2020 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Dr. Christopher C. Carter, Sr., New Hope Baptist Church, Hampton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

As the Senators convene, we pray that the peace and guidance of Almighty God would be in their midst.

We pray that laws and strategies would be implemented that would bring about equitable solutions and compromises for all. We embrace a spirit of unity as we seek to promote harmonious relationships in our government, marketplaces, and communities.

May all of our borders and land be secure and may the military and citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia be protected and experience safety.

We collectively embrace every opportunity to collaborate and build a brighter future for everyone, especially for youth and generations to come, based on the foundation of our forefathers and the unfailing faith that they possessed.

Hear our prayers and may the goodness of Almighty God, our creator and sustainer, be present. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Susan Clarke Schaar, Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct ~~as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate~~, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership or the caucus of such party, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed the Senate manual and rules, the Constitution of Virginia, and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators ~~to comprise not more than 15~~. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees or commissions; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue, and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, at least 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees and commissions in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. Senate membership on half of the joint subcommittees and commissions created each session with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and consideration shall be given to the geographic balance in the membership of each standing Committee. Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office. No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair, ~~except that in the case of the Committee on Finance, the first two Senators of the majority party named to the Committee shall be Co Chairs. All references in these Rules to the Chair of a standing Committee shall be interpreted to include and apply to the Co Chairs.~~ However, a Senator shall serve as Chair of only one of the standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct ~~as confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the Senate~~, he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, in writing on committee proxy forms, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given and only for the duration during which the Senator leaving the proxy is within the confines of Capitol Square. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd-numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings, or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Rerefer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special, or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the ~~Finance Committee~~ Committee on Finance and Appropriations.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.

Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) The recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

(c) A roll call of members present.

~~(c)~~(d) The reading of the Journal.

~~(d)~~(e) A period to be called the “morning hour,” for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk’s desk at any time after the “morning hour,” with leave of the Senate.

~~(e)~~(f) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

~~(f)~~(g) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

~~(g)~~(h) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a “special morning session,” at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such “special morning session” shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The “special morning session” shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions, or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions, or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designations "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar" and shall be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) that receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions that do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions and electronic patronage may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted material or words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of “Senate Bill” or “Senate Resolution” or “Senate Joint Resolution” shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of “House Bill” or “House Joint Resolution” be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added as a co-patron to any Senate bill or joint resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the joint resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or joint resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added to a Senate resolution within the same timeframe. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed as a co-patron of any bill or joint resolution prior to the deadline set by the General Assembly. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed from a Senate resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the resolution has not occurred, or, if the resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such resolution. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, nor shall the co-patron’s name be listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any. This Rule shall not apply to the addition or removal of co-patrons to commending and memorial joint resolutions and resolutions.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending or memorial joint resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the House of Delegates on the day of the joint resolution’s final agreement. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending and memorial resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the Senate on the day of the resolution’s final agreement. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution and so listed on the joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution, nor shall the co-patron’s name be listed on such joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any.

~~No Senator may introduce more than a combined total of ten commending and memorial resolutions each session, except for the Chair of the Committee on Rules when introducing such resolutions according to custom or protocol.~~

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution that has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.

The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.

Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided, ~~or in the case of judicial elections.~~ A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.

Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the lead chief ~~patron(s)~~ patron of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting, it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of ~~audible~~ electronic devices ~~used for transmitting~~ making and receiving ~~communications~~ phone calls is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. ~~The use of cellular telephones is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber.~~ Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

- (i) A motion to adjourn.
- (ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.
- (iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.
- (iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.
- (v) A motion to close debate.
- (vi) A motion to limit debate.
- (vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.

(viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.

(ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

(i) A motion for a special and continuing order.

(ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken.

However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter.

Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Rules of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

54. When, pursuant to the Constitution, the Senate sits as a Court for the trial of impeachments, the Rules covering the same shall be as the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the United States Senate when sitting on Impeachment Trials.

XXI.

Votes Required.

55. The votes required shall be as set forth in the Appendix to these Rules.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Kurt Skelly, Faith Baptist Church, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Our most gracious Heavenly Father, we thank You for our very lives and freedoms. Indeed we acknowledge that every good and perfect gift comes from You. Please help us, moment by moment, to be cognizant of Your presence in our lives and in the affairs of people, and may that awareness literally shape the way we think.

Our Father, I ask specifically for Your blessings upon the members of this assembly here today. Thank You for their collective sacrifice for the good of the people of Virginia, and please protect and bless their families during these days when they are apart from them.

We ask for a measure of Your wisdom, believing Your promise that if we admit our lack of wisdom, and humbly seek Your face, You will grant us Your perspective. We long for You to teach us Your perspective and help us to see it and act accordingly and courageously.

Give each one of us today a sober sense of our accountability before You in serving the people of our respective constituencies. Help us to lead with compassion, deliberation, humility, and commitment to truth.

May the enormity of our task and the potential consequences of our decisions compel us to pray more fervently, love more generously, and seek Your truth more earnestly.

Teach us to embrace the most noble and compelling motivation of all: to love the Lord our God with all of our hearts, souls, minds, and strength. And may such love find practical context, even today, in the way we love, serve, and respect each other.

In the name of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, I offer these requests. Amen.

As we gather here today in the name of upholding our democracy, which honors the wide diversity of religious and spiritual traditions, let me invite you now to silently call upon what is highest and most sacred by whatever name you use.

Spirit of Life and Creator of Love, these lawmakers gather here today once again to create a more just and more loving society for all. We ask that they be granted the wisdom and openness to work together, seeing new possibilities for good governance. With the day of honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., nearly upon us, we pray that everyone will heed King's mission of non-violence and remember his words, "Darkness cannot drive out darkness: only light can do that. ## FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2020

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend P.J. Preston, Hope Community Church, Lynchburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank You that Your mercies are new every single morning, and great is Your faithfulness.

Today, as we pray, we honor and we lift up those whom You have placed in lawmaking positions: our President, Vice President, Congress, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and all those who serve here at the Virginia State Capitol.

Father, their hearts are in Your hands, and as rivers of water, You can turn them wheresoever You desire. Help their desires be what You desire both for our country and for our state. Please grant them wisdom and discernment as they serve their constituents.

God, we also pray for our men and women in the Armed Forces. They have sacrificed much, so that we can live in complete freedom. We pray provision and protection for those who are serving at home and abroad.

And finally, God, we thank You for life, health, and strength, and we especially thank You for sending Your son and for his death, burial, and resurrection.

It is in His name we pray this prayer. Amen.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

Imam Ammar Amonette, Islamic Center of Virginia, North Chesterfield, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Maker of the heavens and the earth:

You raised high the heavens and devised for all things a balance, that we Your human servants might never transgress the balance of what is right. Let us, therefore, weigh our deeds with justice, fairness and equity, and let us not fall short in our standards.

There is neither stability nor security in relying on the eternity and continuity of anything in heaven or earth. But stability and security can only come from You, Gracious God, who created them all and sent them into motion and change.

Just as the heavens and the earth demonstrate Your great power, so do they also declare divine justice and balance. Likewise, our society cannot long survive or prosper without achieving justice and equality. It is for this cause that You sent the prophets and revealed the scriptures:

That humanity might establish justice in all their affairs.

Eternal God, loving and merciful, You created humanity of a single soul, male and female; You made us nations and tribes, cultures and colors, that we may know each other, not that we should hate one another. You made not black superior to white, nor white superior to black, but true nobility before Your eyes is in our character.

You made us a single community but we have divided and separated because of our mutual hatred and hostility. Truly, we are on the edge of a dangerous precipice, but You are reaching out to save us. Lord, unite our hearts, that we may become brothers and sisters by Your blessing.

Lord, Cherisher and Sustainer, help us to heal our community, to restore wholeness where we are broken, to be as one body: if any limb or organ is hurt, we all feel pain, if any part is attacked, we are all hurt. Let us return to the rule of Your divine law: to love for our neighbor what we love for ourselves, that we may all work together for the common welfare of all within our Commonwealth.

Let our community arise with a new covenant and new promise, of mutual love and support, recognizing that our diversity is our strength, and that our unity comes from our commitment to our common vision.

We pray in Your name of Your Grace and Love: Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Isabelle Schweiter of Stafford.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Bell, Boysko, Chafin, Chase, Cosgrove, Deeds, DeSteph, Dunnavant, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Hashmi, Howell, Kiggans, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Mason, McClellan, McDougle, McPike, Morrissey, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Peake, Petersen, Pillion, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Spruill, Stanley, Stuart, Suetterlein, Surovell, Vogel.

The Reverend Willie Justis, Holy Trinity Baptist Church, Pungoteague, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal and all-wise God, our Creator and Sustainer, we first of all want to say thank You for this day and this moment in history. We thank You because You have blessed us all to see and be a part of this day and we don't take it for granted.

Today almighty God, I want to invite You to be a part of this 2020 General Assembly, realizing that we truly need You. I also want to take time to pray for these men and women of our Commonwealth as they go forth implementing legislation that will guide our great state.

I ask now, Father, that You would grant the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding that is needed to help these lawmakers operate with a sense of compassion and empathy for the people they represent.

I pray that You would cause unity to abide in the aisles, and across the aisles, that the greatest good might manifest for all people.

I thank You for all that You have done so far and I thank You in advance for what You are about to do. Continue to bless this great Commonwealth that we call home and we will be ever so grateful.

Hear our prayers and attend to our cry. Amen, Amen, Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 2020

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Jacob Sahms, Wesley United Methodist Church, Hopewell, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Holy God, today is a new day, for reflection and for action. You formed us in Your image, breathed us into existence by Your spirit, establishing the world and all that is in it. We come before You humbled by the majesty of Your works, amazed by the beauty of what we see around us and in us.

Today we also see suffering, chaos, and discord around us. We see a world bent on polarizing issues rather than common humanity. Our hearts are burdened by the hurt we see and the pain we have caused.

Today, we pray that You would show us how to live. Help us to lift each other up, to seek each person's good. Remind us of the collaborative life You have called us to share with You. Show us the wonder in the individual differences and the beauty in our commonalities. Make us examples of just mercy and loving kindness for all people, that one day our children would embody a model of life that transforms the world.

Today, we cry out to You to breathe into us a renewing of our hearts, a peace that passes all understanding to our souls, and a love that overflows through our actions and our words. Make us be a living witness to the power of grace; make us people who fight hate with love, who challenge injustice with mercy and wisdom.

Lead us, today. Amen.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Teresa K. McRoberts, Jubilee Ministries, North Chesterfield, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Creator and Sustainer of Life, we gather in Your presence and ask to see and to feel Your life-giving spirit and Your unfathomable wisdom at work here. In the midst of this legislative body and within the hearts and minds of these honorable members of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Virginia, may Your Spirit guide us, may Your strength undergird us, and may Your compassion for the least and the lost be evident through us.

Thank You for each Senator and for his or her staff and team members. Thank You for bringing these men and women to the work of reviewing and making laws on behalf of all Virginians. May their dedication and decisions reflect their identity as children of the Creative Force. And I pray You would keep true in them the values that lead to respectful community, courageous discourse, and preservation of life and liberty.

As the legislative work continues, remind us of the dignity, safety, and worthiness of all people of the Commonwealth. Open our eyes to new ways of approaching issues. Give us hearts to seek reconciliation where the societal forces promote division. Empower these leaders to see past the currents of death, disease, and destruction that threaten so many lives. And by Your power, grace and mercy, lead our Senators to seek Divine Will in their decisions.

As the Senate seeks Divine Will, may this body receive the gift of discernment and act in ways that uphold human dignity, affirm the value of human diversity, and invest wisely the resources with which it has been entrusted. As people elected and set apart to represent the best interests of the communities and individuals of Virginia, may these leaders experience Your blessing as the strength to speak and act in accordance with Divine Presence and consistent with the love that Almighty Creator has for every creature on this earth. Amen.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Jeanne Pupke, First Unitarian Universalist Church of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

We are blessed to come together in prayer and reflection. The spirit of life that binds us all into one people and one dear Commonwealth, hear our aspirations for this Senate body. As legislators and citizens, we pray that we may keep its waters, land, and air well. We regard its wildlife, its natural beauty. May we see that the poorest among us are given opportunity and relief with dignity. May the young grow in health and wisdom, and may we do so as we treasure our opportunities for freedom, wisdom, and community. May all that is done here by these Senators build our unity, increase our peace and our prosperity, so that we might fulfill the promise of a strong democracy and the gifts which we have been given. Oh Holy One, bless these deliberative Senators, our Lieutenant Governor, and all the elected officials, the pages, the legislative staff and security. May the sacrifice that they and their families make on our behalf result in a Commonwealth that honors the holy and cares for generations of Virginians. Amen, Salaam Amin Ashe', blessed be.

Clerk of the Senate

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Charles Philips, Rosewood Presbyterian Church, Prince George, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Hallowed be Your Name.

You have made us and I believe You love all of us and desire good for all of us.

You are all powerful, and most of us in this room have been blessed with a great deal of power and influence. Inspire every one of us to use our power and influence for Your purposes.

Cause us to be aware that You are in this room, and continually remind each of us of our individual responsibility to be like You: always loving, always merciful, always gracious, always strong, and always just.

Cause us to remember that You are never wrong, but each of us needs much forgiveness. Remind us of our responsibility to forgive one another.

And don't let us, the most powerful, ever forget the responsibility that we have to the most vulnerable and the least powerful. Guide us with Your almighty wisdom to make decisions and policies that help and not harm.

And most of all, Almighty God, lead these Senators so that at the end of each day, You have used this Senate to bless the citizens of Virginia with Your perfect and loving will. To God be the glory. Amen.

Ik Onkar Satnam, Karta Purkh Nirbhao Nirvair

Jup Aad Sach, Jugad Sach, Hae-bhee
Sach, Nanak Hosee Bhee Sach!!

There is One God, the Eternal, All pervading and everlasting, fearless, without enmity. Never incarnated, present throughout creation. Self-existent, the Enlightener. Meditate on the name of the Lord God, who was true in the beginning, true in the primeval age, true now, and true always.

O'Dear Almighty God, guide us to realize the truth about our existence, our real-self, the God within, the ultimate reality; so that we may attain an eternal state of bliss.

God, show us the light so that we may believe in universal brotherhood, truthful living, and honest hard work. Give us strength to build our character so that we may bear malice towards none and share our blessings with others.

Almighty God, open up our hearts and our minds so that we always discern Your will for this Commonwealth and for our nation. Please grant us wisdom and courage, and inspire us with vision so that Americans of all faiths and colors continue to be a force for hope and freedom throughout the world.

Dear God, may Your grace and presence be with the members of the Senate as they fulfill the duties of their office and serve You by serving the people of Virginia and this nation. Set these elected representatives free to speak the truth, honed by study and prayer, to discern what is right, and to be distinguished for their integrity. May their decisions promote peace, love, harmony and universal brotherhood, and preserve Your beautiful creations on this earth. O'God, bring us into the fellowship of men and women, in whose company, we may always remember Thy name.

Dear God, bless everyone and may everyone prosper under Your light.

Waheguru Ji Ka Khalsa, Waheguru Ji Ki Fateh.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend W. Joe Newman, Chesapeake, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal and Almighty God we take a moment to say thank You for Your abundant blessings that we as citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia enjoy every day.

We thank You for the freedoms we enjoy, the natural beauty of our State, and the relationship that You have with all of Your creations here in the Commonwealth of Virginia. We thank You for granting Your favors to us.

Let us be mindful of our fellow man and all of Your other creatures that we share this entire Commonwealth with.

Remind us again, our God, of the shortness not only of our lives and so often even our terms in office. Let us understand fully the awesome responsibilities that we have not only to our fellow citizens but also to those who come after us and our eternal responsibilities to You, our Maker.

You have ordained us to handle the important affairs of our Commonwealth and to also cast a vision of who we should be as a people both now and into the future.

Let us be the right minded public servants for Your great creation and let us always seek You, the Right Source as our Guide.

Thank You for these dedicated men and women who take their time and their talents to serve our fellow citizens in this Commonwealth.

In the name of all that is holy, Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

Rabbi Steven I. Rein, Aguda Achim Congregation, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Sovereign of the Universe – the psalmist proclaims: “how majestic is Your name upon all the earth” and wonders “what is humanity that You should be mindful of us?”

We stand in awe before the beauty and majesty of Your work. We are humbled that in a world so vast and a humanity so diverse You breathe Your spirit into each individual soul.

Almighty God, bestow Your wisdom and strength upon these members of the Virginia Senate to dream big – securing the future of this great Commonwealth. May You also grant this distinguished body the courage and compassion to dream small as they represent the distinct needs of their constituents, ever mindful of the citizens they serve.

The famous Virginian, Booker T. Washington, once said: If you want to lift yourself up, lift up someone else. May you all lift up each other, working together to realize the dreams of our collective future. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Carsha Wingfield of Richmond.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Erick Kalenga, His Village Church, Culpeper, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. To all the Senators, the Lieutenant Governor, Madame Clerk and staff, and the Senate Pages, thank you for the opportunity and privilege to be with you today.

God almighty, creator of heaven and earth, let Your name be glorified. You alone deserve all the praise. Thank You for Your love for us and thank You for the freedom we have in this country. We ask for Your kingdom to come, Lord. Let the government of heaven come and rule this place. Father, I pray that this chamber will seek to do Your will more than anything else. Proverbs 24:3-4 says: "Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established; by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches." Father God, I ask You to give every member represented here in this Senate chamber wisdom, knowledge and understanding to make decisions and legislation that will help build rich, stable and strong communities for Your people.

Father, I pray for reconciliation. Lord, I ask that every member in this chamber will be reconciled first with You and then with one another. I pray for oneness in this place. I pray that every decision that will be made here will be for the people and it will bring glory to You. I pray that people will love and forgive each other.

Philippians 2:3-4 says: "Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too." Father, I pray that this passage of scripture serves as a reminder to everyone in this place. Lord, I pray for humility, selflessness and, more importantly, I pray that they will love one another as You love them.

Father, I ask that You preserve the heritage of this country. God, protect the values and foundations upon which this country was built. Father, we pray that every member in this place will commit themselves to protecting those values and foundations.

I ask for a special blessing upon our President and his cabinet, the Vice President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court, all the Senators here today, the House of Delegates, the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, Madame Clerk and all staff members, and everyone who has answered the call to serve our great Commonwealth and country. Father, I pray that You will protect and bless their homes and their families. Father, we thank You for the sacrifices that they have made to serve Your people.

It is in Jesus' mighty name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Zach Simon of Falls Church.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2020

The Senate met at 11:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Alex Evans, Second Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Holy God, Creator and Giver of life and all good things, the great texts of faith call us to love You, Holy One, love You with heart, soul, mind, and strength. In this place today, keep all hearts and minds open to You and Your presence here. Keep all hearts attuned to Your purposes, to Your possibilities for our lives, and for our great Commonwealth. The great texts of every great religion teach us to love others, to treat others how we want to be treated. Move in and through each of us today to create an openness to others and sincere concern for the needs of others. Show us fresh and effective ways to spread compassion and work for justice, particularly towards the less fortunate, the needy, the vulnerable.

Merciful God, You call all of us and especially our elected leaders to serve the public, promote justice, establish peace in the land. Give to these Senators here the spirit of wisdom and understanding. Guide them with the spirit of counsel and insight. Grant them the spirit of knowledge, grace them with Your presence. Cover them with Your abiding love, especially with the particular challenges that they carry in their hearts, in their lives, with their families, with their districts. Remind all of us, oh God, that we are forever in Your care and always accountable to You. Remind us that we're called to serve, to promote the common good. May our beloved Virginia become more and more a place where prosperity is found, where peace and justice cover the land, where life will be lived in fullness with equal opportunity for everyone with liberty, and justice, and hope for all.

We pray in Your Holy Name. And all the people say, Amen.

Give us wisdom and knowledge and understanding today. You said in Your word that wisdom is a principle thing but You said all together You give us understanding. Give us understanding, God, of this time. Show us what to do, what time we live in and what we ought to do in this season. And, God, we just thank You, God. We look to You, the author and finisher of our faith today. Touch our homes, touch our spouses, our loved ones, our children, God. If we ever needed You before, we sure do need You now. Have Your way today.

Grant us love, joy, and peace in this place and let Your spirit ever prevail in here. We'll give You glory, we'll give You honor and praise, in Your son's, Jesus', name we pray. Amen.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2020

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Todd Bradbury, Bethel Baptist Church, Midlothian, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Lord, we come to You now as a grateful people. We thank You for the gift of this day, for the gift of each other, and for the calling You've placed on these Your servant leaders who serve our Commonwealth. We humbly ask for Your blessing on each member of this assembly, that they might be their best selves in fulfilling their oaths to represent not only their constituents but also the entire Commonwealth. Please grant them double portions of wisdom, discernment, and strength. Enable them to govern rightly, according to Your will, with mercy, justice, and love for all.

Lord, I pray for our personal relationships with You. We see in Christ someone who lived an unhurried, intentional life. Help us to do likewise. Help us to listen to Your voice through prayer and Holy Scripture. May we be compelled to act on what we hear. Help us live as new creations, to abide in You, trusting in Your sustaining presence; and may our lives bear the fruit of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. I pray these things in Your Holy Name. Amen.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2020

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Rick Raines, Fairmount Christian Church, Mechanicsville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You and praise You for another day of life, another day of service in this beloved Commonwealth in which each of us are blessed to live. Today, Lord, we specifically thank You for the gift of love. I thank You for the love of my parents, raising me and my brothers here in this community, teaching us to love all people as You love all people. I thank You for the love of my wife, my valentine, and her sacrificial love for me, our children, our church, and the students she teaches at school every day. I thank You for the love that You pour out on each of us daily, guiding us and directing us as citizens of this great nation. May each of us take the love You have demonstrated to us, the love that You have placed in our hearts and love every person we are called to serve.

May we love the powerless and the powerful. May we love the least of these and the greatest of these. May we love each person as You love each person. Today, dear Father, we celebrate and thank You for love. I offer my prayer this day in the name of Jesus, the one who loves us unconditionally. Amen.

Clerk of the Senate

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2020

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Kevin McMullen, Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church, Harrisonburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God, our creator and redeemer, we thank You for this day, for our very lives, our health and our strength, and for the freedoms we are so blessed to enjoy today as Americans and specifically as Virginians. We ask You to bless those working here today, our elected officials, their staff, the pages, and all others that work so diligently to make this great Commonwealth what it is. We also ask that You bless their families and their loved ones as they, too, make sacrifices for the greater good.

We thank You, O God, that You have called each of them to serve their fellow man and woman and especially that You have called each of us to serve You. On this President's Day, we remember and even take a moment to enjoy the humor in the words of John Adams, "That one useless man is a shame, two is a law firm, and three or more is a congress." And we pray that these Senators face the challenges that lie ahead of them in this often thankless role, and as they endure the ridicule that inevitably follows, regardless of their political affiliations, may they do so with hearts that seek to honor You, words that strive for unity rather than division, and intentions that work toward a better tomorrow for all our children. And we pray that afterward they would hold their heads high and rest in the knowledge that they have sought to bring about positive change for our great Commonwealth and what it will become under their leadership. In Your son's precious name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Emmitt Breeding of Lebanon.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Dr. Jerome A. Barber, Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Temple, Hampton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of grace and mercy, thank You for this brand-new day. Giver and Sustainer of all life, we celebrate our lives and every life today. Thank You for the awesome privilege to use our gifts and talents to serve You and this great Commonwealth of Virginia as public servants.

In spite of all the difficulties we face in our world today, we are not distracted, but determined to fight for the good for those we have been blessed to represent.

As this assembly gathers together to vote on issues relating to social justice, economics, and our environment, please remind us that we are called to be stewards and to be the voice for those who have no voice. As we deliberate today, may the faces of the "least of these" flood our minds.

Facing the rising sun of this new day begun, we will march on until victory is won. Hear us as we pray in Your powerful, providing, promising name, Amen.
