OF THE
HOUSE OF DELEGATES
2017 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 11, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend L. Jack Howell, Pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Norfolk, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious God, we humbly approach you, our only Hope and Trust, who dwell in unapproachable light, for to You belong honor, glory, and eternal dominion. God of Gods and King of Kings, for the people of this Commonwealth in general, so especially for the House of Delegates assembled; would You be pleased to direct and prosper all their gatherings with the wisdom and humility that can only come from You. Remind these assembled that our hope is not in princes, or in the strength of horses or chariots, but our only trust is in You. You are our refuge and strength.

We enter into this General Assembly mindful that we are all children of dust, mists that appear and then are gone. Bring to our minds our frailty that we might serve modestly, our weakness that we might forgive quickly, and our incapacity that we might love truly. Make these women and men ever mindful of the least of these that they might deliberate and advocate on behalf of those without voice or standing that peace and happiness, truth and justice, virtue and piety may be established among us all.

And so now, O Great God, endow them with purpose joined to truth, unity flowing from a shared humanity, joy affixed to Your mercy, and love even as they were first loved by You. For these and all other necessities, for them and for us, we humbly ask in Your most holy and glorious name. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The National Anthem was performed by the Richmond Symphony Chorus.

The Clerk laid before the House the following communications:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
House of Delegates
Richmond

August 1, 2016

The Honorable Terry McAuliffe
Governor of Virginia
P.O. Box 1475
Richmond, VA 23218

Dear Governor McAuliffe:

Per my pending unopposed election on November 8, 2016 to the Virginia Senate, I hereby offer my resignation as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates effective 11:59PM on Monday, November 21, 2016.

After 23 years of representing the 77th District in the House of Delegates, I look forward to working for the citizens of the Commonwealth in the Virginia Senate.

Thank you for your support throughout this process.

Sincerely,
/s/ Lionell Spruill, Sr.
Delegate, 77th District
Virginia General Assembly

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
House of Delegates
Richmond

August 1, 2016

The Honorable Terry McAuliffe
Governor of Virginia
PO Box 1475
Richmond, VA 23218

Dear Governor McAuliffe:

I am writing to inform you of my resignation from the House of Delegates, 93rd District, effective November 21, 2016 at 11:59 p.m. I am currently seeking the 1st District Senate seat vacated by the death of the late Senator John Miller.

I am informing you now so that the special election to fill my seat can be called to occur on General Election Day, November 8, 2016.

I believe this is the best option for the people of the 93rd District and the Commonwealth. A special election held on a different day would cost tens of thousands of dollars and would impact the counties and cities of the district. By holding the special election concurrently with the November 8th election, we take advantage of the election infrastructure that is already in place. I also believe the people of the 93rd District will be best served by an election that ensures maximum participation among voters and a process that provides for no gap in representation.

I am both honored and humbled to serve in the House of Delegates and look forward to serving the 93rd District until my resignation becomes effective.

Sincerely,
/s/ Delegate T. Montgomery Mason
Virginia House of Delegates
93rd District

The Speaker laid before the House the following communication:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
House of Delegates
Richmond
November 11, 2016

Honorable William J. Howell
Speaker, Virginia House of Delegates
PO Box 406
Richmond, Virginia 23218

Dear Speaker Howell,

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the mighty 85th district of Virginia as their Delegate. While I will continue to serve them, it will be as their Congressman.

I submit my intention to resign the day I am to be sworn into Congress, Jan. 3, 2017.

It has been a pleasure working with you. Thank you for your service to this great Commonwealth.

Sincerely,
/s/ Scott Taylor

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Joey T. Anthony, Lead Pastor of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Colonial Heights, offered the following prayer:

Most Gracious Heavenly Father,

We are thankful for this opportunity that you have given us today to assemble here. We are thankful for this place that represents the freedoms we enjoy as citizens of this great Commonwealth. We ask that you bless all who are gathered here in the roles for which they have been elected to serve.

We ask that you give these members of the General Assembly wisdom as they serve their constituents.

Give them courage when they must make the difficult decisions that may not be popular.

Give them joy in their service. May it be a delight and not drudgery, a blessing and not a burden.

We ask that you keep them from temptation when the demons of power and prestige lure them.

Keep them humble as they remember that they have been placed in these positions by your mighty Hand.

Guide them to maintain integrity and honor both in public and in private.

Lord, we ask that you would bless our great nation and Commonwealth, but forgive us where we have failed to follow You, Your Word and Your way.

Thank you for blessing us with the freedoms and liberties we enjoy in this wonderful country, but we also are humbled as we remember the ultimate sacrifices that have been made by those who have come before us.

Thank you, Lord, for each of those who are gathered here today. We thank you for their families. And we thank you for their willingness to make sacrifices to serve the good people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Lord, guide all our steps, our actions, and our words that we will bring honor and glory to your Name.

I pray this in the Name of the One who said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life." Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Hodari Kenneth Hamilton, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Charlottesville, offered the following prayer:

God you reminded us through your servant-leader Solomon, "to everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven."

God remind us in this season of change and challenge - you are unchanging. You change not. You are constant and you are the absolute absolute. Help us to have assurance in you knowing you.

God remind us of the brevity of this season. Like winter will soon be spring our season is brief we must be faithful to act and accomplish as you called us to.

Encourage these servant-leaders not just in their public life but in their private homes. In their personal health give them strength and their private relationships give them peace and in everything bless them.

God help us to anticipate the seasons so that we might appreciate this season and prepare for the next.

-Give us discernment so we might act with mercy and kindness.

-Give us wisdom so we might do justice and walk humbly before our God.

-Give us a courage to be the blessed peacemakers even now.

-Give us conviction so we might be the change you called us to be, in this present age our calling to fulfill.

This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Speaker pro tempore of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by M. Kirkland Cox, Speaker pro tempore thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Jerry P. Jordan, Senior Pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, Nathalie, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, we come with prayerful hearts this morning to seek your blessing before business is conducted within this chamber. We thank you for the breath that you have allowed us to draw today and acknowledge you as not only our Creator, but also the Sustainer of life. We seek wisdom and guidance to plan and move forward as a Commonwealth. Our goal is that all things be conducted decently and orderly in a spirit of responsibility so that we as Virginians might stand in dignity and truth as did our forefathers, who established this governing body. May we be humbly reminded of your goodness and mercy and grace at both Calvary and at the Empty Tomb. We hereby make declaration in praise of your providence by thanking you for survival at Jamestown. We thank you for victory at Yorktown. We move forward in remembrance thanking you for all that you have done to preserve us through World Wars and other conflicts. And Father, we trust you for what you will do according to your Word. We offer this petition in the precious name of Jesus the Christ. God bless the Commonwealth. And all of God's people said, "Amen."

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Amy Christine Hodge Ziglar, Pastor of Mount Zion A.M.E. Church, Roanoke, offered the following prayer:

Oh Lord, O Lord, how excellent is thou name in all the earth!

O God, we ask that all we do begin with your inspiration and continue with your saving grace. Touch the minds and the hearts of those that we have elected and endorsed to represent the Citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Impart upon these CHOSEN people the ability to discover, discern and to decide the fairest and most equitable laws that will benefit and bless the citizens of the greatest First state of this nation. Lord, we know that they cannot do this on their own but only through your divine influence. Give them the wisdom and courage to be inclusive and thoughtful in their decisions that affect budget, education, healthcare, gun laws and the human rights of the citizens.

Now, we bless your Holy Name and we stand in expectation of the manifestation of your divine will in this General Assembly. We consecrate these representatives for Holy governing and we thank you for your presence forever and always.

Amen.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Thomas Alvis, Jr., Pastor of Mount Moriah Baptist Church, Powhatan, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, we begin this day by acknowledging You as the One and only True God – our Creator and the sustainer of life; the great and mighty God; all-knowing, all-powerful, and all-wise.

We acknowledge Your Providence in the history of our nation; we are thankful for those who have gone before us and who established this government founded on the principles of Godliness and the Holy Scriptures.

We confess that we have, in many respects, turned our backs against You. We have sinned, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly, we have rebelled and departed from Your precepts and from Your judgments. We have refused Your counsel; we have rejected Your truth. As a result, we live in a day of great turmoil, confusion, conflict, and wickedness. We repent of our sin and ask You to forgive us.

We are truly grateful that You are a God of mercy and forgiveness. We rejoice in the provision that You have made for us through Your Son, Jesus Christ Who purchased our redemption on the Cross of Calvary. We are humbled but encouraged by the fact that You, who conquered death and rose again, offer life to all who will come to You in repentance and faith.

We are thankful today for these who give their lives in the service of our Commonwealth. We know that each of these Delegates has been ordained by You and elected to represent We, the People. We understand that Righteousness exalts a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people. We know that the preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

And so, we pray this morning that each of our legislators, their staffs, and those who will influence them today will be guided by truth and wisdom which comes from God alone. It is our prayer today that every member of this House will be filled with the knowledge of Your will, that they will increase in the knowledge of God, that they will be strengthened with all might, that love will abound, and that they will approve things that are excellent.

We ask, Heavenly Father, that You will hear our prayer, that You will forgive our sin, that You will revive Your people, and that You will heal our land.

For it's in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior, we pray. Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Barbara Heck, Pastor of Bush Hill Presbyterian Church, Alexandria, offered the following prayer:

Holy God, Creator of All, the universe declares your glory.
You are like a father.
"In sovereign love [You] create the world as good and make everyone equally in [Your] image, male and female, of every race and people,
to live as one community."

A Brief Statement of Faith, PCUSA

You are also like a mystery, known in part, in many different ways, but never totally by any one.
You give us a conscience;
help the conscience of these delegates lead them to make decisions that bring justice especially when decisions are agonizing.
You give us conviction, not for anyone to insist on their own way but to have the confidence to cross over into another's experience in order to make better decisions for all concerned in the midst of division.

As You respect us, so give these delegates respect for each other and those they serve.
As you stitched clothes made of animal skins for Adam and Eve and provided them the most basic of care before leaving the Garden of Eden, so help our delegates ensure such basic care is provided for all citizens of this Commonwealth.
When the cantankerous among them become too ornery, let the peacemakers work their miracles.
When the complacent become too self-righteous, let the prophets speak firmly to move people toward helpful solution.
Let intelligence unpeel the thickness of ignorance so knowledge prevails.
Let courage triumph against cynicism, and love overcome hate.

God, you are no bully.
You never were. You are not now. And you don't need anyone here to be one, either.
Keep our citizens and delegates from using religion to harbor hate;
instead let genuine concern and effective compromise be the hallmark of this House of Delegates as they work together for the well-being of Virginians.

As Jesus Christ guides my life, and by his grace all humankind is saved, so I pray.
Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Travis E. Witt, Pastor of Gilboa Christian Church, Mineral, offered the following prayer:

On this day, January 20, 2017AD, Anno Domini, in the year of our Lord, let us together recognize the awesome responsibility of serving Virginia's citizens as members of the House of Delegates, as pages, as support staff, as legislative assistants, and as citizens and visitors of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the gallery. Many of Virginia's greatest men have walked these hallowed halls. Their words are reminders of our obligation to Divine Providence, His Creation, and the Citizens of Virginia.

Father, may each Delegate be thankful for the wisdom of George Washington who asked for God's blessing to be upon the leaders of this state when he declared, "God would have you, and the State over which you preside, in His holy protection; that He would incline the hearts of the citizens... to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another...and finally that He would most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy...which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without an humble imitation of whose example in these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation."

God in heaven and Comforter on earth, may each Delegate of the Commonwealth of Virginia remember the words of Thomas Jefferson who said, "God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God? Indeed I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that His justice cannot sleep forever."

And finally, Almighty God, would You remind all of us in this chamber who are servants of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia, that challenge from Virginian Patrick Henry? "Whether [leaders] will prove a blessing or a curse will depend on the use which our people make of the blessings which a gracious God hath bestowed on us. If [leaders] are wise, [the people] will be great and happy. If [leaders] are of contrary character, [the people] will be miserable. Righteousness alone can exalt them as a nation."

In the mighty name of the Redeemer of Mankind, Jesus Christ,

Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

Adams, Aird, Albo, Anderson, Bagby, Bell, J.J., Bell, R.P., Bell, R.B., Bloxom, Boysko, Bulova, Byron, Campbell, Carr, Cline, Cole, Collins, Cox, Edmunds, Fariss, Farrell, Filler-Corn, Fowler, Freitas, Garrett, Gilbert, Greason, Habeeb, Hayes, Helsel, Heretick, Herring, Hester, Hodges, Holcomb, Hope, Ingram, James, Jones, Keam, Kilgore, Knight, Kory, Krizek, Landes, LaRock, Leftwich, LeMunyon, Levine, Lindsey, Lingamfelter, Lopez, Loupassi, Marshall, D.W., Marshall, R.G., Massie, Miller, Minchew, Miyares, Mullin, Murphy, O'Bannon, O'Quinn, Orrock, Peace, Plum, Pogge, Poindexter, Price, Ransone, Rasoul, Robinson, Rush, Sickles, Simon, Stolle, Sullivan, Toscano, Villanueva, Ward, Ware, Watts, Webert, Wilt, Wright, Yancey, Yost, Mr. Speaker.

There were 88 Delegates present.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Willard G. Maxwell, Jr., Pastor of New Beech Grove Baptist Church, Newport News, offered the following prayer:

Father, we give thanks for the United States and its government. We hold up in prayer before You the men and women who are in positions of authority. We pray and intercede for the president, the delegates, the representatives, the senators, the judges of our land, the policemen and the policewomen as well as the governors and mayors, and for all those who are in authority over us in any way. We pray that the Spirit of the Lord rests upon them.

We believe that skillful and godly wisdom has entered into the heart of our president and knowledge is pleasant to him. Discretion watches over him; understanding keeps him and delivers him from the way of evil and from evil men.

Father, we ask that You compass the president about with men and women who make their hearts and ears attentive to godly counsel and do that which is right in Your sight. We believe You cause them to be men and women of integrity who are obedient concerning us that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. We pray that the upright shall dwell in our government...that men and women blameless and complete in Your sight, Father, shall remain in these positions of authority; but the wicked shall be cut off from the government and the treacherous shall be rooted out of it.

Your Word declares that blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. We receive Your blessing. Father, You are our refuge and stronghold in times of trouble (high cost, destitution, and desperation). So we declare with our mouths that Your people dwell safely in this land, and we prosper abundantly.

It is written in Your Word that the heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord, and you turn it whichever way You desire. We believe the hearts of our delegates are in Your hands today and that their decisions are divinely directed by the Lord.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Irvin Ray Sloan, Chaplain of Botetourt County Fire and EMS, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, as this House of Delegates convenes today to begin their work for the people of this great Commonwealth, we ask You to send down Your spirit upon them.

We give you thanks that You are always with us, guiding our thoughts and deliberations. We pray for Your will and presence in what is just and right, and give them the courage to act accordingly. May they always show forth wisdom in their lives and work.

Endow these Delegates with fortitude that is borne of loyalty to the Commonwealth; to their families, their constituents, our Constitution, and our beloved country—loyalty that will not compromise with vice and injustice and knows no fear when truth is in jeopardy.

We also pray for those sent into harm's way; our military, law enforcement, fire and rescue. Give them protection. Be with those injured and healing. We also give thanks for those who gave the ultimate sacrifice. Surround their loved ones with your peace.

These things we ask in Your precious name. Amen.

Delegate Simon offered the following amendments:

1. After line 19, introduced,
insert

WHEREAS, almost 50 percent of all successful suicide attempts involve a firearm, such attempts being successful more than 82 percent of the time, making suicide by firearm the most common and most lethal means nationwide; and

2. After line 29, introduced,
insert

WHEREAS, the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention endorses incorporating suicide prevention education as a basic tenet of firearm safety and responsible gun ownership, and recently announced a partnership with the National Shooting Sports Foundation to launch a new firearms and suicide prevention education program nationwide in 2017; and Delegate Orrock raised a point of order that the joint resolution provided no specifics as to the method of suicide while the floor amendments offered by the Gentleman from Fairfax added "WHEREAS" clauses which stipulated a specific way in which suicide was accomplished and would inquire as to whether the amendments were germane.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman from Fairfax offered two floor amendments which dealt with a specific way of committing suicide while the general purpose of the resolution was to designate a week to the topic of suicide, not to address how it was done.

The Speaker stated further that the floor amendments were not germane and the Chair would so rule.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Ron W. Owens, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Spotsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we are thankful for the freedoms that we enjoy in the United States of America and in the Commonwealth of Virginia. We are grateful for Your provisions to supply our every need and Your providence to guide our every path. We are humbled at the thought of Your daily display of strength and power through Your creation. We are blessed by You to have founding fathers who have sought Your guidance and Your provision for our land.

Having these thoughts in mind, we boldly enter Your throne room seeking Your advice. We gracefully ask for Your guidance and wisdom in the decisions that must be made on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia. We humbly seek Your counsel to make known to this body of delegates the needs of the people in whom they represent. We longingly ask for safety and provision for our representatives. We ask that You will bless them and keep them according to Your riches in glory. We ask that You will make your face shine upon them and give them peace.

As we continue to pray, we ask that You will bless the Commonwealth of Virginia. Father, You know our needs. You know the lack of resources that we have and the vastness of issues we face. None of this surprises You. You are both omniscient and omnipotent. You know all and You can overcome all. We declare today that we rest upon You. For, You are the Almighty, All-sufficient God.

In Your Name we Pray!

Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Stephen Smith-Cobbs, Pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Herndon, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious and eternal God, we gather today as a grateful people who enjoy the many blessings you have bestowed on this commonwealth we call Virginia.

Today, we are especially glad to have the gift of representative government and for this body of representative delegates here in the Virginia General Assembly.

We pray that you will shower these elected delegates with your life-giving spirit. Fill them with a love of truth and righteousness that they may ably serve you and the Commonwealth of Virginia with grateful hearts, pure spirits, and appreciation of the diverse citizenry they represent. Grant each one humility in purpose and charity for all, enriching their hearts with your spirit of wisdom that they may lead us in renewing the ties of mutual respect which form our civic life.

Sustain them as they lead us to exercise our privileges and responsibilities as citizens and residents of this state that we may all work together to enhance the well-being of all who live and work here. Give to the members of this assembly clarity of purpose, the willingness to engage in meaningful dialogue with trust and respect for one another. Let them know joy in the work they do, even as you seek to work in and through them for the well-being of all your beloved children.

May they lead us to become, in the words of Martin Luther King, members of a beloved community, loving our neighbors as ourselves so that all of us may more closely come to fulfill the promise of our founders that we might be part of one nation under God indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

All this we ask in your most holy name. Amen.

Delegate Toscano propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether, under the House Rules, a member was permitted to request that a bill be moved from the Uncontested Calendar to the Regular Calendar so that an individual vote would be taken on the measure.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman from Charlottesville was correct.

Delegate Toscano propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether, per the provisions of House Rules 62 and 68, the same process could be applied to legislation before House subcommittees or committees.

The Speaker stated that while in committee, legislation was not designated as Uncontested or Regular, but subsequently was separated into those categories for the House Calendar based upon the vote by which it was reported from committee.

Delegate Toscano propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether, by House Rules and tradition, a member was allowed to request that a separate vote be taken on a measure if the legislation was in a committee or subcommittee.

The Speaker requested that the Gentleman rephrase his parliamentary inquiry.

Delegate Toscano propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether it was the usual practice of the House to accommodate the request of a member who wished to have a particular bill or resolution removed from a block of bills that was to be voted on in committee.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman was correct.

Delegate Gilbert propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether, in general, the House followed the same procedures in committee as it did on the House floor.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman from Shenandoah was correct.

Delegate Gilbert propounded a further parliamentary inquiry as to whether requests for specific actions needed to be made in a timely manner.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman was correct.

Delegate Orrock propounded a parliamentary inquiry as whether it was the common practice of a subcommittee to submit reports to its respective full committee recommending that certain blocks of bills either be reported or not reported from the full committee, but when the full committee considered those specific bills a separate vote might be taken on each measure.

[The Speaker did not offer an answer to the parliamentary inquiry by Delegate Orrock.]

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Jeffrey A. Packard, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Spotsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O Lord our governor, you are sovereign over all your creation and all legitimate authority flows from you; to you one day we must all account for our use of power: we pray your blessing upon the Commonwealth of Virginia, upon its people and its leaders, especially the General Assembly and this House of Delegates. As they convene today to take up the business of government, help each member to discern the truth and to seek your wisdom. Cause a spirit of humility and respect to influence their debate. Temper their pursuit of justice with mercy. Assist each one to depend not on his, or her, own righteousness, but upon yours alone, O Lord, for it is only in the love and fear of you that we discover true wisdom. And finally, may we all remember what it is that you require of each of us: to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with you, our Sovereign Lord; it is in your Holy Name that we pray. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Joshua N. King, Sr., Pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Hampton, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, our Father, we come this afternoon between these hallowed walls to say thank you. Thank you, Father, for another opportunity to see a day we have never seen before and shall never see again... Thank you, heavenly Father, for these men and women who have committed themselves to the service of others. Our prayer, heavenly Father, is for you to extend to them thy silver scepter of thy wisdom, the patience of Job, work in them, through them, and for them so the citizens of this great Commonwealth will see you in them. Guide their decisions not by partisanship but by fellowship. Ground their hearts in fervent love for you and for one another. Remind them, Father, their collective voices are the guardians of the least, left out, and less fortunate. Let love, peace, and unity be the binding tie of this 2017 session of the Virginia House of Delegates, so it will be peaceful, productive, and unproblematic. Never let them forget the honor afforded to them, never let them forget to be humble, but, most of all never let them believe they can accomplish this great task without your presence in their lives and in this sacred chamber. Let them know, Father, with you, unity can find its way back to our beloved state so it can be a shining example to our nation. Lastly, Heavenly Father, breathe your blessings on them, our President, Donald J. Trump, along with Governor Terry McAuliffe, Lt. Governor Ralph Northam, Speaker of the House, William J. Howell, and bless these United States of America. Father, this is our prayer. Amen.

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Clarence R. Brown, Jr., Senior Pastor of Annandale United Methodist Church, offered the following prayer:

Dear Living, Loving, and Everlasting God of the Creation,

We your people gather under the many names by which you are known to solicit your divine presence among us. Let your Spirit be at work among these, your servants, who have been called to deliberate and discern for the Commonwealth. Lead them to your heart, that all within the bounds of Virginia might experience the prudence, providence and prosperity of the divine intention. Help them to govern selflessly, eschewing the expedient to embrace the good.

So bless us now, and keep us restless until we have done your will; then grant us your peace. In your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Dear God, we gather today to do the work of serving the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia. We pray for all of them, and for each of them - that you would bless them - the old and the young - almost 8.5 million people God; in the cities and towns, the population centers and the rural landscapes. Help us to love them and to love each other, to care and to listen. We gather knowing that we are in your presence and that your presence and character are what we need. We pray you would give us strong minds and soft hearts. We pray you give us wisdom and discernment, courage, and kindness, and a desire to be servants. We pray that we would make a contribution to a government that fosters justice, righteousness, peace, and well-being - both in the Commonwealth and in the United States. We pray this with hearts that are fully known to you - hoping we are praying in your name and your character oh God. Amen.

The Honorable G. Paul Nardo, Clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and Merciful God, we give you thanks for thy manifold mercies and bountiful blessing that you have poured forth upon today's assemblage, this House and our entire Commonwealth.

We who are so undeserving of your love are humbled and grateful. May we in turn be willing to sacrifice and serve like those before.

Abide with the professional staff and elected servants in the House of Delegates – through clouds and sunshine, toils and triumphs – that we may have a kindled, active faith in your word and your way. May you find favour in our steps and actions, our words and deeds.

Now and always, we lift up our hearts and our prayer in the hope that our work and our service may bring honor and glory to your Name.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Ralph Steven Hodge, Senior Pastor of Second Baptist Church, South Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Eternal, all powerful, and all wise God. The creator and sustainer of all that exists. We humbly bow before you today, first giving you the highest praise and honor. You are from everlasting to everlasting, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. All of creation declares your glory. Oh gracious God, hear our prayer today. We come before you as those who need your guidance and your strength. We need your supreme guidance to legislate properly and to govern accordingly. We need your guidance to serve the people of the Commonwealth with wisdom and humility. We need your strength to stand for righteousness and justice. We need your strength to elevate the downtrodden and hold accountable the powerful. We need your guidance to enact laws that protect the weak and challenge the strong. We need your assistance to govern, as good stewards, the resources that we have been entrusted with as delegates. Lead Us, Guide us, and empower us with the wisdom like Solomon and faith like Abraham. Bless us this day to work hard and work righteously.

These and all other blessings we ask in The Name that is above all names. Amen.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Pastor Ryan McAdams, Senior Leader of Agape Mission Church, Williamsburg, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, our Eternal and Heavenly Father, we come humbly before Your divine majesty this day. We recognize that it is You alone who is the King of kings, and the Lord of lords over the heavens and all the earth, and that upon Your throne You rule supreme over all worldly governments.

I thank You for the Commonwealth of Virginia and the rich heritage and favor You have bestowed upon this land and people. We beseech You to look down in mercy on our great state. Protect our blessed land as we humbly look to You and Your nurturing care. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, and from every evil way. I pray that righteousness, truth, and justice would prevail throughout the land. O God, I pray that You would preserve our righteous and sacred freedoms to life, conscience, and faith that our founders fought so valiantly to secure and deliver into our hands.

Father, I thank You for the men and women of this House whom You have raised up to be a bulwark against tyranny in its various forms and to responsibly represent Virginians here in the Capitol. Be present with each of them, Lord, and endow them with the wisdom, guidance, and courage to rule righteously and to legislate justly. May they be continually reminded that they are responsible not only to their constituents and party, but, ultimately, to You, before whom we shall all give an account. Lord, I pray that You will preserve the Delegates' families and the health of their bodies. Give each one inner strength of mind and spirit and the peace that surpasses all circumstances and challenges.

O Lord, I ask that You shower blessings upon this honorable assembly and manifest Your good pleasure and purpose here in the Commonwealth. Let Your face shine down upon us all and the great state of Virginia.

We entrust ourselves to You and Your enabling and sustaining grace. We pray all this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Rabbi David H. Katz, Temple Beth El of Williamsburg, offered the following prayer:

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech Ha-Olam;

Blessed are you, Eternal One; to whom we look, to whom we pray, to whom we belong; our Divinity, our God; Sovereign of All that has been and that will be;

May you be an inspiring, illuminating, and thought-provoking presence for these neshamot nichbadot, these distinguished and honorable souls, as they engage in the difficult, intricate, and vital endeavor of working for the common good of the residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia. As they grapple with some of the most complex public issues of our time, may Your light be a Divine guide to them throughout their deliberations.

May they find in you the makor b'hirut v'nechama - the Source of both Clarity and Comfort - that will help them to discharge their noble obligations. May their lives be filled with all that they need - challenge and success, compassion and understanding, joy and love - in order to live up to their hallowed commitments. May you help them to clearly see when sharing their differences in religion, race, political affiliation, and life experience can augment their work, as well as when adhering too firmly to those differences impedes it.

May you help them to be dorshei emet – seekers of truth; and rodfei tzedek – pursuers of what is truly just and right in the world. May their vision be respectful and kind, and may their actions and their achievements be commensurate with their vision. May you enable them to hold fast to their sacred mission to represent all Virginians - particularly those whose voices are more difficult to hear. We ask that you help them to apply their knowledge, experience, wisdom, and discernment to enact tikkun olam – to repair the world around them, to make the world a better place for all who dwell here.

May their work be infused with ahavah, hesed, rachamim, and shalom - love, kindness, compassion, and above all, peace. We ask that they and their work embody the true nature of shalom: not the languid peace of quiet and stillness, but the sense of peace that comes from feeling whole and complete. May their holy work on behalf of the citizens of Virginia strive for the facilitation of more lives that are more whole and more complete.

HaKadosh Baruch Hu - Holy One Of Blessing - we pray that the very best aspects of Divinity, and humanity, be present with these fine public servants as they carry out their noble responsibilities. We pray that they are able to work together - surmounting their differences in background, belief, theology, and ideology - in order to make life better for the citizens of Virginia. And we pray that through their labors, the most sacred aspects of Divinity - inclusion, respect, justice, and kindness - become manifest in our society.

Ken y'hi ratzon - may this be God's will. And let us all say together. Amen.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Teresa R. Sutherlin, Pastor of Lebanon Baptist Church, Saluda, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for another beautiful day and a new opportunity to serve you. We are grateful for every blessing that you have bestowed upon us. It is because of your mercy that we are not consumed, for your compassion never fails. They are new every morning, great is your faithfulness!

You have said that men are to always pray. You have invited us to come to you, when we are weary and burdened down. You promised rest from our labor. We have found your yoke is easy and your burdens are light, your Word is true! You still speak "peace be still" to storms that rage in our lives. When you speak they cease! Please continue to talk to us with that "still small but powerful voice." You give us hope, you renew our strength, you calm our fears and remind us that all things are possible if we only believe!

We are sustained by our faith and the promise that you will never leave us nor forsake us. Thank you for your compassion that never fails, your love that is everlasting, your grace that is always sufficient, and your abundant mercy.

You told us to pray for those in authority for all leaders, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life. We pray today for our President, and his Cabinet, every Governor, every Senator, every Delegate, and for every branch of our government. Fill them with your love, wisdom, understanding, integrity of heart, peace, joy, and your mercy. Help us to always be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle and kind. God, please continue to bless America! We pray for unity and that your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. In the name of Jesus the Christ we pray and give you thanks. Amen.

2. The Department of Education is directed to determine the selection of up to a maximum of five diverse school divisions across the state to participate in such pilots. The eligibility criteria for the selected school divisions will be based on a combination of those school divisions where student eligibility for free or reduced lunch exceeds 45.0 percent and the school division has a percentage of schools within the division that are not fully accredited that exceed the statewide average of such accreditation status. The selected eligible school divisions shall receive $4.95 for each student enrolled in kindergarten, grades three, seven and ten, as reported for September 30, 2017, membership and who have received such optional vision screenings by March 31, 2018. Each selected school division shall not receive more than $60,000 in total funding for the costs associated with such optional vision screenings for the eligible participating students. Selected school divisions are encouraged to use local funds and private donations to pay for screening costs that exceed the state allocation for such appropriate vision screenings for any remaining eligible students not screened.
3. Each of the selected school divisions shall report to the Department of Education the number of students screened by grade level and by school no later than May 15, 2018. The Department of Education is directed to compile the submitted data from the selected school divisions and provide a compiled data report to the Chairmen of House Education, House Appropriations, Senate Education and Health and Senate Finance Committees no later than June 30, 2018."

The Fund shall also consist of such moneys as shall be appropriated by the General Assembly and any private donations. Interest earned on moneys in the Fund shall remain in the Fund and be credited to it.

2. The Fund shall be administered by the Adjutant General. Moneys in the Fund shall be used for the purpose of acquisition, construction, improvement or equipping of Readiness Centers and/or other facilities necessary for the Department's operations or the operational expenses of the Department's facilities.

3. Expenditures from the Fund shall be subject to appropriation through an appropriations bill passed by the General Assembly. Expenditures and disbursements from the Fund shall be made by the State Treasurer on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon written request signed by the Adjutant General. Any moneys remaining in the Fund, including interest thereon, at the end of each fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund but shall remain in the Fund.

4. The Department of Military Affairs and the Department of General Services shall evaluate the use of real property under the possession and control of the Department of Military Affairs, consistent with the respective obligations of such departments under § 2.2-1153, Code of Virginia, and shall develop a strategic plan for use, sale or disposal of any such real property that is deemed to be surplus to the Department of Military Affairs' current or proposed needs. With respect to Readiness Centers, such plan shall be consistent with the Department of Military Affairs' Readiness Center Transformation Master Plan, as approved by the federal National Guard Bureau, in order to achieve the objectives of the transformation plan. Any such surplus real property being considered for sale or disposal for the purposes of contributing proceeds to the Military Affairs Trust Fund shall be disposed of in accordance with §§ 2.2-1150 or 2.2-1156, Code of Virginia, for not less than fair market value as supported by more than one appraisal performed by independent appraisers licensed as Virginia Certified General Real Estate Appraisers. The Department of General Services shall be responsible for obtaining and reviewing such appraisals, and provide the results of the appraisals, with a recommendation of the fair market value of the appraised real property based upon such appraisals, to the Department of Military Affairs. The Department of Military Affairs will be responsible to fund the cost to obtain the required appraisals. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Item 4-8.03 #1h

Local Governments

"§ 4-8.03 LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

a. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall establish a workgroup to develop a proposed system of financial and other indicators, from readily available data, to serve as an early warning mechanism to signal the presence of possible local fiscal distress within local governments in Virginia. Fiscal distress as used in this context is meant to describe a situation whereby the provision and sustainability of public services is threatened by various administrative and financial shortcomings including but not limited to cash flow issues, inability to pay expenses, revenue shortfalls, deficit spending, structurally imbalanced budgets, billing and revenue collection inadequacies and discrepancies, debt overload, and/or lack of trained and qualified staff to process administrative and financial transactions. Fiscal distress may be caused by factors internal to the unit of government or external to the unit of government and in various degrees such conditions may be controllable by management or uncontrollable by management.

1. For localities that fall within preliminary threshold levels of fiscal distress, as recommended by the workgroup created pursuant to paragraph a. above, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall notify the head of the local governing body and the chief administrator of the locality and request additional information to further ascertain if there is cause for state concern, based on such factors as budget processes, debt, borrowing, expenses and payables, revenues and receivables, and other areas, and, if so, the scope of the issues involved. After such follow up, if the Auditor of Public Accounts is of the opinion that state assistance, oversight, or targeted intervention is needed, either to further assess, help stabilize, or remediate the situation, the Auditor shall notify the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee in writing outlining specific issues or actions that need to be addressed by state intervention.

2. The notification issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts pursuant to paragraph 1. above shall satisfy the notification requirement necessary to effectuate the provisions of this act in paragraph b.3. below.

b. The Director of the Department of Planning and Budget shall identify any amounts remaining unexpended from general fund appropriations in this act as of June 30, 2017, which constitute state aid to local governments. The Director shall provide a listing of such amounts designated by item number and by program on or before August 15, 2017, to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee.

1. From such unexpended balances identified by the Director of the Department of Planning and Budget, the Governor may reappropriate up to $500,000 from amounts which would otherwise revert to the balance of the general fund to establish a component of fund balance which may be used for the purpose of providing technical assistance and intervention actions for local governments deemed to be fiscally distressed and in need of intervention to address such distress. Any such reappropriation approved by the Governor, shall be separately identified in the commitments specified on the balance sheet and financial statements of the State Comptroller for the close of fiscal year 2017 and thereafter, to the extent that such reserve is not used or added to by future appropriation actions.

2. Prior to any expenditure of the reappropriated reserve, the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee must receive a notification from the Auditor of Public Accounts that a specific locality is in need of intervention because of a worsening financial situation. The Auditor of Public Accounts may issue such a notification upon receipt of audited financial or other information that indicates the existence of fiscal distress. But, no such notification shall be made until appropriate follow up and correspondence ascertains that, in the opinion of the Auditor of Public Accounts, such fiscal distress indeed exists. Such notification may also be issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts if written concerns raised about fiscal distress are not adequately addressed by the locality in question.

3. Once the Governor has received a notification from the Auditor of Public Accounts indicating fiscal distress in a specific local government, the Governor shall consult with the Chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee about a plan for state intervention prior to any expenditure of funds from the cash reserve. Any plan approved by the Governor for intervention should, at a minimum, specify the purpose of such intervention, the estimated duration of the intervention, and the anticipated resources (dollars and personnel) directed toward such effort. The staffing necessary to carry out the intervention plan may be assembled from either public agencies or private entities or both and the Governor may use an expedited method of procurement (sole source) to secure such staffing when, in his judgment, the need for intervention is of an emergency nature such that action must be taken in a timely manner to avoid or address unacceptable financial risks to the Commonwealth.

4. The governing body and the elected Constitutional Officers of a locality subject to an intervention plan approved by the Governor shall assist all state appointed staff conducting the intervention regardless of whether such staff are from public agencies or private entities. Intervention staff shall provide periodic reports in writing to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee outlining the scope of issues discovered and any progress to remediate such issues. These periodic reports shall specifically address the degree of cooperation the intervention team is receiving from locally elected officials, including constitutional officers, city, county, or town managers and other local personnel in regards to their intervention work.

5. The Department of General Services is hereby encouraged to develop a master contract of qualified private sector turnaround specialists that the Governor can use to procure intervention services in an expeditious manner when he determines that state intervention is warranted in situations of local fiscal distress."

contained in this act, shall be reflected by the Comptroller as committed on the June 30, 2017, preliminary balance sheet pursuant to the provisions of this enactment for the purposes of establishing a cash reserve to mitigate any potential revenue shortfalls that may arise during the remainder of the biennium.

B. To determine the amounts that are to be committed, the Comptroller shall first determine the revenues that were collected in excess of the revenues forecast in this act. He shall then reduce those revenues for the following adjustments:

1. Any amounts that must be restricted such as mandatory deposits to the Revenue Stabilization Fund.
2. Any amounts that normally would be committed or assigned pursuant to GASB standards.
3. Any amounts that must be committed for deposit to the Water Quality Fund from excess general fund revenue collections pursuant to § 10.1-2128 A., Code of Virginia.
4. Any other amounts that are required to be committed or assigned pursuant to any other items or provisions of this act, which would include mandatory carryforwards, unexpended balances in capital projects, and balances required to be carried forward for fiscal year 2018.

C. The amount that remains after deduction of the amounts listed above from the surplus revenues on June 30, 2017, shall be further reduced by fifty percent.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Jeff Butler, Pastor of Woodlawn Presbyterian Church, Hopewell, offered the following prayer:

Loving and Sovereign God,

I thank You for the variety of giftedness at work daily throughout these walls of the capitol. Each of these legislators, made in Your image, declare part of Your overall character.

Thank You for Your continued work through them, and as we seek Your wisdom and blessing this day, would Your guiding hand reveal a larger sense of how Your will would like to impact the Commonwealth.

Lord You love us with a deep and abiding love. As we honor and respect You at the beginning of this work day, would You also use our prayers for those in Washington. As they face the daunting challenge of finding in three branches of government Your unified will, would Your wisdom reign supreme.

Lord You once prayed that Your followers would be one, as You and Your Father were one. As today best efforts are offered with this goal in mind, both here and in Washington, I ask for the best display of Your Spirit to be present alongside these efforts undergirding the strong work with the joy of Your Presence, perseverance, and Your peace that passes all understanding. In Your name we pray. Amen.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2017

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend John S. Boquist, Pastor of Cardinal Baptist Church, Ruther Glen, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, to Whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from Whom no secrets are hid, we humbly ask that Your presence and guidance rest upon us today. We thank you for this House of Delegates and all other governing bodies which have been instituted by You.

As these delegates ponder, debate, and act upon legislative issues, help them put the good of the Commonwealth above the good of their parties or plans. Help them to readily agree with your Son, who prayed, "Not my will, but Yours."

Some of these are far away from their homes and loved ones. Bless them, especially in times of loneliness. Assure everyone here of Your love and presence through the power of Your Holy Spirit.

Now, may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, our Rock and our Redeemer. All this we humbly ask in the strong name of Your Son, Jesus, to Whom be glory forever and ever, world without end.

Amen.
