three independent members of the Commission shall vote on the redistricting plans. The plan receiving the greatest number of votes among the three independent members shall be the plan adopted, and the districts shall be so certified.

(f) The Commission shall hold at least three public hearings in different parts of the Commonwealth to receive and consider comments from the public on the various plans subject to consideration. The Commission shall conduct its meetings and certify the adoption of plans in an open public meeting or meetings located in the City of Richmond, allowing for comment and input from the public in its consideration of proposed redistricting plans. The Commission shall give notice of its public hearings and meetings at least forty-eight hours in advance in either print or electronic media, or both.

(g) The General Assembly shall provide all such funds as may be necessary for the efficient and independent operation of the Commission, including sums sufficient to hire legal counsel, demographic experts, and such other staff as may be necessary to provide for the day-to-day operations of the Commission.

(h) Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution to the contrary and except as otherwise required by the Constitution or laws of the United States, no court of the Commonwealth other than the Supreme Court of Virginia shall have jurisdiction over any judicial proceeding challenging the appointment of the members to the Commission or an action of the Commission, including the establishment of districts. The Supreme Court of Virginia shall have original jurisdiction in mandamus or prohibition to address any of the aforementioned issues, or any act, or failure to act in a timely manner, as may be alleged against the Commission. In any such cases, the Supreme Court shall give priority on the docket, and may expedite any such claim, including by deciding the matter on the papers without argument as may be deemed appropriate by the Court.
(i) If a plan certified by the Commission is declared unlawful, the Commission shall reconvene and adopt another district plan within such shorter period of time as prescribed by the Court or as otherwise may be necessary to ensure that the new plan is effective for the next succeeding primary and general election for all members of the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

Rabbi Dovid Asher, Keneseth Beth Israel, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Ribono Shel Olam, Master of the Universe, we call out to You and beseech You from this revered, symbolic, august chamber of human freedom and ask in Your mercy to look down from Your sanctified abode upon these humble spirits and these dedicated public servants so that they might embody the values that You hold dear. We ask that You, G-d, endow us all with faith and courage to thwart the schemes of pettiness, hatred, and intolerance. Collectively, we look to Moses, who when tapped to lead Israel replied to G-d, “Mi Anochi” “Who am I” to go to Pharaoh and he called himself “Aral Sefasaim,” protesting to G-d, “But I am not a man of words.” And then again we see Jeremiah’s demonstration when he says “Hinei Behold, lo Yadati daber, I do not know how to speak, ki na’ar anochi, because I am but like a child before You.”

And these leaders are teaching us about contrasting prophecies. For the false prophet speaks, while the true prophet listens. The false prophet tells people what they want to hear, while the true prophet tells them what they need to hear. The false prophet believes in his own powers, and the true prophet knows that he has no ultimate power. The false prophet speaks in his own voice, and the true prophet speaks in a voice not his own.

And so we ask G-d today to help us. Help us live nobly and charitably; to enable uplifting the downtrodden; to assure a haven for the oppressed among us who pursue the American dream regardless of creed, skin color, or orientation; to share the bestowed authority for the sake of dreams that keep men and women from across the state Awake at night; and to assist the furthering of our religious freedoms that this proud Commonwealth is famous for; and to be a healing, unifying force for Virginians everywhere during this time of grave discord. Let us be able to look daily upon our own reflection, and to encounter a visage of greatness with the likeness of truth, diligence, sincerity, and Your Almighty’s supreme brilliance.

Please G-d, grant us a consciousness of purity, a clearness of purpose, and a clarity of vision. So may it be Your will and let us say, Amen.

The Word was made flesh and dwelt amongst us. As pastors and representatives, our trade is in words. Words can be stones. Stones can injure and destroy. Stones are used to build walls. Walls can protect. They also divide. A house divided against itself cannot stand. Is it time to throw away stones or to use them to build a bridge of understanding? Lord, You are the Word. Send us a word that will heal. Bring us a word that will unite. Take away our hearts of stone and give us hearts of flesh. Amen.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2017

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend James L. Porter, United Methodist Church, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we give You thanks for all of the blessings You have poured out upon all of us this past year, and though it has been a difficult time for many of our citizens, we ask and believe that You will bless our country and the Commonwealth of Virginia in 2017.

We thank You that we live in a country and a state where our leaders are elected by a majority of the people rather than selectively chosen by only a few.

We thank You for our elected leaders, and we ask that You give them the wisdom to enact legislation that will enable our citizens to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Please bless this delegation and help everyone here to aspire to the highest ideals of their own personal faith as well as to the high ideals of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Let there be a spirit of mutual cooperation in this chamber that crosses every boundary so that the will of the people will be carried out for the mutual benefit of all of our citizens.

Please bless this day as we ask for Your guidance on so many important issues, and help us remember to respond to Your graciousness by giving You all of the praise and glory. Amen.

The Reverend Denise Trogdon, Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross, Dunn Loring, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray, holy and gracious God, source of all wisdom, we ask Your blessing upon this General Assembly gathered, that they may be united in a common purpose and led with compassion, courage and higher vision.

We beseech You so to guide and inspire all who have been entrusted to care for this Commonwealth, that they may enact laws and provide leadership that will seek the greater good and peace for all people. Grant that we may never forget that our common life depends upon each other’s toil.

Be present, O Lord, with these leaders in times of decision. Place wise counselors in their midst and give them perseverance to fulfill their calling to serve. Open their eyes to the things that divide, and guard their hearts against discord, arrogance and pride.

In times of prosperity, fill us with thankfulness, and in the days of trouble, may our trust in You never fail. Set our course, O God of eternity, and let Your light shine upon our way. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.

God of peace and justice, we pray today that You would give us Your wisdom, that You would extend to us Your vision for the world. We ask that You would help us to see each other as You see us, and bless us with the knowledge we need for this day.

Hear the cries of Your people, as we long to see a world full of peace and grace, where all have enough in safety and rest. We recognize that these things are still hoped for and admit our inability to accomplish them without You.

Show us the way to think and to act as we work together, that our decisions would shape a world in Your image, that our needs and wants would be perfectly balanced, that peace would be our ultimate focus in the service of others.

On this day and every day, we thank You for Your blessings to us, and ask that You would use us to be a blessing to others. Amen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Nathan Smith, Heritage Baptist Church, Lynchburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Gracious and just Heavenly Father, the heavens declare Your glory, and the sky above proclaims Your handiwork.

Heaven is Your throne, and the earth is Your footstool.

Your majesty is unsearchable. You are gracious and merciful. You are slow to anger.

There is no one besides You. There is no one holy like You.

When we look at the heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place, what is man that You are mindful of him?

You have knit us together in our mother’s womb, and we are fearfully and wonderfully made.

Indeed, all men bear the fingerprints of Your creative genius and the honor of Your image, and we are valuable in Your sight, regardless of skin color, ethnicity, or heritage.

We hold fast to the belief in this nation “that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

O Father, I pray that You would give these men and women, who have been endowed with awesome responsibility, the wisdom, the grace, and the insight to govern our great Commonwealth.

I pray for our nation. God, we ask that You bring about a sweeping grace that heals the deepest brokenness of our people, the racial divides that have ravaged us, and the hatred and division that has inflamed us.

Our only hope is in You. And so we cry out to You to open the reservoirs of Your grace and pour it forth onto our land.

By Your great mercy, I beseech You, O God. Amen.

TAXATION AND FINANCE

Section 6-A. Property tax exemption for certain veterans and their surviving spouses and surviving spouses of soldiers killed in action.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6, the General Assembly by general law, and within the restrictions and conditions prescribed therein, shall exempt from taxation the real property, including the joint real property of husband and wife, of any veteran who has been determined by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor agency pursuant to federal law to have a one hundred percent service-connected, permanent, and total disability, and who occupies the real property as his or her principal place of residence. The General Assembly shall also provide this exemption from taxation for real property owned by the surviving spouse of a veteran who was eligible for the exemption provided in this section, so long as the surviving spouse does not remarry and continues to occupy the real property as his or her principal place of residence. This exemption applies to the surviving spouse’s principal place of residence without any restriction on the spouse’s moving to a different principal place of residence.

The Reverend Carlotta B. Cochran, St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Chesapeake, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech You that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the people of this great Commonwealth, brought here out of many kindred and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom, in Your name, we entrust the authority of government, especially Donald, our President, Terry, our Governor, and this assembled body, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to Your righteous law, we may show forth Your praise to all peoples.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, do not let our trust in Your great goodness fail. All these things we ask through our gracious and loving God who binds us each together as one. Amen.

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 14 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE IV

LEGISLATURE

Section 14. Powers of General Assembly; limitations.

The authority of the General Assembly shall extend to all subjects of legislation not herein forbidden or restricted; and a specific grant of authority in this Constitution upon a subject shall not work a restriction of its authority upon the same or any other subject. The omission in this Constitution of specific grants of authority heretofore conferred shall not be construed to deprive the General Assembly of such authority, or to indicate a change of policy in reference thereto, unless such purpose plainly appear.

The General Assembly shall confer on the courts power to grant divorces, change the names of persons, and direct the sales of estates belonging to infants and other persons under legal disabilities, and shall not, by special legislation, grant relief in these or other cases of which the courts or other tribunals may have jurisdiction.

The General Assembly may regulate the exercise by courts of the right to punish for contempt.

The General Assembly may suspend or nullify any or all portions of any administrative rule or regulation by a joint resolution agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house. The General Assembly may by general law authorize a legislative committee or legislative committees acting jointly or a legislative commission to suspend any or all portions of any administrative rule or regulation while the General Assembly is not in a regular session, within such restrictions and upon such conditions as may be prescribed. An administrative rule or regulation suspended by such committee or commission shall be suspended until the end of the next regular session.

The General Assembly's power to define the accrual date for a civil action based on an intentional tort committed by a natural person against a person who, at the time of the intentional tort, was a minor shall include the power to provide for the retroactive application of a change in the accrual date. No natural person shall have a constitutionally protected property right to bar a cause of action based on intentional torts as described herein on the ground that a change in the accrual date for the action has been applied retroactively or that a statute of limitations or statute of repose has expired.
The General Assembly shall not enact any local, special, or private law in the following cases:

(1) For the punishment of crime.

(2) Providing a change of venue in civil or criminal cases.

(3) Regulating the practice in, or the jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceedings or inquiry before the courts or other tribunals, or providing or changing the methods of collecting debts or enforcing judgments or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate.

(4) Changing or locating county seats.

(5) For the assessment and collection of taxes, except as to animals which the General Assembly may deem dangerous to the farming interests.

(6) Extending the time for the assessment or collection of taxes.

(7) Exempting property from taxation.

(8) Remitting, releasing, postponing, or diminishing any obligation or liability of any person, corporation, or association to the Commonwealth or to any political subdivision thereof.

(9) Refunding money lawfully paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth or the treasury of any political subdivision thereof.

(10) Granting from the treasury of the Commonwealth, or granting or authorizing to be granted from the treasury of any political subdivision thereof, any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, agent, or contractor.

(11) For registering voters, conducting elections, or designating the places of voting.

(12) Regulating labor, trade, mining, or manufacturing, or the rate of interest on money.

(13) Granting any pension.

(14) Creating, increasing, or decreasing, or authorizing to be created, increased, or decreased, the salaries, fees, percentages, or allowances of public officers during the term for which they are elected or appointed.

(15) Declaring streams navigable, or authorizing the construction of booms or dams therein, or the removal of obstructions therefrom.

(16) Affecting or regulating fencing or the boundaries of land, or the running at large of stock.

(17) Creating private corporations, or amending, renewing, or extending the charters thereof.

(18) Granting to any private corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege, or immunity.

(19) Naming or changing the name of any private corporation or association.

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Donald D. Binder, Pohick Episcopal Church, Lorton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we pause here at the start of the morning hour to give thanks for the many blessings You have bestowed upon our nation and our Commonwealth, and also to remember before You the birthday today of the Father of our Country, Your servant, George Washington.

When he was yet a lad, he copied by hand the 110 Rules of Civility and Decent Behavior and went on to pattern his life after them, seeking to be for those in his company the very model of the Christian gentleman.

When he was a young man, he found himself caught in a hail of gunfire and looked to Your divine providence to preserve his life for his continued work in Your service.

When plunged into the depths of despair at Valley Forge, he knelt before You in prayer, seeking Your grace to sustain both himself and those under his command in their struggle for freedom against imperial tyranny.

And when our young nation was sorely divided under the Articles of Confederation, he again heeded Your call to serve, laboring tirelessly to join together the many peoples of this land so that we might truly become the United States of America.

Bestow these same mercies upon our Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and the Senators and Delegates of this General Assembly, that they may continue to be inspired by his noble example and rise to meet the many challenges of our age.

Finally, we pray that You would kindle within all Your people our Founding Father’s spirit of public service and self-sacrifice for the common good, that working together we may not only preserve, but further advance the blessings of liberty for which Washington and our Founders so mightily labored. Amen.

For purposes of this section, “optional retirement plan” means a retirement plan covering the employee for retirement purposes other than the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan established under this chapter or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169.

A.1. The Board shall maintain an optional retirement plan covering employees engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties with an institution of higher education and any institution of higher education is authorized to make contributions to such plan for the benefit of its employees participating in such plan. Except (i) as provided in subsection B for institutions of higher education that have established their own optional retirement plan and (ii) for employees described in subdivision A 2, every employee hired by an institution of higher education on or after July 1, 2003, engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties shall make an irrevocable election to participate in either (a) the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan established by this chapter until January 1, 2014, and thereafter, the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169 or (b) an optional retirement plan maintained by the Board. Such election shall be exercised no later than 60 days from the time of the employee’s entry upon the performance of his duties. If an election is not made within such 60 days, such employee shall be deemed to have elected to participate in the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, as applicable.

2. Any employee (i) hired on or after July 1, 2003, by an institution of higher education engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties; and (ii) who at the time of hiring is in continuous service in the performance of such teaching, administrative, or research duties shall participate in the optional retirement plan maintained by the Board if the most recent retirement plan covering the employee prior to such hiring was an optional retirement plan. If the most recent retirement plan covering the employee prior to such hiring was the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, such person shall participate in such defined benefit retirement plan or such hybrid retirement program, as applicable, from the time of his entry upon the performance of his duties.

B.1. Any institution of higher education, upon receipt of approval by the Board in writing, may establish and maintain its own optional retirement plan covering its employees who are engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties. Upon such approval, such institution is authorized to make contributions to its own optional retirement plan for the benefit of its employees who elect to participate or who are required to participate in such plan as provided in this subsection.

2. Every employee, with the exception of employees described in subdivision B 3 and employees covered by § 51.1-126.3, (i) hired on or after July 1, 2003, by an institution of higher education that has established and is maintaining its own optional retirement plan pursuant to this subsection and (ii) engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties shall make an irrevocable election to participate in either: (a) the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan established by this chapter until January 1, 2014, and thereafter, the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, as applicable; or (b) such optional retirement plan of the institution of higher education. Such employee shall not be provided any election to participate in an optional retirement plan maintained by the Board.

The election shall be exercised no later than 60 days from the time of the employee’s entry upon the performance of his duties. If an election is not made within such 60 days, such employee shall be deemed to have elected to participate in the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan established by this chapter or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, as applicable.

3. Any employee (i) hired on or after July 1, 2003, by an institution of higher education engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties; and (ii) who at the time of hiring is in continuous service in the performance of such teaching, administrative, or research duties shall participate in the optional retirement plan established by the institution of higher education pursuant to this subsection if the most recent retirement plan covering the employee prior to such hiring was an optional retirement plan. If the most recent retirement plan covering the employee prior to such hiring was the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, such person shall participate in such defined benefit retirement plan or such hybrid retirement program, as applicable, from the time of his entry upon the performance of his duties. This subdivision shall not apply to employees covered by § 51.1-126.3.

C. Any employee engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties at an institution of higher education who was covered under an optional retirement plan for retirement purposes, other than the optional retirement plan established by such institution pursuant to subdivision B 1, shall, at the time such institution establishes its own optional retirement plan pursuant to subdivision B 1, automatically and immediately begin to participate in the optional retirement plan established pursuant to subdivision B 1, notwithstanding such employee’s prior election to participate in a different optional retirement plan.

D.1. Any administrative fee imposed pursuant to subdivision A 13 of § 51.1-124.22 upon any institution of higher education for administering and overseeing the institution’s retirement plan established pursuant to subsection A shall be charged for each employee participating in such plan and shall be for costs incurred by the Retirement System that are directly related to the administration and oversight of such plan.

2. Each institution of higher education may charge and collect a reimbursement fee from each employee participating in the institution’s retirement plan established pursuant to subsection A. The total amount charged and collected for such fee from all such employees for any year shall not exceed the total of the costs described in subdivision D 1 and charged to the institution for such year.

E.1. No employee of an institution of higher education who is an active member in any plan maintained by the Board or established by an institution of higher education, pursuant to this section, shall also be an active member of the retirement system or beneficiary other than a contingent annuitant.

2. If a member of the optional retirement plan maintained under this section is at any time in service as an employee in a position covered for retirement purposes under the provisions of Chapters 1 (§ 51.1-124.1 et seq.), 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.), 2.1 (§ 51.1-211 et seq.), or 3 (§ 51.1-300 et seq.), his benefit payments under the optional retirement plan maintained under this section shall be suspended while so employed; provided, however, reemployment shall have no effect on the payment under the optional plan maintained under this section if the benefits are being paid in an annuity form under an annuity contract purchased with the member’s account balance.

F.1. The contribution by the Commonwealth on behalf of an employee participating in an optional retirement plan maintained by the Board or on behalf of an employee participating in an optional retirement plan established by his institution of higher education under this section to such employee’s retirement plan shall be (i) at least 8.5 percent but not in excess of 8.9 percent of creditable compensation for any person who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2010, and (ii) 10.4 percent of creditable compensation for all other employees. Any institution of higher education that elects a contribution in excess of 8.5 percent of creditable compensation for any employee described in clause (i) shall provide for the same percentage of creditable compensation as contributions for each of its employees described in clause (i) who participates in such optional retirement plan. The portion of the contribution in excess of 8.5 percent of creditable compensation pursuant to clause (i) shall not be funded from the general fund of the state treasury, but shall be paid by the institution of higher education from other funds. In addition, any person who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2010, shall, pursuant to procedures established by the Board, pay member contributions on a salary reduction basis in accordance with § 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, in an amount equal to five percent of his creditable compensation, to the optional retirement plan maintained by the Board on his behalf or the optional retirement plan established by his institution of higher education on his behalf, as applicable. Each employee making such member contribution shall be deemed to consent and agree to any salary reduction for purposes of the member contribution. Such member contributions shall be in addition to all contributions pursuant to clause (i). An institution of higher education may make an additional contribution for participants who, before January 1, 1991, exercised the election to participate in the plan provided by the institution employing them. Such additional contributions shall be made using funds other than general funds, tuition or fees, up to an additional 2.17 percent of creditable compensation.

2. The governing board of any institution of higher education that establishes its own optional retirement plan pursuant to this section may establish a policy regarding the number of years of service, or portion thereof, that an employee must perform before such employee shall be entitled to receive all contributions made on his behalf by the institution to the optional retirement plan. If an employee has less than the number of years of service, or portion thereof, established by the governing board at the time he ceases employment, other than by death or involuntary separation due to causes other than job performance or misconduct, as determined by the institution of higher education in its sole discretion, he shall not receive or be entitled to that portion of the contributions that was paid by the institution on his behalf for which he does not have the required service. The institution of higher education may establish a forfeiture account for such employer contributions forgone by the employee and may specify the uses of funds in the forfeiture account. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply only to any person who (i) becomes a participant in the institution of higher education’s optional retirement plan on or after July 1, 2014, and (ii) is not an employee described under subdivision B 3. Any future change to a policy established by the governing board of an institution of higher education pursuant to this subdivision regarding the number of years of service required for an employee to receive all contributions made by the institution to the optional retirement plan shall apply only to new employees hired on or after the date of the change.

3. The contribution rates established pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be examined by the Board at least once every six years. The examination shall consider the salary peer group mean contribution as determined by the State Council of Higher Education and the Virginia Retirement System actuary, and, if deemed advisable, recommend a revision to the rate of contribution by the Commonwealth.

G. With respect to any employee who elects pursuant to subsection A or B to participate in the Virginia Retirement System defined benefit retirement plan established by this chapter or the hybrid retirement program described in § 51.1-169, the institution of higher education shall collect and pay all employee and employer contributions to the Virginia Retirement System for retirement and group life insurance in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1 (§ 51.1-124.1 et seq.) for such employees.

H. The Virginia Retirement System shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of the optional retirement plan it maintains. To assist the Virginia Retirement System in developing such policies and procedures, the Board may appoint an advisory committee of higher education employees to supply guidance in the process.

I. As a condition of the Board granting approval to an institution of higher education to establish its own optional retirement plan, the institution of higher education shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of such plan and shall submit such policies and procedures to the Board as part of the Board-approval process required under this section. In addition, an institution of higher education that is granted approval by the Board to establish its own optional retirement plan covering employees engaged in the performance of teaching, administrative, or research duties shall not adopt or implement policies and procedures that are substantially different from the policies and procedures approved by the Board in the initial approval process unless the Board, in writing, approves such substantially different policies and procedures.

J. The Board shall establish guidelines for the employee elections referred to in subdivision B 2 and shall review and, if deemed advisable, recommend revisions to the contribution rates as described in subsection F. Except for the duties described in subdivision I, the Board shall have no duties and responsibilities with respect to such plans established pursuant to subsection B.
2. That any institution of higher education that establishes a retirement plan pursuant to subsection B of § 51.1-126 that is approved by the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System prior to July 1, 2017, shall not be required to seek further approval of the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Retirement System for any changes to such plan made in implementing the provisions of this act.

Clerk of the Senate
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2017

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Ralph S. Northam.

The Reverend Dr. Howard-John Wesley, Alfred Street Baptist Church, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, Thou who has brought us thus far on our way, Thou who hast by Thy might led us unto the light, keep us forever in the path we pray.

I lift up those words of the great African American poet and civil rights activist James Weldon Johnson before Thee, Oh God, in remembrance that in these times of great transition and division, of concern and worry, of exclusion and fear, that You are the God who hears our loudest cries as well as our silent tears.

As we gather in this place of legislation, grant those whom You have called to serve this nation, this Commonwealth, and their communities Your divine ear to hear and remember the silent tears – the tears of the hungry and the homeless, the tears of the uninsured and the unemployed, the tears of the elderly and the infant, the tears of the incarcerated and the victims of their crimes, the tears of the school teacher and the parent, the tears of the soldier and the family left behind, the tears of our mother planet on which we live as all of creation cries out to You – teach us to hear.

And not only to hear but to act. I ask that You grant us the wisdom of Solomon, the courage of Rosa Parks and Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the voice of Fannie Lou Hamer and Oscar Romero, the peaceful commitment of Martin and Gandhi, the compassion of Theresa, the steadfastness of Nelson, and the love that emanates from You. Remind us that the efficacy of our prayers is found in our willingness to be part of Your answer. Use us all today as instruments in Your unfolding and yet unrealized will for our Commonwealth.

May the decisions in this place and on this day keep us on the path of peace, equality, justice, and freedom. May these Your servant leaders be guided by humility and a desire to provide for the least of our sisters and brothers, mindful of the words of Franklin D. Roosevelt, “The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little.”

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee. Lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee. Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand, true to our God, true to our native land. Amen.
