SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 78

Celebrating the life of William David Lamb.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 1, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 5, 2024

WHEREAS, William David Lamb of Gordonsville, one of the most well-known horsemen in Virginia, who helped promote and preserve equestrian sports in the Commonwealth and advocated for the interests of the equine industry as a whole, died on May 20, 2023; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb grew up in Craig County and began to cultivate his horsemanship skills at a young age; he often rode a pony to school and once organized a trail ride for his senior high school class; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb began his career in the equine industry working for a quarter horse farm in Northern Virginia, where he developed an interest in equestrian competitions, particularly the sport of cutting, which has its roots in the cattle ranching industry; and

WHEREAS, in the 1970s, David Lamb managed cattle on a farm in Albemarle County, for which he was named the 1973 Farmer of the Year for Albemarle County; during that time, he also trained and showed cutting horses and received numerous accolades for his success in equestrian sports; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb acquired Oakland Heights Farm in 1979, and he and his wife, Sally, began their horse operation by green breaking young and troubled horses; as his reputation for excellence grew, he began exporting horses to England and South America, then became the premier trainer for trail riding horses on the east coast of the United States; and

WHEREAS, at Oakland Heights Farm, David Lamb continued to run a cattle operation while teaching both Western-style and English-style horseback riding, organizing professional bull riding shows, and offering riding lessons and trail rides year round; and

WHEREAS, known for his affinity for the cowboy lifestyle of the American West, David Lamb could be seen mounted atop an American quarter horse in his trademark hat, boots, and blue jeans almost every day; he organized an annual Cowboy Camp to teach young people about horse knowledge and history and was a leader in the local 4-H program for more than 25 years; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb gave back to the community by hosting charity events at Oakland Heights Farm, supporting worthy causes and organizations like the Wounded Warrior Project, St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, and research into juvenile diabetes; and

WHEREAS, over the years, David Lamb hosted movie stars, an astronaut, and other celebrities at Oakland Heights Farm, and he organized special trail rides for state and national elected officials to help them better understand the equine industry; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb offered his wise insights to several policy efforts related to the equine industry, including the creation of the Commonwealth's equine liability law, the establishment of the Virginia Horse Center, the founding of the Virginia Horse Industry Board, and the enactment of other important changes related to agriculture and agritourism laws; and

WHEREAS, highly admired in the equine industry, David Lamb was a lifetime member of the American Quarter Horse Association, Virginia Quarter Horse Association (VQHA), National Cutting Horse Association, East Coast Cutting Horse Association, and the New Castle Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, in 2022, David Lamb was inducted into the VQHA Board of Directors Hall of Fame for his decades of contributions to promoting the sale, breeding, exhibition, and ownership of the American quarter horse; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb was a proud patriot who served the nation as a member of the United States Army Reserve, and he provided horses for, or participated in, many commemorative events at the state and national levels; and

WHEREAS, David Lamb inspired others through his integrity, humility, and pride in his work; he touched countless lives by helping visitors to Oakland Heights Farm gain an appreciation for the joys of horseback riding; and

WHEREAS, predeceased by his wife of 52 years, Sally, David Lamb will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his son, Matthew, and his family; and by numerous other family members, friends, and fellow leaders in the equine industry; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of William David Lamb, an incomparable horseman and a true Virginia gentleman; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of William David Lamb as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

WHEREAS, Susan Dewey was appointed to serve as State Treasurer and as an exofficio member of the Virginia Housing Board of Commissioners by Governor Jim Gilmore in 1995; and

WHEREAS, in 1999, Susan Dewey began laying the foundation of her legacy as a champion for affordable housing and a forward-looking steward of the Commonwealth's housing finance agency; and

WHEREAS, in 2001, Susan Dewey was appointed by the Virginia Housing Board of Commissioners and began modernizing the authority's business model and system, including the establishment of the Resources Enabling Affordable Community Housing (REACH) Virginia program in 2006, which has allowed the authority to reinvest more than $915 million in excess net revenues for grants, down payment assistance, interest rate buydowns, and other tools and resources for critical housing needs; and

WHEREAS, Susan Dewey has been instrumental in increasing stakeholder input and transparency around Virginia Housing's policies and programs through the creation of six advisory councils, most recently creating the Minority Business Advisory Council and supporting a multifaceted Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (IDEA) initiative; and

WHEREAS, Susan Dewey oversaw the creation and revitalization of housing across the spectrum of need, helping more than 136,000 Virginians achieve the dream of homeownership, producing almost 101,000 units of rental housing, building the first three-dimensional-printed home in Richmond, and more; and

WHEREAS, under Susan Dewey's leadership, Virginia Housing successfully navigated two generational challenges, the Great Recession and the COVID-19 pandemic, without the disruption of services and also provided resources to prevent foreclosure and eviction, underscoring the authority's status as a national model for state housing finance agencies; and

WHEREAS, Susan Dewey is a dedicated public servant who has continued to support the people and communities of the Commonwealth as a steward of Virginia Housing's resources and its mission; she has received numerous honors for her work, including a Housing Visionary Award from the National Housing Conference; and

WHEREAS, Susan Dewey is a true titan and innovator of the housing community, whose vision was informed by compassion; she delivered meaningful results and fundamentally positioned Virginia Housing for enduring success as an effective, resilient agency and partner, and one of the top housing finance agencies in the country; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Susan F. Dewey on the occasion of her retirement from Virginia Housing; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Susan F. Dewey as an expression of the General Assembly's congratulations and admiration for her distinguished career serving the Commonwealth.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 8, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 12, 2024

WHEREAS, Major General Timothy P. Williams, VNG, retired on July 1, 2023, as the Adjutant General of the Virginia National Guard after more than 37 years of service to the Commonwealth and the United States; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams is a lifelong Virginian and 1985 graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University; he was subsequently commissioned as a field artillery officer in the United States Army and served in staff and command positions at the battery, battalion, and brigade levels beginning with a tour on active duty with what was then the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams joined the Virginia Army National Guard in 1990 and spent most of his distinguished military career as a traditional status national guard soldier while also working as a federal civil servant; his military career culminated in his appointment as director of training support and doctrine at the Combined Arms Support Command at what is now Fort Gregg-Adams; and

WHEREAS, on June 2, 2014, Major General Williams was sworn in to lead the Virginia Army National Guard, Virginia Air National Guard, and Virginia Defense Force, and he was reappointed to that position in 2018; since then, he has led the Virginia National Guard with distinction, maintaining an unprecedented operational tempo at home and abroad and overseeing new force structure innovations and facilities improvements; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure as adjutant general Major General Williams ensured Virginia National Guard personnel were properly trained and equipped and well prepared to safeguard the lives and property of Virginians and to support law-enforcement organizations during multiple periods of civil unrest in the Commonwealth and Washington, D.C., including the "Unite the Right" rally in August 2017, protests in multiple Virginia locations in June 2020, and the immediate response to the events of January 6, 2021, and with the deployment of more than 2,900 personnel to augment security for the presidential inauguration in January 2021; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams prioritized readiness for domestic response operations so that when hazardous weather affected the Commonwealth, Virginia National Guard personnel were available to assist local, state, and federal emergency response organizations; he also helped mobilize a response force of nearly 500 troops to assist with hurricane response in the U.S. Virgin Islands in 2017; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams guided the Virginia National Guard through more than 460 days of support to Virginia's COVID-19 pandemic response, with personnel assisting at vaccination and testing sites and providing administrative, logistics, and planning support at locations across the Commonwealth; during the COVID-19 pandemic response operations, nearly 600 members of the Virginia National Guard and Virginia Defense Force completed more than 1,100 missions to help keep their fellow Virginians safe, and they supported nearly 160 local, state, and federal agencies over the course of the mobilization; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams was a driving force behind the creation of the 91st Cyber Brigade, the first Army National Guard cyber brigade, the establishment of the 185th Cyber Operations Squadron, and the reassignment of the United States Air Force F-22 Formal Training Unit to Langley Air Force Base; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams and the members of the Virginia National Guard provided critical support when Fort Barfoot was selected as one of eight safe havens in the United States designated to provide transportation, temporary housing, medical screening, and general support for Afghan evacuees as part of Operation Allies Welcome; more than 10,000 Afghan guests were processed through the installation during the resettlement effort; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams set new goals for facilities improvements with the construction of the Virginia National Guard's first purpose-built headquarters building at Defense Supply Center Richmond, the first dedicated headquarters building for the Virginia Air National Guard at Langley Air Force Base, and the new headquarters for the 91st Cyber Brigade and 185th Cyber Operations Squadron; he also spearheaded significant improvements in training capabilities and quality of life facilities at Fort Barfoot and the State Military Reservation; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams provided leadership and historical perspective in the effort to rename Fort Pickett as Fort Barfoot, helped ensure the 29th Infantry Division retain its insignia, and developed a new insignia for the Virginia National Guard Joint Force Headquarters that is a better representation of Virginia National Guard history with colors linked to the Continental Army and the nation's fight for independence during the Revolutionary War; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams oversaw the historic federal active duty mobilizations of more than 2,000 soldiers and airmen in the United States and overseas from August 2021 to February 2023, the third most in the last century; during that time, Virginia National Guard soldiers on duty in the United States provided support to a U.S. Department of Defense-approved mission assisting U.S. Customs and Border Protection on the southwest border and to United States Cyber Command, while soldiers and airmen deployed overseas provided support to operations in Iraq, Kuwait, the Horn of Africa, Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Kosovo, and the United Arab Emirates; and

WHEREAS, Major General Williams is married to his college sweetheart, Cheryl, who has been the epitome of a military spouse throughout his career; she has been a tireless proponent for the military and especially the National Guard, and her active participation, advocacy, and support have been critical to the Virginia National Guard team; the couple are blessed with three adult children and three adorable grandchildren; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Major General Timothy P. Williams, VNG, on the occasion of his retirement as adjutant general of the Virginia National Guard; and, be it

Carrico Professionalism Course, and is a current faculty member of the Professionalism for Law Students Course; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Mayne received numerous awards and accolades for her achievements as an attorney and a jurist, including the George Mason University Alumni Service Award, an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell for her legal expertise and professionalism, and the 2013 Influential Woman of Virginia award for her leadership in establishing best practices for default judgment scenarios involving purchased debt cases; and

WHEREAS, over the course of her career, Lisa Mayne has served the Fairfax community and the Commonwealth with the utmost integrity, dedication, and distinction; after her well-earned retirement, she plans to continue serving as a recall judge, travel with her husband, Paul, and spend time visiting her stepdaughters and grandchildren; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Honorable Lisa A. Mayne on the occasion of her retirement as a judge; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Honorable Lisa A. Mayne as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for her service to the Fairfax community.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 126

Commending the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 22, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 26, 2024

WHEREAS, the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission, created by the General Assembly in 1964, will celebrate its 60th anniversary on September 5, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission (NVTC) began with an initial district of five jurisdictions, including the Counties of Arlington and Fairfax and the Cities of Alexandria, Fairfax, and Falls Church, with 11 elected officials from those jurisdictions and the chair of the State Highway Commission serving jointly as commissioners; and

WHEREAS, NVTC membership has grown to include Loudoun County and now has 21 commissioners, including six members of the General Assembly and a designee of the Secretary of Transportation; and

WHEREAS, the NVTC district now has a population of approximately two million people in a territory covering 1,000 square miles, connected by a robust transit network providing residents with 1.5 million transit trips each week on Metrorail, Virginia Railway Express (VRE), local and express bus services, and paratransit services; and

WHEREAS, the public transit network serving the NVTC district is a vital component of the region's transportation system that supports its overall quality of life and economic competitiveness, generating more than $1.5 billion in annual sales and income tax revenue for the Commonwealth, a 160 percent return on the state investment in these transit systems; and

WHEREAS, NVTC played a pivotal role in creating the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA), whereby the resulting interstate compact requires WMATA's Virginia board members to be appointed from among the NVTC's commissioners, who now provide additional oversight and reporting responsibilities as directed by an update to state code in 2018; and

WHEREAS, NVTC began to plan for commuter rail service at its first business meeting in 1964 and persevered until VRE began operations in 1992, a system now co-owned with the Potomac and Rappahannock Transportation Commission that has carried more than 95 million riders; and

WHEREAS, NVTC initiated the first transit service to run on dedicated bus lanes with the NVTC Shirley Highway Express-Bus-on-Freeway Demonstration Project, serving as a model for future Express and Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) corridors, including the regional Envision Route 7 BRT planned for the Cities of Alexandria and Falls Church and the Counties of Arlington and Fairfax; and

WHEREAS, NVTC launched the innovative Commuter Choice program in 2017, which has invested more than $150 million in toll revenues for projects that have moved more than five million people through the congested Interstate-66 and Interstate-395/95 corridors while reducing vehicle emissions by 69 percent, saving 1.1 million hours of travel time and $14.5 million in fuel costs, and preventing more than 130 vehicle crashes; and

WHEREAS, NVTC manages financial resources from federal, state, regional, and local partners exceeding $400 million annually, while demonstrating sound fiscal management of public funds and establishing a set of stringent internal controls to manage NVTC's complex financial role in the region, resulting in unblemished independent audits; and

WHEREAS, NVTC consistently promotes transit innovations leading to improved efficiency, environmental stewardship, and customer service, including advanced fare payment systems, hybrid and zero-emission bus technologies, improved bus speeds on local and interstate routes, bus stop improvements, and policy considerations for fare-free transit; and

WHEREAS, NVTC has managed numerous successful public transit marketing campaigns in coordination with the Department of Rail and Public Transportation, the jurisdictions that make up NVTC, the local bus systems in Northern Virginia, and VRE to promote transit use throughout the region; and

WHEREAS, NVTC routinely leads regional planning efforts to provide coordinated emergency responses by Northern Virginia's transit systems to facilitate faster transit reactions and better communication with customers, police, fire departments, and other public safety personnel during emergencies and transit system shutdowns; and

WHEREAS, NVTC provides ongoing and extensive data analysis of Northern Virginia public transit trends to better understand how our transit network serves our region in terms of service area coverage, connectivity, ridership, service levels, and accessibility; and

WHEREAS, NVTC conducts policy and financial analyses to support funding and legislative actions including conducting regional transit needs assessments, regional economic impact studies, and evaluation of the impact of federal and state policy and funding actions on the public transit systems that serve Northern Virginia; and

WHEREAS, in 60 years of leadership in transit system development, expansion, funding, and research, each of the current and former board members and staff of the NVTC have played an integral role in building and operating the transit network required to sustain the regional economy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission on the occasion of its 60th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to Matt de Ferranti, chair, and Kate Mattice, executive director, of the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission as an expression of the General Assembly's congratulations on reaching this landmark in the commission's history and appreciation for the leadership of the commission in promoting public transit and other sustainable commuting options in Northern Virginia to the benefit of the region and the entire Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff joined the faculty of the University of Virginia School of Law (UVA Law) in 2002 and became its dean in 2016; in addition to her deanship, she is currently the Arnold H. Leon Professor of Law, teaching courses on American constitutional and civil rights law; and

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff is an award-winning scholar whose publications include Vagrant Nation: Police Power, Constitutional Change, and the Making of the 1960s and The Lost Promise of Civil Rights; and

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff made history at UVA Law both by becoming the school's first female dean and through her achievements in the areas of faculty hiring, fundraising, and student experience; and

WHEREAS, over her eight-year tenure, Risa Goluboff secured the hiring of 34 new faculty members and established 13 new centers to advance their scholarship, contributing greatly to the academic rigor of UVA Law and to the impact the school has on the broader legal community; and

WHEREAS, under Risa Goluboff's leadership, UVA Law has increased its endowment by more than 76 percent to $831 million, with historic donations from Martha and Bruce Karsh resulting in the establishment of the Karsh-Dillard Scholarships, the Karsh Center for Law and Democracy, and the Karsh Institute of Democracy; and

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff has shaped UVA Law into one of the preeminent law schools in the country, garnering the institution top rankings across various categories measuring academics and student life, including recognition as the number one school for Best Quality of Life by The Princeton Review each year of her tenure as dean; and

WHEREAS, through myriad initiatives, Risa Goluboff has bolstered opportunities for students seeking careers in both the public and private sectors and for those seeking court clerkships, leading UVA Law to recently post the nation's highest percentage of graduates obtaining full-time, long-term jobs requiring bar passage; and

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff served as chair of the UVA Deans Working Group following the 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville and has fostered a positive and supportive community at UVA throughout her tenure by championing accessibility and inclusivity at the school; and

WHEREAS, Risa Goluboff will remain a professor at UVA Law following her term as dean, ensuring the school will continue to benefit from her compassionate and visionary leadership for years to come; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Risa Goluboff, Arnold H. Leon Professor of Law at the University of Virginia School of Law, as she concludes her tenure as the school's dean; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Risa Goluboff as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for her accomplishments in service to the University of Virginia and the Commonwealth.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 29, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 4, 2024

WHEREAS, Matthew White Paxton, Jr., longtime editor and publisher of The News-Gazette in Lexington and an influential and beloved member of the communities of Lexington and Rockbridge County, died on September 23, 2023; and

WHEREAS, after serving in the United States Navy at the end of World War II, Matthew Paxton graduated from Washington and Lee University in 1949, where he was valedictorian and a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society; and

WHEREAS, after a stint as an educator, Matthew Paxton earned a master's degree in journalism from Columbia University and worked briefly for the Lynchburg News before becoming editor of the Rockbridge County News, which had been owned by his father and grandfather; and

WHEREAS, following the merger of the Rockbridge County News and the Lexington Gazette in 1962, Matthew Paxton served tirelessly as editor and publisher of The News-Gazette from its founding until his retirement in 1994, driven by an unwavering passion for informing his readers and contributing to the public discourse; and

WHEREAS, inspired by his love for his hometown and his dedication to its growth and development, Matthew Paxton helped to form both the Historic Lexington Foundation and the Lexington Downtown Development Association and served terms as president of each; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Paxton's unflagging concern for the health and well-being of others led him to support the creation of a continuing care retirement community in Lexington and to chair the first capital campaign for the Rockbridge Area Free Clinic, now the Rockbridge Area Health Center; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Paxton brought a knowledgeable perspective to a range of issues, leading him to serve on various boards over the years, including the Lexington-Rockbridge Chamber of Commerce, the Virginia Press Association, and the former Stonewall Jackson Hospital, now Carilion Rockbridge Community Hospital; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his years of service to the community, Matthew Paxton was named "Business Individual of the Year" by the Lexington-Rockbridge Chamber of Commerce in 1994; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Paxton was a lifelong member of Lexington Presbyterian Church, where he enjoyed worship and fellowship with his community, sang in the choir, and served as an elder and deacon; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Paxton will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by his loving wife of 70 years, Mary Raine; his children, Matthew IV, William, Macon, and Nell, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Matthew White Paxton, Jr., a venerable newsman and community leader whose commitment to Lexington and Rockbridge County made an impact on countless lives; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Matthew White Paxton, Jr., as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 140

Commending Linsey Chen Marr, Ph.D.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 29, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 4, 2024

WHEREAS, Linsey Chen Marr, Ph.D., an esteemed environmental engineer and the Charles P. Lunsford Professor in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, was named a MacArthur Fellow by the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation in 2023; and

WHEREAS, Linsey Marr joined the faculty at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University after graduating summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in engineering science from Harvard University, earning a doctorate in environmental engineering from the University of California at Berkeley, and completing postdoctoral training in earth, atmospheric, and planetary science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and

WHEREAS, Linsey Marr's research interests incorporate atmospheric science, public health, nanomaterials, and infectious disease as her studies investigate indoor and outdoor air quality and the ways in which airborne pathogens move through the environment and affect human health; and

WHEREAS, by drawing from both research on traditional particulate pollutants and chemical and biological studies of pathogens, Linsey Marr has helped to uncover how time, atmospheric conditions, and particle size determine virus viability in aerosols, greatly enhancing our ability to combat airborne infectious diseases; and

WHEREAS, from determining how humidity levels shape influenza virus stability and infectiousness to highlighting how COVID-19 may be carried by small aerosol particles, Linsey Marr has made significant contributions to our understanding of how infectious diseases are spread, leading to improved public health strategies and outcomes; and

WHEREAS, in addition to publishing her research in preeminent academic journals such as Science, Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, Clinical Infectious Diseases, and Environmental Science & Technology, Linsey Marr has also made an impact by effectively communicating her ideas to policymakers around the globe; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic and the threat of future pandemics underscore the importance of Linsey Marr's work, as her efforts carry with them the potential to improve quality of life and save lives around the world; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Linsey Chen Marr, Ph.D., a leading environmental engineer and the Charles P. Lunsford Professor in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, for being named a 2023 MacArthur Fellow; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Linsey Chen Marr, Ph.D., as an expression of the General Assembly's high regard for her contributions to science and to the health and well-being of our world.

WHEREAS, the Honorable Kenneth William Stolle, who has greatly served the interests of the Commonwealth and his community in his capacity as a law-enforcement leader and officer, public servant, and attorney, retired from his position as sheriff of the City of Virginia Beach in 2023; and

WHEREAS, Kenneth "Ken" Stolle graduated from Frank W. Cox High School in Virginia Beach and earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice before embarking upon a long and illustrious career in service to others as a law-enforcement officer with the Virginia Beach Police Department (VBPD); and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle rose to the rank of sergeant with the VPBD between 1976 and 1987 and was also commissioned in the United States Naval Reserve in 1983, serving his country with honor and distinction as an intelligence officer for eight years; and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle read law and was admitted to the Virginia State Bar in 1983, four years before he would leave the VBPD to practice law full time, first with the firm Bennett and Stolle, P.C., and later with Kaufman and Conoles; and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle's deep commitment to the well-being of the Commonwealth and its residents led him to serve as a member of the Senate of Virginia, representing the 8th Senatorial District from 1992 to 2010; and

WHEREAS, as a member of the Senate of Virginia, Ken Stolle served as majority whip and Republican Leader pro tempore and also chaired the Senate Committee for Courts of Justice, the Virginia State Crime Commission, and the Public Safety Subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Finance and Appropriations; and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle championed a number of measures in the Senate of Virginia to improve public safety, support law-enforcement officers and other first responders, promote small businesses, protect consumers, reduce taxes, ensure a robust education system for Virginia's students and families, and more; and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle was elected sheriff of the City of Virginia Beach in 2009 and has proudly and faithfully served the city and its residents until retiring in 2023; and

WHEREAS, over his tenure as sheriff, Ken Stolle implemented an array of innovative new programs and initiatives to enhance public safety and the quality of life in Virginia Beach and to bolster his agency's ability to carry out its mission; and

WHEREAS, Ken Stolle's service to the Commonwealth has included a strong commitment to the preservation of its natural resources and wildlife, and he has been a lifelong champion for programs that improve the health of game species by reducing overpopulation; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his tireless advocacy and service, Ken Stolle has received numerous accolades over the years, including prestigious awards from the Virginia Sheriffs' Association, Virginia State Lodge Fraternal Order of Police, Virginia Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators, Virginia Association of Chiefs of Police, and Virginia State Police Association; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Honorable Kenneth William Stolle, a pillar of the Virginia Beach community, on the occasion of his retirement as sheriff of the City of Virginia Beach; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Honorable Kenneth William Stolle as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his remarkable legacy of service and best wishes in his future endeavors.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 166

Commending the Central Virginia Cricket Association.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 29, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 4, 2024

WHEREAS, the Central Virginia Cricket Association has been tremendously successful in organizing and raising awareness for the sport of cricket in the Richmond area; and

WHEREAS, with exceptional help from Chesterfield and Henrico Counties, the Central Virginia Cricket Association (CVCA) has been instrumental to developing facilities to ensure the highest possible standards of play and officiating; and

WHEREAS, composed from different social leagues developed over the last 30 years, the CVCA facilitates and organizes competitive amateur cricket in the region; and

WHEREAS, CVCA tournament games are organized in Henrico and Chesterfield Counties, with teams and players from Henrico County, Chesterfield County, Richmond, Chesapeake, Hampton, Virginia Beach, Williamsburg, Charlottesville, and the Washington, D.C. area; and

WHEREAS, uniting individuals from very diverse backgrounds, the CVCA draws players from many different ethnicities; and

WHEREAS, historical records indicate that early Virginians William Byrd of Westover and Thomas Jefferson, grandfather of President Thomas Jefferson, played cricket; and

WHEREAS, the CVCA coordinates with other leagues in organizing and promoting different tournaments; and

WHEREAS, the CVCA works within its communities to promote youth cricket by facilitating and organizing youth tournaments; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Central Virginia Cricket Association for its years of promoting, organizing, and encouraging cricket in the Richmond area; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to Zulfi Khan for distribution to regional teams as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the Central Virginia Cricket Association's efforts to encourage growth in local cricket and best wishes for the organization's future.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 167

Commending the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 29, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 4, 2024

WHEREAS, electric cooperatives were formed during the 1930s and 1940s in hundreds of communities across the United States by rural citizens who joined together to provide themselves with the reliable electric service that their urban neighbors had enjoyed for years, thereby making farm life more comfortable and efficient, ultimately enabling American farmers to feed the world; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia REA Association was incorporated on July 7, 1944, by more than a dozen member-owned electric cooperatives in the Commonwealth to empower themselves and enable them to work together more effectively; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia REA Association advocated for cooperative members at the state level, facilitated the training of cooperative line workers, provided continuing education for cooperative engineers and other professionals, and, starting in 1946, communicated regularly with cooperative members through the Rural Virginia home-delivered newspaper, a periodical which is today known as Cooperative Living magazine and reaches millions of subscribers throughout the mid-Atlantic; and

WHEREAS, in the late 1940s, the Virginia REA Association began efforts to amalgamate the power purchases of its member cooperatives, and the power supply committee of the association eventually became Old Dominion Electric Cooperative, the cooperative-owned generation and transmission provider for the region, which the association and its member cooperatives incorporated in 1948; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia REA Association was later joined by electric cooperatives from neighboring states and became the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives has worked tirelessly and effectively for 80 years to provide high-quality services to its 16 member electric cooperatives, adding over the years to its original portfolio such additional services as mutual aid and recovery following natural disasters and regulatory and legal support programs; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives coordinates what is now one of the largest regional line worker rodeos in the nation, thereby burnishing its reputation as an excellent example of the Seven Cooperative Principles, in particular the principle of advocating Cooperation Among Cooperatives; and

WHEREAS, in the process of providing these crucial services for many decades, the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives has been and remains an important partner to the member systems it serves, facilitating reliable, affordable, environmentally sensitive, and safely delivered electricity that benefits 1.4 million Virginians and a total of two million citizens in the three states; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives on the occasion of its 80th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the association's achievements in service to its member cooperatives and communities throughout the Commonwealth.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 180

Celebrating the life Walter A. Marston, Jr.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Walter A. Marston, Jr., an honorable veteran, accomplished attorney, beloved father, grandfather, and friend, and longtime member of the Richmond legal community, died on January 12, 2024; and

WHEREAS, born on March 1, 1944, and raised in Mount Jackson, Walter Marston put himself through college and earned a bachelor's degree in international studies from George Washington University in 1966; and

WHEREAS, Walter Marston earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1969, then began a distinguished legal career that ultimately spanned five decades by prosecuting unscrupulous defense contractors as an attorney with the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, following his honorable discharge, Walter Marston served as an advisor to political campaigns for attorney general and governor before embarking on his career in private practice with the law firm of Hazel & Thomas in 1977; and

WHEREAS, as a partner at the law firms of Hazel & Thomas and Reed Smith LLP, and later as an owner of Marston & McNally, P.C., Walter Marston focused his legal talents on defending the Commonwealth's reserve powers to regulate the manufacture, importation, distribution, and sale of beverage alcohol granted to it under the Twenty-first Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, as legal counsel to the Virginia Beer Wholesalers Association and Virginia Wine Wholesalers Association for more than 40 years, Walter Marston dedicated himself to preserving the ability of independent family-owned businesses to provide Virginia consumers with the wide variety of alcoholic beverage products they enjoy today; and

WHEREAS, as a staunch defender of Virginia's three-tier system of alcohol distribution, Walter Marston was instrumental in the development of the Commonwealth's Beer Franchise Act, the 1993 recodification of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act; the 2007 Direct-to-Consumer Shipping Act, and the creation of the Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Authority in 2015, along with many other achievements to improve and strengthen the Commonwealth's ability to control beverage alcohol within its borders; and

WHEREAS, although Walter Marston was nationally recognized as an expert in the field of alcoholic beverage law, he gave freely of his time and expertise to educate, guide, and mentor generations of family business owners, attorneys, and legislators about the complexities attending this heavily regulated product; and

WHEREAS, even after achieving emeritus status at Marston & McNally in 2021, Walter Marston continued to serve his community pro bono by assisting veterans and health care workers in preparing their wills and estates; and

WHEREAS, despite the demands of his career, Walter Marston still found time to indulge his passion for wood working, gardening and sailing as captain of the Second Wind; and

WHEREAS, Walter Marston will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by his children, John and Elizabeth, and his grandchildren, Logan, Mackenzie, and Finley; his fiancé, Mary Lou Magill; her children, Jennifer and Courtney; her grandchildren, Will, Olivia, Jack, Everleigh, and Caroline; his sisters, Phyllis and Dolores; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Walter A. Marston, Jr., a son of the Shenandoah Valley and member of the Richmond legal community whose dedication, integrity, and selflessness were an inspiration to all who knew him; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Walter A. Marston, Jr., as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 192

Commending the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, for more than 70 years, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad has provided emergency medical services, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to residents of Henrico County and Richmond; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad was established on December 7, 1953, and originally operated out of the garage at Epiphany Lutheran Church near the intersection of Horsepen Road and Monument Avenue; and

WHEREAS, in its first year of operation, the 42 members of the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad responded to more than 300 calls for service with only one ambulance; and

WHEREAS, to better serve the community, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad moved further down Horsepen Road and operated out of two trailers, one for dispatch and one for crews, until work on a new station was completed in 1956; and

WHEREAS, as the community continued to grow, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad added more vehicles to its fleet and began receiving regular calls for specialized rescue operations like water rescues, aircraft emergencies, construction site accidents, and other situations where specialized equipment was required; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad adapted to meet these and other needs, ensuring its crews had the best tools and training to respond to any emergency situation; the squad began offering an emergency medical technician training course in 1972 and helped Richmond and Henrico County become some of the first localities in the Commonwealth to adopt the emergency 911 system in 1977; and

WHEREAS, in the 1980s, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad began admitting women as emergency medical technicians and adopted new technology like its first computer-aided dispatch system; the squad also received a donated plot of land on which it constructed its second station on Pump Road in Short Pump; and

WHEREAS, in 2023, the 120 highly trained and certified volunteer members of the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad answered more than 4,000 calls for service; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad has always been staffed entirely by volunteers; this includes staffing on all holidays, through major storms and weather events, and during the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad regularly provides extra units as requested by Henrico County for special standby duties, such as line-of-duty death services or coverage of stations, sporting events, and other large functions; and

WHEREAS, countless members of the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad have gone on to pursue careers in the healthcare profession, including as doctors, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and nurses; members have worked for state and federal entities and have been appointed to state and federal committees, all in the quest to guarantee quality medical services; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad has never billed a patient or their insurance company and still continues to provide all services free of charge, with operations funded by donations from local residents and community partners; the squad also sponsors a four-month emergency medical technician course for its members; and

WHEREAS, the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad works closely with local fire departments to provide efficient and effective service and recently entered into an agreement enabling the Henrico County Fire Department to use the squad's Pump Road station and one of its ambulances for their medical transport truck on a daily basis; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad on the occasion of its 70th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Tuckahoe Volunteer Rescue Squad as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the squad's legacy of service to the residents of Henrico County.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 193

Commending Eugene E. Gerald.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Eugene E. Gerald, who responded to countless emergencies, led generations of firefighters, and supported his community with integrity and distinction, retired as assistant chief of the Henrico Division of Fire after more than 46 years of service; and

WHEREAS, Eugene "Cricket" Gerald began his career as a firefighter in 1976 and previously served as chief of the Beaverdam Volunteer Fire Department in Hanover County and the part-time operations chief for New Kent Fire-Rescue; and

WHEREAS, at the time of his retirement, Cricket Gerald was the longest serving member of the Henrico Division of Fire; he had been stationed at numerous firehouses throughout the county and spent decades developing, refining, and delivering operational doctrine to enhance engine, special service, and fire medic operations; and

WHEREAS, Cricket Gerald helped establish company officer training and mentoring programs to better prepare his fellow firefighters for the challenges of their profession, and he promoted the importance of servant-leadership in fire service to build strong relationships between public safety officers and the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, Cricket Gerald was a practicing emergency medical technician before the Henrico Division of Fire was officially involved in emergency medical services, and he served as one of the division's original ambulance attendants-in-charge; and

WHEREAS, Cricket Gerald was active in a wide range of division activities, including the standards of response coverage group, and facilitated the development of a rural water supply procedure; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his accomplishments, Cricket Gerald received the 2022 Glenn Gaines Leadership Legacy Award from the Virginia Fire Chiefs Association and the Henrico County Manager's Medal of Honor, a prestigious award that has been presented to fewer than five recipients; and

WHEREAS, Cricket Gerald also earned the Richmond Jaycees Community Service Award, the Ruritan Firefighter of the Year Award, the EMS Lifesaver Award, the Michael Holder Leadership Award, and the Fire Medal of Valor, among many other accolades; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Eugene E. Gerald on the occasion of his retirement as assistant chief of the Henrico Division of Fire; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Eugene E. Gerald as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his contributions to fire service at the local, regional, and state levels and legacy of service to the Henrico County community.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 198

Commending the Town of Louisa.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, the Town of Louisa, a vibrant community in Central Virginia and the county seat of Louisa County, was chartered more than 150 years ago; and

WHEREAS, Louisa County, named for Princess Louisa, the daughter of King George II and Queen Caroline of England, was founded in 1742, and the county seat, then known as Louisa Courthouse, was established in 1757; and

WHEREAS, in its early years, county residents would travel to Louisa Courthouse for monthly court sessions, while travelers would pass through the area on their way between Richmond and Charlottesville; and

WHEREAS, a local tavern in Louisa Courthouse posted legal notices, distributed mail and newspapers, sold small stocks of necessities, and provided a place of fellowship for the community; and

WHEREAS, Patrick Henry, who regularly practiced law in Louisa Courthouse, represented Louisa County in the House of Burgesses from 1765 to 1768; the Louisa County community fully supported the American Revolution, led by local heroes like Dabney Carr and Jack Jouett; and

WHEREAS, a postal road was constructed in 1800 along what is now State Route 208, which connected villages between the Rappahannock River and the James River until the landmark establishment of the Louisa Railroad in 1838; the railroad became a major factor in the growth of the community over the next several decades; and

WHEREAS, in June 1864, during the American Civil War, the Battle of Trevilian Station took place near Louisa, and the site has been preserved by the Trevilian Station Battlefield Foundation; and

WHEREAS, by the early 1870s, the village around Louisa Courthouse had grown to 250 residents, enough to justify incorporation of the Town of Louisa on March 8, 1873; the first meeting of the Louisa Town Council was held that day to discuss bylaws and local ordinances; and

WHEREAS, Louisa continued to grow and thrive, until 1888 when a tragic fire wiped out the east side of Main Street and paralyzed the town's business district; the long rebuilding process was accompanied by the installation of town water systems and other enhancements, along with the arrival in 1921 of what was then State Route 39, the first hard-surfaced road in town history; and

WHEREAS, from the late 1890s through the 1920s, Louisa earned a reputation as a summer resort town, where people from Richmond and the Virginia Peninsula came to enjoy country living away from the heat and humidity of the cities; and

WHEREAS, Louisa is home to numerous historic buildings, including four churches that existed at the time of the town's incorporation, as well as the 1905 Louisa County Courthouse, the 1907 Louisa High School building, and Boxley Place, a historic home dating to 1860; and

WHEREAS, in the modern era, Louisa has remained the chief commercial, legal, and professional center for all of Louisa County; since the 1870s, the town has grown through annexation multiple times, including the most recent expansion in 1977, which more than tripled the town's acreage and increased the population by 50 percent; and

WHEREAS, the Louisa community officially commemorated the 150th anniversary of the town charter during a special celebration on September 30, 2023; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Town of Louisa on the occasion of its 150th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Liz Nelson, town manager, and Garland Nuckols, mayor of the Town of Louisa, as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the town's rich history and legacy of contributions to the region and the Commonwealth.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 207

Commemorating the legacy of the Alexandria Library sit-in.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Alexandria established a public library in 1937, limiting access to only white citizens of Alexandria; and

WHEREAS, the African American citizens of Alexandria were not only denied access to the library but were also denied an equal facility dedicated to the African American community; and

WHEREAS, United States Army sergeant George Wilson and attorney Samuel W. Tucker applied for and were refused library cards in 1937, leading Samuel W. Tucker to plan and organize a peaceful protest at the library; and

WHEREAS, six courageous young African American men, William Evans, Otto Tucker, Edward Gaddis, Morris Murray, and Clarence Strange, as well as Robert Strange, who ran to notify Samuel Tucker that the police were arriving at the library, put Samuel Tucker's plan into action; and

WHEREAS, on August 21, 1939, five of the young men applied for and were denied library privileges at what is today Alexandria's Kate Waller Barrett Branch Library; and

WHEREAS, these men refused to comply with an order to leave the building and were arrested while reading in silent protest in the library's public reading room; and

WHEREAS, the City of Alexandria, after numerous delays and negotiations, established the Robinson Library in 1940, which was the "separate but equal" facility that purportedly served the "colored community" of Alexandria for more than 20 years after the 1939 sit-in; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria Library and the City of Alexandria acknowledge and apologize for their roles in these events and pledge to ensure that all residents have access to the public library, providing materials to meet their informational, recreational, and educational needs, regardless of age, race, gender, and socioeconomic status; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria Library is commemorating the 85th anniversary of the sit-in throughout 2024 by celebrating the "legacy of courage" of William Evans, Otto Tucker, Edward Gaddis, Morris Murray, Clarence Strange, and Robert Strange through programming, guest speaker talks, book displays, performances, and other ceremonial events; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria Library will continue to honor this legacy of the historic peaceful protest, which was ahead of its time, by establishing a "Sit-In Meeting Room" at the Kate Waller Barrett Library to remember the courageous actions of those men; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commemorate the legacy of the Alexandria Library sit-in on the occasion of its 85th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to representatives of the Alexandria Library as an expression of the General Assembly's appreciation for the role of that event in setting the Alexandria Library, the City of Alexandria, the Commonwealth, and the United States on a correct course toward respecting all people and supporting them in their pursuit of knowledge and happiness.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 224

Commending Mount Eagle Elementary School.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Mount Eagle Elementary School, an outstanding public primary school in Fairfax County, celebrates its 75th anniversary in 2024; and

WHEREAS, with the significant growth of the Fairfax County community after the end of World War II, Mount Eagle Elementary School was one of four "emergency schools" built by Fairfax County Public Schools to address overcrowding; and

WHEREAS, Mount Eagle Elementary School took its name from the nearby Mount Eagle mansion, former home of the Reverend Bryan Fairfax, the first American-born Lord Fairfax, who was a contemporary of George Washington; and

WHEREAS, originally just a cement building with only four classrooms, Mount Eagle Elementary School opened in 1949 and enrolled about 100 students; by the start of the next school year, enrollment had doubled to more than 200 children, and it became necessary to operate school on a half-day basis, splitting the students into two groups who attended classes in separate morning and afternoon shifts; and

WHEREAS, in its first year of operation, Mount Eagle Elementary School's head teacher, Josephine Gutshall Fox, was named the school's first principal; she oversaw several additions to the original school building to accommodate the continuous student growth during the beginning of the Baby Boom; and

WHEREAS, Mount Eagle Elementary School was racially segregated until the 1965-1966 school year, when all Fairfax County public schools were integrated; today, 70 percent of the student body is Latino and 12 percent is African American; and

WHEREAS, Mount Eagle Elementary School currently enrolls about 330 students, all of whom are inspired by the school's focus on the Three C's: College-bound, Community, and Collaboration; and

WHEREAS, Mount Eagle Elementary School has benefited from the hard work of countless educators and staff members and the leadership of exceptional administrators like its current principal Jean Consolla; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Mount Eagle Elementary School on the occasion of its 75th anniversary in 2024; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Mount Eagle Elementary School as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the school's legacy of service to young people in Fairfax County.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 225

Commending Bucknell Elementary School.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Bucknell Elementary School, an outstanding public primary school in Fairfax County, celebrates its 70th anniversary in 2024; and

WHEREAS, Bucknell Elementary School is the smallest elementary school in Fairfax County, serving approximately 300 students; the school includes seven preschool classrooms and accommodates students with autism, students with disabilities, and students from low-income households; and

WHEREAS, 60 percent of the student body at Bucknell Elementary School is Hispanic, and many students speak Spanish at home; nearly the same percentage of students qualify for free or reduced-price lunch, meaning their family's income is very close to the federal poverty guidelines; and

WHEREAS, in 2015, state officials worked with a private donor, Cox Communications, and Christian Relief Services to deliver 120 new laptop computers for students to check out; this was one of the earliest one-to-one computer programs in Fairfax County and was particularly notable because many of the other programs were at schools serving more affluent populations; and

WHEREAS, the schedule at Bucknell Elementaty School includes Bulldog Time, a 30-minute block of time that gives every student a chance to receive individual or small-group support and academic intervention in math or reading, as well as extension activities for students who are at or above grade level; and

WHEREAS, family involvement is a key part of the instructional program at Bucknell Elementary School; the school recently formed its first-ever parent-teacher association and plans many family activities, including field trips to the zoo and to a Washington Nationals baseball game; and

WHEREAS, the Bucknell Elementary School Parent Center is open daily and serves as a community and educational resource for parents, as well as a place where parents can sign up for volunteer opportunities; and

WHEREAS, building relationships across grade levels is a benefit of Bucknell Elementary School's small size; sixth graders are paired with preschoolers for mentorship opportunities, and students can match with other peer mentors at West Potomac High School to receive homework help and school-success coaching; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Bucknell Elementary School on the occasion of its 70th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Bucknell Elementary School as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for its service to generations of students in Fairfax County.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 226

Commending Hybla Valley Elementary School.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School, an outstanding public primary school in Fairfax County, celebrates its 60th anniversary during the 2024-2025 academic year; and

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School was constructed on land that was originally part of Hybla Valley Airport and officially opened in 1964; and

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School opened at a time when Fairfax County Schools was implementing racial integration, and it accepted students from the all-Black Drew-Smith Elementary School, laying the foundations of what is now a diverse and inclusive school community; and

WHEREAS, in January 2024, the Hybla Valley Elementary School student body consisted of 888 students in prekindergarten through sixth grade; 571 of those students, more than 60 percent of the school, receive English learner services, while 117 students receive special education support and 82 percent of students qualify for free or reduced price lunch; and

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School recently completed a three-year renovation project, which added 31,000 square feet of additional classroom and learning space; and

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School's mascot is the Huskies, and the school motto is "Hybla Valley Believes in All Our Huskies"; and

WHEREAS, family involvement is an important component of the sense of community at Hybla Valley Elementary School, with regular social events like family game nights; the school has also cultivated strong relationships with partners like Alfred Street Baptist Church and Lockheed Martin to further enhance the learning process; and

WHEREAS, Hybla Valley Elementary School has benefited from the hard work of countless educators and staff members and the leadership of exceptional administrators like its first principal, Harriett G. Trites, former principal Nellie B. Quander, who was the president of the National Association of Elementary School Principals and appointed to the Virginia State Board for Community Colleges, and current principal Lauren Sheehy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Hybla Valley Elementary School on the occasion of its 60th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Hybla Valley Elementary School as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the school's decades of contributions to young people in the Fairfax County community.

WHEREAS, Avelina Jacob presided over the court with great fairness and wisdom and was at times the court's only full-time judge, ably handling a heavy caseload; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure on the bench, which included terms as chief judge, Avelina Jacob served the Commonwealth with the utmost integrity, dedication, distinction, and a good sense of humor; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Honorable Avelina S. Jacob on the occasion of her retirement as a judge; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Honorable Avelina S. Jacob as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for her service to the residents of Northern Virginia and the Commonwealth as a whole.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 246

Commending the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2024

WHEREAS, for 75 years, the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department has safeguarded the residents and property of the Fairfax County community; and

WHEREAS, the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department trains firefighters to provide a full complement of fire suppression, technical rescue, swift water rescue, hazardous materials remediation, and emergency medical services, including basic and advanced life support and emergency medical transportation; and

WHEREAS, the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department is a career and volunteer all hazards department, ready to respond to any crisis or emergency the county may face; and

WHEREAS, since its humble beginning in July 1949, the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department has evolved from 10 skilled members to a complex agency responsible for meeting the emergency needs of more than one million residents; and

WHEREAS, today, nearly 1,400 uniformed men and women of the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department operate from 39 fire and rescue stations strategically positioned throughout Fairfax County, while approximately 180 civilians provide key support functions from headquarters and other locations; and

WHEREAS, the courageous, highly trained members of the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department have served residents with dedication and distinction and helped make the Fairfax County community a safe place to live, work, and raise a family; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department for its legacy of service on the occasion of its 75th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the department's history and its contributions to the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 2

2024 Session operating resolution.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 10, 2024

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Comptroller is directed to issue his warrants on the Treasurer, payable from the contingent fund of the Senate, to accomplish the work of the Senate of Virginia as reported by the Clerk of the Senate to the Senate Committee on Rules during the 2024 Session. Necessary payments to cover salaries of temporary employees and the Pages, per diem for legislative assistants who establish a temporary residence, per diem for Pages and certain employees designated by the Clerk and reported to the Chair of the Senate Committee on Rules, as well as other contingent and incidental expenses, will be certified by the Clerk of the Senate or her designee. Per diem for orientation will be paid as approved by the Clerk.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 3

Establishing the Rules of the Senate.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 10, 2024

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the following are adopted as the Rules of the Senate to supersede all previous Rules of the Senate:

RULES OF THE SENATE

I.

Presiding Officer.

1. The presiding officer of the Senate shall be the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth as the President of the Senate in accordance with Article V, Section 14, of the Constitution.

2 (a). There shall be elected by the Senate, on the first day of the session following the election of the Senate, a President pro tempore who shall serve for a term coincident with the member's current term of office and be a senior member in the Senate.

2 (b). In the event of the absence, disability, or vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall carry out the duties of the Lieutenant Governor as presiding officer.

2 (c). The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open session, or if the President pro tempore is absent, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

2 (d). In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, or whenever the powers and duties of the Governor shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore shall have the right to name, in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer during the absence of the President pro tempore; and the Senator so named shall have the right to name, in open session, or in writing, if he is absent, a Senator to perform the duties of the presiding officer, but such substitution shall not extend beyond adjournment of a daily session, except by unanimous consent of those present.

3. The presiding officer, after taking the Chair pursuant to these Rules, and a quorum being present, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The reading of the Journal may be waived by a majority of those Senators present and voting. The reading of the Journal may be waived at a reconvened session of a special session by at least two members present and voting, only if there is no business to consider in accordance to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia. Any errors in the entries shall be corrected, and the Journal being found correct, shall be signed by the presiding officer for that day and the Clerk of the Senate. The Journals, when so signed, shall be the official records of the proceedings of the Senate.

4. If any question is put upon a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall state the same without argument.

II.

Membership, Attendance, and Adjournment.

5. A member of the Senate shall be a Senator elected to represent one of the 40 senatorial districts. A majority of Senators shall constitute a quorum to do business; two may adjourn, and nine may order a call of the Senate, send for absentees, and make any order for their censure or discharge. However, not less than 16 may meet by proclamation of the Governor under the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution. At a special session or a reconvened session of a special session when there is no business to consider in accordance with Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia, two members may convene the Senate, dispense with the reading of the Journal, recess or adjourn the Senate.

6. No Senator shall absent himself from the service of the Senate without leave.

III.

The Pages.

7. The Senate shall elect 20 Pages in accordance with an appointment process approved by the Clerk, in consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, that includes geographical diversity and ensures that each Senator has an appointment for one long (60 days) session and one short (46 days) session during a term. Six Pages shall be appointed by the following: one by the Lieutenant Governor; one by the President pro tempore; one by the chair of the caucus of the majority party; one by the majority leader; one by the chair of the caucus of the minority party; and one by the minority leader. The Clerk may also appoint such number of additional Pages as may be required. The Pages shall be no less than 13 and no more than 14 years of age at the time of election or appointment, shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall be elected or appointed for a term of one year. No Page shall be eligible for reelection. Any such Page so elected or appointed may be suspended or dismissed for cause by the Clerk of the Senate.

IV.

The Clerk of the Senate.

8 (a). A Clerk of the Senate shall be elected by the Senate for a term of four years and shall thereafter continue in office until another is chosen. The oath of office shall be administered to the Clerk of the Senate by any person qualified by law to administer oaths. If a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the Senate occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, a successor shall be elected by the Committee on Rules to serve until the first day of the next session, at a meeting to be called by the Chair, or in his absence or inability to act, the next senior member of such Committee able and willing to do so. At least five days' notice by certified mail of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given all members of the Committee, and, at such meeting, the person receiving the votes of a majority of the members present and voting shall be elected to fill the vacancy.

8 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of the public seal and design of armorial bearings of the Senate.

8 (c). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the custodian of all records and papers of the Senate and the Clerk shall not suffer any such records or papers to be taken from the Clerk's desk or out of the Clerk's custody by any person except the Chair or the clerk of a Committee, or any Senator on taking receipts for same. Amendments agreed to by the Senate shall be handled only by the Clerk of the Senate, or staff members designated by the Clerk.

8 (d). It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to refer all bills and resolutions to the appropriate standing Committee or the Committee on Rules as provided in these Rules. If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing committee or the Committee on Rules, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

8 (e). The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list of the Senators in order of seniority. Seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the Senate. However, if a Senator has previous interrupted service in the Senate, then the beginning date of such previous Senate service shall qualify the Senator for seniority before those Senators elected at the same time not having previous service in the Senate, and if a Senator has previous service in the House of Delegates then seniority shall be based upon longest continuous service in the House of Delegates and shall qualify the Senator to seniority before those Senators elected to the Senate at the same time not having previous service in the House of Delegates. Senators elected at the same time without previous service in the Senate or House of Delegates shall have their seniority determined by a public drawing of lots, conducted by the Clerk of the Senate, to which all Senators involved shall be invited to attend. After the name of each Senator there shall be indicated the name of the political party under which the Senator was elected or abbreviation of the same; e.g., "Rep." or "Dem." If a Senator was not elected as a nominee of a political party, then such Senator shall be listed as an Independent, or "Ind."; however, if any Senator is elected at a special or general election and such Senator has, prior to such election, declared himself in writing a member of a political party during and prior to such election and the political party of his choice did not hold a convention or call a primary election for such election, such Senator shall be listed as a member of the party of which he declared himself a member.

8 (f). The Clerk of the Senate, after the election of Senators, shall assign chamber desks to the individual Senators with the Senators elected as members of the majority party in the Senate in the chamber area beginning at the north side of the chamber until all such desks have been assigned, and then the Senators elected as members of the minority party in the Senate, and then any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. The Clerk of the Senate shall also assign office space in such buildings as may be made available for the use of the Senate. Whenever feasible, the Clerk of the Senate shall give due consideration in assigning chamber desks and office space to the seniority and request of a Senator. However, the chamber desk or office space of a Senator having immediate prior service in the Senate shall not be reassigned unless he shall so request the Clerk of the Senate.

Should any Senator, however, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct, or if a special election results in a change of political party membership, the Clerk of the Senate, upon such change in political party membership or the caucus of such party, is authorized to reassign chamber desks and office space accordingly.

8 (g). The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members of the Senate, their legislative support staff, the staff of the Senate, the facilities and space for those charged with the maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other person or persons, except by vote of the Committee on Rules.

8 (h). During the sessions, the Clerk shall provide office supplies for official use by the Senators.

9. The Journal of the Senate shall be daily drawn up by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be read the succeeding day, unless the reading thereof is waived as provided in these Rules; it shall be printed under the supervision of the Clerk of the Senate and delivered to the Senators without delay.

10 (a). The Clerk of the Senate shall appoint a chief deputy clerk and such staff as necessary to perform the work of the Senate. The Clerk may also appoint such number of additional Pages as may be required. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such committee clerks as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chairs of the several Committees. The Clerk of the Senate shall also appoint such additional committee staff as may be necessary after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. All committee clerks so appointed shall remain in the Capitol or other legislative facilities during the daily sessions of the Senate, and committee clerks shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation by the Clerk of the Senate and with the approval of the Chair of each such Committee. Additional committee staff shall be assigned for duties with various standing Committees by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. Each clerk shall perform any other duties that the Clerk of the Senate shall require, when not employed by their respective standing Committees. Clerks may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. Additional committee staff may be removed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with, and the approval of, the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Clerk of the Senate shall have supervision over all employees of the Senate.

10 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

11 (a). Before reading each bill or resolution by title, the Clerk of the Senate shall announce, either by individual bill or resolution or en bloc, whether it is the first, second, or third time of such reading.

11 (b). The Clerk of the Senate shall keep at the Clerk's desk, during the sittings of the Senate, a calendar that shows the business of the Senate. The Clerk shall make available to each member, before the assembling of the Senate each day, a calendar of pending bills and resolutions. The Clerk shall prepare a list of all bills and resolutions offered on the preceding day, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills or resolutions, and the Committees to which the same have been referred under these Rules.

12. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate, without special order therefor, to communicate to the House of Delegates any action of the Senate upon business coming from the House of Delegates, or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body, but no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the Senate while it remains open for consideration.

13. The Clerk of the Senate shall, at the beginning of the term after the election of Senators, have printed the Senate manual and rules, the Constitution of Virginia, and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Senators.

14 (a). Whenever the Clerk of the Senate is absent, the chief deputy clerk appointed pursuant to law and these Rules shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the Clerk of the Senate by law and these Rules, by and with the consent of the Committee on Rules.

14 (b). In the discharge of all the duties assigned to the Clerk, and such other duties as the Clerk may from time to time undertake, the Clerk shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules.

V.

Sergeant-at-Arms ~~and Doorkeepers~~.

15. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected by the Senate, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Committee on Rules for a term not exceeding four years. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules, his duties shall be prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

16. Except by order of the Senate, no Senator shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms on any grounds other than to quell a breach of the peace until the matter is examined by the Committee on Privileges and Elections and reported to the Senate.

17 (a). ~~The Doorkeepers shall be constantly at their post during the daily sessions of the Senate and shall permit no one~~ No one shall be permitted to enter freely or remain upon the floor of the Senate during the daily session, except the President of the Senate; members of the General Assembly; officers and employees of the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates; and representatives of the news media in such numbers as may be seated in accommodations provided for them at the press tables. The Committee on Rules shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber.

17 (b). Members of a Senator's family and such persons whom a Senator may invite shall be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery. Representatives of the news media who cannot be accommodated with seats at press tables on the floor may also be entitled to seats in a reserved section of the gallery.

17 (c). Fifteen minutes prior to the convening of every daily session, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall clear the floor of the Senate of all persons other than those who are authorized to be there during each session and shall not permit unauthorized persons upon the floor of the Senate for five minutes following the conclusion of every daily session.

17 (d). Interviews are not allowed in the Senate Chamber during the daily session or during the recesses during the daily session. Interviews in the Senate Chamber shall end 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the daily session and shall not commence until five minutes after the adjournment of the daily session.

17 (e). ~~Whenever any person requests an interview with a Senator or the Clerk of the Senate, a Doorkeeper shall send the request by a Page.~~

~~17 (f). A Doorkeeper shall direct all~~ All persons not entitled to entry on the floor of the Senate, as set out above, shall be directed to the gallery of the Senate.

VI.

Standing Committees.

18. At the commencement of each session after the election of Senators, a nominations report shall be submitted by the majority caucus to elect members to the standing Committees and the Committee on Rules for terms coincident with their terms of office in such numbers as hereinafter set forth. Such members shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. Each standing Committee and the Committee on Rules shall consist of 15 Senators~~, except the Committee on Finance and Appropriations shall consist of 16 Senators~~.

18 (a). A Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources to consider matters concerning agriculture; air and water pollution and solid waste disposal; conservation of land and water resources; crustaceans and bivalves; all matters of environment, forest, fresh and saltwater fishing, game, mining, parks and recreation, and petroleum products.

18 (b). A Committee on Commerce and Labor to consider all matters concerning banking; commerce; commercial law; corporations; economic development; industry; insurance; labor; manufacturing; partnerships; public utilities, except matters relating to transportation; tourism; workmen's compensation and unemployment matters.

18 (c). A Committee for Courts of Justice to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning the contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.

It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee for Courts of Justice for any judicial position.

Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee for Courts of Justice shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.

18 ~~(c).~~ (d). A Committee on Education and Health to consider matters concerning education; human reproduction; life support; persons under disability; public buildings; public health; mental health; intellectual disability and health professions.

18 ~~(d).~~ (e). A Committee on Finance and Appropriations to consider matters concerning auditing; bills and resolutions for appropriations; the budget of the Commonwealth; claims; general and special revenues of the Commonwealth; all taxation and all matters concerning the expenditure of funds of the Commonwealth.

18 ~~(e).~~ (f). A Committee on General Laws and Technology to consider matters concerning affirmation and bonds; the boundaries, jurisdiction and emblems of the Commonwealth; cemeteries; condominiums; consumer affairs; fire protection; gaming and wagering; housing; inter- or intra-government information technology applications and uses other than those proposed or used to support the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate; land offices; landlord and tenant; libraries; military and war emergency; nuisances; oaths; professions and occupations (except the health and legal professions); religious and charitable matters; state governmental reorganization; veterans' affairs; warehouses; and matters not specifically referable to other Committees, including, but not limited to, matters relating to technology, engineering, or electronic research, development, policy, standards, measurements, or definitions, or the scientific, technical, or technological requirements thereof, except for those affecting the operations of the General Assembly or the Senate.

~~18 (f). A Committee on the Judiciary to consider matters relating to the Courts of the Commonwealth and the Justices and Judges thereof, including the nominations of such Justices and Judges where provided by the Constitution and statutes of Virginia; and all matters concerning the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; together with all matters concerning the contracts, domestic relations, eminent domain, fiduciaries, firearms, garnishments, homestead and all other exemptions, immigration (with the exception of matters relating to the powers of the Governor or education), magistrates, mechanics' and other liens, notaries public and out-of-state commissioners, property and conveyances (except landlord and tenant and condominium matters), wills and decedents' estates.~~

~~It shall report to the Senate the names of such persons as it shall find qualified for election as a Justice or Judge of the Commonwealth. Senators, all or part of whose Senate Districts are within the Circuit or District for which a Judge is to be elected, shall nominate a qualified person for such election by affirmation of a majority of such Senators on a form provided by the Clerk of the Senate. If such Senators are unable to agree on a nominee, a Senator shall only nominate a person deemed qualified by the Committee on the Judiciary for any judicial position.~~

~~Whenever a vacancy in the office of a justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals is announced, the Chair of the Committee on the Judiciary shall establish a date certain by which any Senator may forward the name of any potential nominee for such office to the Chair.~~

18 (g). A Committee on Local Government to consider matters of local government in the counties, cities, towns, regions or districts, planning boards and commissions and authorities, except matters relating to the compensation of elected officeholders, where funds of the Commonwealth are involved.

18 (h). A Committee on Privileges and Elections to consider matters concerning voting; apportionment; conflict of interests, except those concerning members of the judiciary or solely the legal profession, provided that any such matter, after being reported by the Committee, shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee ~~on the Judiciary~~ for Courts of Justice for consideration of the matters relating only to members of the judiciary or solely to the legal profession; constitutional amendments; elections; elected officeholders; reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator; and nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth (except Justices and Judges of the Commonwealth). It shall consider all grievances and propositions, federal relations and interstate matters. It shall examine the oath taken by each Senator and the certificate of election furnished by the proper office and report thereon to the Senate. It shall review and report as may be required in cases involving financial disclosure statements and shall recommend disciplinary action by majority vote where appropriate. It shall report in all cases involving contested elections the principles and reasons upon which their resolves are founded. It shall determine and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel as set forth in the statutes.

Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

18 (i). A Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services to consider matters concerning alcoholic beverages and cannabis; correctional and penal institutions; morals; social services and welfare; and substance abuse.

18 (j). A Committee on Transportation to consider matters concerning airports; airspaces; airways; the laws concerning motor vehicles relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations; heliports; highways; port facilities; public roads and streets; transportation safety; public waterways; railways; seaports; transportation companies or corporations; and transportation public utilities. Any matter relating to rules of the road or traffic regulations which include a change in a penalty shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee on the Judiciary.

VII.

Committee on Rules.

19 (a). A Committee on Rules, which shall be in addition to the foregoing standing Committees, consisting of the standing Committee Chairs; the President pro tempore, if the person is not a Chair; the Majority Leader, if the person is not a Chair; the Minority Leader; and other Senators. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall not be Chair of any standing Committee. The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall be the Chair of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate. The Committee shall consider all resolutions amending or altering the Rules of the Senate; all joint rules with the House of Delegates; all bills and resolutions creating study committees ~~or~~, commissions or work groups; and all other resolutions (except those of a purely procedural nature, those concerning nominations and appointments to any office or position in the Commonwealth including the nominations of Justices and Judges, and those concerning constitutional amendments). The Committee may report such bills or resolutions with the recommendation that they be passed, or that they be rereferred to another Committee. In considering a bill or resolution, the Committee is empowered to sit while the Senate is in session. There shall be a subcommittee of the Committee, consisting of the Chair and members appointed by the Chair to equal the number of House members appointed to the subcommittee, which shall exercise on behalf of the Committee such powers as are delegated to the Committee when acting jointly with the Committee on Rules of the House of Delegates or a subcommittee thereof.

19 (b). If there is any objection as to the referral by the Clerk of the Senate of any bill or resolution to any standing Committee or any matter relating to the Office of the Clerk, the Committee on Rules shall hear the same, resolve the issue and report to the Senate.

19 (c). The Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk, shall consider and determine all matters concerning the news media in the Senate Chamber; all policies concerning travel expenses and reimbursements; all matters concerning joint assemblies with the House of Delegates and such persons, not members of the Senate, who are to be permitted to address the Senate; and all matters concerning the utilization of the facilities available to the Senate and its membership. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall prescribe the duties not otherwise prescribed for the Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeepers. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the appointment, removal, and assignment for duties of the additional committee staff authorized in Rule 10 (a).

19 (d). The Committee on Rules shall from time to time prescribe such requirements as will expedite the flow of the work of the Senate, all such requirements being subject to the approval of the Senate.

19 (e). The Chair of the Committee on Rules shall appoint a subcommittee to review the financial disclosure statements filed annually by members or candidates and shall determine whether each statement is correct and complete as filed or requires correction, augmentation, or revision by the member or candidate involved, who shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee.

Additional review shall be made of any financial disclosure statement by the Committee on Rules upon a request in writing by 20 percent of the membership of the Senate on the basis of newly discovered evidence. This review shall be made promptly, the adequacy of filing determined, and notice of the determination of the Committee sent in writing to the member involved. If a financial disclosure statement is found to need correction, augmentation, or revision, the member or candidate involved shall be directed in writing to make the changes required within such time as shall be set by the Committee. Failure to make the correction shall result in the matter being referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for disciplinary action pursuant to Rules 18 (h) and 53 (b).

19 (f). There shall be a Subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Committee on Rules, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the Chair. The Subcommittee shall consider any request by a Senator for an advisory opinion as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of the Rules of the Senate or any statute enacted relative to conflicts of interests, and may consider any other matters assigned to it by the Committee on Rules. Any Senator requesting such an advisory opinion shall submit the request in writing, addressed to the Chair of the Committee on Rules, and shall set forth specifically the facts relative to the opinion sought. The Subcommittee shall convene as soon as practicable, granting the Senator requesting the opinion the right to appear and, upon the conclusion of its deliberations, the Subcommittee shall submit its written opinion to the full Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall consider the written opinion submitted by the Subcommittee and, if accepted, the same shall constitute an advisory opinion for the conduct of the members of the Senate on the issues set forth. The Clerk of the Senate shall maintain a record of such advisory opinions, which shall be available to any member of the Senate.

19 (g). Any Senator who wishes to present a person to the Senate shall first seek the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules. The Senator shall submit a written request to the Chair of the Committee and a copy of the request to the Clerk of the Senate, at least 48 hours prior to the time of the presentation. The Chair shall determine the merit of the presentation and notify the Senator of the decision. The submission of the written request and the approval of the Chair shall not be required to present members of the Virginia Congressional Delegation and former members of the Virginia Senate. The Chair, in consultation with the Clerk, shall approve the dates for the presentations. During the regular session, presentations shall not be made on Fridays, crossover, or any day involving action on the appropriation act.

19 (h). The Committee on Rules shall make all Senate appointments to study committees ~~and~~, commissions*, or work groups* in the number authorized for the Senate, whether the authority is limited to Senate members or other persons. It shall appoint members of the Senate to such other committees as may be required to serve as joint committees with the House of Delegates under its Rules, and shall appoint members of the Senate to serve as Senate members on any Committee or Commission required by statute. ~~Senate membership on half of the joint subcommittees and commissions created each session with the House of Delegates shall be of equal membership.~~ All recommendations by subcommittees and commissions should be by a majority of both House and Senate members respectively. If no member of a standing Committee of the Senate specified in a study resolution is able to serve, the Committee on Rules may appoint a member of the Senate at large to the study notwithstanding the provisions of the enabling resolution.

VIII.

Composition and Procedures of Committees.

20 (a). The total membership of all Committees and the membership of each standing Committee shall be composed of members of the two major political parties in the Commonwealth and consideration shall be given to the geographic balance in the membership of each standing Committee. Senators shall serve terms on such Committees coincident with their current terms of office. No member shall be removed from a Committee, except by a majority vote of the members present and voting or by forfeiture under these rules or upon submission of the member's resignation from the Committee.

The standing Committees may also include any Senator not elected as a member of the two major political parties. All members of the Senate shall be elected to the standing Committees, where practicable. When the Committees are elected, the Senator first named shall be the Chair. ~~A~~ However, a Senator shall serve as Chair of only one of the standing Committees. Next shall be listed the members, listed by seniority and by the date elected to the Committee. At the first meeting of the Committee, the Chair may appoint and announce a vice chair. The vice chair shall serve at the pleasure of the Chair.

Should any Senator, during his term of office, cease to be a member of the political party of which he was a member at the time of his election or the caucus of such party either by self-declaration or through other conduct, he shall be deemed, thereby, to have forfeited all Committee memberships to which he may have been elected.

20 (b). Any vacancy in Committee membership during the four-year term of the Committee members shall be filled in the manner in which Committee members are elected in the first instance.

20 (c). The standing Committees shall meet at such time and place as shall be designated by the Committee on Rules, after consultation with the respective Committee Chair, and the fixed time and place of Committee meetings shall be published. All committees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (d). All Committee meetings shall be held in public. All votes on bills shall be recorded.

However, executive sessions may be held pursuant to applicable provisions of law upon a recorded vote. Except as provided herein, a recorded vote of members upon each measure shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this Rule not to be counted, prior to the taking of any vote upon it, by stating the same before the Committee, and the fact shall be recorded by the Committee Clerk and reported along with the votes of the Committee members on the bill or resolution. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs may be taken in Committee voting as provided in Rule 36.

20 (e). The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any Senator attending and recorded as present at a Committee meeting who must depart prior to the rising of the Committee, may designate, ~~in writing~~ on committee proxy forms in writing or electronically, one member of the Committee to vote his proxy for the duration of his absence, but for no longer than the meeting of the Committee at which the proxy is given and only for the duration during which the Senator leaving the proxy is within the confines of Capitol Square. Proxies are not transferable. The Chair shall be informed in open session of the proxy authority prior to the departure of the Senator so leaving.

20 (f). Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year, and not reported to the Senate by a Committee may, upon the majority vote of the elected membership of the Committee to which it has been referred, be continued on the agenda of the Committee for hearings and Committee action during the interim between sessions or for future action by the Committee during the following odd numbered year regular sessions. A bill or resolution may be continued only one year from an even-numbered year session and not otherwise. The Committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the Senate, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the Senate shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued.

20 (g). The Senate, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may recommit, in accordance with these Rules, the bill or resolution to the Committee reporting the same, and direct the Committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session, and hold such hearings or render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the Committee may deem proper.

20 (h). The Chair of the Committee, or the majority of the elected membership of a Committee, may call meetings of the Committee during the interim between sessions to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution continued for further action at the odd-numbered year session, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the Committee.

20 (i). The provisions of this Rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.

20 (j). Each Committee shall have a clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, after consultation with the Chair of the Committee on Rules and the Chair of the respective Committee. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the clerk to the Committee on Rules.

20 (k). The Chair of any Committee may appoint subcommittees to consider a particular bill or resolution or to consider matters relative to a portion of the work of the Committee. Such subcommittees shall not take final votes and shall only make recommendations to the Committee. The Chair of the full Committee shall be an ex officio member of all subcommittees and entitled to vote, but shall not be counted as a member for purposes of a quorum. All subcommittees shall be governed by the Rules of the Senate.

20 (l). Any Committee of the Senate may, at its discretion, confer with any Committee of the House of Delegates having under consideration the same subject and arrange joint meetings, hearings or studies, as the Committees deem appropriate.

20 (m). A Committee, after considering a bill or resolution referred to it may:

A. Rerefer the same to another Committee, in the same form received, to consider applicable portions of such bill or resolution as are germane to another Committee under the Rules, or may

B. Report it to the Senate

(i) without amendment,

(ii) with recommendation that a Committee amendment(s) be adopted, or

(iii) with recommendation that it be rereferred to another Committee (either with or without amendment), in which latter event the Clerk of the Senate shall so rerefer unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

A recorded vote of members shall be taken upon any motion listed in A and B above and the name and number of those voting for, against or abstaining reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar. The report recorded by the Committee Clerk shall be the recorded vote on the motion and cannot be changed unless the vote is reconsidered and voted upon again. A recorded vote shall not be necessary to report or rerefer a resolution, if that resolution does not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules.

20 (n). Any bill, except the budget bill sent down by the Governor, whose principal objective is taxation or which establishes a special fund or any type of nonreverting fund, whether or not such bill may also require an appropriation, tax, special or general revenue, shall first be referred to the Standing Committee which has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill as defined in rules 18 (a) through 18 (j) of the Rules of the Senate. If said bill is reported by the Committee of original jurisdiction then said bill shall be rereferred by the Committee to the Committee on Finance and Appropriations.

20 (o). A Committee may refer the subject matter of a bill or resolution to any agency, board, commission, council, or other governmental or nongovernmental entity for comment, but the bill or resolution shall remain with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall direct the Clerk of the Senate to prepare the appropriate letter and the action of the Committee shall be made available to the public.

20 (p). Committees of the Senate are authorized to seek and obtain, in the period of time between sessions of the General Assembly, the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such Committees or Subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the Committee or its Chair.

Persons appointed to serve shall receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for the Committees. For such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any Committee study, payments shall have approval in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules in consultation with the Clerk and shall be made from the general appropriation to the Senate.

20 (q). Persons who are asked by a Committee Chair to appear before a Committee or subcommittee or study to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved in advance by the Chair of the Committee on Rules, in consultation with the Clerk.

IX.
Order of Business.

21. At the appointed hour, the presiding officer of the Senate shall take the chair and call the Senate to order, and the order of business thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) A period of devotions.

(b) The recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

(c) A roll call of members present.

(d) The reading of the Journal.

(e) A period to be called the "morning hour," for the following purposes:

i. to dispose of communications from the House of Delegates, the Executive, and the Judiciary.

ii. to recognize and welcome visitors to the Senate.

iii. to receive resolutions and bills, but such resolutions and bills may be received at the Clerk's desk at any time after the "morning hour," with leave of the Senate.

(f) Consideration of unfinished business. (Unfinished business is legislation before the Senate as a result of or pending action by the House of Delegates.)

(g) Consideration of the Calendar of the Senate for that day, for which purpose the Calendar shall be called by the Clerk of the Senate.

(h) Upon completion of the Calendar and then Senators expressing Point(s) of Personal Privilege and such other business as may come before the Senate, a recess or adjournment shall then be taken.

22. To expedite the business of the Senate, it may order the convening of a "special morning session," at which session no vote shall be taken or other business transacted except the introduction of bills and resolutions. Upon the completion thereof, such session shall recess to such time as the Senate may have theretofore ordered. Such "special morning session" shall be convened by the presiding officer or President pro tempore unless otherwise designated. The "special morning session" shall be considered adjourned upon the convening of the daily session.

23 (a). Notwithstanding Rule 21 and Rule 22, any subject may, by a recorded vote of a majority of the members present and voting, be made a special and continuing order, to commence at a time to be fixed by the Senate, and when the time so fixed for its consideration arises, the presiding officer shall lay it before the Senate.

23 (b). When two or more special and continuing orders have been made for the same time, they shall have precedence according to the order in which they were severally assigned, and that order shall only be changed by majority of those present and voting. All motions to change such order shall be decided without debate.

24. When a bill or resolution of the House of Delegates is passed or rejected by the Senate, the fact of the passage or rejection, with the bill or resolution, shall be communicated to the House of Delegates.

25 (a). All bills, resolutions or other business originating in the Senate and all bills, resolutions or other business sent from the House of Delegates shall be dispatched in the order in which they are introduced or received, unless the Senate shall otherwise direct.

25 (b). Bills or resolutions of either house shall be divided on the Calendar between the designations "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar" and shall be considered in such order. When such a division is made for bills or resolutions, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bills or resolutions (i) that receive a dissenting vote or abstention in Committee, or (ii) to which objection is made by any Senator on first reading. Any bills or resolutions shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar at any time at the request of any Senator. Resolutions that do not have a specific vote requirement pursuant to these Rules shall not be placed on the Uncontested Calendar but may be divided separately.

25 (c). It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted upon according to their priorities upon the Calendar. If, however, any bill or resolution is not ready when it is reached upon the Calendar, it shall be passed by, and be allowed to retain its place upon the Calendar.

25 (d). When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may be ready, and if there is none, the business of the "morning hour" shall be resumed and disposed of; but the business of the "morning hour" shall in no case be allowed to interfere with that of the Calendar without the unanimous consent of the members present.

26 (a). No law shall be enacted except by bill. Every bill, upon its introduction, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee. No bill shall become a law until the procedures required by Article IV, Section 11 of the Constitution of Virginia have been observed.

26 (b). No bill expressly amending any existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the original and all copies thereof have been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. Each bill or resolution shall be signed by at least one Senator or by the Clerk of the Senate upon authorization of a member who has become incapacitated or who is unavailable to sign the legislation. Upon the approval of the Committee on Rules, electronic filing of bills and resolutions and electronic patronage may be permitted. Any bill or resolution offered for introduction in the Senate may show two or more Senators as chief patrons and as "House Patrons" the signatures of members of the House of Delegates. The title of any bill having any provisions pertaining to taxation or revenues shall so indicate. The form for deletions and additions shall be to set forth the material deleted with lines through such material, e.g., ~~deleted~~ ~~material~~ ~~or~~ ~~words~~, and to underscore the words added, before they are received in the Senate. However, the stricken material and underscoring and italics in the printed bill, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute, but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring when new words are substituted for existing words where the new words or the omission of words does not change the sense or meaning of the act.

26 (c). The title of a bill or resolution and all amendments offered thereto shall be entered upon the Journal, except the amendments in the nature of a substitute shall be printed separately, and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

26 (d). Any Senate bill or resolution which has been amended during the legislative process by the Senate shall be engrossed and reproduced by the Clerk of the Senate, as soon as practicable, in sufficient numbers for the members of the Senate and House of Delegates.

26 (e). The designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Resolution" or "Senate Joint Resolution" shall not be changed nor amended after a bill or resolution is introduced in the Senate. Nor shall the designation of "House Bill" or "House Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the Senate.

26 (f). Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added as a co-patron to any Senate bill or joint resolution, provided that the first vote on the passage of the bill or agreement to the joint resolution has not occurred, or, if the bill or joint resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such legislation. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added to a Senate resolution within the same timeframe. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, and shall be so listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any.

Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed as a co-patron of any bill or joint resolution prior to the deadline set by the General Assembly. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be removed from a Senate resolution provided that the first vote on the passage of the resolution has not occurred, or, if the resolution is not reported from Committee, then prior to the last action on such resolution. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such bill, joint resolution, or resolution, nor shall the co-patron's name be listed on such bill, joint resolution, or resolution at its next printing, if any. This Rule shall not apply to the addition or removal of co-patrons to commending and memorial joint resolutions and resolutions.

26 (g). Any memorial or commending resolutions shall conform to the form and procedure set forth by the Clerk of the Senate and shall not be referred to the Committee on Rules, but shall be placed upon the Calendar on the next Thursday of the session and shall be considered for approval on said day; however, any one member may object to such consideration and the same shall be continued to the next Thursday session or any member may move that the same be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any member of the Senate or House of Delegates may request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending or memorial joint resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the House of Delegates on the day of the joint resolution's final agreement. A Senator may also request in writing to the Clerk to be added or removed as a co-patron to a Senate commending and memorial resolution until one hour after the adjournment of the Senate on the day of the resolution's final agreement. A co-patron added pursuant to this Rule shall be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution and so listed on the joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any. A co-patron removed pursuant to this Rule shall thereafter not be listed in the Journal as a co-patron of such joint resolution or resolution, nor shall the co-patron's name be listed on such joint resolution or resolution at its next printing, if any.

27. Bills or resolutions originating in the House of Delegates and communicated to the Senate shall be read by title the first time when received and referred to the appropriate Committee unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

28 (a). No bill or resolution reported from a Committee of the Senate shall be recommitted or amended until it has been twice read by title, nor shall any Senate bill or resolution be amended after its third reading, except by the unanimous consent of the Senate. House bills or resolutions may be recommitted or amended at any time before their final passage, but a bill or resolution that has been recommitted to a Committee, when reported by Committee, shall be restored on the Calendar to the status it had before it was recommitted.

28 (b). In the case of a House bill or resolution, engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the Senate.

29. Whenever a Senate bill or resolution is reported to the Senate with one or more House amendments, copies of all such amendments shall be furnished to each Senator. The same shall apply to amendments proposed by a Senate Committee or by a Senator, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

30. Every question shall be put in the affirmative and the presiding officer shall declare whether the yeas or the nays have it, which declaration shall stand as the judgment of the Senate. The yeas and nays on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the Journal. On the final vote of any bill, and on the vote in any election or impeachment conducted in the General Assembly or on the expulsion of a Senator, the name of each Senator voting, and how he voted shall be recorded in the Journal. After the roll has been taken, and before the vote is announced by the presiding officer, any Senator shall have the right to correct any mistake committed in enrolling his name and the presiding officer shall order the vote to be stricken.

31. Any Senator may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions so distinct in substance that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Senate.

32. Upon the determination of a question, any Senator may enter his protest upon the Journal, with the consent of one-third of the Senators present; and on the question "Shall the protest be entered on the Journal?", no privileged motion as set out in Rule 47 (a) or Rule 47 (b) shall be in order except to adjourn.

33. Whenever the Senate proceeds to consider any nominations or appointments after the same have been reported by the appropriate Committee, which are subject to the choice or ratification of the Senate, and when it is so ordered by the Senate pursuant to Chapter 37 of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia, the same shall be considered in executive session.

X.
The Pending and Previous Question.

34. Upon a motion for the pending question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the pending question. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion for the pending question is made, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

35. Upon a motion for the previous question, agreed to by a majority of the Senators present, as indicated by a recorded vote, and there being no other motions afforded priority by these Rules, the presiding officer shall immediately put the question, first upon the amendments in the order prescribed in the Rules, and then upon the main question. If the previous question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

XI.
Taking the Vote.

36. Every Senator present in the Chamber, when any question is put or vote taken, shall vote or be counted as voting on one side or the other, except in the case of pairs, as hereinafter provided. A Senator who has a personal interest in the transaction, as defined in § 30-101 of the Code of Virginia, shall neither vote nor be counted upon it, and he shall withdraw, or invoke this rule not to be counted, prior to the division and the fact shall be recorded on the voting machine. If a Senator invokes this rule, the Senator shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the matter wherein the rule is invoked. Pairs upon any question pending may be made and entered upon the Journal, and in such cases shall be announced immediately upon completion of the roll call, and before the announcement of its result. Pairs may be general or special. General pairs shall extend to and include all motions, amendments, or other proceedings in aid of or against the question pending, and which is the subject of the pairs. Special pairs shall depend in their scope upon the agreement between the Senators making the same, but in absence of a specific agreement, the presumption shall be conclusive that the pairs are general. The Senator announcing a pair shall be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum. Pairs may be taken in Committee votes under this rule herein set forth.

37. The voting machine may be used for the call of the roll, for recording abstentions under Rule 36, or for the affirmative and the negative of the question.

38 (a). No Senator shall be allowed to vote or submit a vote statement unless he is in attendance at the daily session at the time the Senate is being divided, or before a determination of the question upon a call of the roll, and is physically present in the Chamber, or one of its anterooms. A Senator may submit a vote statement if he was not recorded as voting or if his recorded vote does not reflect his intention. The statement shall be limited to the fact that his vote was not recorded or that his vote did not reflect his intention and must be submitted to the Clerk of the Senate by the adjournment of the daily session.

38 (b). In cases where the presiding officer is also a member of the Senate at the time a recorded vote is being taken, the presiding officer shall request another Senator to cast his vote for him or shall cast his vote from the Chair.

XII.
Committees of Conference.

39 (a). The Senate members of any committee of conference with the House of Delegates shall be designated by the Chair of the Committee to which the bill or resolution in conference was first referred by the Clerk of the Senate. If a Senate bill or resolution is in conference, the lead chief patron of the same shall be a conferee and, where feasible, members of a Committee to which the bill or resolution was referred or rereferred shall comprise the conferees.

Any conference report must be agreed to by the majority of the members of each house on the conference committee before it may be filed with the Senate. If the report of the first named conference is rejected by the Senate or the conferees cannot agree, the Chair shall designate the same or new conferees in the event a second conference is formed.

Conferees shall not insert in their report matters not committed to them by either house, nor shall they strike from the bill or resolution in conference matters agreed to by both houses.

39 (b). When a committee of conference is meeting it shall inform the Clerk of the place of meeting; and, when a vote be put, the presiding officer shall, before calling the vote, inform the Senate conferees of the pending vote and grant them a reasonable opportunity to return to the Chamber to vote.

XIII.
Debate.

40 (a). While the presiding officer is reporting or putting any question, or the Clerk of the Senate is reporting a bill or resolution or calling the roll, or a Senator is addressing the Chair, strict order shall be observed. No Senator or other person shall give audible expression to his or her approval or disapproval of any proceeding before the Senate. The use of props is prohibited on the floor of the Senate.

40 (b). The use of electronic devices for making and receiving phone calls is prohibited in Senate committee rooms and the Senate Chamber. Violations of this rule shall be punishable as prescribed by the Committee on Rules.

41. If words are spoken in debate that give offense, exception thereto shall be taken the same day, and be stated in writing; and in such case, if the words are decided by the presiding officer, or by the Senate, upon an appeal, to be offensive, and they are not explained or retracted by the Senator who uttered them, he shall be subject to such action as the Senate may deem necessary.

42. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, with due respect, address "Mr. President," confining himself strictly to the point in debate, and avoiding all disrespectful language.

43. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same subject without leave of the Senate, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak has spoken.

44. No question shall be debated until it has been stated by the presiding officer, and the mover shall have the right to explain his views in preference to any Senator.

45. During any debate any Senator, though he has spoken to the matter, may rise and speak to the orders of the Senate if they are transgressed, in case the presiding officer does not so rise and speak, but if the presiding officer stands up at any time, he is first to be heard, and while he is standing Senators shall keep their seats.

46. No Senator shall be allowed to be interrupted while speaking, except on points of order, to correct erroneous statements, or for a Senator to answer any questions that may be stated by the Senator speaking.

47 (a). The following motions shall not be debated or spoken to except as hereinafter provided:

(i) A motion to adjourn.

(ii) A motion calling for a vote on the pending question.

(iii) A motion calling for a vote on the previous question.

(iv) A motion to suspend the Rules.

(v) A motion to close debate.

(vi) A motion to limit debate.

(vii) A motion to extend the limit of debate.

(viii) A motion to reconsider matters not debatable.

(ix) A motion to change, in case of two or more special and continuing orders.

47 (b). Upon the following motions, the mover shall be allowed five minutes to speak to his motion, to state the reasons therefor, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to speak to the motion, to state his objections:

(i) A motion for a special and continuing order.

(ii) A motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair.

47 (c). When a question not debatable is before the Senate, all incidental questions arising after it is stated shall be decided and settled without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise. This same Rule shall apply to all incidental questions arising after the presiding officer has put any question to the Senate.

47 (d). A motion to strike out, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to insert, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

47 (e). When a question is pending, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to pass by for the day, to recommit, to rerefer, for the pending question, for the previous question, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein set out.

47 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of Rule 47 (e), a primary motion may be substituted once.

XIV.

Reconsideration.

48 (a). A question arising on a Senate Bill, Senate Resolution or Senate Joint Resolution being once determined must stand as the judgment of the Senate, and cannot during the course of that session of the General Assembly be drawn again into debate, unless a motion to reconsider a question which has been decided has been made by a Senator voting with the prevailing side on the same day on which the vote was taken. However, if such action has not been communicated to the House, a motion to reconsider may be made within the next two days of actual session of the Senate thereafter. Unless unanimous consent of the members of the Senate present and voting on a motion for a second or subsequent reconsideration be granted, no measure being once determined may be reconsidered more than once by the Senate during that session of the General Assembly.

When any question is decided in the negative simply for the want of a majority of the whole Senate, any Senator who was absent from the city of Richmond or detained from his seat by sickness at the time of the vote sought to be reconsidered may move its reconsideration.

A Senator desiring such reconsideration shall confer with the Chair of the Committee on Rules, or in his absence the next listed available member of the Committee on Rules, who shall consult with the chief spokesman for and against the measure, if there is any, and thereafter such Chair or next listed member may direct the Clerk to defer or expedite the transmittal of the action of the Senate on the measure to the House of Delegates to permit the making of such motion for reconsideration; however, in no event shall such deferral of transmittal hereunder be for more than one legislative day.

This rule shall not preclude consideration of any House Bill, House Joint Resolution, or House amendment to a Senate Bill or a Senate Joint Resolution, regardless of whether such House measure involves a question already determined.

48 (b). If the Committee has possession of a bill or resolution, a motion to reconsider in Committee may be made no later than the next Committee meeting.

However, a motion to reconsider at a second or subsequent meeting may be made with unanimous consent if the Committee has possession of the bill or resolution.

XV.

Suspension of Rules.

49. Any rule of the Senate may only, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution of Virginia, be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. These Rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. If the Senate is meeting due to a state emergency or enemy attack pursuant to Article IV, Section 8 of the Constitution, then the Rules of the Senate may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum.

XVI.

Appeals.

50. If the presiding officer rules on any matter under these Rules by his own act, or upon request of any Senator, and if any Senator objects to the ruling of the presiding officer, then an appeal to the Senate shall lie. The appeal shall be stated as a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. To overrule the ruling of the Chair shall require a majority of those present and voting. A ruling of the Chair shall not be overruled on appeal by a tie vote.

XVII.

Committee of the Whole.

51. The Senate may go into the Committee of the Whole only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present and voting. When the Senate shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, the President shall leave the Chair and the President pro tempore shall preside in the Committee. If the President pro tempore is absent from the Senate, then the Senate shall elect a chair to preside therein.

The Committee of the Whole shall consider and report on such subjects as may be committed to it by the Senate. The Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they are applicable. The proceedings in the Committee of the Whole shall not be recorded on the Journal of the Senate, except so far as reported to the Senate by the Chair of the Committee.

XVIII.

Campaign Advocacy Contribution Limitations.

52. During any regular, special, or reconvened session of the General Assembly, no member of the Senate shall use his name or title or authorize another person to use the Senator's name or title, orally or in writing, to solicit monetary contributions if any part of the contributions would be used to pay for an advocacy campaign conducted through mass mailings, e-mails, telephone calls or other communication media to influence the outcome of legislative action by the General Assembly. This rule shall not apply during any recess of a special session. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit a Senator from using his name or title or authorizing another person to use the Senator's name or title in the letterhead or roster listing the membership of an organization.

XIX.

Senate Ethics and Senate Ethics Advisory Panel.

53 (a). The Senate Ethics Advisory Panel shall be composed of five members: three of whom shall be former members of the Senate; and two of whom shall be citizens of the Commonwealth who have not previously held such office. No member shall engage in activities requiring him to register as a lobbyist under § 2.2-422 of the Code of Virginia during his tenure on the Panel. The members shall be nominated by the Committee on Rules of the Senate and confirmed by the Senate. Nominations shall be made so as to assure bipartisan representation on the Panel.

53 (b). Whenever the Clerk receives a report of the Senate Ethics Advisory Panel or a resolution seeking the reprimand, censure, or expulsion of a Senator, the report shall be referred forthwith to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee shall consider the matter, conduct such hearings as it shall deem necessary, and, in all cases report its determination of the matter, together with its recommendations and reasons for its resolves, to the Senate. If the Committee deems disciplinary action warranted, it shall report a resolution offered by a member of the Committee to express such action. Any such resolution reported by the Committee shall be a privileged matter. The Senate as a whole shall then consider the resolution, and, by recorded vote, either defeat the resolution or take one or more of the following actions: (i) reprimand the Senator with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting; (ii) censure the Senator and place the Senator last in seniority with a majority vote of the elected membership of the Senate; (iii) expel the Senator with a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of the Senate; or (iv) refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action with a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, in the event the Senate finds a knowing violation of § 30-108 or subsection C of § 30-110 of the Code of Virginia.

XX.

Court of Impeachment.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 6

Commending the Honorable Dr. Luke E. Torian.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 8, 2024

WHEREAS, the Honorable Dr. Luke E. Torian, an esteemed public servant and faith leader who has spent his career dedicated to bringing people together to make positive change through his ministry, leadership, and community service, retired from his position as pastor of First Mount Zion Baptist Church of Dumfries after 28 years on December 31, 2023; and

WHEREAS, since 1995, Luke Torian has served as pastor of First Mount Zion Baptist Church, for which his service has been recognized by countless awards and accolades, including the James Floyd Jenkins Pillar of Faith Award from Howard University in 2002, appointment to the Virginia Board of Counseling by Governor Mark R. Warner in 2004, and an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Virginia Union University in 2021; and

WHEREAS, as a community leader in Prince William County, Luke Torian founded Virginians Organized for Interfaith Community Engagement (VOICE), and his strong belief in "ministry beyond the walls" of the church has resulted in the development of ministries such as those designed to provide reduced-cost groceries to families, mentorship and education for pregnant teenagers and teenage parents, and outreach to youth incarcerated in juvenile detention facilities; and

WHEREAS, Luke Torian has given generously of his time to the community through his involvement with a number of organizations, such as the Creative and Performing Arts Center, Project Mend A House, local Boys and Girls Clubs of America, and Action in Community Through Service (ACTS), an organization designed to alleviate hunger, homelessness, and domestic violence in the community; and

WHEREAS, Luke Torian has been awarded three Citizen of the Year awards and a Man of the Year award by the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and, in 2019, he was awarded the Founders' Lifetime Achievement Award by the fraternity's Pi Lambda Lambda Chapter; and

WHEREAS, Luke Torian took his dedication to community a step further when he was elected in 2009 to represent the 52nd District of the House of Delegates; since then, he has worked tirelessly to better the lives of all Virginians through improvements to education, housing, criminal justice, and more; in 2020, he became the first African American to be appointed as chair of the House Appropriations Committee; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the awards he has received from organizations including the Virginia Education Association, the Virginia Chamber of Commerce, and the Prince William County chapter of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Luke Torian has earned Legislator of the Year awards from the Virginia Council of Chapters of the Military Officers Association of America, the Virginia Governmental Employees Association, and the Treasurers' Association of Virginia in 2019, 2020, and 2021, respectively; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Honorable Dr. Luke E. Torian hereby be commended on the occasion of his retirement from the pastorship of First Mount Zion Baptist Church in Prince William County; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Honorable Dr. Luke E. Torian as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for his legacy of service and best wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 22

Commemorating the life and legacy of Susan G. Gibson.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 25, 2024

WHEREAS, Susan G. Gibson, a pioneering education administrator and community activist, played a pivotal role in advancing the education of Black children in Bedford County in the first half of the 20th century; and

WHEREAS, born on October 29, 1878, in the Oak Mountain community of Bedford County to parents who were formerly enslaved, Susan "Susie" Gibson went on to earn a certificate from the former Virginia Seminary and College in Lynchburg and later a degree from what is today Virginia State University; and

WHEREAS, after serving as an educator for several years, Susie Gibson became what was known at the time as a Jeanes Supervisor, a position supported by the Jeanes Foundation in which she effectively served as the superintendent of segregated Black schools in the Bedford County area; and

WHEREAS, as Jeanes Supervisor, Susie Gibson surveyed and assessed the schools in her district while also offering lessons to students in various edifying subjects and supporting teachers through the provision of materials; and

WHEREAS, recognizing the importance of a quality education, Susie Gibson regularly spoke at area churches to encourage young people to attend school; and

WHEREAS, beyond her work in education, Susie Gibson was actively involved in civic affairs through various organizations in Bedford County, including the American Red Cross and the Bedford County Tuberculosis Association, which she served as chair; and

WHEREAS, when a new high school was opened for Black students in Bedford County in 1954, five years after Susie Gibson had passed away, the local school board named the institution in her honor, making it the only school in the Commonwealth at the time to be named for a Black woman; and

WHEREAS, following the desegregation of the Commonwealth's schools, Susie G. Gibson High School was renamed the Bedford Educational Center in 1970; however, in 2020, the Bedford County School Board voted unanimously to rechristen the school the Susie G. Gibson Science and Technology Center to honor her memory; and

WHEREAS, in 2022, a Virginia Department of Historic Resources highway marker was unveiled to memorialize Susie Gibson and Susie G. Gibson High School, recognizing the important roles they played in the local history of Bedford County; and

WHEREAS, Susie Gibson will long be remembered for her unwavering efforts to lift up Black students and educators and to promote unity and reconciliation in the community of Bedford County; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the life and legacy of Susie G. Gibson hereby be commemorated on the occasion of the 75th anniversary of her death; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to descendants of Susie G. Gibson as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's high esteem for her contributions to Bedford County and the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 32

Commending the Isle of Wight County Museum and the Smithfield community.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 8, 2024

WHEREAS, in 2024, the Isle of Wight County Museum and the Smithfield community, including local businesses, churches, and other organizations, marked the 160th anniversary of the Battle of Smithfield with a full program of events; and

WHEREAS, the Battle of Smithfield took place from January 31 to February 1, 1864, when Union troops were spotted marching south of Smithfield, then were forced to withdraw to the Pagan River; over the course of the dramatic skirmish, musket and cannon fire rang up and down Main Street, and at one point, the church janitor interrupted services to announce that gunboats were approaching; and

WHEREAS, the USS Smith Briggs attempted a rescue but was hit in its exposed boiler and ran aground, leading to the capture of the stranded Union troops; and

WHEREAS, local residents helped unload supplies from the USS Smith Briggs, which included coffee, tea, and other provisions that had been in short supply in Smithfield with Union ships blockading nearby ports; after the battle, many residents happily tasted real coffee for the first time in many months; and

WHEREAS, on February 4, 2024, the Isle of Wight County Museum and the Smithfield community commemorated the Battle of Smithfield with events all over town, including services at Christ Episcopal Church, which rang its bells at different points throughout the day; and

WHEREAS, the Isle of Wight County Museum provided its usual exhibits and interpreters and served as the starting point for a walking tour down Wharf Hill, with an informal Civil War discussion at Wharf Hill Brewing taking place later in the day; participants were also able to tour Ivy Hill Cemetery, where numerous Civil War veterans are buried, and meet with a living historian at the 1750 Courthouse; and

WHEREAS, in addition, Cure Coffeehouse and several other establishments provided coffee or coffee substitutes made from peanuts, acorns, beets, or chicory roots, similar to drinks that the residents of Smithfield would have made during the Civil War; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Isle of Wight County Museum and the Smithfield community hereby be commended on the occasion of the 160th anniversary of the Battle of Smithfield; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Isle of Wight County Museum on behalf of the entire Smithfield community as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's appreciation for the historical significance of the Battle of Smithfield and admiration for the community's commitment to preserving the history of the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 33

Commending the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors of Virginia.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 8, 2024

WHEREAS, the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors of Virginia, one of the nation's oldest trade associations, celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2024; and

WHEREAS, established in 1924, the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors of Virginia (PHCCVA) was created to support the mission of the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors National Association and provide educational resources for the plumbing and mechanical trades in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, members of the PHCCVA are committed to adhering to a code of ethics that encourages integrity, quality, workplace safety, training, education, preservation and promotion of health and safety, and demonstration of dignity and respect; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA supports the preservation of trade integrity by encouraging apprenticeship and continuing education and actively develops future licensed tradesmen by teaching in public schools and proprietary programs and by providing professional support to those enrolled in the PHCC Academy; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA offers testing and certification programs, performance evaluations of products, and training programs and helps establish standards and guidelines to preserve the safety of Virginians; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA presents a unified representation to deliver a common message, enhance industry credibility, and act as a qualified industry spokesperson; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA is an organization with member-owned governance that provides representation, empowerment, and recognition to its members, creating a sense of belonging and a sense that members are contributing to an important endeavor; and

WHEREAS, nearly three dozen Virginia-based plumbing and heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractors have been recognized by the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors National Association as contractors of the year for their leadership, community involvement, and business success; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA has more than 100 members and two local chapters representing an estimated 4,000 employees throughout the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the PHCCVA will commemorate the association's centennial with special events throughout 2024; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors of Virginia hereby be commended on the occasion of its 100th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Anthony Bertolino, president of the Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors of Virginia, as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the association's legacy of service to the Commonwealth and the United States.

Commending John Ray Grisham, Jr.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 8, 2024

WHEREAS, John Ray Grisham, Jr., the acclaimed best-selling author and longtime resident of the Commonwealth, was presented the Outstanding Virginian Award in 2024; and

WHEREAS, presented by the General Assembly's Outstanding Virginian Committee in conjunction with the University of Virginia's Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy, the Outstanding Virginian Award is considered the Commonwealth's highest civilian honor and is awarded to citizens, such as John Grisham, whose distinguished contributions, outstanding achievements, and dedicated leadership serve as an inspiration to all civic-minded citizens; and

WHEREAS, John Grisham earned a juris doctor degree from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 1981 and returned to his hometown of Southaven, Mississippi, to practice law; and

WHEREAS, motivated by his experiences with his working-class and indigent clients and the fact that Mississippi was the only state in the nation without a public kindergarten system at the time, John Grisham ran for a seat in the Mississippi House of Representatives and was elected in 1983; and

WHEREAS, over his two four-year terms as a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives, John Grisham introduced a number of bills to advance reforms in the areas of education, elections, public health, taxation, and corrections, though many of them never made it out of committee; and

WHEREAS, facing limited success as an attorney and legislator, John Grisham cultivated a secret hobby writing fiction, publishing his first book, A Time to Kill, in 1989; and

WHEREAS, John Grisham's second novel, The Firm, published in 1991, found a wide audience and launched the author into literary stardom, enabling him to close his law practice and devote himself to writing full time; and

WHEREAS, with remarkable work ethic and commitment to his craft, John Grisham has published nearly 50 novels over the past three decades, many of which have been adapted for popular films; and

WHEREAS, more than 400 million copies of John Grisham's gripping legal thrillers have been sold worldwide, making him one of the most well-known contemporary American authors and a fixture on The New York Times best seller list; and

WHEREAS, John Grisham has used his platform to advocate against wrongful convictions and serves on the boards of the Innocence Project in New York City and Centurion Ministries in Princeton, New Jersey, to advance this cause; and

WHEREAS, alongside his wife, Renee, John Grisham supports several organizations striving to bring an end to childhood hunger; and

WHEREAS, John Grisham has lived part time on a farm outside of Charlottesville for the past 30 years, becoming an active and integral member of the local community, in large part through his efforts as the patron and steward of the Cove Creek Park youth baseball and softball complex in Albemarle County; and

WHEREAS, John Grisham's accomplishments as an author and activist have made a meaningful impact on countless lives and are worthy of the esteem and admiration of all Virginians; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That John Ray Grisham, Jr., hereby be commended for receiving the 2024 Outstanding Virginian Award; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to John Ray Grisham, Jr., as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for his achievements and appreciation for his contributions to the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 52

Commending Bruton Parish Episcopal Church.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 15, 2024

WHEREAS, for 350 years, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church in Williamsburg has preserved the history of the nation while providing opportunities for joyful worship and offering generous outreach to the community; and

WHEREAS, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church traces its earliest roots to 1633, when an Anglican parish church named after the Middle Plantation was constructed somewhere in the area; and

WHEREAS, in 1658, Middle Plantation Parish merged with Harrop Parish in James City County to form Middletown Parish, which in turn merged with Marston Parish in 1674 to form Bruton Parish; and

WHEREAS, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church was named for the community of Bruton in County Somerset, England, the ancestral home of the colonial governor, Sir William Berkeley, and the colonial secretary, Thomas Ludwell, who was also a parish member at the time; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Roland Jones was selected as the first pastor of Bruton Parish Episcopal Church and, in 1677, the vestry agreed to build a new brick church to better serve the consolidated parish; the Gothic-style building was situated northwest of the current location on land donated by Colonel John Page and completed in 1683; and

WHEREAS, with the establishment of The College of William and Mary in Virginia and the relocation of the colonial capital from Jamestown to the Middle Plantation, which was renamed as Williamsburg shortly thereafter, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church experienced significant growth in the 1690s; and

WHEREAS, in the early 1700s, the Bruton Parish Episcopal Church vestry again discussed a new church building; the cruciform-shaped church, designed by Governor Alexander Spotswood, was the first of its kind in Virginia, and it was completed in 1715 under the oversight of James Blair, who was serving as both rector of the church and president of The College of William and Mary in Virginia; and

WHEREAS, over the course of the 18th century, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church flourished as a house of worship and an important meeting place for students, townspeople, and government officials; the church received numerous additions, including a new steeple, the historic Tarpley Bell, and a prized organ that was played by the professionally trained musician Peter Pelham for 46 years; and

WHEREAS, during this time, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church also received several important artifacts, including copies of the Book of Common Prayer and the Holy Bible, as well as three sets of silver communion services, including the Jamestown Church communion service, which is now typically on display at the Jamestown Settlement; and

WHEREAS, several founding fathers, including George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Patrick Henry attended Bruton Parish Episcopal Church while serving as members of the House of Burgesses, and the church was the site of heated debate in the lead-up to the American Revolution; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend John Bracken, who served as rector of Bruton Parish Episcopal Church from 1773 to 1818 and president of The College of William and Mary in Virginia from 1812 to 1814, guided the community through the Revolutionary War; he is most likely responsible for crossing out the prayer for the king in the church's Book of Common Prayer and replacing it with a prayer for the president of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church broke from the Church of England and joined the Episcopal Church in the United States; in the post-war period, the church endured financial hardship and sold numerous furnishings to generate operating funds and allow for necessary remodeling; and

WHEREAS, during the American Civil War, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church served as a hospital for wounded soldiers after the Battle of Williamsburg; the parish continued to struggle until the 1880s, when the Catherine Memorial Society, a forerunner of what is now Preservation Virginia, raised funds to repair church furnishings and restore tombstones and monuments in the parish's historic cemetery; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend William T. Roberts and the Reverend W.A.R. Goodwin led additional restoration efforts, and by the early 1900s, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church had regained much of its original character and played a role in the commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the Jamestown Settlement in 1907; and

WHEREAS, from 1926 to 1928, Reverend Goodwin was instrumental in convincing John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to restore Williamsburg's colonial heritage, leading to a complete renovation of Bruton Parish Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of the Reverend Francis H. Craighill, the Reverend Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis, the Reverend Richard L. May, the Reverend Herman Hollerith IV, and the Reverend Christopher L. Epperson, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church has thrived in the modern era; membership has remained high, programs and services have multiplied, and the church has given back to the community in myriad ways, including religious education, community festivals, and the annual Rockefeller Concert; and

WHEREAS, in January 2024, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church kicked off the commemorative events for its milestone 350th anniversary with a presentation by Carl Lounsbury, the former senior architectural historian of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, and a special worship service celebrated with a prayer book from 1662 and the Jamestown Church communion silver; and

WHEREAS, Bruton Parish Episcopal Church's yearlong anniversary program will feature more historical presentations, along with fellowship and social events, to educate, enlighten, and engage with members of the public; the program divides the year into four quarters, focusing on the beginning of the church from 1674 to 1789, the evolution of the church from 1789 to 1900, the modern era from 1900 to 2023, and the church's future; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Bruton Parish Episcopal Church hereby be commended on the occasion of its 350th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Bruton Parish Episcopal Church as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the church's storied history and legacy of service to the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 53

Celebrating the life of T.K. Weiler.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 15, 2024

WHEREAS, T.K. Weiler, the highly respected former fire chief of Williamsburg and a loving husband, father, and friend, died on January 23, 2024; and

WHEREAS, T.K. "Buz" Weiler served the nation as a member of the United States Navy and was stationed aboard the USS Little Rock; and

WHEREAS, Buz Weiler served and safeguarded the residents of Williamsburg and the surrounding counties for 43 years as a firefighter and a dynamic, forward-thinking leader in public safety; and

WHEREAS, as fire chief, Buz Weiler modernized the Williamsburg Fire Department and ensured that his troops, as he called them, had the tools and training they needed to protect the lives and property of local residents; and

WHEREAS, Buz Weiler served the Williamsburg community with dedication, integrity, and distinction, earning countless certifications, awards, accolades, and honors over the course of his career; and

WHEREAS, guided by his faith in all his actions, Buz Weiler enjoyed fellowship and worship with the community as a member of Saint Bede Catholic Church, where he served as a lector, Eucharistic minister, and Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults teacher; he also attended CrossWalk Church in Norge, where he was active in the men's ministry; and

WHEREAS, predeceased by his first wife, Audrey, Buz Weiler will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his beloved wife of 44 years, Margie; his children and their families; and numerous other family members, friends, and fellow firefighters; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of T.K. Weiler, a longtime firefighter who made many contributions to the Williamsburg community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of T.K. Weiler as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.

Commending I.C. Norcom High School.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 15, 2024

WHEREAS, I.C. Norcom High School of Portsmouth City Public Schools, a distinguished academic institution and one of the oldest historically Black high schools in the United States, celebrated its 145th anniversary in 2023; and

WHEREAS, the origins of I.C. Norcom High School date to 1878 when the construction of Chestnut Street Colored School, formerly the Chestnut Street Academy at Zion Baptist Church, established the first school building for African Americans in the City of Portsmouth; and

WHEREAS, from 1883 to 1916, the Chestnut Street Colored School was guided by principal Israel Charles Norcom, a pioneering educator whose visionary leadership left a profound and lasting impact on the Portsmouth community; and

WHEREAS, when the Chestnut Street Colored School moved to a new building in 1920, it was renamed I.C. Norcom High School in recognition of the enduring legacy of its former principal; and

WHEREAS, after relocating in 1937 and again in 1953, I.C. Norcom High School settled at its location on London Boulevard in 1998, where it has shined as a beacon of academic and athletic excellence ever since; and

WHEREAS, succeeding principals have upheld the virtues and traditions established by I.C. Norcom throughout the school's history, including W.E. Waters, A.T. Edwards, E. Blair, L. Wallace, V. Randall, DeWayne Jeter, Walter Taylor, Timothy Johnson, Lynn Briley, Rosalynn Sanderlin, Shameka Pollard, Laguna Foster, and Teesha Sanders; and

WHEREAS, I.C. Norcom High School consistently provides its students with an exceptional learning environment where they may cultivate their curiosity and spark their success; over its long history, the school has produced scores of local leaders in the areas of politics, education, and athletics; and

WHEREAS, members of the I.C. Norcom High School Alumni Association sought, with great purpose and zeal, to champion their alma mater and honor its history throughout the anniversary year; and

WHEREAS, the accomplishments of I.C. Norcom High School are the result of the hard work and dedication of its leaders and educators, the spirit and commitment of its students, and the extraordinary support of the entire Portsmouth community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That I.C. Norcom High School hereby be commended on the occasion of its 145th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to I.C. Norcom High School as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's high regard for the institution's contributions to the Commonwealth.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 64

Celebrating the life of John Oliver Wynne.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 15, 2024

WHEREAS, John Oliver Wynne, the former president and chief executive officer of Landmark Communications, Inc., who had a profound impact on the Commonwealth through his innovative leadership on economic development, education, regional collaboration, governmental performance, and civic and cultural initiatives, died on October 26, 2023; and

WHEREAS, John "Dubby" Wynne was born in Norfolk on July 6, 1945, and graduated from Norfolk Academy, where he was captain of the tennis, football, and basketball teams; he earned a bachelor's degree from Princeton University, then, after interrupting his legal studies for active duty in the United States Army Reserve, earned his law degree from the University of Virginia; he was also later awarded an honorary doctorate of humane letters by Old Dominion University; and

WHEREAS, after completing his legal studies, Dubby Wynne joined the Willcox Savage law firm, then moved to Landmark Communications, a Norfolk-based media company, to work as an attorney on significant litigation matters; he rose to the company's executive ranks, where he was mentored by Frank Batten, Sr., and after a fruitful career, he retired as the company's president and chief executive officer in 2001, while continuing to serve on its board of directors; and

WHEREAS, Dubby Wynne's productive tenure at Landmark Communications included his primary role in launching The Weather Channel cable network, for which he received numerous national awards, including the Governor's Award from the National Academy of Cable Programming for "his leadership and insight in making The Weather Channel the preeminent provider of weather information, and one of the most innovative and popular networks on television," as well as induction into the Cable Hall of Fame; during this time he also served in leadership roles in the National Cable Television Association and National Satellite Programmers Group; and

WHEREAS, Dubby Wynne gave back generously to each of the educational institutions that helped prepare him for success in business and in life, serving as a trustee and president of the board of trustees of Norfolk Academy, as a charter trustee and executive committee member of the board of trustees and national chair of giving campaigns for Princeton University, and as member and rector of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia and chair of the University of Virginia Investment Management Company; and

WHEREAS, perceiving a crucial connection between education and economic development in the Commonwealth, Dubby Wynne dedicated his time, talent, and experience to service on the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, the Virginia Business Higher Education Council (VBHEC), the Council on Virginia's Future, and the Virginia Growth and Opportunity Board and Foundation, selflessly devoting hundreds of his retirement hours to travel throughout the Commonwealth for meetings and presentations; and

WHEREAS, under Dubby Wynne's leadership, the Council on Virginia's Future examined best practices from other states and the private sector to enhance the efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability of state government and made extensive and detailed recommendations on actions to improve the quality of life for Virginians through initiatives in economic and talent development, human services, health care, and government reform; and

WHEREAS, the work of the Council on Virginia's Future under Dubby Wynne's direction documented the steps needed to make Virginia the national leader in educational attainment, laying the intellectual foundation for VBHEC's initiative to add 100,000 bachelor's and associate degrees by 2025 with a focus on science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and health care; as a member of Governor Robert McDonnell's higher education commission and business advocate, he also helped weave that initiative into the Commonwealth's law and policy through passage of the landmark Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011, known as the "Top Jobs Act"; and

WHEREAS, reflecting his conviction that the economic growth of the Commonwealth depend on strong regional cooperation, Dubby Wynne galvanized the state's senior business community to develop and promote the collaborative regional program known as GO Virginia, which aimed to bring business, education, and government leaders together in each region for cooperative effort on business recruitment and retention, job creation, entrepreneurship, and workforce development; and

WHEREAS, after leading efforts to secure passage of the GO Virginia legislation, Dubby Wynne served as founding chair of the Virginia Growth and Opportunity Board; he then took the reins of the business-led GO Virginia Foundation, spearheading the talent pathways initiative designed to meet the workforce needs of the highest growth industry clusters in each region and to help keep young people in Virginia for post-graduation employment; and

WHEREAS, the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission report on the GO Virginia program in 2023 found that it was fulfilling its intended purpose by facilitating greater collaboration among key stakeholders within the state's regional economies and offered suggestions for expanding the program's impact by accelerating its grant awards; and

WHEREAS, Dubby Wynne enhanced the well-being of people in his home region of Hampton Roads and throughout the Commonwealth by his exceedingly generous philanthropic activity and by his personal involvement in numerous worthy civic and cultural causes; and

WHEREAS, Dubby Wynne served as chair of the Virginia Business Council, co-chair of the Hampton Roads Business Partnership, chair of the Hampton Roads Community Foundation; he was a founding member of the Hampton Roads Business Roundtable, served on the governing boards of the Eastern Virginia Medical School Foundation and the Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters, and provided his leadership to Junior Achievement of Tidewater, the United Way of South Hampton Roads Capital Campaign, and the board of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation; and

WHEREAS, faith and family were of primary importance to Dubby Wynne; he was devoted to his wife of more than 50 years, Susan, and to his sons, John and Bradford, and their families; and

WHEREAS, the loss of Dubby Wynne's son Lee to leukemia in 1984 at age six profoundly fortified his faith; he was a lifelong member of Galilee Episcopal Church in Virginia Beach, where he served on the vestry and in other key roles, and he sought to live out his faith by devoting himself tirelessly to serving others in his community and the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, Dubby Wynne improved the lives of countless young Virginians of all backgrounds, regions, and circumstances by expanding their educational and employment opportunities, and he will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his family and friends as well as colleagues throughout Virginia; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of John Oliver Wynne, a former executive of Landmark Communications and transformational servant-leader in Hampton Roads and throughout the Commonwealth; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of John Oliver Wynne as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 67

Commending Earth Force.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 15, 2024

WHEREAS, Earth Force, an organization dedicated to engaging young people as active citizens who improve the environment and their communities now and in the future, celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2023; and

WHEREAS, inspired by the work of a group of elementary school students from Freeport, Maine, the Pew Charitable Trusts founded Earth Force in 1993 with the aim to provide young people with civic experiences that will motivate them to become active citizens in addressing environmental challenges; and

WHEREAS, through the Earth Force process, which combines best practices from environmental education, service-learning, experiential civics education, and youth development, young individuals gain direct experience in addressing environmental and community issues, developing valuable leadership skills along the way; and

WHEREAS, Earth Force's approach has evolved over the years in collaboration with other environmental organizations--such as Global Rivers Environmental Education Network and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Chesapeake Bay Office--and in 2019 launched its innovative Environmental Action Civics program; and

WHEREAS, with adults guiding young people through the process of investigating environmental problems, identifying issues that affect their lives, and developing and implementing a course of action, Earth Force's Environmental Action Civics program helps students develop a range of essential skills and most importantly, inspires them to become involved in the environmental decision-making that will impact their futures; and

WHEREAS, building on its success over the past three decades, Earth Force announced its TenFold program in 2021, a five-year strategic plan to expand the organization's reach from 15,000 to 150,000 students; and

WHEREAS, today, Earth Force has programs in 28 states, with more than 750 educators empowering nearly 50,000 students to become agents of change for the benefit of the environment and the future of the planet; and

WHEREAS, local chapters of Earth Force have collaborated with Caring for our Watersheds, an education program that encourages students to participate in efforts to preserve and improve local watersheds through student-led solutions; and

WHEREAS, members of Earth Force at George Washington Middle School in Alexandria were recently successful in their efforts to address the issue of mold in schools, an accomplishment that will improve the quality of life for thousands of young people in the Commonwealth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Earth Force hereby be commended on the occasion of the organization's 30th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Earth Force as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the organization's mission and best wishes for its continued success.

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame, located in Virginia Beach, has honored hundreds of Virginia's exceptional athletes, coaches, and media personalities since its inception in 1972; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame celebrates athletic excellence in the Commonwealth, highlights philanthropy through sports, and inspires sports fans through engaging and entertaining programs; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame will celebrate its 51st Induction Weekend by honoring the Class of 2024 and the Distinguished Virginian Award recipient on April 19-20, 2024, in Henrico County; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame is honored to present the Class of 2024 inductees as follows:

The Class of 2024

Jill Ellis

Jill Ellis scored 32 goals as forward for the women's soccer team at The College of William and Mary in Virginia in the 1980s then embarked on a stellar coaching career that led her to the top of her profession. In 14 seasons as an NCAA Division-I head coach with the University of Illinois and the University of California Los Angeles, she compiled a record of 248-63-14, and her teams made eight appearances in the Women's College Cup. Following her collegiate career, she spent the next 20 years with the U.S. Women's National Team (USWNT), including seven years as head coach. She led the USWNT to back-to-back Women's World Cup Championships in 2015 and 2019 and finished her tenure as head coach with a record of 106-7-19. She has previously been inducted into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame.

Craig Littlepage

Over the course of 45 years at the University of Virginia (UVA), Craig Littlepage was an assistant coach on the men's basketball team from 1976 to 1982 and 1988 to 1990, worked in athletics administration from 1990 to 2017, then served as the director of athletics for 16 years, during which time the Virginia Cavaliers were one of the most successful programs in the nation, winning 76 Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) championships, and 13 national championships. The 76 conference championships were the most by an ACC member school during that time. He also chaired the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Men's Basketball Tournament Selection Committee, was a member of the USA Basketball Board of Directors, and was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Hall of Fame.

Chris Long

Chris Long was a two-time ACC selection, 2007 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Dudley Award winner, and First Team All-American for the University of Virginia football team. He was selected by the St. Louis Rams as the number two overall pick in the 2008 National Football League (NFL) Draft and went on to play 11 seasons in the NFL with St. Louis, the New England Patriots, and the Philadelphia Eagles. He registered 332 tackles, 70 sacks, and 15 forced fumbles during his career, while also being a part of two Super Bowl-winning teams: New England in 2017 and Philadelphia in 2018. His impact has extended well beyond the gridiron through his Chris Long Foundation, and for his charitable efforts he received the NFL Players Associations Alan Page Community Award and the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award.

LaShawn Merritt

LaShawn Merritt attended Manor High School in Portsmouth, formerly Woodrow Wilson High School, and became one of the Commonwealth's most decorated track and field athletes. After sweeping the 100, 200, and 400 meter sprints at the 2004 Virginia High School League state championships, he took his success global and appeared in the 2008, 2012, and 2016 Summer Olympic Games, bringing home a total of three gold medals and one bronze medal. His success on the international stage went beyond the Olympics, and as an eight-time world champion, he won an additional 23 medals in international competitions, 19 of which were gold.

Hal Nunnally

Hal Nunnally, who died in 2004, was a native of Petersburg who led the Randolph-Macon College men's basketball team to a 431-232 record over 24 seasons. During that period, he recorded 20 winning seasons, 10 20-win seasons, 10 NCAA tournament appearances, and an appearance in the 1977 NCAA Division II National Championship game. He earned 11 coach of the year awards, including six from the National Association of Basketball Coaches in the South Atlantic District in 1977, 1981, 1983, 1984, 1989, and 1990. He was inducted into the Randolph-Macon Athletics Hall of Fame.

Dave Smith

Dave Smith, a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, began his career in athletics as the first sports information director in Ferrum College's history. In 1975, he returned to his alma mater where he would stay for the next 40 years. Beginning as an assistant sports information director for the men's basketball and baseball programs, he worked his way up to associate athletics director, then became the primary football communications contact in 1998. Following his retirement in 2015, the College Sports Information Directors of America named him the recipient of its Lifetime Achievement Award, and the Virginia Sports Information Directors presented him with its Distinguished Service Award.

Paul Woody

Paul Woody, a Virginia Commonwealth University alumnus, spent 40 years as a sportswriter and columnist for the Richmond News Leader and Richmond Times-Dispatch. Beginning in 1980, he served as the Richmond paper's primary beat reporter for coverage of what is now the Washington Commanders. For his coverage of the NFL and other events, he received 15 Pro Football Writers of America Awards, 10 Virginia Press Association Awards, three Associated Press Sports Editors Awards, and two U.S. Basketball Writers Association Awards.

Monica Wright Rogers

Monica Wright Rogers graduated from Forest Park High School in Woodbridge, where she won two VHSL state championships and was named the 2006 Gatorade Virginia Player of the Year for women's basketball and was a McDonald's High School and WBCA All-American. After committing to play for the University of Virginia, she rewrote the Virginia Cavaliers' record books, setting program career records for total points (2,540), scoring average (19.1 ppg), field goals made (962), field goal attempts (2,207), and 25-point games (28). A three-time All-American, she was named the 2010 ACC Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year, and WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year. Following college she played seven seasons in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA), was named to the 2010 WNBA All-Rookie Team, and won two WNBA championships; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame is also honored to present the 2024 Distinguished Virginian Award recipient:

Rick Jeffrey

Rick Jeffrey grew up in Richmond and graduated from Hampden-Sydney College. His impact on sports was felt across the Commonwealth during his 36 years with Special Olympics Virginia, including 22 years as president. Rick Jeffrey was the longest serving president in the organization's history and continually grew its selection of sports offerings and competition experiences, while helping the organization reach never-before-seen financial milestones and community impact measurements; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Jill Ellis, Rick Jeffrey, Craig Littlepage, Chris Long, LaShawn Merritt, Hal Nunnally, Dave Smith, Paul Woody, and Monica Wright Rogers hereby be commended for their outstanding achievements in athletics and philanthropy; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and its 2024 inductees as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's congratulations and admiration for their many contributions to the world of sports.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 120

Commending the Swift Creek Middle School cheerleading team.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2024

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Middle School cheerleading team of Chesterfield County won first place in the Chesterfield County Middle School Cheerleading Competition Championship on February 21, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Middle School Sailors were the top team among the ten schools that participated in this county-wide competition at Clover Hill High School in Chesterfield County; and

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Sailors practiced five days a week, averaging two hours each practice and rehearsal, all while completing their usual course of school work and participating in other extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Sailors' coaches, Katie Coates and Savannah Parker, are also teachers at Swift Creek Middle School and devote their time during and after school to mentoring and training 20 squad members, including 15 competitive members and five alternate-competitive members; and

WHEREAS, Coach Coates and Coach Parker work to ensure a positive and welcoming environment for the Swift Creek Sailors, regardless of their skill level or experience, and foster a team that places respect, determination, perseverance, and kindness at the center of their culture, enabling girls to learn, support each other, and grow in their confidence and leadership skills; and

WHEREAS, cheerleading is a sport that incorporates other disciplines, and the Swift Creek Sailors are required to be trained in various athletics, including cardiovascular exercises, gymnastics, tumbling, and dance; and

WHEREAS, according to USA Cheer, the United States governing body for the sport of cheering, cheerleading has gained in popularity over the years and is now one of the most popular activities in the United States with over three million participants; and

WHEREAS, according to USA Cheer, the first "cheer leader" took the field at the University of Minnesota during a game in 1898, leading the crowd in a chant to spur on their team while unknowingly setting the stage for cheerleading as we know it today; and

WHEREAS, cheerleaders consistently perform engaging routines at sports events such as football and basketball games, leading spectators in supporting and encouraging their respective teams; and

WHEREAS, cheerleaders participate in competitions at the county, district, state, collegiate, and national levels that are designed to challenge their physical abilities as they develop and execute complex, rigorous, and demanding competitive routines; and

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Sailors' victory represents the first time Swift Creek Middle School has taken first place at the Chesterfield County Middle School Cheerleading Competition Championship; and

WHEREAS, the Swift Creek Sailors stand as an example of the excellence that Swift Creek Middle School and Chesterfield County Public Schools strive to achieve every single day; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the Swift Creek Middle School cheerleading team hereby be commended for its outstanding performance and representation of Swift Creek Middle School, Chesterfield County, and the sport of cheerleading; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the Swift Creek Middle School cheerleading team as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's pride and congratulations for its remarkable achievement.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 177

Commending the United States Foreign Service.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2024

WHEREAS, for 100 years, the United States Foreign Service has carried out vital diplomacy, implemented the foreign policy of the United States, and provided assistance to American citizens living, working, and traveling abroad; and

WHEREAS, in the early history of the United States, the diplomatic service provided ambassadors and ministers to staff overseas embassies, while the consular service provided consuls to assist American mariners in foreign ports and promote international trade and commerce; and

WHEREAS, in 1924, the United States Congress passed the Rogers Act, introduced by Representative John Jacobs Rogers, merging the duties, responsibilities, and personnel of the diplomatic and consular services into a single administrative unit, the United States Foreign Service, under the U.S. Department of State; and

WHEREAS, prior to the creation of the United States Foreign Service, ambassadors and consuls were appointed by the president and, for many years, earned no salary due to an expectation that they would support themselves through private business or by collecting fees; and

WHEREAS, the United States Foreign Service reshaped the institutions of American diplomacy by developing a rigorous examination to ensure the recruitment of the most outstanding individuals and implementing a merit-based promotion system; and

WHEREAS, the United States Foreign Service has grown steadily over the years, and there are currently more than 13,900 Foreign Service professionals stationed at the 279 diplomatic missions around the world, including embassies, consulates, and other facilities, or in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, in the course of American history, more than 321 diplomats and Foreign Service professionals have died in the line duty; their names are inscribed on memorial plaques in the lobby of the U.S. Department of State office to honor their sacrifice; and

WHEREAS, members of the United States Foreign Service continue to provide accurate information, expert counsel, and wise guidance to policymakers, the media, and scholars; their accomplishments and critical insights on foreign events are often recorded in oral histories that are managed by the Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training and filed with the Frontline Diplomacy Collection at the Library of Congress; and

WHEREAS, shortly after the creation of the United States Foreign Service, the Consular Association was reestablished as the American Foreign Service Association, which has operated as the primary professional association of the Foreign Service community since that time and as a labor union for more than 50 years; and

WHEREAS, the American Foreign Service Association will celebrate the milestone 100th anniversary of the United States Foreign Service with a variety of events, including a special commemorative edition of The Foreign Service Journal in May 2024; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That the United States Foreign Service hereby be commended on the occasion of its 100th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to the American Foreign Service Association and the Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for the important mission and outstanding achievements of American diplomats and Foreign Service members around the globe.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 182

Commending Physician-Parent Caregivers.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2024

WHEREAS, Physician-Parent Caregivers is a nonprofit organization and think tank that is devoted to the study of chronic medical conditions and works diligently to enhance the quality of life for young adults living with chronic medical conditions; and

WHEREAS, the young adult population of the United States, which includes those between the ages of 18 and 34, is increasingly living with serious chronic medical conditions that impact their daily life; and

WHEREAS, young adults are the least likely age group in the United States to have health insurance; 14 percent of young adults between the ages of 19 and 25 are uninsured and 12.5 percent of young adults between the ages of 26 and 34 are uninsured; and

WHEREAS, Physician-Parent Caregivers is the first and only nonprofit organization of its kind, exclusively devoted to analyzing quality health care and quality of life for young people with chronic conditions; and

WHEREAS, Physician-Parent Caregivers helps identify and address the specific needs of young adults with chronic conditions, as they are often not considered as a demographic susceptible to these conditions; providers are often untrained in treating childhood-onset conditions, and young adults with chronic conditions often face barriers to acquiring long-term quality care into adulthood; and

WHEREAS, Physician-Parent Caregivers supports additional research on this specific age group and promotes the need for proactive and preventative care to improve their quality of life and to reduce their overall cost of care; and

WHEREAS, Physician-Parent Caregivers recognizes that the fulfillment and success of young adults with chronic medical conditions is vital to the success of the Commonwealth and the United States as a whole and strives to ensure that these individuals can participate fully in their communities; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Virginia, That Physician-Parent Caregivers hereby be commended for its efforts to increase awareness of young adults with chronic illnesses and support research that will improve their quality of life and medical outcomes; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Physician-Parent Caregivers as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's admiration for its achievements and dedication to supporting these young adults.

WHEREAS, David R. Rathburn, a highly respected Virginia businessman, community leader, and philanthropist, passed away on February 6, 2024; and

WHEREAS, David Rathburn was born in Denver, Colorado, on July 7, 1957, and graduated from Grove City College in 1979 with degrees in accounting, business administration, and political science; and

WHEREAS, David Rathburn began his professional career at Price Waterhouse before joining Hopeman Brothers Marine Division of AWH Corporation as assistant to the president; and

WHEREAS, at the age of 33, David Rathburn was named president of Hopeman Brothers and led it for 22 years before forming marine interior outfitter US Joiner LLC in Crozet; and

WHEREAS, David Rathburn was guided through life by his strong Christian faith that led him to serve as a Ruling Elder at First Presbyterian Church of Charlottesville and a leader of Junior Achievement of Augusta County, the Waynesboro and East Augusta United Way, and the Virginia Institute of Autism; and

WHEREAS, David Rathburn was elected to the Grove City College Board of Trustees in 1992 and in 2003 became the youngest person to serve as the Board's chairman; and

WHEREAS, David Rathburn served as interim president of Grove City College, making many important operational decisions in 2003; and

WHEREAS, during David Rathburn's 28 years as a trustee, Grove City College provided quality Christian higher education to thousands of students, extricated itself from the federal student loan program, and raised half a dozen new buildings, including Rathburn Hall; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of David R. Rathburn, a respected Virginian; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare copies of this resolution for presentation to the family of David R. Rathburn and to Grove City College as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for his memory.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 185

Celebrating the life of Antoinette Owens Ashworth.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 8, 2024

WHEREAS, Antoinette Owens Ashworth, a beloved wife, mother, and grandmother in Richmond who played a leading role in the creation of the Virginia Women's Monument at the Virginia State Capitol, died on January 25, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Antoinette "Toni" Ashworth grew up in Portsmouth and enjoyed many family outings on the Elizabeth River and nearby beaches in her youth; and

WHEREAS, Toni Ashworth was accepted at the Columbia University School of Nursing in New York City, where she met her husband, Jack, who was also a native of Virginia and was studying at the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons; and

WHEREAS, Toni and Jack Ashworth's New York love story included countless last-minute tickets to standing-room-only concerts and theatre shows, along with many other experiences that fueled their lifelong thirst for adventure; and

WHEREAS, Toni Ashworth cared for sick and elderly patients in Brooklyn and Harlem as a member of the Visiting Nurse Association until her husband secured a position as the residing physician on the Papago Indian Reservation in Arizona; and

WHEREAS, after two years in Arizona, Toni Ashworth and her growing family returned to the Commonwealth and settled in Richmond, where she pursued passions for fashion, design, and entrepreneurship during her daughters' childhood years; and

WHEREAS, Toni Ashworth's keen eye and creative talents led her to develop an additional interest in art history, through which she developed lifelong friendships; she ultimately served on the committee that developed and proposed the Virginia Women's Monument, which is now located on Capitol Square and honors the contributions of creative, brave, and wise women from throughout Virginia History; and

WHEREAS, Toni Ashworth inspired others through her elegance and grace; she relished every opportunity to support her daughters and grandchildren and instill in them her compassion, kindness, and positivity; and

WHEREAS, Toni Ashworth will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her beloved husband of 65 years, Jack; her daughters, Carolyn and Amy, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of Antoinette Owens Ashworth, a vibrant member of the Richmond community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Antoinette Owens Ashworth as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for her memory.
