OF

THE SENATE

2019 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Dr. Howard-John Wesley, Alfred Street Baptist Church, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Creator and God of mercy, justice, and love, we gather this day accepting our assignment, calling, and election to these seats occupied by so many before us to be faithful in this season of continuing the great work of the oldest continuous law making assembly in these United States.

We come before You at a time when our country, our Commonwealth, and our communities are in dire and desperate need of those who balance leadership with servanthood and are guided neither by ego nor simple party affiliation but rather a desire to serve all that is made in Your image, that we are called to care for with our hands and hearts—humanity, the earth, educational systems, health systems, welfare, geriatric care, criminal rehabilitation, care for the immigrant and the poor, gun reform, and so many other issues that may be brought before these thy daughters and sons in deliberation and decision.

In times when our nation stands at the critical crossroads of policy and politic, of identity and ideology, of building partnerships or building walls, and our federal government is shut down over the same, grant in these chambers and in their minds and mouths the holy passion of Moses and Martin Luther King, Jr. to see all Your people free and prospering, the courage of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Fannie Lou Hamer to stand before powers and precedence and believe that change is possible, the faith of Douglas Wilder and Yvonne Bond Miller to step out of what has been and move towards what can be, and finally the vision of Francis Pierpont and Richard Perry Loving to see the possibilities that lie in people who look, live, and love differently than we do.

Whether their journey as a lawmaker is long tenured or still in its opening season, grant them the openness to newness balanced with a commitment to the best of what has been, that the legacy of these legislators in this session may continue to move our Commonwealth forward towards our motto, “Sic Semper Tyrannis” – “thus always to tyrants,” our cry to fight and stand against any tyrannical abuse of power that threatens even one amongst us. Bless and guide their hands and their hearts, their minds and their mouths, their homes and their loved ones as they gather in this place to lead, to serve, to protect, to advocate, and to envision a commonwealth that is a model to this nation of the possibility for peaceful productivity. In Your name we pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Black, Carrico, Chafin, Chase, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, DeSteph, Dunnivant, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Mason, McClellan, McDougle, McPike, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Peake, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Spruill, Stanley, Stuart, Sturtevant, Suetterlein, Surovell, Vogel, Wagner.

A quorum was present.

We are grateful for Your grace and goodness and for the privilege of living in the great Commonwealth of Virginia.

Today we come to You and ask that You give wisdom to this group of men and women.

You tell us in Your Word that if we ask anything in accordance with Your will that You will give it to us.

And so we ask that You would grant wisdom to this august group of citizens.

We come to this one God and ask that You would grant this group of men and women a spirit of cooperation as they seek to represent the people in this great state.

The Reverend Dr. Erin Reibel, St. Andrew's United Methodist Church, Henrico, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty One, Creator of everything and everyone, we give You thanks and praise for all You have done in the world, in each of us gathered here today and especially in this great Commonwealth of Virginia. We come before You with a spirit of humility for the task that is ahead of us. You have called each of these people here today to serve Your people. You have called them to care for Your people. You have called them to be good stewards for Your people. You have called them to look out for the least, the last and the lost of Your people. What a mighty task You have set before them. Provide them now with Your wisdom and compassion as they seek to discern Your will. Give them Your understanding as they deal with people who have different opinions. Let Your peace, which passes all understanding, rest on them, so that even when the debate is fierce and tempers run high, a vision of the greater good might prevail. Bless these men and women, so that all that they say and do might honor You. Amen.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Jeanne Pupke, First Unitarian Universalist Church of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

God of many names, fully known in none, on this day:

In Hampton Roads, crews will set to sea.

In Southwest, farmers will tend their stock.

In Southside, teachers will inspire.

In NoVa, first responders will provide.

In Shenandoah, nurses will heal.

You have blessed us with Your favor. May the endeavors of all Virginians contribute to our unity and our prosperity.

Forgive us for the times when we failed to be guided by Your will. Let us act humbly so that our future heals and sets right the times when we, did not value all people equally, nor assure the justice that was their right.

Grant to this body the blessing of knowing that their work has honored all. Grant them wisdom, vision and comity in their work.

Bless this day, the employees of this Commonwealth, the House of Delegates, all our elected officials, Attorney General Herring, Lt. Governor Fairfax, Governor Northam. May their leadership guide us closer to Your will.

And may we of Virginia, with all of the peoples of this country live out the promise of freedom, justice and equality for all.

Blessed be,

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

Rabbi David Spinrad, Beth El Hebrew Congregation, Alexandria, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

On this sacred day of service on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia, let us pray:

Dear God, with spoken word we understand our prayers to You take three forms:

- We offer You words of praise
- We petition You to take up our cause
- And we thank You for Your presence

We praise. We petition. We thank.

Eternal God, we praise You for the bonds You forged with our forefathers and foremothers. We praise Your might, for sustaining life with love, for supporting the fallen, for healing the sick, for freeing the captive, and for keeping faith with those who sleep in the dust.

Almighty God, we petition You. Graciously share with us Your wisdom, insight, and knowledge. Sound the great shofar to proclaim our freedom, raise a great banner for our oppressed, and let the voice of liberty be heard in the four corners of the earth. Pour Your spirit upon the leaders of our land and all lands; guide them that they may govern justly.

And loving God, we thank You. You are our Lord and the God of our ancestors forever. You are the rock of our lives, and the shield of our salvation in every generation. We thank You and praise You – for our lives which are in Your hands, for our souls which are in Your care, and for Your miracles that we experience every day. O Compassionate One, we forever put our hope in You.

But God, our prayers are but words. May You see fit that our deeds in service to the well-being and welfare of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia be greater than them all.

As together we say, Amen.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Shane Schlesman, West End Assembly of God, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God and Creator, we come before You today to praise Your name and to ask Your blessing on this esteemed assembly. Without Your creation, Your wisdom, and Your loving kindness, we are incapable of accomplishing any good in this desperate world. We ask for You to empower this great body of leaders to champion justice for the oppressed, to administer grace to the fallen, healing to the sick, and restoration to the broken. Lord, I ask that You give all of us as community leaders discernment as we interact with one another and wisdom as we handle problems. I ask and pray for a spirit of unity and harmony as it relates to policies that help the Commonwealth of Virginia and respect as it relates to our differences. May this state and this city be a blessing to everyone.

In the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Dr. Debra L. Haggins, Hampton University, Hampton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O Great and Mighty Creator, Sustainer of the universe, bless this house O Lord we pray — make it safe night and day. We ask Your blessings upon the Commonwealth of Virginia, Governor Ralph Northam, his cabinet and staff. We ask Your blessings upon all governing bodies and the men and women You have set before us to lead our great state. We ask for Your all-knowing guidance over the deliberation of this house here on today and every day. Lead this assembly to truth and sound decisions guided by Your light. We pray for cooperation and clarity, patience and understanding, held together, unified by that which benefits, that which uplifts the citizens of the great Commonwealth of Virginia. We pray for decisions that will resound generations into the future for the good of all in our state, our region, our country, and our world.

Therefore, Father, in the spirit of unity and interfaith cooperation:

We pray for peace as the Hindu pray: O God, lead us from darkness to light.

We pray for peace as the Jewish pray: Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, that we may walk the paths of the Most High.

We pray for peace as the Zoroastrians pray: God, eradicate all the misery in the world, that understanding triumph over ignorance...and that generosity triumph over indifference.

We pray for peace as the Muslim pray: Praise be to the Lord of the Universe who has created us and made us that we may know each other, not that we may despise each other.

We pray for peace as the Native Africans pray: Almighty God, You are the one who does not hesitate to respond to our call. You are the cornerstone of peace.

We pray for peace as the Native Africans pray: Give us the wisdom to teach our children to love, to respect, and to be kind to each other so that they may grow with peace in mind.

We pray for peace as the B'hai pray: Be generous in prosperity, and thankful in adversity...Be a lamp unto those who walk in darkness, and a home to the stranger.

We pray for peace as Christians pray: Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons and daughters of God.

We pray for peace as the Buddhist pray: May the powerless find power, may the frightened cease to be afraid, and may those bound be free.

And finally, O Lord, we pray for the interfaith inheritance which the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., called this "great world house" in which all must live together: black and white, Easterner and Westerner, Gentile and Jew, Catholic and Protestant, Muslim and Hindu; because we can never again live apart, we must learn somehow to live with each other in peace.

This is our prayer, O God, this our prayer. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Lily Kathleen Beirne of Chesterfield.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Daniel Floyd, Lifepoint Church, Fredericksburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we bow our hearts before You today in recognition that You are sovereign over all creation. We thank You for Your grace and Your mercy in our lives and for Your faithfulness to us all.

In this week that we celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. King, we ask that the darkened hearts of those who carry hate and racism be illuminated with Your love.

I humbly ask, for the members of this body, that You would grant them wisdom. Your word says, "if anyone lack wisdom, let them ask of God, who gives it generously without finding fault." May they possess not merely a wisdom that comes with human limitations, but wisdom that comes from God. That they may discern Your will and Your ways as they execute the duties of their offices, in the best interest of those they represent.

I pray for an uncommon unity, for a house divided against itself cannot stand. May You grant each member the strength to stand within their convictions and the grace to find common ground, for the benefit of every citizen.

May Your hand of blessing and protection be upon our Commonwealth. May every individual, regardless of race or creed, find prosperity in every area of his or her life.

And, may we all do that which You require, which is to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with our God.

In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

Gracious and loving God, we praise and thank You for making us a people whose variety reflects the kaleidoscope of Your glory.

In the shadow of Monday's legacy, and in the midst of these challenging times, renew in us an infinite hope. Inspire once more that holy vision of a beloved community, where all have enough and enough satisfies, where all have a voice and that voice be used for goodness alone, and our very lives reflect the answer to another's prayer.

Bless, O God, the people of this Commonwealth. Give courage and wisdom to those who lead it, that when evening comes, You might say to us all, well done. Amen.

Clerk of the Senate

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Donnie Owen, Broadway Baptist Church, Broadway, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, I pray to You with a grateful heart, knowing that You hear our prayers. As we stand together in Your presence and in the assembly of these great men and women who are devoted to leading us daily, I pray for each one represented here and their families. I also pray for those who are not with us today. I pray for the people of the great Commonwealth of Virginia and for all of our country. I pray for Your hand of blessing to be upon us, dear God, to continue to protect us and provide for us all.

Dear Lord, I pray that You anoint the hearts and minds of our leaders and give them wisdom and love to do what is God's good and perfect will. Bless this session as they conduct Your business, reconciling differences, restoring harmony, and renewing their spirit of unity and love. Give them the courage to make a difference.

As the apostle Paul encouraged Timothy, in 2 Timothy 1:6-7, he writes, "I remind you to keep ablaze the gift of God that is in you, ... For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power, and love and a sound mind."

I pray dear God that You will be glorified and honored in all that is said and done here in these sacred chambers today and in the days to come. Make us mindful to always trust in God, for the joy of the Lord is our strength.

I pray all of this in the strong name of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

Rabbi Dennis Beck-Berman, Congregation Brith Achim, Petersburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

We cannot only pray to You, O God, to end violence;
For we know that You have made the world in such a way
That we must find the path to peace
Within ourselves and within our community.

We cannot only pray to You, O God, to end hunger;
For You have already given us the resources
With which to feed the entire world,
If we would only use them wisely.

We cannot only pray to You, O God,
To root out prejudice;
For You have already given us eyes
With which to see the good in all people,
If we would only use them rightly.

We cannot only pray to You, O God, to end disease;
For You have already given us great minds
With which to search out cures and healings,
If we would only use them constructively.

We cannot only pray to You, O God, to end despair;
For You have already given us the power
To clear away slums and to give hope,
If we would only use our power justly.

We cannot only pray to You, O God, to end infirmity;
For You have already provided ample opportunity
By which we can heal and strengthen our bodies,
If we would only feed and exercise them properly.

We cannot only pray to You, O God, for stronger communities;
For You have already given us many opportunities
To develop friendships and understanding with our neighbors
If we would only make the effort to reach out and embrace them.

Therefore, we pray to You instead, O God,
For strength, determination, and willpower,
To do instead of only to pray,
To become instead of merely to wish,

For Your sake and for ours, speedily and soon,
That our community and world may be safe,
And that our lives may be blessed.

May the words that we pray, and the deeds that we do
Be always acceptable before You, O Lord,
Our rock and our redeemer. Amen.

Amend Section 6 of Article X of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:

ARTICLE X TAXATION AND FINANCE

Section 6. Exempt property.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the following property and no other shall be exempt from taxation, State and local, including inheritance taxes:

(1) Property owned directly or indirectly by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, and obligations of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof exempt by law.

(2) Real estate and personal property owned and exclusively occupied or used by churches or religious bodies for religious worship or for the residences of their ministers.

(3) Private or public burying grounds or cemeteries, provided the same are not operated for profit.

(4) Property owned by public libraries or by institutions of learning not conducted for profit, so long as such property is primarily used for literary, scientific, or educational purposes or purposes incidental thereto. This provision may also apply to leasehold interests in such property as may be provided by general law.

(5) Intangible personal property, or any class or classes thereof, as may be exempted in whole or in part by general law.

(6) Property used by its owner for religious, charitable, patriotic, historical, benevolent, cultural, or public park and playground purposes, as may be provided by classification or designation by an ordinance adopted by the local governing body and subject to such restrictions and conditions as provided by general law.

(7) Land subject to a perpetual easement permitting inundation by water as may be exempted in whole or in part by general law.

(8) One motor vehicle owned and used primarily by or for a veteran of the armed forces of the United States or the Virginia National Guard who has been rated by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor agency pursuant to federal law with a one hundred percent service-connected, permanent, and total disability. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "motor vehicle" shall include only automobiles and pickup trucks. Any such motor vehicle owned by a married person may qualify if either spouse is a veteran who is one hundred percent disabled pursuant to this subdivision. This exemption shall be applicable on the date the motor vehicle is acquired or the effective date of this subdivision, whichever is later; but shall not be applicable for any period of time prior to the effective date.

(b) The General Assembly may by general law authorize the governing body of any county, city, town, or regional government to provide for the exemption from local property taxation, or a portion thereof, within such restrictions and upon such conditions as may be prescribed, of real estate and personal property designed for continuous habitation owned by, and occupied as the sole dwelling of, persons not less than sixty-five years of age or persons permanently and totally disabled as established by general law. A local governing body may be authorized to establish either income or financial worth limitations, or both, in order to qualify for such relief.

(c) Except as to property of the Commonwealth, the General Assembly by general law may restrict or condition, in whole or in part, but not extend, any or all of the above exemptions.

(d) The General Assembly may define as a separate subject of taxation any property, including real or personal property, equipment, facilities, or devices, used primarily for the purpose of abating or preventing pollution of the atmosphere or waters of the Commonwealth or for the purpose of transferring or storing solar energy, and by general law may allow the governing body of any county, city, town, or regional government to exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation, or by general law may directly exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation.

(e) The General Assembly may define as a separate subject of taxation household goods, personal effects and tangible farm property and products, and by general law may allow the governing body of any county, city, town, or regional government to exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation, or by general law may directly exempt or partially exempt such property from taxation.

(f) Exemptions of property from taxation as established or authorized hereby shall be strictly construed; provided, however, that all property exempt from taxation on the effective date of this section shall continue to be exempt until otherwise provided by the General Assembly as herein set forth.

(g) The General Assembly may by general law authorize any county, city, town, or regional government to impose a service charge upon the owners of a class or classes of exempt property for services provided by such governments.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Jane Lyon, Whole Woman Conference, Clarksville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come ...

When this country was being formed, men stood together, some called You Jehovah, some God, some a higher power, some not at all – regardless of the name, everyone felt a power from outside themselves, a creative power that had been with them since before their birth beckoning them to work together for the common good with a relentless desire for the very thing for which we are created, freedom.

Our forefathers knew they needed help, a need for which we are keenly aware in this day and this era. Father, may we remember and may we receive that our help is from God, the One who formed us, the One who led us in the formation of this great nation, the One who can heal our land.

Enable this body to choose wisely

- WISDOM over knowledge in knowing how to govern
- CHARACTER over stubbornness (dogged, unrelenting partisanship)
- The COMMON GOOD over special interests

We ask this in the name of the One who was willing to die for the deliverance, freedom, and life of all people. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Adeline Gray Miller of Richmond.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Boysko, Carrico, Chafin, Chase, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, DeSteph, Dunnivant, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Mason, McClellan, McDougle, McPike, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Peake, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Spruill, Stanley, Stuart, Sturtevant, Suetterlein, Surovell, Wagner.

On motion of Senator Newman, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 12 m.

Justin E. Fairfax
President of the Senate

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend William P. Saunders, Our Lady of Hope Catholic Church, Potomac Falls, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we implore You to pour forth Your Holy Spirit upon these, our Senators, as You did upon the elders of Israel at the time of Moses. Fill them with the gifts of reverence and piety; knowledge and understanding; counsel, wisdom, and fortitude. Remembering all authority comes from You, Heavenly Father, we pray they will promote the dignity of each person and the common good of all; safeguard the sanctity of marriage and the family; and defend the rights to life and to religious freedom. As they deliberate today, may they be mindful of the words of James Madison, our fellow Virginian and fourth President: "We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God." We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Felton T. Sessoms, First Baptist Church, Cape Charles, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, hallowed be thy holy name. Father, we acknowledge that You are the Creator and every good and perfect gift comes from You.

Almighty God, we thank You for life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness in these United States of America and this great Commonwealth of Virginia.

Almighty God, from the various geographical regions of this great Commonwealth, Your servant leaders have gathered. Allow their deliberations to emblematically represent a beacon of hope, truth, justice, and unity shone throughout this Commonwealth.

Almighty God, we thank You for this day. We ask blessings for all, especially the men and women who have sacrificially left their homes, families, businesses, and jobs to serve this great Commonwealth.

Father, we acknowledge Your sovereignty and omnipotence, so please empower this legislative body with wisdom to serve and govern in a manner that honors You.

Father, may the deliberations, actions, and proceedings of this legislative body be symbolic of selfless motivation and sacrificial service guided by the principles of truth and virtue.

Father, may Your enduring presence in the lives of these legislators be a constant reminder that they are to serve and lead with humility and vulnerability for the good of all citizens.

Father, may these legislators be instructed by Your words according to the book of Micah, Chapter 6 and Verse 8, "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

Finally, Almighty God, may Your peace guard the hearts, minds, and souls of the legislators this day and throughout this legislative session.

Father, this is our prayer in the name above all names. Amen.

- S.B. 1763 (one thousand seven hundred sixty-three) with amendment.

Justin E. Fairfax
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2019

The Senate met at 10:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend Ray Dawson, Cliffview Church of God, Galax, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, I approach You today as the divine intercessor for all humanity. I make my appeal to the most compassionate ear that hears the very heart of man. Look upon us here this day and in the days to come. Educate our decisions with unfailing facts. Instruct our ways with wisdom and inspire our spirits with nobility. Grant unto us a greater unity of purpose, a deeper kindness in dealing with issues and each other, and the ability to decipher the good, the better, and the very best.

Heavenly Father, I pray Your Son, Jesus, would be imitated in our legislators in these ways: first, in a generous portion of His willingness to sacrifice; second, in a measure of His ability to really listen; third, in a double portion of His amazing humility in serving needy people; and finally, but so importantly, in an ample amount of His confidence in prayer and His consecration to this powerful grace. Empower our chosen leaders to deal with the present from a clear view of the past, that the future might be brighter than both. May every session of this body set the tone for greater sessions to follow.

And Master, may each gathering drive these honored members to dig deeper in their love for people, climb higher in their pursuit of righteous solutions, and reach more intently for truth and its balances. May we spring forth from the foundational truth that God is, and from this vantage point let us seek sound judgment, logical reasonings, and holy actions. Lord, since we none know what tomorrow may bring, help us to be sure in whom we have placed our trust and be ready to give account of our measures and their motives. Knowing that You, oh Lord, are the Governor of all governments, the leader of all legislators, and the ultimate judge of all disclosures. I now pray Your strength and courage under-gird this body. I pray Your favor rest on the state of Virginia. And, I pray Your mighty blessings on these United States of America. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Emma Swan Roncoroni of Falls Church City.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2019

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

Saif Rahman, Dar Al Noor Islamic Center, Woodbridge, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Oh Allah, we ask You to bless the members of this chamber with courage and wisdom so that they may strive for the rights of the oppressed and stamp out bigotry, hatred, and racism. We strive to live by the standard You set in Chapter 5, Verse 8 of the Quran where You decree:

O you who have believed, be persistently standing firm for God, witnesses in justice, and do not let the hatred of a people prevent you from being just. Be just; that is nearer to righteousness. And fear God; indeed, God is acquainted with what you do.

Just God, we ask that You envelop this chamber, its members and staff with Your mercy in order that they may serve this Commonwealth in striving for justice for all regardless of faith, race, nationality, origin, gender, or wealth.

Lord, allow us to not only repent for our past misdeeds and misgivings but be a source of positive change and healing to bring about equality in our Commonwealth and country. Ameen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Erin Olivia McPike of Woodbridge.

God, our Creator, we seek Your blessing today in our work. We turn to You for guidance, as the members of this dedicated gathering do the work of improving the welfare of the people of this Commonwealth. Instill in us a deep awareness of the tasks at hand and appreciation for the lives that hang in the balance. Help us to pursue solutions and open closed doors. Fill them with strength, wisdom and insight, bringing nearer Your vision of a world free of strife and overflowing with peace. Most of all, may the Source of Life fill us with humility. Infuse us with respect for one another, for Your world and all its inhabitants. Allow us to see the divine image in the faces of our partners, our friends and opponents and in the work of our hands. May the deliberations of this body be in the spirit of the Commonwealth as one united community, and may every motion, every argument and every vote be taken for the sake of heaven. Amen.

Any locality in the Commonwealth that employs the use of body worn cameras for its law enforcement officers shall be required to establish and fund one full-time equivalent entry-level Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney, at a salary no less than that established by the Compensation Board for an entry-level Commonwealth's Attorney, at a rate of one Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney for up to 75 body worn cameras employed for use by local law enforcement officers, and one Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney for every 75 body worn cameras employed for use by local law enforcement officers, thereafter. However, with the consent of the Commonwealth's Attorney, a locality may provide their Commonwealth's Attorney's office with additional funding, using a different formula than stated above, as needed to accommodate the additional workload resulting from the requirement to review, redact and present footage from body worn cameras. If, as of July 1, 2019, a locality is providing additional funding to the Commonwealth's Attorney's office specifically to address the staffing and workload impact of the implementation of body worn cameras on that office, that additional funding shall be credited to the formula used in that locality. During this timeframe, each Commonwealth's Attorney's office in a locality that employs body worn cameras, in conjunction with the law enforcement agency using body worn cameras, shall report to the Compensation Board the following information on a quarterly basis, in a format prescribed by the Board:

Any recorded event that results in charges for two or more of the above categories shall be reported in the most serious category;

b. The number of hours spent in the course of redacting videos; and

c. Any other data determined relevant and necessary by the Compensation Board for this analysis.

3. Should a Commonwealth's Attorney's office in a locality that employs body worn cameras fail to report to the Compensation Board the information above for two consecutive quarters, that locality may discontinue for the following fiscal year that additional funding to the Commonwealth's Attorney's office that is specifically to address the staffing and workload impact of the implementation of body worn cameras on that office.

The Secretary of Finance shall convene a working group of stakeholders, to include but not be limited to, the Virginia Municipal League, Virginia Association of Counties, Virginia Manufacturers Association and the Virginia Economic Developers Association, to prepare a proposal by October 1, 2019, that allows for Virginia to eliminate the first five years of machinery and tools taxation for all new equipment put into service after January 1, 2020, and reimburse local governments on a pro-rata basis for all foregone revenues, not to exceed $50 million annually statewide. The proposal shall include recommendations for multiple sources of revenue to pay for the proposal. The revenue sources shall include: (1) dynamic growth in individual income tax, sales tax and corporate income tax revenue from manufacturing growth; (2) sales tax revenue derived from internet sales taxes collected after July 1, 2019, that are associated with legislation to bring Virginia into compliance with the "Wayfair" Supreme Court Case. Further, the plan shall include, for those localities not currently assessing the machinery and tools tax, an option for reducing business personal property taxes by $1 million per year and receiving reimbursement from sales tax revenue derived from internet sales taxes collected after July 1, 2019, that are associated with legislation to bring Virginia into compliance with the "Wayfair" Supreme Court Case.

The Secretary of Commerce and Trade, the Virginia Economic Development Partnership, and the Virginia Department of Taxation shall provide technical assistance to the working group, specifically contributing the following: (1) assessment of the economic benefit to local governments and the Commonwealth of Virginia for the growth in manufacturing machinery and tools investment; (2) assessment of the best method of disposition of revenues from state general fund revenues to local governments, specifically the method established by § 58.1-662, Code of Virginia; (3) assessment of the economic impact on local governments for the loss of machinery and tools tax revenue for the first five years; and (4) assessment of how many states currently tax a manufacturer's machinery and tools and compare the rates for competitiveness, specifically against the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi,

Alabama, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia."

Explanation:

(This amendment directs the Secretary of Finance to convene a working group of interested parties for the purpose of presenting a legislative plan and budget by the 2020 General Assembly Session that would allow Virginia to require all localities to assess a "zero" rate on a manufacturer's machinery and tools for the first five years the equipment is put into service. The funds to reimburse local governments would be provided by the state using new sales and use tax revenues derived from requiring remote sellers to collect sales tax. Funds would be distributed to localities following a reimbursement method similar to the method used for the Communications Sales and Use Tax Trust Fund.)

The continuing resolution (H.R. 195) passed by Congress in January 2018 suspended the tax. The tax on health insurers was created in the Affordable Care Act and the net impact is that the cost of the tax is passed-through to Medicaid managed care companies, which is the reason the tax impacts the state budget.)

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $87,500 from the general fund and $262,500 from federal Medicaid matching funds to support the All Payer Claims Database (APCD). Senate Bill 1216 would make participation in the APCD mandatory. This amendment allows the Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS) to access enhanced federal funding to support its use of the APCD. Medicaid can use enhanced federal funding at a 75 percent federal matching rate to support the maintenance and operations of the APCD. At least seven other states (Oregon, Florida, New York, Colorado, Rhode Island, Utah and New Hampshire) currently pay for a portion of the maintenance and operations of their APCD using Medicaid enhanced federal funding. Furthermore, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) has confirmed that this type of funding can be available to Virginia's APCD if DMAS submits and CMS approves an Operational Advanced Planning Document (O-APD) for the project and payments. This amount is proportional to the volume of APCD claims that are associated with Virginia Medicaid members.)

The Department of Medical Assistance Services shall require the managed care organizations to report encounter data impacting Community Services Boards on a monthly basis, with the data submitted no later than 20 days after the end of each month in order to determine the revenue impact to fulfill the intent of this paragraph."

Explanation:

(This amendment modifies language in the introduced budget which allows the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to provide funding from special fund balances at the end of the fiscal year to CSBs in circumstances where a CSB's additional FY 2019 Medicaid reimbursements do not reach at least 90 percent of the general fund reductions assumed in Chapter 2 for FY 2020. Language allows that assistance to be provided prior to the end of the fiscal year so that the provision of critical services is not disrupted. The amendment also clarifies that assistance may be provided to an individual CSB rather than requiring that Medicaid reimbursements to all CSBs fall short of GF reductions before assistance may be provided. The amendment requires the department to report to the Secretary of Finance and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees on how the expected general fund savings compare to actual Medicaid payments for FY 2019 so that the expected general fund savings in FY 2020 may be adjusted in amendments to the biennial budget during the 2020 Session of the General Assembly, if necessary.)

§ 58.1-402. Virginia taxable income.

A. For purposes of this article, Virginia taxable income for a taxable year means the federal taxable income and any other income taxable to the corporation under federal law for such year of a corporation adjusted as provided in subsections B, C, D, and E.

For a regulated investment company and a real estate investment trust, such term means the "investment company taxable income" and "real estate investment trust taxable income," respectively, to which shall be added in each case any amount of capital gains and any other income taxable to the corporation under federal law which shall be further adjusted as provided in subsections B, C, D, and E.

B. There shall be added to the extent excluded from federal taxable income:

1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state unless created by compact or agreement to which the Commonwealth is a party;

2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from state income taxes;

3. [Repealed.]

4. The amount of any net income taxes and other taxes, including franchise and excise taxes, which are based on, measured by, or computed with reference to net income, imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deducted in determining federal taxable income;

5. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code;

6. [Repealed.]

7. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax on an accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code;

8. a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004, the amount of any intangible expenses and costs directly or indirectly paid, accrued, or incurred to, or in connection directly or indirectly with one or more direct or indirect transactions with one or more related members to the extent such expenses and costs were deductible or deducted in computing federal taxable income for Virginia purposes. This addition shall not be required for any portion of the intangible expenses and costs if one of the following applies:

- (1) The corresponding item of income received by the related member is subject to a tax based on or measured by net income or capital imposed by Virginia, another state, or a foreign government that has entered into a comprehensive tax treaty with the United States government;
- (2) The related member derives at least one-third of its gross revenues from the licensing of intangible property to parties who are not related members, and the transaction giving rise to the expenses and costs between the corporation and the related member was made at rates and terms comparable to the rates and terms of agreements that the related member has entered into with parties who are not related members for the licensing of intangible property; or
- (3) The corporation can establish to the satisfaction of the Tax Commissioner that the intangible expenses and costs meet both of the following: (i) the related member during the same taxable year directly or indirectly paid, accrued or incurred such portion to a person who is not a related member, and (ii) the transaction giving rise to the intangible expenses and costs between the corporation and the related member did not have as a principal purpose the avoidance of any portion of the tax due under this chapter.

b. A corporation required to add to its federal taxable income intangible expenses and costs pursuant to subdivision a may petition the Tax Commissioner, after filing the related income tax return for the taxable year and remitting to the Tax Commissioner all taxes, penalties, and interest due under this article for such taxable year including tax upon any amount of intangible expenses and costs required to be added to federal taxable income pursuant to subdivision a, to consider evidence relating to the transaction or transactions between the corporation and a related member or members that resulted in the corporation's taxable income being increased, as required under subdivision a, for such intangible expenses and costs.

If the corporation can demonstrate to the Tax Commissioner's sole satisfaction, by clear and convincing evidence, that the transaction or transactions between the corporation and a related member or members resulting in such increase in taxable income pursuant to subdivision a had a valid business purpose other than the avoidance or reduction of the tax due under this chapter, the Tax Commissioner shall permit the corporation to file an amended return. For purposes of such amended return, the requirements of subdivision a shall not apply to any transaction for which the Tax Commissioner is satisfied (and has identified) that the transaction had a valid business purpose other than the avoidance or reduction of the tax due under this chapter. Such amended return shall be filed by the corporation within one year of the written permission granted by the Tax Commissioner and any refund of the tax imposed under this article shall include interest at a rate equal to the rate of interest established under § 58.1-15 and such interest shall accrue as provided under § 58.1-1833. However, upon the filing of such amended return, any related member of the corporation that subtracted from taxable income amounts received pursuant to subdivision C 21 shall be subject to the tax imposed under this article on that portion of such amounts for which the corporation has filed an amended return pursuant to this subdivision. In addition, for such transactions identified by the Tax Commissioner herein by which he has been satisfied by clear and convincing evidence, the Tax Commissioner may permit the corporation in filing income tax returns for subsequent taxable years to deduct the related intangible expenses and costs without making the adjustment under subdivision a.

The Tax Commissioner may charge a fee for all direct and indirect costs relating to the review of any petition pursuant to this subdivision, to include costs necessary to secure outside experts in evaluating the petition. The Tax Commissioner may condition the review of any petition pursuant to this subdivision upon payment of such fee.

No suit for the purpose of contesting any action of the Tax Commissioner under this subdivision shall be maintained in any court of this Commonwealth.

c. Nothing in subdivision B 8 shall be construed to limit or negate the Department's authority under § 58.1-446;

9. a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004, the amount of any interest expenses and costs directly or indirectly paid, accrued, or incurred to, or in connection directly or indirectly with one or more direct or indirect transactions with one or more related members to the extent such expenses and costs were deductible or deducted in computing federal taxable income for Virginia purposes. This addition shall not be required for any portion of the interest expenses and costs, if:

(1) The related member has substantial business operations relating to interest-generating activities, in which the related member pays expenses for at least five full-time employees who maintain, manage, defend or are otherwise responsible for operations or administration relating to the interest-generating activities; and

(2) The interest expenses and costs are not directly or indirectly for, related to or in connection with the direct or indirect acquisition, maintenance, management, sale, exchange, or disposition of intangible property; and

The Tax Commissioner may charge a fee for all direct and indirect costs relating to the review of any petition pursuant to this subdivision, to include costs necessary to secure outside experts in evaluating the petition. The Tax Commissioner may condition the review of any petition pursuant to this subdivision upon payment of such fee.

Upon the prosecution of a person for violation of this section, ownership or occupancy of the premises or vehicle upon or in which marijuana was found shall not create a presumption that such person either knowingly or intentionally possessed such marijuana.

Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be ~~confined in jail not more than 30 days and~~ fined not more than $500, ~~either or both~~; any person, upon a second or subsequent conviction of a violation of this section, is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. A charge of a violation of this section that has been expunged under subdivision A 4 of § 19.2-392.2 shall be deemed a conviction for purposes of prosecuting a person for a second or subsequent violation of this section.

B. The provisions of this section shall not apply to members of state, federal, county, city, or town law-enforcement agencies, jail officers, or correctional officers, as defined in § 53.1-1, certified as handlers of dogs trained in the detection of controlled substances when possession of marijuana is necessary for the performance of their duties.

If the individual files the valid written certification with the court at least 10 days prior to trial and causes a copy of such written certification to be delivered to the attorney for the Commonwealth, such written certification shall be prima facie evidence that such oil was possessed pursuant to a valid written certification.

§18.2-251. Persons charged with first offense may be placed on probation; conditions; substance abuse screening, assessment treatment and education programs or services; drug tests; costs and fees; violations; discharge.

Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this article or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, or has not previously had a proceeding against him for violation of such an offense dismissed as provided in this section or expunged under subdivision A 4 of § 19.2-392.2, pleads guilty to or enters a plea of not guilty to possession of a controlled substance under § 18.2-250 or to possession of marijuana under § 18.2-250.1, the court, upon such plea if the facts found by the court would justify a finding of guilt, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon terms and conditions. Prior to deferring the proceedings under this section and at the time that the case is heard, the attorney for the Commonwealth or law-enforcement officer shall provide to the court, and the court shall review, the criminal history record and any records maintained by the Department of State Police pursuant to § 19.2-387.3 to ensure that the person is eligible for such deferral. The court shall not retain in the case file any such records provided to the court.

The program or services may be located in the judicial district in which the charge is brought or in any other judicial district as the court may provide. The services shall be provided by (i) a program licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, by a similar program which is made available through the Department of Corrections, (ii) a local community-based probation services agency established pursuant to § 9.1-174, or (iii) an ASAP program certified by the Commission on VASAP.

The court shall require the person entering such program under the provisions of this section to pay all or part of the costs of the program, including the costs of the screening, assessment, testing, and treatment, based upon the accused's ability to pay unless the person is determined by the court to be indigent.

As a condition of probation, the court shall require the accused (a) to successfully complete treatment or education program or services, (b) to remain drug and alcohol free during the period of probation and submit to such tests during that period as may be necessary and appropriate to determine if the accused is drug and alcohol free, (c) to make reasonable efforts to secure and maintain employment, and (d) to comply with a plan of at least 100 hours of community service for a felony and up to 24 hours of community service for a misdemeanor. In addition to any community service required by the court pursuant to clause (d), if the court does not suspend or revoke the accused's license as a term or condition of probation for a violation of § 18.2-250.1, the court shall require the accused to comply with a plan of 50 hours of community service. Such testing shall be conducted by personnel of the supervising probation agency or personnel of any program or agency approved by the supervising probation agency. The court shall, unless done at arrest, order the accused to report to the original arresting law-enforcement agency to submit to fingerprinting.

Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is a conviction only for the purposes of applying this section in subsequent proceedings.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, whenever a court places an individual on probation upon terms and conditions pursuant to this section, such action shall be treated as a conviction for purposes of §§ 18.2-259.1, 22.1-315, and 46.2-390.1, and the driver's license forfeiture provisions of those sections shall be imposed. Such person shall not be required to pay any fees for the filing of a petition under this subsection. A petition filed under this subsection shall include one complete set of the petitioner's fingerprints obtained from a law-enforcement agency.

C. G. The Commonwealth shall be made party defendant to the proceeding. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the court may appeal, as provided by law in civil cases.

Such order shall contain a statement that the dismissal and expungement are ordered pursuant to this subsection and shall be accompanied by the complete set of the petitioner's fingerprints filed with his petition. Upon the entry of such order, it shall be treated as provided in subsection K.

B. Upon a verified petition filed by the attorney for the Commonwealth alleging that the record is needed by a law-enforcement agency for purposes of employment application as an employee of a law-enforcement agency or for a pending criminal investigation and that the investigation will be jeopardized or that life or property will be endangered without immediate access to the record, the court may enter an ex parte order, without notice to the person, permitting such access. An ex parte order may permit a review of the record, but may not permit a copy to be made of it.

Bishop Felton Hawkins, Full Gospel Kingdom Church, Newport News, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, Thank You on behalf of all who are gathered here today. Thank You for Your many and abundant blessings. Thank You for life, and for the strength and wisdom we need to fulfill our callings, for sustenance and for community.

We are grateful for the ability to be involved in purposeful work, and for the honor of bearing the mandate of leadership as elected officials and citizens. Thank You for loving us from Your boundless and gracious nature.

In the scriptures, You have said that we ought to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with our God. Therefore, I pray for our Senators, for the various levels of state and city officials and, in particular, this assembled legislative body. I am asking that You would graciously grant them:

- Wisdom to govern amid the interests and issues of our time;
- A sense of the welfare and true needs of our people;
- A voracious thirst for justice and rightness;
- Confidence in what is good and fitting;
- The ability to work together in harmony even during challenging times; and
- Personal peace in their lives and joy in their labor.

I ask that You bless them abundantly as they seek Your wisdom, guidance, courage and strength. Be with them in the months and years to come, to be wise in the decisions they make for the good of all those who have placed their trust and confidence in their leadership. Give them insight to lead with integrity, that their decisions may always reflect what is right and good.

May God continue to bless our beloved state.
Creator and sustainer of all life, Amen.

Dear Father in heaven, we praise You and thank You for another day of life, another day to serve all of our sisters and brothers in this Commonwealth.

Here at this noon hour and throughout the rest of this day, we invite Your presence into this historic capitol building and into this honorable Senate chamber.

May Your holy presence in the midst of these legislators provide them all that they need to govern our Virginia in a way that is pleasing in Your sight.

Grant them Your wisdom as they tackle challenging issues.

Grant them Your patience as they work across the aisles.

Grant them Your resolve as they seek to do what is right.

Grant them Your compassion as they value the lives of all Virginians.

In these difficult days we are experiencing, dear Lord, we humbly ask that You bring reconciliation, bring healing, and bring a peace to this place that passes understanding.

We always ask that You put Your hand of protection on those who protect us, our first responders, those in law enforcement, and those defending our nation here at home and abroad.

I lift up my prayer to You this day in the name of my Lord, Jesus. Amen.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2019

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Justin E. Fairfax.

The Reverend R. Douglas Gunsalus, Centenary United Methodist Church, Lynchburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, we gather today in this moment in the 400th anniversary year of our Commonwealth and tragically aware that it is the 400th anniversary of the beginning of the human trafficking that was part of that long history. We are wrenchingly aware of all of that.

And, loving God, this day is weighty with possibility. May all that is done and said honor You as these elected men and women in good conscience discern with humility a way forward as public light shines brightly upon this body. In this moment, grant the wisdom You have promised, for in Your economy of justice and truth undergirded by mercy and grace, both what we do and how we go about the task will ramify our history before a world watching on tiptoe to see if new hope can be extenuated through truth and reconciliation, redemption, and restoration.

We are reminded that 90 years ago last month, 210 years ago today, You gave us undeserved gifts in the persons of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Abraham Lincoln, who have become martyrs to this very issue, so we could do worse than to be reminded of their words. From Dr. King, that every person is heir to a legacy of dignity and worth, every person has rights that are neither conferred nor are derived from the state, but are God-given. And, as Lincoln reminded us just before his death, let us move forward with malice toward none, charity to all, firmness in the right as God gives to us to see the right.

Let us strive to finish the work we are in, bind up the nation's wounds, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves. In the name of the prophet of Nazareth who relentlessly invites us to wholeness and truth, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Senate Page Mara Elise Surovell of Mount Vernon.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barker, Black, Boysko, Carrico, Chafin, Chase, Cosgrove, Dance, Deeds, DeSteph, Dunnavant, Ebbin, Edwards, Favola, Hanger, Howell, Lewis, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Mason, McClellan, McDougle, McPike, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Peake, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Saslaw, Spruill, Stanley, Stuart, Sturtevant, Suetterlein, Surovell, Vogel, Wagner.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Surovell, the reading of the Journal was waived.
