SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 3

Recognizing that the Virginia Beach Tragedy Fund is performing an essential government service with respect to the Virginia Beach mass shooting.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 29, 2020

WHEREAS, on May 31, 2019, 12 people were killed and four people were wounded in a mass shooting at a municipal building in the City of Virginia Beach; and

WHEREAS, the victims and their families incurred medical, funeral, and other expenses as a result of the mass shooting; and

WHEREAS, the resources of the City of Virginia Beach and the Commonwealth were burdened due to the increased need for public safety personnel, first responders, public health professionals, and other officials who worked long hours in response to the mass shooting; and

WHEREAS, United Way of South Hampton Roads, a nonprofit organization that the Internal Revenue Service has certified as tax-exempt under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, worked with the City of Virginia Beach to establish the Virginia Beach Tragedy Fund (the Fund); and

WHEREAS, after the mass shooting, people and businesses showed great generosity in offering help to the victims of the mass shooting; and

WHEREAS, the City of Virginia Beach was the recipient of many of these offers to help and directed monetary donations from numerous people and businesses to the Fund; and

WHEREAS, the City of Virginia Beach tasked United Way of South Hampton Roads with the burden of centralizing the community's efforts to help the victims of mass shootings, ensuring that monetary donations are used to help the victims of mass shootings, and fulfilling the same functions if a similar tragedy occurs in the future; and

WHEREAS, the Fund is intended to decrease the likelihood that community members' generosity will be subverted by fraudulent charities; and

WHEREAS, the Senate of Virginia deems it prudent and necessary that a charity exist to address the loss suffered by victims and their families, provide for final arrangements, memorialize the heroism of first responders and community members, and thereby relieve and lessen the burdens of government and promote the health of victims and the community as a whole; and

WHEREAS, the Fund was created to address these concerns; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Virginia Beach Tragedy Fund be recognized as performing an essential government service with respect to the Virginia Beach mass shooting; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Fund has the purpose of lessening the burden of government and promoting health generally in relation to mass shootings and similar tragedies that may occur in the future; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Commonwealth recognizes that the Fund (i) provides a single vehicle to receive the overwhelming number of monetary donations that community members have made in response to the mass shooting, thereby avoiding the misdirection of donations to fraudulent charities; (ii) provides the infrastructure to coordinate the collection, administration, and distribution of funds in a manner consistent with the Commonwealth's interest in helping the victims of mass shootings; (iii) acts as a central resource to allow victims of mass shootings to find appropriate help; and (iv) maintains the infrastructure that would allow it to respond immediately if a similar tragedy occurred in the future, in order to lessen the burdens of government; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Fund shall fulfill the essential government service of developing a protocol for financially assisting the victims of mass shootings; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That on behalf of the City of Virginia Beach and the Commonwealth, Jeffrey Breit, Administrator of the Fund, and other members of the Fund shall work to develop a protocol for the distribution of financial assistance to those victims most seriously affected by mass shootings and provide recommendations for final distributions; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That a person's or business's donation to the Fund shall not influence any other business such person or business may have with the Commonwealth or any of its instrumentalities; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That should any officer or employee of the Commonwealth have reason to believe that a donation is improperly influencing business with the Commonwealth, he shall communicate the reasons for his belief to the Department of State Police or any other appropriate investigatory officer or agency; and, be it

RESOLVED FINALLY, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution the Clerk of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the City of Virginia Beach, the Fund, the Governor, and the Internal Revenue Service so that they may be apprised of the sense of the Senate of Virginia in this matter.

Per diem for orientation will be paid as approved by the Clerk.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 6

Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 8, 2020

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the following are adopted as the Rules of the Senate to supersede all previous Rules of the Senate:

RULES OF THE SENATE

I.

Presiding Officer.

1. The presiding officer of the Senate shall be the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth as the President of the Senate in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

2 (a). There shall be elected by the Senate, on the first day of the session following the election of the Senate, a President pro tempore who shall serve for a term coincident with the member's current term of office and be a senior member in the Senate.

2 (b). In the event of the absence, disability, or vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall carry out the duties of the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer.

2 (c). The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open session, or if ~~he~~ the President pro tempore is absent, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

2 (d). In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, or whenever the powers and duties of the Governor shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall have the right to name, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer during ~~his~~ the absence of the President pro tempore; and the Senator so named shall have the right to name, in open session, or in writing, if he is absent, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

3. The presiding officer, after taking the Chair pursuant to these Rules, and a quorum being present, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The reading of the Journal may be waived by a majority of those Senators present and voting. The reading of the Journal may be waived at a reconvened session of a special session by at least two members present and voting, only if there is no business to consider in accordance to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia. Any errors in the entries shall be corrected, and the Journal being found correct, shall be signed by the presiding officer for that day and the Clerk of the Senate. The Journals, when so signed, shall be the official records of the proceedings of the Senate.

4. If any question is put upon a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall state the same without argument.

II.

Membership, Attendance, and Adjournment.

5. A member of the Senate shall be a Senator elected to represent one of the 40 senatorial districts. A majority of Senators shall constitute a quorum to do business; two may adjourn, and nine may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. However, not less than 16 may meet by proclamation of the Governor under the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution. At a special session or a reconvened session of a special session when there is no business to consider in accordance with Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia, two members may convene the Senate, dispense with the reading of the Journal, recess or adjourn the Senate.

6. No Senator shall absent himself from the service of the Senate without leave.

III.

The Pages.

7. The Senate shall elect 20 Pages in accordance with an appointment process approved by the Clerk, in consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, that includes geographical diversity and ensures that each Senator has an appointment for one long (60 days) session and one short (46 days) session during a term. Six Pages shall be appointed by the following: one by the Lieutenant Governor; one by the President pro tempore; one by the chair of the caucus of the majority party; one by the majority leader; one by the chair of the caucus of the minority party; and one by the minority leader. The Clerk may also appoint such number of additional Pages as may be required. The Pages shall be no less than 13 and no more than 14 years of age at the time of election or appointment, shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall be elected or appointed for a term of one year. No Page shall be eligible for reelection. Any such Page so elected or appointed may be suspended or dismissed for cause by the Clerk of the Senate.

IV.

The Clerk of the Senate.

8 (a). A Clerk of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate for a term of four years and shall thereafter continue in office until another is chosen. The oath of office shall be administered to the Clerk of the Senate by any person qualified by law to administer oaths. If a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Senate occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, a successor shall be elected by the Committee on Rules to serve until the first day of the next session, at a meeting to be called by the Chair, or in his absence or inability to act, the next senior member of such Committee able and willing to do so. At least five ~~days~~ days' notice by certified mail of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be given all members of the Committee, and, at such meeting, the person receiving the votes of a majority of the members present and voting shall be elected to fill the vacancy.

8 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of the public seal and design of armorial bearings of the Senate.

8 (c). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of all records and papers of the Senate and the Clerk shall not suffer any such records or papers to be taken from the Clerk's desk or out of the Clerk's custody by any person except the Chair or the clerk of a Committee, or any Senator on taking receipts for same. Amendments agreed to by the Senate shall be handled only by the Clerk of the Senate, or staff members designated by the Clerk.

8 (d). It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to refer all bills and resolutions to the appropriate standing Committee or the Committee on Rules as provided in these Rules. If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing committee or the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

8 (e). The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list of the Senators in order of seniority. Seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the Senate. However, if a Senator has previous interrupted service in the Senate, then the beginning date of such previous Senate service shall qualify the Senator for seniority before those Senators elected at the same time not having previous service in the Senate, and if a Senator has previous service in the House of Delegates, then seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the House of Delegates and shall qualify the Senator to seniority before those Senators elected to the Senate at the same time not having previous service in the House of Delegates. Senators elected at the same time without previous service in the Senate or House of Delegates shall have their seniority determined by a public drawing of lots, conducted by the Clerk of the Senate, to which all Senators involved shall be invited to attend. After the name of each Senator there shall be indicated the name of the political party under which the Senator was elected or abbreviation of the same; e.g., "Rep." or "Dem." If a Senator was not elected as a nominee of a political party, then such Senator shall be listed as an Independent, or "Ind."; however, if any Senator is elected at a special or general election and such Senator has, prior to such election, declared himself in writing a member of a political party during and prior to such election and the political party of his choice did not hold a convention or call a primary election for such election, such Senator shall be listed as a member of the party of which he declared himself a member.

8 (f). The Clerk of the Senate, after the election of Senators, shall assign chamber desks to the individual Senators with the Senators elected as members of the majority party in the Senate in the chamber area beginning at the ~~south~~ north side of the chamber until all such desks have been assigned, and then the Senators elected as members of the minority party in the Senate, and then any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. The Clerk of the Senate shall also assign office space in such buildings as may be made available for the use of the Senate. Whenever feasible, the Clerk of the Senate shall give due consideration in assigning chamber desks and office space to the seniority and request of a Senator. However, the chamber desk or office space of a Senator having immediate prior service in the Senate shall not be reassigned unless he shall so request the Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct ~~as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate~~, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership or the caucus of such party, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

8 (h). During the sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

9. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be read the succeeding day, unless the reading thereof is waived as provided in these Rules; it shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk of the Senate and delivered to the Senators without delay.

10 (a). The Clerk of the Senate shall appoint a chief deputy clerk and such staff as necessary to perform the work of the Senate. The Clerk may also appoint such number of additional Pages as may be required. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such committee clerks as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chairs of the several Committees. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such additional committee staff as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. All committee clerks so appointed shall remain in the Capitol or other legislative facilities during the daily sessions of the Senate, and committee clerks shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation by the Clerk of the Senate and with the approval of the Chair of each such Committee. Additional committee staff shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair ~~on~~ of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. Each clerk shall perform any other duties that the Clerk of the Senate shall require, when not employed by their respective standing Committees. Clerks may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. Additional committee staff may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Clerk of the Senate shall have supervision over all employees of the Senate.

10 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

11 (a). Before reading each bill or resolution by title, the Clerk of the Senate shall announce, by either individual bill or resolution or en bloc, whether it is the first, second, or third time of such reading.

11 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall keep at the Clerk's desk, during the sittings of the Senate, a calendar that shows the business of the Senate. The Clerk shall make available to each member, before the assembling of the Senate each day, a calendar of pending bills and resolutions. The Clerk shall prepare a list of all bills and resolutions offered on the preceding day, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills or resolutions, and the Committees to which the same have been referred under these Rules.

12. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate, without special order therefor, to communicate to the House of Delegates any action of the Senate upon business coming from the House of Delegates, or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body, but no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the Senate while it remains open for consideration.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed the Senate manual and rules, the Constitution of Virginia, and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

14 (b). In the discharge of all the duties assigned to the Clerk, and such other duties as the Clerk may from time to time undertake, the Clerk shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules.

V.

Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeepers.

15. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected by the Senate, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Committee on Rules for a term not exceeding four years. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules, his duties shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

16. Except by order of the Senate, no Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms on any grounds other than to quell a breach of the peace until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections and reported to the Senate.

17 (a). The Doorkeepers shall be constantly at their post during the daily sessions of the Senate and shall permit no one to enter freely or remain upon the floor of the Senate during the daily session, except the President of the Senate; members of the General Assembly; ~~and~~ officers and employees of the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates; and representatives of the news media in such numbers as may be seated in accommodations provided for them at the press tables. The Committee on Rules shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber.

17 (b). Members of a Senator's family and such persons whom a Senator may invite shall be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery. Representatives of the news media who cannot be accommodated with seats at press tables on the floor may also be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery.

17 (c). Fifteen minutes prior to the convening of every daily session, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the Senate of all persons other than those who are authorized to be there during each session and shall not permit unauthorized persons upon the floor of the Senate for five minutes following the conclusion of every daily session.

17 (d). Interviews are not allowed in the Senate Chamber during the daily session or during the recesses during the daily session. Interviews in the Senate Chamber shall end 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the daily session and shall not commence until five minutes after the adjournment of the daily session.

17 (e). Whenever any person requests an interview with a Senator or the Clerk of the Senate, a Doorkeeper shall send the request by a Page.

17 (f). A Doorkeeper shall direct all persons not entitled to entry on the floor of the Senate, as set out above, to the gallery of the Senate.

VI.

Standing Committees.

18. At the commencement of each session after the election of Senators, a nominations report shall be submitted by the majority caucus to elect members to the standing Committees and the Committee on Rules for terms coincident with their terms of office in such numbers as hereinafter set forth. Such members shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. Each standing Committee and the Committee on Rules shall consist of 15 Senators, except the Committee on Finance and Appropriations shall consist of 16 Senators.

18 (a). A Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources; ~~15 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning agriculture; air and water pollution and solid waste disposal; conservation of land and water resources; crustaceans and bivalves; all matters of environment, forest, fresh and salt water fishing, game, mining, parks and recreation, and petroleum products.

18 (b). A Committee on Commerce and Labor; ~~15 Senators~~, to consider all matters concerning banking; commerce; commercial law; corporations; economic development; industry; insurance; labor; manufacturing; partnerships; public utilities, except matters relating to transportation; tourism; workmen's compensation; and unemployment matters.

18 (c). ~~A Committee for Courts of Justice, 15 Senators, to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills, and decedents' estates.~~

~~It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee for Courts of Justice for any judicial position.~~

~~Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee for Courts of Justice shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.~~

18 ~~(d)~~. A Committee on Education and Health; ~~15 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning education; human reproduction; life support; persons under disability; public buildings; public health; mental health; ~~mental retardation intellectual disability~~ and health professions.

18 ~~(e)~~(d). A Committee on Finance; ~~15 Senators~~, and Appropriations to consider matters concerning auditing; bills and resolutions for appropriations; the budget of the Commonwealth; claims; general and special revenues of the Commonwealth; all taxation; and all matters concerning the expenditure of funds of the Commonwealth.

18 ~~(f)~~(e). A Committee on General Laws and Technology; ~~15 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning affirmation and bonds; the boundaries, jurisdiction and emblems of the Commonwealth; cemeteries; condominiums; consumer affairs; fire protection; gaming and wagering; housing; inter- or intra-government information technology applications and uses other than those proposed or used to support the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate; land offices; landlord and tenant; libraries; military and war emergency; nuisances; oaths; professions and occupations (except the health and legal professions); religious and charitable matters; state governmental reorganization; veterans' affairs; warehouses; and matters not specifically referable to other Committees, including, but not limited to, matters relating to technology, engineering, or electronic research, development, policy, standards, measurements, or definitions, or the scientific, technical, or technological requirements thereof, except for those affecting the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate.

18 (f). A Committee on the Judiciary to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning the contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.

It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee on the Judiciary for any judicial position.

Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee on the Judiciary shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.

18 (g). A Committee on Local Government; ~~13 Senators~~, to consider matters of local government in the counties, cities, towns, regions, or districts, planning boards, and commissions and authorities, except matters relating to the compensation of elected officeholders, where funds of the Commonwealth are involved.

18 (h). A Committee on Privileges and Elections; ~~13 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning voting; apportionment; conflict of interests, except those concerning members of the judiciary or solely the legal profession, provided that any such matter, after being reported by the Committee, shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee ~~for Courts of Justice on the Judiciary~~ for consideration of the matters relating only to members of the judiciary or solely to the legal profession; constitutional amendments; elections; elected officeholders; reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator; and nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth (except Justices and Judges of the Commonwealth). It shall consider all grievances and propositions, federal relations, and interstate matters. It shall examine the oath taken by each Senator and the certificate of election furnished by the proper office and report thereon to the Senate. It shall review and report as may be required in cases involving financial disclosure statements and shall recommend disciplinary action by majority vote where appropriate. It shall report in all cases involving contested elections the principles and reasons upon which their resolves are founded. It shall determine and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel as set forth in the statutes.

Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

18 (i). A Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services; ~~15 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning alcoholic beverages; correctional and penal institutions; morals; social services and welfare; and substance abuse.

18 (j). A Committee on Transportation; ~~13 Senators~~, to consider matters concerning airports; airspaces; airways; the laws concerning motor vehicles relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations; heliports; highways; port facilities; public roads and streets; transportation safety; public waterways; railways; seaports; transportation companies or corporations; and transportation public utilities. Any matter relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations which include a change in a penalty shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

VII.

Committee on Rules.

19 (a). A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators ~~to comprise not more than 15~~. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees or commissions; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue, and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, at least 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees and commissions in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. Senate membership on half of the joint subcommittees and commissions created each session with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and consideration shall be given to the geographic balance in the membership of each standing Committee. Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office. No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair; ~~except that in the case of the Committee on Finance, the first two Senators of the majority party named to the Committee shall be Co-Chairs. All references in these Rules to the Chair of a standing Committee shall be interpreted to include and apply to the Co-Chairs.~~ However, a Senator shall serve as Chair of only one of the standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct ~~as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate,~~ he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, in writing on committee proxy forms, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given and only for the duration during which the Senator leaving the proxy is within the confines of Capitol Square. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd-numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings, or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Rerefer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special, or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the ~~Finance Committee~~ Committee on Finance and Appropriations.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.

Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) The recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

(c) A roll call of members present.

~~(d)~~ (d) The reading of the Journal.

~~(e)~~ (e) A period to be called the "morning hour," for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk's desk at any time after the "morning hour," with leave of the Senate.

~~(f)~~ (f) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

~~(g)~~ (g) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

~~(h)~~ (h) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a "special morning session," at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such "special morning session" shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The "special morning session" shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions, or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions, or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designations "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar" and shall be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) that receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions that do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions and electronic patronage may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted material or words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Resolution" or "Senate Joint Resolution" shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of "House Bill" or "House Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added as a co-patron to any Senate bill or joint resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the joint resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or joint resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added to a Senate resolution within the same timeframe. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed as a co-patron of any bill or joint resolution prior to the deadline set by the General Assembly. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed from a Senate resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the resolution has not occurred, or, if the resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such resolution. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, nor shall the co-patron's name be listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any. This Rule shall not apply to the addition or removal of co-patrons to commending and memorial joint resolutions and resolutions.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending or memorial joint resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the House of Delegates on the day of the joint resolution's final agreement. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending and memorial resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the Senate on the day of the resolution's final agreement. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution and so listed on the joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution, nor shall the co-patron's name be listed on such joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any.

No Senator may introduce more than a combined total of ten commending and memorial resolutions each session, except for the Chair of the Committee on Rules when introducing such resolutions according to custom or protocol.

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution that has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.

The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.

Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided, ~~or in the case of judicial elections.~~ A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.

Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the lead chief patron(~~→~~) patron of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting, it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

Debate.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of ~~audible~~ electronic devices ~~used for transmitting~~ making and receiving ~~communications~~ phone calls is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. ~~The use of cellular telephones is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber.~~ Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

- (i) A motion to adjourn.
- (ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.
- (iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.
- (iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.
- (v) A motion to close debate.
- (vi) A motion to limit debate.
- (vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.
- (viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.
- (ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

- (i) A motion for a special and continuing order.
- (ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken.

However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter.

Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a

Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Rules of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

54. When, pursuant to the Constitution, the Senate sits as a Court for the trial of impeachments, the Rules covering the same shall be as the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the United States Senate when sitting on Impeachment Trials.

XXI.

Votes Required.

55. The votes required shall be as set forth in the Appendix to these Rules.

XXII.

Construction of Rules.

56. The Rules of the Senate shall be adopted at the commencement of the first regular session of the General Assembly after the election of the Senate, and shall be in force for the succeeding four years unless amended or suspended as provided by these Rules. In the construction of the Rules, reference shall be had to the following sources in the following order:

- (a) Jefferson's Manual of Parliamentary Practice.
- (b) Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.
- (c) Standing Rules for Conducting Business in the Senate of the United States.

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway played a pivotal role in the 2019 formation of Families Forward Virginia by negotiating and facilitating the merger of Prevent Child Abuse Virginia, the Comprehensive Health Investment Project of Virginia, and Early Impact Virginia; and

WHEREAS, Families Forward Virginia, a nonprofit organization, is Virginia's leading organization dedicated to disrupting the cycle of child abuse, neglect, and poverty by providing statewide leadership and unifying support for a multitude of evidence-based programs and multi-generational prevention strategies; and

WHEREAS, Families Forward Virginia currently serves approximately 10,000 families in the Commonwealth, with its home-visiting program serving almost 5,700 families by working directly with parents and their children and providing home visitations, positive parenting education, child sexual abuse prevention programs, advocacy, and public education; and

WHEREAS, on November 15, 2017, Lisa Specter-Dunaway was appointed chief executive officer for Families Forward Virginia; and

WHEREAS, prior to the 2019 formation of Families Forward Virginia, Lisa Specter-Dunaway served as chief executive officer of the Comprehensive Health Investment Project (CHIP) of Virginia for 11 years; and

WHEREAS, CHIP of Virginia, now operating as part of the Families Forward array of service models, continues to support children and families through a two-generation approach, which changes lives two generations at a time by pairing families with integrated teams of registered nurses and parent educators; and

WHEREAS, in 2018, Secretary of Education Atif Qarni appointed Lisa Specter-Dunaway to the School Readiness Committee to provide strategic guidance on state-level early childhood policy; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway played an integral role in the 2006 establishment of the Virginia Home Visiting Consortium to provide state leadership on improvements in efficiency, quality, resource development, and effectiveness of early childhood home visitation services, which has become a national model for collaborative leadership on those issues; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway was appointed to the Family and Children's Trust Fund (FACT) Board in 2010 by Governor Robert McDonnell and served in that capacity through 2018, including as chair of the board from 2015 to 2018; and

WHEREAS, in that role, Lisa Specter-Dunaway used her high-level perspectives on the complex issues related to family violence to provide valuable guidance and direction for FACT, moving the organization forward in new and innovative ways; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway continues to work closely with FACT, providing support and partnership in addressing policy and programmatic issues affecting families in Virginia; and

WHEREAS, in 2014, Governor Terry McAuliffe signed Executive Order 22, establishing the Commonwealth Council on Childhood Success to ensure that basic health, education, and child care needs are being met for Virginians under the age of eight, and appointed Lisa Specter-Dunaway to the council; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway served as executive director for Smart Smiles, Virginia Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs, ensuring that low-income children with limited oral health care were able to access preventive and restorative care; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway served as deputy director for Youth Matters, Greater Richmond Chamber of Commerce, using her leadership skills to improve the health and safety of children in the Richmond area; and

WHEREAS, in preparation for a career devoted to improving the lives of low-income children and families, Lisa Specter-Dunaway earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Virginia and a master's degree with a concentration in nonprofit management, from L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs at Virginia Commonwealth University; and

WHEREAS, by dedicating her career to strengthening families and protecting children in Virginia, Lisa Specter-Dunaway has contributed to improving the lives of the Commonwealth's most vulnerable families and young children; and

WHEREAS, through her tireless efforts in influencing policy and expanding services to meet the needs of the future, Lisa Specter-Dunaway has contributed to developing and strengthening a comprehensive support system for young families in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Specter-Dunaway is the epitome of a servant-leader, who has dedicated her career to strengthening families and protecting children in the Commonwealth with the utmost integrity and capability, engendering the respect of her colleagues and her clientele, and the loyalty of her staff; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Lisa Specter-Dunaway hereby be commended for her service to the Commonwealth and its citizens; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Lisa Specter-Dunaway as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for her legacy of leadership and unparalleled contributions to children and families in Virginia.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 28

Commending Willisville.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 20, 2020

WHEREAS, Willisville, a unique community in southwest Loudoun County, was added to the Virginia Landmarks Register and the National Register of Historic Places in 2019; and

WHEREAS, Willisville, the origins of which predate the Civil War, was established during the Reconstruction Era and takes its name from Henson Willis, a freedman who lived in the village and was the first person to be buried in the village cemetery; and

WHEREAS, other former slaves from the Middleburg and Upperville areas also bought land in what is now Willisville and formed a small community with its own church, school, and store; and

WHEREAS, the 24-acre, 15-home village has endured for more than a century, and some community members are still able to trace their lineage back to Willisville's original residents; and

WHEREAS, the Mosby Heritage Area Association considered recognizing Willisville in January 2018 and contacted longtime resident Carol Lee, whose family has lived in Willisville for generations, and who had already begun to catalog the history of the village, its families, and its burial grounds; and

WHEREAS, after working with local singing groups to raise money through a gospel concert, the Mosby Heritage Area Association and Carol Lee hired historian Jane Covington Motion to coordinate Willisville's application as an historic place; and

WHEREAS, after successfully completing the application process, Willisville became Loudoun County's only historically black village listed individually on the National Register of Historic Places, with its rural, rustic charms offering a window into Loudoun County's past; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Willisville hereby be commended on being added to the Virginia Landmarks Register and the National Register of Historic Places in 2019; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Carol Lee on behalf of the Willisville Preservation Foundation as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the community's contributions to the history and heritage of Loudoun County and the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 38

Commending Devon Settle.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 27, 2020

WHEREAS, Devon Settle, executive director of the Fauquier Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA), and her staff at the organization were named the Cedar Run District's Citizens of the Year by the Fauquier County Board of Supervisors in 2019; and

WHEREAS, a licensed veterinary technician, longtime volunteer at the Fauquier SPCA, and its deputy executive director briefly in 2016, Devon Settle has helmed the organization since 2017, demonstrating the utmost compassion and professionalism in caring for animals in need; and

WHEREAS, throughout her tenure, Devon Settle has sought to raise awareness of the SPCA's role in the community and to make it more accessible to the public, emphasizing its activities as a rescue and rehabilitation center for Fauquier County's animals; and

WHEREAS, founded in 1957, the Fauquier SPCA is contracted by the Fauquier County government to provide the county's animal shelter, but the organization also offers many other valuable services to the public, including lost-and-found assistance, humane education, pet therapy, tag identification, behavioral training, and a low-cost spay and neuter clinic; and

WHEREAS, as executive director of the Fauquier SPCA, Devon Settle oversees fundraising efforts to maintain the organization's operations; although some funding is provided by the Fauquier County government, most of the organization's nearly $1 million annual operating budget is supported by donations, fundraisers, adoption fees, and grants; and

WHEREAS, each year, Devon Settle and her staff of nearly 100 employees and volunteers house and care for hundreds of animals that are stray, abandoned, rabies-exposed, or involved in court proceedings, and find loving homes to receive them after they have been restored to health; and

WHEREAS, through their efforts to eliminate the needless pain and suffering inflicted upon animals through overpopulation and neglect, Devon Settle and the Fauquier SPCA provide an essential, humane service that preserves the dignity of Fauquier County and the Commonwealth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Devon Settle, executive director of the Fauquier Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, hereby be commended for being distinguished, along with her staff, as the Cedar Run District's 2019 Citizens of the Year by the Fauquier County Board of Supervisors; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Devon Settle as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration and respect for her and the Fauquier SPCA's dedication to the health and safety of the animals of Fauquier County.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 71

Commending the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2020

WHEREAS, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club, a youth sports club in Alexandria that has inspired countless young athletes, celebrates its 50th season in 2019-2020; and

WHEREAS, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club traces its roots to August 1969 by John Walker from Hybla Valley, Dennis Smith from Hayfield, and a mutual baseball friend from Hayfield, Walt Ulica, who were discussing the need of youth soccer in the area; and

WHEREAS, a consensus emerged that soccer didn't limit participation for lack of size and could be a tool for more participation by individual team players than some other youth sports, and with that agreement, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club was born; and

WHEREAS, the number one priority of the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club is to instill a love of soccer in local young people and encourage them to enjoy every moment of the game for its own sake; the club focuses on the sheer joy of playing, and, wherever feasible, keeps the emphasis on winning or losing to a minimum, allowing players to fall in love with the sport and build camaraderie with their teammates; and

WHEREAS, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club includes more than 5,000 male and female players between the ages of two and 18 and demonstrates its dedication to the community by offering scholarships to 700 players annually; and

WHEREAS, throughout its history, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club has contracted with independent assignors to obtain professional referee services and has developed an in-house program for providing FIFA/USSF certification for adults and youths who are interested in becoming referees; and

WHEREAS, these referees then work with the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club assignor to officiate the club's recreational and travel games, with the funds for referee pay each year derived solely from the registration fees and donations from the players; and

WHEREAS, the emphasis of the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club has always been on participation, skill development, good sportsmanship, and team play; to that end, the club has developed a league that provides for an increased level of play to meet the needs of the players; and

WHEREAS, over 50 years of success, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club has allowed many young athletes to achieve their dreams of playing in college and in national and international professional leagues; and

WHEREAS, the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club has become a fixture of its local community and helped to promote values such as respect, fair play, and good citizenship; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club hereby be commended on the occasion of its 50th season; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Lee-Mount Vernon Sports Club as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the organization's work to support young athletes and promote the values of respect, fair play, and good citizenship.

WHEREAS, a native of Chillicothe, Ohio, and adopted son of Virginia, Reverend Gray was born on July 5, 1960; and

WHEREAS, a fourth-generation preacher, Reverend Gray was educated in Chillicothe City Schools, graduated with a bachelor's degree from Ohio University, and earned a master of divinity degree from Virginia Union University's Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology and a master of theology from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond; he also received an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Richmond Virginia Seminary; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Gray is a veteran of the United States Navy and entered the ministry after his honorable military service; he has served in the ministries of Zion Baptist Church in Chillicothe, Ohio, and First Baptist Church in Richmond; and as the pastor of New Hope Baptist Church in Ohio and the Mount Olive Baptist Church in the community of Wicomico Church, Virginia; and

WHEREAS, on June 4, 1995, Reverend Gray was greeted as "teacher" by a full church school assembly at the Fifth Street Baptist Church in Richmond and was affirmed as "preacher" at the church's morning worship service, beginning his pastoral duties with the delivery of a powerful and spirit-filled sermon; he was installed as the church's 11th pastor on August 6, 1995, and his visionary leadership, anointed preaching, and dynamic teaching has blessed the congregation, the city, and especially the Highland Park community; and

WHEREAS, a professor of church history and theology at the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University, Reverend Gray is admired and highly respected by his congregation, colleagues, and community as a teacher and pulpiteer without equal; as well as for his intellect and generosity, dedication to the Gospel ministry, knowledge of the Scriptures, love of teaching and preaching, and commitment to Christian service; he labors tirelessly, giving of his time, treasure, and talents to ensure that congregants and the community feel God's presence and love in their lives; and

WHEREAS, as the beloved senior pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist Church, Reverend Gray has led the church to experience significant growth, develop innovative ministries, and expand and improve church facilities through major building programs; and

WHEREAS, with an emphasis on celebratory worship, evangelism, and community witness, under Reverend Gray's leadership, the church has experienced a great spiritual revival, has embraced a renewed enthusiasm in worship services, and has renewed its dedication to diversified ministry and civic and community engagement; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Gray has received numerous awards and accolades, including his selection as a National Merit Scholar and as the recipient of the D.C. Rice Theological Scholarship, the Union Theological Seminar Graduate Scholarship, the NAACP Community Leadership Award, and the SLC Leadership Award; he was awarded the key to the city of Chillicothe, Ohio, by the mayor, who twice proclaimed "Rev. F. Todd Gray Day" in his honor; and

WHEREAS, his many affiliations, interests, and civic involvement attest to his calling; Reverend Gray has served as co-chair of the City of Richmond's Commission on African American Males, chair of the citywide Men's Revival, moderator of the Shiloh Association, chair of Virginia Churches of the National Baptist Convention USA, Inc., and as a member of the Private Industry Council, the Richmond Renaissance Board, the United Way of Greater Richmond and Petersburg, the Board of the Baptist General Convention of Virginia; and many other community organizations; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Gray has served the Fifth Street Baptist Church with honor, integrity, and great dedication for 25 years, and his passion for Christian service and ministry, love of and devotion to family, unconditional love for people, and selfless service to others are worthy of emulation; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Reverend Franklin Todd Gray hereby be commended for his 25 years of service as pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist Church; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Reverend Franklin Todd Gray as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration and gratitude for his extraordinary commitment to ministry and his family, his congregation, his community, and the people of the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 77

Commemorating the legacy of the Negro National League.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2020

WHEREAS, the Negro National League, one of the most prominent of several leagues that served African Americans during the period when baseball was segregated in the United States, was established 100 years ago; and

WHEREAS, not long after the Civil War, the National Association of Base Ball Players voted to ban African American players from its teams, and the first all-black professional team was not established until 1885; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Bishop "Rube" Foster, a talented pitcher and manager who founded the Chicago American Giants, was the driving force behind the establishment of the Negro National League on February 13, 1920; and

WHEREAS, eight organizations played during the inaugural season of the Negro National League in 1920, the Chicago American Giants, the Chicago Giants, the Cuban Stars, the Dayton Marcos, the Detroit Stars, the Indianapolis ABCs, the Kansas City Monarchs, and the St. Louis Stars; and

WHEREAS, the Negro National League was the first of the segregated baseball leagues to achieve stability and last for more than one season; its success prompted the subsequent formation of the Eastern Colored League, and the first World Series between the two leagues was held in 1924; and

WHEREAS, the Negro National League was significantly impacted by the beginning of the Great Depression, as well as Rube Foster's death in 1930, and ceased operations in 1931, but the league inspired the creation of many other baseball organizations that served African Americans from the 1930s until the 1960s; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the legacy of the Negro National League be commemorated on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the league's establishment; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to descendants of members of the Negro National League as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's appreciation for the league's historical significance and its contributions to America's pastime.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 78

Celebrating the life of Leonard H. Simpson III.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2020

WHEREAS, Leonard H. Simpson III, a respected member of the Henrico County and Mathews communities, died on February 28, 2020; and

WHEREAS, born in Wheeling, West Virginia, Leonard "Buddy" Simpson moved to the Commonwealth and grew up in Richmond, where he attended St. Christopher's School; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from the University of Virginia, Buddy Simpson enjoyed a long career with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, becoming a member of the Insurance Millionaires Association for his success as a salesman; and

WHEREAS, after his retirement from Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Buddy Simpson opened Simpson Realty LLC in Richmond and enjoyed serving the community as a volunteer and a youth athletics coach; and

WHEREAS, Buddy Simpson will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his loving wife of 58 years, Mary; his children, Leonard IV and Louise, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it
 RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of Leonard H. Simpson III; and, be it
 RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Leonard H. Simpson III as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 79

Celebrating the life of Henry J. Abraham.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2020

WHEREAS, Henry J. Abraham, a professor emeritus at the University of Virginia who was well known for his expertise on judicial law, died on February 26, 2020; and

WHEREAS, a native of Germany, Henry Abraham attended primary and secondary schools there and had completed an apprenticeship as a printer, when, at the age of 15, his parents sent him to the United States after the rise of the Nazi regime; and

WHEREAS, Henry Abraham lived and worked in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, before joining the United States Army in 1942 and becoming a citizen of the United States in 1943; he completed specialized training in languages while he was assigned to the Signal Corps; and

WHEREAS, during World War II, Henry Abraham gathered valuable intelligence as an interrogator in England, Holland, Belgium, France, and Germany; he subsequently became a member of the Berlin Documents Center, an essential repository of documents needed for the Nuremberg War Crimes Trials; and

WHEREAS, after his honorable military service, Henry Abraham graduated first in his class from Kenyon College, then received a master's degree from Columbia University and a doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania, where he served as a faculty member from 1949 until 1972, when he joined the University of Virginia; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure at the University of Virginia, Henry Abraham served as a chaired professor of government and foreign affairs and earned many awards and accolades, including the Thomas Jefferson Award, the University of Virginia Alumni Association Distinguished Professor Award, and the Z Society's Distinguished Faculty Award; and

WHEREAS, through his vast intellect and engaging teaching style, Henry Abraham inspired generations of students, and he enjoyed lifelong friendships with many of them; after his retirement as a professor in 1997, he continued to teach an adult continuing education program on his area of expertise, the Supreme Court of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Henry Abraham was a prolific author who completed 13 books on the judicial process, most of which spanned multiple editions, and contributed chapters and scholarly articles to other works; he was a visiting professor at institutions throughout the United States and also served as a longtime lecturer for the U.S. Department of State, sharing his insights with individuals in 65 countries; and

WHEREAS, Henry Abraham will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his wife of 66 years, Mildred; his children, Philip and Peter, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of Henry J. Abraham, a distinguished scholar who made many contributions to the University of Virginia community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Henry J. Abraham as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.
