JOURNAL
OF THE
HOUSE OF DELEGATES
2014 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by G. Paul Nardo, Clerk thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Acting Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Daniel H. Cook, Associate Pastor of Spotswood Baptist Church, Fredericksburg, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, the Apostle Paul challenges us to pray for our elected leaders when he writes in 1 Timothy 2:1-3, 'First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior.' Father, as we bow before you this morning, it is a privilege for me to do this in person, as I lift up these elected leaders before me. I ask, Father, that You would provide them with strength, wisdom, and compassion. Please give them the strength they will need as they struggle with the issues before them. Please give them wisdom to understand how to work together for the greater good and still be men and women of conviction. Please give them compassion, so that as they deal with the problems and begin to work together, they will do so with a concern for all Virginians, no matter their race, creed, or position in life.

Father, in the midst of the battles and struggles of doing what they were elected to do, may each of these men and women find comfort and encouragement in knowing that they are being prayed for, not just today, but in the days to come.

Father, in the midst of the chaos and uncertainty of our times, may these leaders find refuge and peace in the reality of your sovereignty. No matter what tomorrow brings, may they find peace in knowing that You will always be on the Throne of Heaven. Thank You for the assurance of knowing that when the sun rises tomorrow, You will already be there and in control.

We also pray, Father, for the men and women in our armed services who are risking their lives to ensure our safety and to provide the freedom that allows us to do what we are doing right now. Please watch over them and keep them safe.

In closing, Father, please protect and watch over the families of these men and women before me. Bless these families for the sacrifices they make in order for their loved ones to answer the call to serve.

God, please bless the Commonwealth of Virginia and the United States of America.

In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

The Clerk led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The Clerk reported that the following communications had been received since the adjournment of the 2013 Special Session I:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

VIA FACSIMILE & 1st CLASS MAIL

Governor Bob McDonnell
Office of the Governor
Patrick Henry Building, 3rd Floor
1111 East Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Governor McDonnell:

It has been an honor and privilege to serve in the Virginia General Assembly. I have benefitted greatly from the example of principled men and women who have gone before me, as well as the expertise and integrity of my colleagues in Richmond. Most importantly, though, my constituents have been the greatest source of inspiration and wise counsel, and I am grateful for their trust. Now, I plan to stay home and serve those citizens – and all of Virginia Beach – in a different way.

As I am sure you are aware, I have been appointed by the Circuit Court Judges to fill a vacancy in the Virginia Beach General District Court. To that end, I am writing to inform you that I will be resigning my seat in the House of Delegates effective upon my taking the oath as a Judge in the 2nd Judicial District.

I appreciate the opportunity to serve the Commonwealth and look forward to many years of public service.

Respectfully,
/s/ Salvatore R. Iaquinto

Honorable Robert F. McDonnell
Governor of Virginia
1111 East Broad Street, 3rd Floor
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Dear Governor McDonnell,

I have been informed that my election to the Virginia Senate has been certified by the State Board of Elections and I will take office on Friday, August 16th. Therefore, I will resign from the House of Delegates upon my completing the oath of office for the Senate.

It has been my honor and privilege to serve the fine citizens of the 78th House District for the last 12 years, and I look forward to continuing my service to the Commonwealth in the Virginia Senate representing the 14th Senate District.

Also, thank you for your service to the Commonwealth and the friendship that we have shared over the years.

Sincerely,
/s/ John A. Cosgrove

November 25, 2013

Dear Mr. Nardo:

It is with deep regret that I am writing to inform you that I will not be getting sworn in for my sixth term as Delegate of the 11th District. Although I was recently re-elected to the Virginia House of Delegates, I believe now is the best time for me to step down.

This has not been an easy decision, however, my mother's health is steadily declining and I need to be able to support her in any way I can. I have been blessed with a great family, and my loved ones will always come first.

My last day as the Delegate of the 11th District, will be on Tuesday, January 7, 2013.

Sincerely,
/s/ Delegate Onzlee Ware
Virginia House of Delegates
11th District

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 65

Establishing the Rules of the House of Delegates for the 2014 - 2015 Sessions of the General Assembly of Virginia.

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That the House of Delegates shall be governed by the following Rules:

I. Organization.

Elections.

Rule 1. At the elections in the House, the voting shall be by use of the electronic voting system or, if it is inoperable, viva voce by response to the call of names, and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Except in the case of block voting, only one person shall be chosen at a time. If, on the first voting, no one receives a majority, the person having the smallest number of votes shall not be voted for on the next voting and so on until someone shall receive a majority of the whole vote. If the election is by joint vote of the two houses, messages shall be exchanged for each voting announcing the names of persons in nomination. A committee of three from each house shall compare the votes and ascertain and report the result.

At the election for any judgeship to the Supreme Court of Virginia, the Court of Appeals of Virginia, Circuit Courts, and Courts Not of Record, no nominee shall be offered to the House unless that nominee has been interviewed by the House Courts of Justice Committee and subsequently certified as qualified for election. If more than one nominee is offered for any judgeship, a member may cast a vote for only one nominee.

The Speaker.

Rule 2. The House of Delegates shall choose its own Speaker from among the members of the House. The Speaker shall be elected in even-numbered years for a term of two years. The nominations for Speaker shall be viva voce without debate and no second shall be required to place a name in nomination. Once nominations are closed, the election of the Speaker shall be a matter of privilege and shall be conducted immediately and shall not be debated. The voting for Speaker shall be by use of the electronic voting system or, if it is inoperable, viva voce by response to the call of names, and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Each member shall vote for only one nominee for Speaker in each round of voting. If, on the first voting, no one receives a majority, the person having the smallest number of votes shall not be voted for on the next voting and so on until someone shall receive a majority of the whole vote. Once elected, the Speaker shall not be removed from his office during his term except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the elected membership of the House.

The Speaker may appoint to the Chair any member who shall exercise its functions for the time. However, no member, by virtue of such appointment, shall preside for a longer time than three consecutive days. During such appointment the Speaker may participate in the debates.

If the Speaker be absent, and have named no one to act in his stead, the duties shall be performed by the chairman of one of the standing committees taking precedence in the order in which the committees are named in Rule 16.

Rule 3. The Speaker shall take the Chair every day precisely at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned on the preceding legislative day. He shall immediately call the House to order. After divine services are performed, he shall direct that the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America be recited, and he shall direct that the roll of members be taken, pursuant to Rule 32, and the names of those members present entered upon the Journal. A quorum being present, he shall proceed with the business of the day. The Speaker shall have the power to supervise and correct the Journal. The Speaker, having examined the Journal of the proceedings of the last day's sitting and approved the same, shall announce to the House his approval of the Journal. The Speaker's approval of the Journal shall be deemed to be agreed to subject to a vote on agreeing to the Speaker's approval on the demand of any member, which vote, if decided in the affirmative, shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. It shall be in order to offer one motion that the Journal be read only if the Speaker's approval of the Journal is not agreed to, and such motion shall be determined without debate and shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. Upon the last day of the session, the Journal for that day being examined and found correct shall be signed by the Speaker and the Clerk. The said Journals, when so signed, shall be the authentic record of the proceedings of the House.

Rule 4. The Speaker shall have a general direction of the House Chamber with power, in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in such part thereof as may be appropriated to spectators, to have the same cleared. Representatives of news media, wishing to report the proceedings of the House, may be admitted by the Speaker, who shall assign them to such places in the House Chamber as shall not interfere with the convenience of the members.

Rule 5. All enrolled bills and joint resolutions proposing amendments to the Constitution shall be signed by the Speaker and all writs and warrants issued by order of the House shall be under his hand and seal, attested by the Clerk.

The Clerk.

Rule 6. A Clerk shall be elected by the House in even-numbered years and shall be deemed to continue in office until another is chosen. In the event of a vacancy, the Speaker may appoint an acting Clerk until a successor is elected by the House or, if the House is not in session, by the Committee on Rules at a meeting to be called by the chairman or, in his absence, the vice chairman, or a majority of the membership of the committee. At least three working days notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be given to all members of said committee, and the person receiving a majority of the votes of the members of said committee present and voting shall be deemed to be elected to fill said vacancy.

Rule 6(a). The Clerk shall have authority, with the approval of the Speaker, to employ personnel necessary to accomplish the work of the House subject to such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the Speaker; such personnel may be removed by the Clerk with the approval of the Speaker. The Clerk shall be charged with the clerical business of the House and its committees.

Pages shall be appointed annually by the Speaker and shall be thirteen or fourteen years old at the time of their initial appointment. They shall be ineligible for reappointment after serving for two years. The Clerk shall be responsible for the administration of the Page program.

Rule 6(b). The Clerk shall be charged with the duty of assigning each member to a seat in the House Chamber and office space. No seat or office space assigned to and occupied by a member who is reelected shall be changed without such member's consent.

Rule 7. The Clerk shall perform all the duties of his office under the direction of the Speaker. He shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the House, have the same in proper form to be signed as provided by Rule 3, and submit it daily to the Speaker in time to be examined before the next assembling of the House. He shall keep at the Clerk's table, during the sittings of the House, a calendar or docket so arranged as to show the condition and progress of the business of the House. He shall provide to each member before the assembling of the House each day, a printed calendar of pending bills and a list of all bills offered on the preceding day, under Rule 37, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills, and the committees to which the same have been referred. After amendments have been agreed to by the House, he shall see that they are handled only by the clerks of the standing committees, if referred or rereferred; clerks at the desk; or the clerks charged with the duty of engrossing bills until such amendments have been duly engrossed and verified.

Rule 8. The Clerk shall keep accounts of the compensation of the members, officials, and employees of the House, and shall from time to time certify the same to the Comptroller. He shall provide the stationery required for the business of the House and for the official use of the members. He also shall provide postage for the official use of the members within the limitations established by the Rules Committee.

Rule 9. The Clerk shall provide to the members, when required, vouchers for mileage and expenses; certify such for payment as provided by law; and pay over to those entitled the money due upon such vouchers.

He shall keep detailed accounts of all transactions pursuant to Rules 8 and 9, which shall be open to inspection at all times.

Sergeant at Arms.

Rule 10. A Sergeant at Arms shall be elected by the House and continue in office during its pleasure. He shall have as his assistants during sessions of the House doorkeepers who shall be appointed by the Speaker.

Rule 11. The Sergeant at Arms shall, with his assistants, attend upon the House during its sitting, and execute its commands, together with all such process, issued by its authority, as shall be directed to him by the Speaker.

Rule 12. The Sergeant at Arms shall, under the direction of the Speaker, have charge of the policing of the Hall and prevent any interruption of the business of the House by disorder within or without. He shall distribute among the members all papers printed for their use and give such attendance upon them during the sittings of the House as will promote their comfort and facilitate the business of the House.

Immediately prior to the convening of every session, he shall clear the floor of the House of all persons other than those specified under Rule 83 who are authorized to be there during each session.

Rule 13. The Sergeant at Arms shall attend to receiving and dispatching all messages in the House Chamber intended for or sent by members and make such arrangement as to promote the convenience of the members. He shall attend to the display of the Mace during sessions of the House and direct all persons not entitled to privileges on the floor of the House to the gallery.

Oaths of Office.

Rule 14. The oaths which the officers of the House are required by law to take shall be administered and certified by a person authorized to administer oaths and shall be filed with the Clerk of the House.

Committees.

Rule 15. All committee members shall be appointed by the Speaker. The Speaker shall designate the chairman and vice chairman of each committee provided that no member shall be chairman of more than one committee, unless a chairman of a standing committee is serving as Speaker pursuant to Rule 2, and no member shall be vice chairman of more than one committee, as designated in Rule 16. If the chairman and vice chairman are absent or excused by the House, one of the members shall act as the chairman, taking precedence in the order named by the Speaker. The Speaker shall serve as chairman of the Committee on Rules.

Rule 16. There shall be appointed standing committees, to be named and to consist of up to the number of members indicated below:

- | | |
|--|------------|
| 1. Privileges and Elections | 22 members |

- and the Speaker

The Speaker shall designate seven members of the House Rules Committee to meet with members of the Senate to constitute the Joint Rules Committee.

Rule 16(a). Membership on all standing committees shall be contingent upon membership or nonmembership in the majority party caucus. The apportionment of members on all standing committees shall be according to the same ratio of members in the House of Delegates who are members or nonmembers of the majority party caucus. If such ratio would represent a fractional number of the committee membership assigned to the majority party caucus, then the number of majority party caucus members on standing committees shall be the next highest whole number of committee members. For the purposes of this rule only, members who do not caucus with the majority party caucus or the largest minority party caucus shall be deemed part of the majority party caucus.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Speaker of the House may appoint two more House members to any legislative commission, joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, or any interim study committee than are appointed by the Senate.

Rule 16(b). The Speaker shall strive to appoint from each congressional district at least one member who represents that congressional district on all standing committees with the exception of Rules.

Rule 17. A majority shall constitute a quorum for committees. Each committee shall meet pursuant to a regular meeting schedule as approved by the Speaker. In addition to a committee's regular scheduled meeting(s), a committee chairman may call additional meetings. It shall be the duty of a committee to meet on call of a majority of the committee's members if the chairman is absent or declines to call a meeting. However, additional committee meetings may not be scheduled that are in conflict with another committee's regularly scheduled meeting time. No committee shall meet while the House is in session without special leave granted by the Speaker.

Rule 17(a). The chairman of any standing committee may appoint subcommittees provided any such subcommittee shall consist of no fewer than five members, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business.

Rule 17(b). The chairman of any standing committee may appoint ad hoc subcommittees of less than five members to consider no more than one bill or resolution, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

Rule 17(c). With the exception of Fridays, on days when the House is in session between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., no subcommittee of a standing committee except for the Appropriations or Rules Committees shall meet opposite a standing committee unless the parent committee forgoes meeting at its designated time to allow its subcommittees to meet. Subcommittees of standing committees may meet after the House has adjourned for the day on Fridays and weekends upon call of the chairman to consider any such matter as may have been referred to them.

Rule 18. The several standing committees shall consider matters specially referred to them and, whenever practicable, suggest such legislation as may be germane to the duties of the committee. The chairman shall have discretion to determine when, and if, legislation shall be heard before the committee. The chairman, at his discretion, may refer legislation for consideration to a subcommittee. If referred to a subcommittee, the legislation shall be considered by the subcommittee. If the subcommittee does not recommend such legislation by a majority vote, the chairman need not consider the legislation in the full committee. It shall be the duty of each committee to inquire into the condition and administration of the laws relating to the subjects which it has in its charge; to investigate the conduct and look to the responsibility of all public officers and agents concerned; and to suggest such measures as will correct abuses, protect the public interests, and promote the public welfare.

Any committee of the House may, at its discretion, confer with a committee of the Senate having under consideration the same subject. No select committee shall be appointed to consider any subject falling properly within the province of a standing committee.

Rule 18(a). When a question is before the committee, no motion shall be received unless specially provided for, except to adjourn, pass by indefinitely, lay upon the table, postpone for a specified time or purpose, refer or rerefer, amend or incorporate, strike from the docket, or report; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and each such motion shall be required to be seconded.

The Committee on Rules may, on a vote of a majority of the members appointed plus one, send a bill, joint resolution, or resolution to the floor on a motion that "the bill, joint resolution, or resolution be reported to the floor by the committee without specific recommendation." This motion is a special motion and can only be made in the Committee on Rules.

The vote of each member voting on any question shall be recorded upon the call of the chairman or the desire of one-fifth of the members present.

When a question has been decided, it may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who voted with the prevailing side provided it be made on the same day or if such motion has not been communicated to the House, such motion may be made no later than the adjournment of the next regularly scheduled meeting of the full committee, except for those measures continued pursuant to Rule 22.

Rule 18(b). Committees shall in all cases report by bill or resolution, with or without amendment or amendments, in such form that, if passed or agreed to, it will carry into effect their recommendations; but no papers returned therewith shall be printed unless the committee shall so recommend. Every bill shall be printed, as provided in Rule 37. Bills may be considered in executive session, but final vote thereon shall be in open session.

Rule 18(c). A recorded vote of members upon each measure sent to the floor, including those measures reported and referred by committee, shall be taken and the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining shall be reported with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar.

Rule 18(d). Reports of the committees may be handed to the Clerk at any time and may be disposed of in the morning hour. If, in the judgment of the Speaker, any report of a committee requires immediate action he may bring it to the attention of the House at any time.

Rule 18(e). No member shall be excluded from any meeting of a committee, subcommittee, joint subcommittee, or interim study committee except as hereinafter provided for the maintenance of order. If an electronic meeting is authorized by the chairman, no member shall be excluded from participating by electronic communication means, and members participating by electronic communication means shall not be counted in attendance for purposes of a quorum. The chairman of the committee shall maintain order and decorum, and the business of the committee shall be conducted at all times in accordance with the Rules of the House.

Rule 19. The chairman or, in his absence, the vice chairman, or the majority of the membership of the committee, may call meetings of the committee to study, call hearings, and consider any bill or resolution, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the committee.

Rule 20. The chairman of any standing committee is authorized to seek and obtain the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to participate with such committees or subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the committee or its chairman.

Citizens so appointed to serve may receive a daily compensation as provided in the Appropriation Act and reimbursement for their actual expenses incurred in the performance of services for the committee. For this purpose and for such other expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any committee study, payments shall be made from the general appropriations to the House of Delegates.

Persons who are asked by a committee chairman to appear before a committee or subcommittee to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their actual and reasonable expenses if approved by the chairman and the Speaker.

Rule 21. The conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any House committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, and any interim study committee created by a House measure shall be governed in accordance with the Rules of the House. If a House measure and a Senate measure create the same study, the conduct of business of the study shall be governed by the rules of the house of the chairman of the study, or in the case of co-chairmen, the rules of the house as agreed upon by the co-chairmen.

Rule 22. Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year and not reported to the House of Delegates by the committee to which it has been referred, may be continued on the agenda of the committee for hearings and committee action during the interim between regular sessions and not otherwise. The committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the House of Delegates, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the House of Delegates shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution has been continued. Any bill or resolution that has been continued and subsequently reported from a committee shall be placed upon the Calendar of the House of Delegates.

The House of Delegates, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the Calendar, may rerefer the bill to the committee reporting the same and direct the committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year regular session and hold such hearings and render such further consideration of the bill or resolution as the committee may deem proper.

(The provisions of any rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of Virginia.)

Standards of Conduct.

Rule 23. There shall be a subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Rules Committee consisting of four members, two of whom shall be members of the majority caucus and two of whom shall be nonmembers of the majority caucus, appointed by the chairman, which shall review annually members' statements of economic interests and consider any request by a member for an advisory opinion with respect to the general propriety of any current or proposed conduct of such member.

Rule 24. The Privileges and Elections Committee shall receive and investigate any charges or complaints brought against any member of the House of Delegates in the performance of his duties or the discharge of his responsibilities and recommend to the House such action as it may deem appropriate to establish and enforce standards of conduct for members.

Committee of the Whole.

Rule 25. When the House shall go into the Committee of the Whole, the Speaker may vacate the Chair and appoint a member to preside in Committee; the other officers shall attend, and the Rules of the House shall be observed and enforced in Committee, as far as applicable, except that the previous question shall not be ordered.

Rule 26. If the Committee of the Whole arise before the consideration of the subject referred is concluded, the same shall be reported back and have its place in order as unfinished business of the House. When it shall be again reached in order, unless it be otherwise disposed of, the House, after making such orders as it may deem proper in relation to the business before the Committee, shall stand again resolved into the Committee of the Whole, and so on until the business therein be disposed of.

Rule 27. Nothing shall be in order in the Committee of the Whole except such matters as may be specially referred to it by the House.

Rule 28. Whenever the Committee of the Whole shall find itself without a quorum, the chairman shall cause the roll to be called and thereupon the Committee shall rise, and the chairman shall report the fact and the names of the absentees, which shall be entered upon the Journal of the House.

Rule 29. The motion to go into Committee of the Whole, and the motion to discharge the Committee, shall not be debated.

II. Attendance and Adjournment.

Attendance.

Rule 30. No member shall absent himself from the service of the House unless he has leave granted by the Speaker or is sick or otherwise unable to attend and such leave shall be entered upon the Journal.

Rule 31. Any ten members or more including the Speaker, if there is one, and he is present, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members by a call of the House.

Rule 32. The roll of the House shall be taken by the use of the electronic voting system or, if it is inoperable, by viva voce by response to the call of names arranged and called in alphabetical order except that the Speaker shall be called last.

Rule 33. The electronic voting system may be used for a call of the House; however, if it is inoperable, the call of the House shall be by viva voce, the names of the members shall be first called over by the Clerk, and the absentees noted; after which the names of the absentees shall be again called over. The doors shall then be shut and those for whom no excuse or insufficient excuses are made may, by order of those present, if ten in number, be taken into custody as they appear or may be sent for and taken into custody, wherever to be found, by the Sergeant at Arms or his assistants, or by special messengers to be appointed for that purpose.

Rule 34. When a member shall be discharged from custody and admitted to his seat the House shall determine whether such discharge shall be with or without payment of fees and expenses.

Adjournment.

Rule 35. Any member or members may adjourn from day to day. A motion to adjourn and a motion to fix the time for which the House will adjourn shall always be in order and be decided without debate.

III. Introduction of Business.

Messages, Reports, and Communications.

Rule 36. Messages from the Governor and reports and communications from any other public officer or agent may be received at any time. If, in the judgment of the Speaker, they require immediate action they may be brought at once to the attention of the House. Otherwise, they shall lie upon the Speaker's table and be disposed of in the morning hour. The same rule shall be observed with regard to messages from the Senate.

Introducing Legislation.

Rule 37. Members having bills or resolutions to present may, at any time pursuant to agreed upon deadlines, electronically file (e-file) such legislation via the Bill Drafting System or manually file such legislation with the Clerk, endorsed by one or more members with their names. Any bill or joint resolution introduced in the House may show as "Senate Patrons" the signatures or electronic signatures of members of the Senate. Any bill, joint resolution, or resolution manually filed prior to the commencement of the session in which it is to be considered may have the names of co-patrons signed to the measure by the chief patron, provided that each such co-patron expressly authorized the chief patron to sign for such co-patron and the chief patron plainly marks such signatures on the original copy of the measure as being signed by the chief patron. Any bill, joint resolution, or resolution e-filed prior to the commencement of the session in which it is to be considered may have the names of co-patrons added electronically via the Bill Drafting System.

No member may introduce more than 15 bills during the Regular Session of an odd-numbered year.

No bill expressly amending an existing law shall be offered by any member unless or until the e-filed or manually filed copy has been prepared so as to indicate deletions and additions. The form for deletions and additions shall set forth the material deleted with lines through such material and by underscoring the words added, before they are received in the Senate or House of Delegates. The stricken material and underscorings or italics in the printed bills, enrolled bills, and printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or existing statute but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken material or underscoring where new words are substituted for existing words and the new words or the omission of words do not change the sense or meaning of the act.

The Clerk shall, under the direction of the Speaker, refer all such legislation to the proper committee and enter the fact, with the names of the members presenting them, upon the Journal. Such bills shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the House, and numbered in the order in which they are filed with the Clerk.

The Speaker shall review all legislation introduced in the House or communicated to the House for its action to determine if such legislation is in conflict with Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia. If such legislation is determined to be in conflict, the Speaker may withhold committee referral of the legislation.

The designation of "House Bill," "House Joint Resolution," or "House Resolution" shall not be changed after a bill or resolution is introduced in the House. Nor shall the designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Joint Resolution" be changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the House. In addition, no bill or resolution introduced for a purpose other than to direct or request a study shall be amended for the purpose of directing or requesting a study unless authorized by unanimous consent of the members of the House.

Rule 38. No bill, joint resolution, or resolution calling for information from the Governor or other public officer or agent shall be introduced, considered, or acted upon otherwise than is provided by Rule 37 and shall not be acted upon until it shall have been examined and reported upon by a committee.

Rule 39. Any other resolution or motion upon which a member may desire the judgment of the House, or any action other than a reference to a standing committee, may be presented to the House in the morning hour after the business on the Speaker's table is disposed of. A recorded vote shall be required on a resolution authorizing a study or an expenditure of funds. To obtain immediate consideration of any resolution other than a procedural or a memorial or commending resolution, without reference to a standing committee, the vote of two-thirds of the members elected, as required by Rule 81, shall be a recorded vote.

Rule 39(a). All memorial or commending joint resolutions or resolutions shall conform to the procedure set forth by the Clerk of the House and shall not be referred under Rule 37, unless so ordered by the Speaker or by majority vote of the House on motion of a member, but shall be placed on the Calendar.

IV. Order of Business.

The Morning Hour.

Rule 40. After the approval and signing of the Journal, a time, to be called the morning hour, shall be devoted to the dispatch of business upon the Speaker's table and to resolutions presented under Rule 39. The business on the Speaker's table shall be disposed of in such order as the Speaker deems best, except as may be herein otherwise provided, or as the House may at any time order.

Rule 41. The annual message of the Governor shall be laid before the House as soon as it is received. It shall be printed for the use of the House and be considered by the several standing committees without any special order therefor.

Rule 42. All other messages from the Governor may be referred by the Speaker to the proper committees. The same rule shall be observed as to reports and communications from other public officers.

Rule 43. Bills and resolutions originating in the Senate and not requiring immediate action shall be read or printed on the Calendar by title the first time when received and referred to their appropriate committees, unless the House directs otherwise.

Rule 44. All bills reported from committee, pursuant to Rule 18(c), shall be transferred to the Calendar and the reading or printing on the Calendar of the titles as reported shall constitute the first reading or printing of the House bills and the second reading or printing of the Senate bills as required by the Constitution.

Rule 45. All other reports from committees shall be considered and disposed of in the order in which the Speaker presents them, unless the House directs otherwise.

Rule 46. A member presenting a resolution under Rule 39 shall be allowed five minutes in which to explain his wishes in relation to it, after which the question on referring to a standing committee shall be taken without debate.

Rule 47. Printing recommended by committees under Rule 18(b) shall be ordered by the Speaker, unless the House directs otherwise.

Rule 48. Once the morning hour expires, the House shall proceed to the business of the House as defined in Rule 49; however, the Speaker shall be permitted, without objection, to return to the morning hour for the purpose of recognizing any distinguished visitor or other individual defined in Rule 83 that may be present and seated on the floor or in the gallery.

The Calendar.

Rule 49. At the expiration of the morning hour, the House shall proceed to consider bills, joint resolutions, and resolutions on the Calendar or any Supplemental Calendar which shall be arranged in the following order:

1. Senate bills on third reading.
2. House bills on third reading.
3. House bills on second reading.
4. House bills and joint resolutions returned from Senate with amendments.
5. Resolutions.
6. Memorial and commending resolutions.
7. House bills returned by Governor without approval.
8. House bills returned by Governor with recommendations.
9. Senate bills returned by Governor without approval.
10. Senate bills returned by Governor with recommendations.
11. House bills and resolutions in conference.
12. Senate bills and resolutions in conference.
13. Unfinished business – House and Senate bills and joint resolutions.
14. Senate bills on second reading.
15. House bills on first reading.
16. Resolutions reported.
17. Senate bills and joint resolutions referred.
18. Bills referred.
19. Resolutions referred.
20. Resolutions presented.

The House may direct that bills and resolutions of either house be divided between the designations "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular Calendar" and be considered in such order. When such a division is directed for bills and resolutions on the Calendar, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include any bill or resolution (i) which received a dissenting vote or an abstention in committee, (ii) to which objection is made by any member, or (iii) if any non-technical floor amendment or any floor amendment in the nature of a substitute is offered. Any bill or resolution shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar and placed on the Regular Calendar at the request of any member rising from his seat for that purpose and stating the request for such legislation to be moved. Once legislation is moved to the Regular Calendar there it shall remain.

Supplemental Calendars may be prepared for consideration while the House remains in Session for the day and shall be considered when called by the Speaker. Any Supplemental Calendar and the measures contained therein shall be considered in the same manner as measures in the Calendar.

Rule 50. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be acted on according to their priorities on the Calendar.

Rule 51. If any bill or resolution shall not be ready for consideration when it is reached on the Calendar category, it shall be passed by temporarily and be allowed to retain its position on the Calendar. When the Calendar category has been called through, it may be called again in order to dispose of any business that may then be ready; otherwise it shall be passed by for the day. Upon completion of the business on the Calendar, the business of the morning hour shall be resumed.

Rule 52. The regular order of business herein established shall not be changed, nor shall any special order be made, except by vote of two-thirds of the members present. However, a majority may postpone the Calendar not exceeding one day at a time, or postpone for a specified time or purpose any subject coming up in order without changing its place, or agree to a joint order with the Senate, or postpone or discharge any special order.

V. Conduct of Business.

Order and Decorum.

Rule 53. The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. If the decision relate to a question of decorum or propriety of conduct, it shall not be debatable; if it relate to the priority of business or the relevancy or applicability of propositions, the appeal may be debated, but no member shall speak on it more than once except by leave of the House.

Rule 54. When a member rises to speak he shall respectfully address, "Mr. Speaker," standing in his place; he shall confine himself strictly to the question before the House, and when he has finished he shall sit down.

Rule 55. When two or more members request to speak or rise at the same time the Speaker shall name the person to speak.

Rule 56. Every motion or proposition shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the Speaker or any member, and shall be delivered at the Clerk's table to be there read; and the question shall be stated by the Chair before the same shall be debated. When the reading of any paper in possession of the House, not being the precise matter upon which the House is acting, is called for, and objection is made by any member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the House without debate. Any motion or proposition may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before a decision, amendment, or other action of the body upon it, except a motion to reconsider which shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House.

Rule 57. No member shall in debate use any language or gesture calculated to wound, offend, or insult another member.

Rule 58. If any member, in speaking, transgress the Rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member called to order shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be final. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; otherwise, he shall not proceed, except by leave of the House. For frequent or repeated violations of order, especially if persisted in after the admonition of the Speaker, a member shall be liable to the censure of the House.

Rule 59. If any member be called to order by another member for words spoken, the words excepted to shall be immediately taken down in writing in order that the Speaker and House may be better able to judge the matter.

Rule 60. No member shall, while the House is sitting, interrupt or hinder its business by standing up, leaving his place, moving about the Hall, engaging in conversation, expressing approval or disapproval of any of the proceedings, or by any other conduct tending to disorder and confusion.

Rule 61. No member shall speak more than once on any question until all others have spoken who desire to do so, nor more than twice, without the consent of a majority of the members present.

Ascertaining the Question.

Rule 62. If the question for decision includes several distinct propositions any member may have the same divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall not be so divided; nor shall a motion to strike out, being lost, preclude either amendment or a motion to strike out and insert. In filling blanks, the question shall be put first upon the largest sum and the longest time or the broadest question.

Rule 62(a). No motion or proposition, or subject different from that under consideration, shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Rule 62(b). The Speaker shall determine all questions of germaneness relevant to any legislation under consideration by the House including House legislation and any amendments thereto communicated by the Senate or the Governor to the House for its action.

Rule 63. When a question is before the House, no motion shall be received unless specially provided for, except to adjourn, pass by indefinitely, lay upon the table, postpone for a specified time or purpose, refer or rerefer, amend, or strike from the Calendar, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged.

Rule 64. Upon the motion to pass by indefinitely, the mover shall be allowed two minutes to state the reason for his motion, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to object. The motion to lay upon the table, for the previous question, and for the pending question shall not be debated; nor shall debate be allowed on a motion to take up a subject from the table or to reconsider any question which was not debated. When a question not debatable is before the House all incidental questions arising after it is stated to the House shall be decided and settled, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate; and the same rule shall apply to incidental questions rising after any question is put to the House.

Pending and Previous Questions.

Rule 65. Pending a debate, any member who obtains the floor for the purpose only, and submits no other motion or remark, may move for the "previous question" or the "pending question," and in either case the motion shall be forthwith put to the House. Two-thirds of the members present shall be required to order the main question; however, a majority may require an immediate vote upon the pending question, whatever it may be.

Rule 66. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" If carried, its effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a direct vote upon a motion to refer or rerefer, if pending; then upon amendments reported by a committee, if any; then upon pending amendments; and then upon the main question. If upon the motion for the previous question, the main question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been made.

Taking the Vote.

Rule 67. The Speaker shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting. Questions shall be distinctly put in substantially the following forms, viz.: "As many as agree that, etc. (as the question may be), say 'Aye,' " and "Those opposed say 'No.' " If the Speaker doubts or a division is called for, the House shall divide with those in the affirmative of the question rising first from their seats and afterwards those in the negative, or by a show of hands in the affirmative and then in the negative. If required, the Speaker shall cause the result to be ascertained by a count.

Rule 68. The yeas and nays on any question may be called for at any time before proceeding to another question or proposition but, being refused, they shall not be again demanded on the same question. Any member shall have a right to vote at any time before the decision is announced by the Chair.

Rule 69. Upon a division of the House on any question, a member who is present and fails to vote shall on the demand of any member be counted on the negative of the question and when the yeas and nays are taken shall, in addition, be entered on the Journal as present and not voting. However, no member who has an immediate and personal interest in the result of the question shall either vote or be counted upon it.

Reconsideration.

Rule 70. When a question has been decided, it may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who voted with the prevailing side, provided it be made on the same day or within the next two days of actual session, as long as such action has not been communicated to the Senate or the Governor. The motion may be entered as a matter of privilege and shall take precedence of everything except special orders and other questions of privilege and be disposed of in the morning hour or with the Calendar, as the case may be. All motions to reconsider shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.

Bills and Amendments.

Rule 71. Every bill shall be read or printed on the Calendar by title on three different calendar days in the House previous to its being passed, and it shall be distinctly announced or set out at each reading or printing on the Calendar, whether it is the first, second, or third time. A bill may be referred or rereferred at any time before its passage.

Rule 72. The first reading or printing on the Calendar of the House bill shall be for information merely and, notwithstanding a motion to refer or rerefer to a committee or a motion to strike, it shall go to second reading or printing on the Calendar without a question. The second reading or printing on the Calendar of a Senate bill shall be for information merely and, notwithstanding a motion to refer or rerefer to a committee or a motion to strike, it shall go to third reading or printing on the Calendar without a question.

Rule 73. Upon the second reading or printing on the Calendar of a House bill it shall be open to amendment or to referral or rereferral or to any of the motions provided for in Rule 63, and the final question shall be "Whether it shall be engrossed and read or printed on the Calendar a third time?" Upon the third reading or printing on the Calendar of a Senate bill it shall be open to amendment or to referral or rereferral or to any of the motions provided in Rule 63.

The Speaker may direct by notice to the House, or the House may determine by a majority vote, that there shall be a deadline for the submission of any proposed floor amendment or floor amendment in the nature of a substitute (floor substitute) to the House version of the Budget Bill(s). The deadline for submission of any floor amendment or floor substitute shall be 24 hours prior to the commencement of the Special Order set for the consideration of the Budget Bill(s). Any floor amendment or floor substitute offered after the deadline for submission may be considered if (i) it is an amendment that has been approved by the Committee on Appropriations or (ii) it is offered as a technical amendment or clarifying amendment to a previously submitted floor amendment or floor substitute and is germane to the purpose of the original floor amendment or floor substitute.

Rule 74. A House bill ordered to be engrossed shall not have its third reading or printing on the Calendar until the engrossment is actually and properly done. However, in the case of a Senate bill, the engrossment shall only apply to such amendments as may have been made in the House.

Rule 75. A House bill on its third reading shall not be open for debate; however, any member may be recognized to speak to the legislation or offer motions. No amendment to a House bill shall be received upon its third reading or printing on the Calendar by way of rider or otherwise, and no amendment involving an additional appropriation shall be added to the general appropriation bill, and no amendment to increase any tax shall be added to any tax measure, unless either such amendment be to carry into effect an existing law or unless it received the vote required to pass the bill itself. A Senate amendment to a House bill to be concurred in, a Governor's recommendation to be agreed to, or a conference report to be adopted, must receive the same recorded vote as required to pass the bill itself.

Rule 75(a). If the Senate refuses to concur in the amendments of the House and so communicates such action to the House, the House may vote to recede from its amendments and subsequently pass the legislation in the form originally passed by the Senate or insist on its amendments and request a committee of conference with the Senate. Conversely, the House in considering Senate amendments to House legislation shall wait for communication by the Senate that they have voted to insist on their amendments and request a committee of conference whereby the House may agree to the request for a committee of conference.

Rule 75(b). Upon an affirmative vote to form a committee of conference, the Speaker shall appoint the House membership to the committee. A majority of the members of each house on the committee of conference shall agree to the committee of conference report prior to its submission and consideration by the House. If a committee of conference is unable to reach agreement and reports such action to the House, the Speaker may appoint new conferees or, upon the motion of a member and an affirmative vote of the House, a new set of conferees shall be appointed. In addition, if a committee of conference report is considered and rejected, the House may agree by a majority vote of the members present to request an additional committee of conference.

Rule 76. On the third reading or printing on the Calendar of a bill, the question shall be, "Shall the bill pass?"

Rule 77. The title of a bill and all amendments offered shall be entered upon the Journal, except that amendments in the nature of substitutes may be printed separately and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

Withdrawals of Exhibits.

Rule 78. Original papers, filed as exhibits with any bill or resolution, may be withdrawn by the patron or he may leave attested copies, for which he shall pay the Clerk at the rate provided by law for other copies made by him.

Messages.

Rule 79. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, without any special order therefor, to communicate to the Senate any action of the House upon business coming from the Senate or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body; however, no such communication shall be made in relation to any action of the House while it remains open for consideration.

Manual and Rules.

Rule 80. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Rules of the House and such joint rules as are or may from time to time be established by the two houses of the General Assembly.

Rule 81. The Rules of the House shall be adopted in even-numbered years by a majority vote of members elected and shall remain in effect for two years coinciding with the terms of members. The rules may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to be ascertained by an actual division of the House except as prohibited by the Constitution; provided that a motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill shall require a majority of those voting, which shall include two-fifths of the members elected to the House, the vote thereon to be taken by yeas and nays and recorded in the Journal; and provided further, that a motion to dispense with the printing and reading of a bill, or its printing on the Calendar, or either, shall not be entertained, except as provided by the Constitution.

A proposition to change a rule of the House shall be submitted in writing and forthwith printed. In its printed form it shall lie upon the Speaker's table for five days and be read by the House during the morning hour of each day during that time. At the expiration of five days it shall be ready for consideration and may be adopted or rejected by a majority vote of the members present; provided that as to all resolutions or bills which involve an appropriation or expenditure of money by the Commonwealth, or which may create a charge upon the treasury, the rule of the House shall not be changed or suspended save by a vote of two-thirds of the members present to be ascertained by an actual division of the House.

Upon a motion to suspend a rule of the House the mover shall be allowed two minutes to state the reasons for his motion, and one member opposed to the motion shall be allowed a like time to object.

Hall of the House of Delegates.

Rule 82. The Hall of the House of Delegates shall be used for no other purpose than the sessions of the House and for meetings of the committees and members of the legislature on public affairs except by vote of the House or the Rules Committee or with the approval of the Speaker during the interim or when the House is not convened at any time during a session of the General Assembly.

Rule 83. Only members of the General Assembly, former members, members of the Congress of the United States, State officers, judges, officers and employees of the General Assembly, and such other persons as the Speaker may designate shall be permitted on the floor of the House during the session; however, the privileges granted hereunder shall not be exercised by any person having business for compensation before the House or any committee thereof and the officers of this body shall enforce this rule under the direction of the Speaker.

Capitol and General Assembly Building.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Acting Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Lehman D. Bates, II, Pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Charlottesville, offered the following prayer:

Eternal GOD Our Father, as we are assembled here today, at the dawn of a new season, we first of all give You thanks, for we recognize Your Sovereignty, and we call upon Your Name. On this day, we invoke Your Presence, we petition Your Power, and we compel Your Purpose for this 2014 Session of the General Assembly.

O GOD, we ask right now, for Your Divine Favor upon us. And as we prepare to celebrate tomorrow's inauguration, Bless Terence Richard McAuliffe, as he will be sworn in as the 72nd Governor of this Great Commonwealth. Remind him, O GOD, as You reminded Daniel, that wisdom and might are Yours. That You, O GOD, set up kings, and You, O GOD, can remove kings. That You, O GOD, give wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding.

We further ask Your Divine Benevolence upon every Legislator present today.

Help us, O GOD, to individually and collectively, balance justice with mercy, conviction with compassion, and most importantly, our humanity with Your Divinity.

And finally, O GOD, for the citizens of this Great Commonwealth. From Leesburg to Lynchburg. From Alexandria to Emporia. From Danville to Farmville to Martinsville to Charlottesville. Unite us. Excite us. Ignite us, and inspire us.

We ask these things in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. James M. Harrison, Pastor of Main Street Baptist Church, Smithfield, offered the following prayer:

O God, most high, we invoke thy spirit presence in all inaugural proceedings today, and may it be so that they are consistent with your will. We welcome thy kingdom, and may your will be done throughout the Commonwealth. Your eyes run to and fro throughout the whole earth, in order to show yourself strong because of all whose hearts are perfect towards you. May we, Leaders, members of the Assembly, and all the citizens of Virginia, be named among those whose hearts are perfect towards you today.

Thank you for care and protection of our families, homes, and institutions of service during challenging times. Make us more aware and cognizant of new directions in the sacred text and to obey those who have authority over us, only as you give them the same authority. It is You who has established each legislator and governor in his and her place for the protection of all peoples everywhere. Guide the thoughts of each, especially the newly elected, in order to fit the design of a path, You, O God, have created for the Commonwealth. We believe, now help us to live out that belief offering our very selves to be living sacrifices--- this being our spiritual worship.

Awaken and re-awaken in our conscientiousness and sensibilities the seriousness of all the challenges that loom over the Commonwealth...in the Capital City; Northern Virginia; Central Virginia; the Shenandoah Valley; the Northern Neck; Tidewater; Southside; Southwest Virginia; the Highlands; the Eastern Shore; and that we still have the awesome responsibility to provide leadership to those in the factory, on the farm, in the mines, on the waters, on the roadways, in the classroom, in the office, and to care and provide for those who are less fortunate: the poor, the indigent, the oppressed, the sick, the aged, the orphans, and such. Again, place in our grasp the resources to do the same, even as it means personal sacrifice.

In the Name of Him who sustains us all. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

We pray Lord as we celebrate the swearing-in of our elected officials that you will grant unto them your divine wisdom.

As Terry, our other elected officials, and the General Assembly embark on this new journey, lead and guide them when they are faced with difficult situations and circumstances. Let them as David did look to the hills from which cometh their help knowing that their help will come from The Lord.

Help them to remember you are the source that is dependable

You are the counselor that is wise.

We pray Lord that you would bless and protect our first family, Dorothy McAuliffe, Peter, Sally, Mary, Jack and Dori along with the families of all our elected officials.

Lord we ask your blessings and guidance upon Governor-Elect McAuliffe's cabinet, with elected and appointed leaders, and General Assembly that they may work in harmony for the common good of the citizens of this great Commonwealth of Virginia.

Governor McAuliffe, Lieutenant Governor Northam, and Attorney General Herring as I close this prayer may the Lord bless and keep you. on all who exercise just and rightful authority, on their families who sustain them, on their constituents who rely upon them, on the heroes proved in liberating strife who protect them and who protect us.

Accept our gratitude for those who complete their service on this day.

Guardian, Well-spring of creation,

We stand today on the parted shores of history, aware of our receding past, uncertain of what lies ahead tomorrow.

Awaken us to this new day.

Disturb us by what we have yet to repair in this broken world.

Thrill us by our accomplishments and thus inspire us to join with Governor McAuliffe in seeking the promise of our first families and our most recent arrivals.

Let our hearts be filled with compassion, our thoughts be steeped in wisdom, and our will-power strengthened with confidence to see our elders sustained, our children nurtured, and people of every age and circumstance, from the Blue Ridge to the Chesapeake, standing on common ground for Virginia.

You who are called by a multitude of names, bring down your blessings on these dear people who shoulder this burden for us all, keep us in life, sustain us and enable us to reach such moments as these.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. William J. McMahon, Senior Pastor of Clifton Baptist Church, Clifton, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, when I was offered this great honor to be here today I thought that so many prayers have been offered up here in this room by so many different people and so many different ways. What is it that I can say different? Maybe in a different manner with a different tone and inflection would that get their attention?

When I get their attention what can I say to keep it?

What can I say to remind us to always turn to you in times of decisions?

What can I say that will stick with them as they break into their subcommittees that will remind them to turn to you for guidance?

What can I say to let them know that compromise is not weakness?

What can I say that they might take what I say from here to their homes?

Lord when I say your name that should be sufficient.

Lord when I ask you to be with us during these proceedings that should be sufficient.

Lord when I say let your Holy Spirit fill this room and guide them that should be sufficient.

Let their attention be garnered, let them be guided by the sense that your hand is on them, let them take this from here to their homes, all these things I ask in the name of Jesus Christ who taught us all to pray saying:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, the glory forever. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2014

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend David G. Woods, Pastor of Hopewell Church of the Nazarene, Hopewell, offered the following prayer:

Our gracious God, Who lovingly looks upon us with great pride and high expectations,

You have entrusted the legislative leadership of this extraordinary Commonwealth to this amazing group of men and women. They have assembled here today for that significant responsibility. Yet even as they gather and prepare to deliberate the important matters of our land and her peoples, they recognize their utter dependence upon Someone greater than themselves to guide them, provide them wisdom, and give them courage to stand for the rights and freedoms of their constituency and of the wider Commonwealth.

The matters that they discuss and determine here today have far-reaching and long lasting impact. May our Delegates continually keep their thoughts, conversations and decisions in keeping with your Sovereign will, which always enfolds itself with humility, justice and compassion. Let each one confidently act today with the assurance that, as they look to You for direction, Your Spirit will unerringly guide them.

We humbly bring these petitions before You, in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Nigel Alleyne, Pastor of All Nations Community Church, Lynchburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we are grateful for these United States and especially for the Commonwealth of Virginia. We pray for these elected men and women who were chosen by the citizens of this great state. Today we petition You merciful God for protection and wisdom for our Governor, Senators, Delegates, and for all those who labor in this assembly. May they realize the enormous privilege and responsibility given them, by You and the people of this Commonwealth. Lord give them conviction and courage to do what is right.

We pray that these elected officials will lead with honesty, humility and dependence upon You. As reported in the Psalms, unless the Lord builds the house, they that labor, labor in vain.

Lord bless our state, bless our country, and may your love and mercy never depart from us.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

The Reverend Judson E. Childress, Jr., President and Executive Director of Needle's Eye Ministries, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for this day, another day to serve those You have placed in our paths. You, Lord, are the Creator of the Universe, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. You created the mountains and the seas, the beauty of the sunrise, and the sweet sound of a child's cry at birth.

Lord, this room is filled with men and women whom You love and have made in Your image. Scripture tells us that there is no authority except that which You have established...and that those in authority are your servants. Therefore, Lord, grant these, your servants, wisdom for the decisions of the day, strength to follow through, and grace toward one another in the process.

As You urge us to do, Lord, I pray for these men and women whom You have placed in this Chamber for such a time as this, that their decisions and actions may truly lead to all the citizens of the Commonwealth being able to live peaceful and quiet lives.

I make this prayer in the name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dear God, we thank you for your grace that has privileged the state of Virginia to be a major contributing factor in this nation. We thank you for our past offerings, our present order and our future obligations. We ask that your Eternal Spirit will direct all of our legislative personalities and participants to continue to conduct the affairs of the Commonwealth for the benefit of all of our citizens. We ask that the deliberations of these leaders of the General Assembly will guarantee that Virginia can always be a star in the sky of America, and be multiple voices of wisdom so the stripe that Virginia adds to the national flag will always be an influence which brings honor and clear direction to the nation and the world. Finally, dear Lord, please keep Virginia in your hands, the United States in your will and the world under your protection. In the name of the Eternal who holds the world in His Hands. Amen.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Robert J. Cole, Pastor of St. John the Apostle Catholic Church, Virginia Beach, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and eternal God, in your kindness, you bring all that is good in creation.

Grant wisdom to these elected officials of the House of Delegates, so that our citizens may continue to enjoy the blessings of life and liberty which you envisioned especially here in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Lord, you guide and govern everything with order and love.
Bless this assembly.

Fill them with the spirit of your goodness so they may always act according to your will, and their decisions may be for the greater good of all the people they serve.

God of justice, through you, authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment is decreed.

Assist with your spirit of counsel and fortitude the legislators of this Commonwealth.

May they always seek the ways of righteousness, justice and mercy. Grant them courage, that they may enact public policies with honesty and integrity.

Move the hearts of all elected officials to fulfill their sacred duty worthily and well.

Help them to extend the mantle of protection to our most vulnerable citizens, the poor, the aging, the mentally challenged, the unborn, the downtrodden and to uphold the values of life, and liberty for all.

We recommend likewise, to your unbounded mercy, all of our fellow citizens who serve in the military as they seek to preserve the freedoms which we enjoy as a Commonwealth and as a nation.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Harold J. Cobb, Jr., Rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Norfolk, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open and all desires known. O' God, we thank you for this great Commonwealth of Virginia. We thank you for Governor Terry McAuliffe, Speaker of the House William J. Howell and especially for Delegate Algie T. Howell of Norfolk, and for all elected officials throughout this great land. Bless all of these persons in a special way.

We ask you to bless Sheliah Cobb, Caryn Cobb and the Brown University PLME Class 2015/2019. We thank you, O' God for this legislative session. Thank you for both the victories and defeats, for the failures and the successes, for they are all imposters. Help us to realize that our real success and our real victory comes in what we do for the least of your creations. For the poor and the oppressed, the unemployed and the destitute, the sick and the abandoned, let them know that they have leaders who are compassionate and concerned.

O God, we thank You for the great resources of this Commonwealth. The beautiful mountains and valleys, seashores and plains, pastures and fields, but let us not forget that the greatest resource of this commonwealth is her people. Let this great body remember that actions taken today can last for many generations, therefore, O God, give this body courage and vision for generations even yet to come. We thank you, O God, for all the blessings of this life.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Horace H. Grinnell, Pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, Arlington, offered the following prayer:

Nothing is more practical than finding God, that is,
falling in love in a quite absolute and finite way.
What you are in love with,
what seizes your imagination will affect everything.
It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning,
what you will do with your evenings,
how you will spend your weekends,
what you read,
who you know,
what breaks your heart
and what amazes you with joy and gratitude.
Fall in love.
Stay in love.
And it will decide everything.

Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

O Lord our Governor, bless the leaders of our land, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to other nations of the earth.

To the President and members of the Cabinet, to Governors of States, Mayors of Cities, and to all in administrative authority, grant wisdom and grace in the exercise of their duties.

To Senators and Representatives, and to those who make our laws in this Commonwealth, give courage, wisdom, and foresight to provide for the needs of all our people, and to fulfill our obligations in the community of nations.

To the Judges and officers of our Courts give understanding and integrity, that human rights may be safeguarded and justice served.

Finally, teach our people to rely on your strength and to accept their responsibilities to their fellow citizens, that they may elect trustworthy leaders and make wise decisions for the well-being of our society; that we may serve you faithfully in our generation and honor your holy Name.

For yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as head above all. Amen.

The motion was agreed to.

On motion of Delegate Cox, the House adjourned at 1:28 p.m.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Reginald G. Rumburg, Pastor of Carmel United Methodist Church, Hague, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, gathered here today are citizen legislators of the Virginia House of Delegates, their coworkers, guests and visitors. Each delegate has been elected to serve the best interest of their fellow citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia so as these delegates begin their work today, we pause to acknowledge your presence among us and ask for your guidance.

We ask you, O God, to be both a companion and guide for each Delegate. We ask you to make your presence known throughout this time of deliberation and discernment. We ask you to enable the ability of those who speak to the matters at hand to do so with clarity. We ask you to enable the ability of those who listen to do so with discernment as they do this vital work.

We acknowledge the tasks before these legislators are both complex and challenging. What they do here shall impact the life of every person, business, and institution within Virginia and beyond. For this reason we pray asking you to grant wisdom, along with clarity of mind, and purpose, for each of these esteemed leaders. Let them seek to represent not only their constituents, but also to work towards securing the highest good of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Where there shall be differences of opinion, let there be a genuine spirit of decorum, civility and cooperation maintained in expression of those differences among the members of this legislative body. There will be many voices seeking to be heard, may none of those voices overwhelm your voice, a voice most clearly heard within moments of awesome silence.

O God, we acknowledge there are very complicated issues confronting these members of the House of Delegates, the Virginia Senate, the Virginia Attorney General, the Lieutenant Governor and the Governor. We pray that you grant each of these servants the strength and courage needed for them to perform their tasks.

We thank you for the huge sacrifices and commitments made by each of these women and men who sought and were granted the high privilege to serve their fellow citizens. Likewise, we thank you for the many sacrifices made and the support given by their loved ones who are still doing this at home. During their time of separation, grant to them safety and protection from all harm. We also pause to give you thanks for all of the support staff who work behind the scenes here to make possible the work being accomplished on behalf of their fellow citizens.

Gracious God, above all else, we earnestly pray that all that shall be accomplished here during this session of the Virginia General Assembly will best serve the interests of the people of Virginia and also be pleasing in your sight. Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

February 3, 2014

THE SENATE HAS AGREED TO THE FOLLOWING HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION:

H.J.R. 252. Commending The Links, Incorporated chapters of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

/s/ Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

Delegate Cox moved that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet tomorrow at 12 m.

The motion was agreed to.

On motion of Delegate Cox, the House adjourned at 1:36 p.m.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Pastor Timothy W. Martin, Truth and Grace Ministries, Broadway, offered the following prayer:

Father, your word tells us in Philippians 2:3 & 4 to "do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves." That "each of us should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others."

During these days of Session grant to these, our State Legislators, the humility to look not only to their own interests, but also to the interests of those they have been called to serve. Impart to them the wisdom necessary to ascertain truth, the will to choose it, and the strength to make it endure. Keep them healthy, well rested and alert to the opportunities to serve. In the midst of disagreements, grant them grace to honor and in the midst of similarities, grant them grace to rejoice.

Watch over their families during their absence and let their weekend reunions be filled with peace, love, and laughter. May we, their constituents, live out the words of the Apostle Paul in 1 Thessalonians 5:12 to "respect those who work hard among you" by keeping them and their families in our thoughts and prayers.

Proverbs 3:5 tells us to "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight." Make straight the crooked paths as we acknowledge our need for your wisdom and understanding in all things.

We ask these things in Jesus' name, amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Rabbi Michelle L. Goldsmith, Congregation Beth Emeth, Herndon, offered the following prayer:

Avinu She'ba'shamayim – Our Father in heaven, as we gather together at the start of this session of the General Assembly, we offer our thanks for the gift of living in this great state and glorious country. In Jeremiah (29:7) You urged us to seek out the peace of the city where You cause us to roam, and to pray to You for the sake of where we live.

And so we pray today that those who serve in this House of Delegates lead and serve honorably, exercising their authority with both justice and compassion.

May they listen to the words of their constituents and their fellows, ever searching for better ways to serve You and their fellow citizens.

May the laws they enact promote security for us and our allies, while preserving our individual dignity.

May their acts promote equality of opportunity and access to quality medical treatment for us all.

May their rulings help us to better tend the earth, as You commanded Adam in the Garden of Eden.

May You guide them to lead by example in banishing hatred and bigotry and in promoting love and tolerance.

May all they decree today help the people of our state to live in happiness and prosperity and may we all be blessed to see a time when "peace fills the earth as the waters fill the sea,"

And let us say: Amen.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Bishop Young Jin Cho, Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church, Glen Allen, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, we bow our heads before you this morning. Thank you for the gift of this brand new day and a new opportunity and privilege given to your servants sitting here to serve the people in the Commonwealth of Virginia. We humbly recognize that your wisdom is far better than our wisdom. Your plan and your will are far greater than ours. Open our hearts and minds to you that we may wisely discern your will and faithfully follow your guidance. May the decisions made in this chamber be acceptable not only to the voters who sent them here, but also to you, almighty God. Thy will be done on earth and on this floor as it is in heaven. We pray what your servant Bobby Richardson once prayed to you, "Dear God, your will. Nothing more, nothing less, nothing else. Amen."

H.J.R. 40 (forty) was taken up.

An amendment in the nature of a substitute was proposed by the Committee on Rules, and printed separately, with its title reading as follows:

Directing the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission to study the Virginia Medicaid program and Medicaid-funded nonemergency transportation services in the Commonwealth.

Delegate Toscano raised a point of order that the original joint resolution directed a study of Medicaid-funded, nonemergency transportation services in the Commonwealth, but the Committee substitute directed an audit of the entire Virginia Medicaid program and would inquire as to whether the Committee substitute was germane.

The Speaker stated that both the original resolution and the Committee substitute dealt with Medicaid issues and how they could be made more effective and less costly and that the language of the substitute would permit the House to investigate promptly and propose constructive and efficient answers to best serve the citizens of the Commonwealth.

The Speaker stated further that the Committee substitute was germane and the Chair would so rule.

Delegate Morrissey raised a point of order that the Rules of the House required unanimous consent of the members to introduce an amendment creating a study after the filing deadline.

The Speaker stated that the Gentleman would be correct if the Committee substitute was creating a new study; but, because the original resolution had already created a study the substitute was in order.

Delegate Morrissey propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether Jefferson's Rules required a member to vote for passage of a piece of legislation if he or she voted for an amendment to that legislation.

The Speaker stated that Jefferson's Manual did not make such a requirement.

The Committee substitute was agreed to.

Delegate Toscano offered the following amendment to the Committee substitute:

1. Line 21, substitute, after (PPACA) strike
the remainder of line 21 and through percent on line 22

Clerk of the House of Delegates

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Wayne L. Ball, J.C.L., Pastor of St. Patrick Catholic Church, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Loving and All-powerful God,
You were the source of inspiration and accompanied many our forebears as they left behind their homelands and all they knew to arrive on these shores filled with hope for a new life and learned to collaborate with the many indigenous peoples.
It was you who 395 years ago inspired the citizens, the burgesses to gather for the first time as a general assembly in Jamestown and guided the pen of Mr. Jefferson as he gave voice to our belief that all are created equal and you alone are the source of our most basic human rights.
Fill this chamber now with your spirit,
inspire these delegates, men and women chosen by their peers, imbue them with the gifts of wisdom and courage to see beyond the ideology of party, to hear above the clamor of the crowd, that in every word they speak, vote they cast, and new law they enact they may keep before their eyes only the common good of people of this great Commonwealth, and insure that our every law reflect your law of love.
We ask this through you, who are the source of all true justice,
God forever and ever.
Amen.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Dr. Jeffery O. Smith, Pastor of Garland Avenue Baptist Church, Richmond, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father,

It is with gratitude and humility that we offer thanksgiving to you for the opportunities that you have afforded each of us to serve. In particular, we thank you for the service of each member of the House of Delegates. For we are reminded that you, Oh Lord, have called us to be stewards of the things you created. And so, we ask that you might grant unto each member of the House of Delegates your wisdom and divine guidance to lead in ways that will make the Commonwealth of Virginia a better place in which to live and work.

As each morning brings with it the freshness of a new day, grant each member of the House with renewed minds, renewed strength and rekindled spirits to further engage in meaningful dialogues and subsequent decision-making that will enrich the lives of the citizens of this great commonwealth. Help us to be mindful that we are our brothers' keepers and to remember that to whom much is given, much is required. And so, let us seek without delay that which is required of us "to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

These and all blessings we ask in His name, Amen.

Clerk of the House of Delegates

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend D. Michael Honaker, Senior Pastor of River of Life Church, Dublin, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious, mighty and benevolent Heavenly Father, we have assembled in Your presence to seek Your will, Your wisdom and Your Guidance in serving our fellow citizens...

We acknowledge today that our calling is from You, and just as our calling is from You, so must be the source of our strength, our wisdom and our direction. It can come from no other, there is no other source under Heaven to which we can turn, but You and You alone.

We ask Your blessings and sovereign direction upon these proceedings, may Your hand of power, protection and provision be upon all who make up this governing body, may we be unified with a spirit of harmony and unity that puts our service to others above self. May we be determined in our efforts to make our communities and our state a better, safer and more prosperous place in which to live. We ask that our hearts be sanctified with civility, respect and dignity as we carry out our duties and our responsibilities.

Let every person who witnesses our conduct, our attitudes and our labors be inspired to serve and sacrifice for their fellow man in the same manner. May our example as leaders be a reflection of the Spirit of God that dwells in our hearts and shapes our thoughts and intentions.

May we be inspired and steadfast in our determination to lead by example and to legislate by egalitarian principles that put people before politics and a promising future before political partisanship.

As we pray today, we express our gratefulness and our respect for every servant that has answered the call to public service, for each man and woman in our House of Delegates, we pray for their well-being, their safety and their health as well as for their families.

Ultimately, may all that we say, may all that we do, and may all that we accomplish honor and glorify You, for it is our God who has called us and shown us the way, the truth and the life.

In the Name that is above every Name, the Matchless Name of Jesus Christ, we pray, Amen.

Dear Living, Loving, and Everlasting God of the Creation,

We your people gather under the many names by which you are known to solicit your divine presence among us. Let your Spirit be at work among these, your servants, who have been called to deliberate and discern for the Commonwealth. Lead them to your heart, that all within the bounds of Virginia might experience the prudence, providence and prosperity of the divine intention. Help them to govern selflessly, eschewing the expedient to embrace the good.

So bless us now, and keep us restless until we have done your will; then grant us your peace. In your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Dear God, we give you thanks for the Commonwealth of Virginia, and for our elected leaders, especially these, the members of the House of Delegates.

May each Virginian, we pray—those here in this chamber; and Virginians across the Commonwealth—may we all remember, each day, that you have given us into one another's care; that we are our brother's keeper, our sister's keeper; that, indeed, as members of a Commonwealth, and as children of one Father; we are always to work for the common good, we are always to look out for one another, especially the least among us.

May your will be done, dear God, this day, and each day, by these your servants. In the name of God, we pray. Amen.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

Pastor Shahn M. Wilburn, Riverview Baptist Church, Ripplemead, offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, the God of all creation, and the father of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We come humbly today into your presence realizing that the most important person to be addressed in this chamber today is you. Grant to these, our representatives, the wisdom to carry out the responsibilities entrusted to them, in accordance to your word and in a way that is pleasing unto you. Thank you for the privilege of living in America, and in particular this great Commonwealth.

Thank you for giving me the privilege of standing here in this historic chamber and proclaiming the glorious news of the gospel, "how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures;..." Since we can never thank you enough, for such a great gift, may we serve you to the best of our ability. Again, grant wisdom today to do your will. For it is in Jesus name that I pray.

Amen.

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Reverend Christa Mercer Springstead, Pastor of Community United Methodist Church, Virginia Beach, offered the following prayer:

Most gracious and loving God,

We come before you today, hearts filled with gratitude that we are able to assemble and discuss the care of your world. We come before you with great humility as we recognize our personal and corporate shortcomings. We come before you with zeal to do work that is pleasing in your sight.

We are a people who at our very core desire to see your great love at work in the world around us. And so we ask that you guide us, direct us, and make our intentions pure.

We pray for the daily needs of our people. May we be a people who are able, who work together to meet those needs. We pray for our leadership. May your principles be written on their hearts, so that we never forget that working alongside one another, regardless of the many distinctions which the world has to offer, is how we will achieve great things.

We pray that you fill these leaders, gathered here, with passion for doing what is just, what is right, what is good. We pray that the passion and dedication with which they first set out, will endure for as long as they serve their communities.

We ask for your protection and blessing over those who stand in harm's way, who in a very practical way enable us to come before you today without fear of persecution. Instill in us that same dedication as we attempt to care for all people, without exclusion.

It is in your holy name we pray,
Amen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2014

The House of Delegates was called to order at 12 m. by William J. Howell, Speaker thereof.

The Mace was placed on the Speaker's table by the Sergeant at Arms.

The Honorable Charniele L. Herring, the Gentlewoman from Alexandria, offered the following prayer:

We give thanks for our ability to come together from across the Commonwealth to represent our constituents. We also give thanks for the leadership of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General and we ask for their continued protection.

Let us give thanks for this day, for both its opportunities and challenges and be mindful of the important task before us.

As we deliberate the business of the day, let us open our hearts and our minds to each other and our fellow Virginians.

While many of us in this historic chamber may have comfort, let us remember that there are Virginians who do not. They are our poor, our sick, our homeless. Let us remember those we represent--and remember those that have no voice...that those here today can be a voice for the voiceless.

I ask that each of us remember to hold them in the highest regard and keep them foremost in our thoughts as we deliberate the business of the day.

We ask this in our own individual tradition.

And so it shall be. Thank you.

Delegate Cox led the House of Delegates in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

The Speaker stated further that the amendment was in order and the Chair would so rule.

Funding for the state share for the Medicaid payments are authorized in Item 245. The Department shall have the authority to implement these reimbursement changes consistent with the effective date in the State Plan Amendment approved by CMS and prior to completion of any regulatory process in order to effect such changes."

Item 301 #10h

Department of Medical Assistance Services

Page 258, strike lines 45 through 50, and insert:

"KKK. The Department of Medical Assistance Services shall amend the State Plan for Medical Assistance to convert the current cost-based payment methodology for nursing facility operating rates in 12 VAC 30-90-41 to a price-based methodology effective July 1, 2014. The new price-based payment methodology shall be implemented in a budget neutral manner.

1. The department shall calculate prospective operating rates for direct and indirect costs in the following manner.

a. The department shall calculate the cost per day in the base year for direct and indirect operating costs for each nursing facility. The department shall use existing definitions of direct and indirect costs.

b. The initial base year for calculating the cost per day is cost reports ending in calendar year 2011. The department shall rebase prices in fiscal year 2018 and every three years thereafter using the most recent reliable calendar year cost settled cost reports for freestanding nursing facilities that have been completed as of September 1.

c. Each nursing facility's direct cost per day shall be neutralized by dividing the direct cost per day by the raw Medicaid facility case mix that corresponds to the base year by facility.

d. Costs per day shall be inflated to the midpoint of the fiscal year rate period using the moving average Virginia Nursing Home inflation index for the 4th quarter of each year (the midpoint of the fiscal year). Costs in the 2011 base year shall be inflated from the midpoint of the cost report year to the midpoint of fiscal year 2012 by prorating fiscal year 2012 inflation and annual inflation after that. Annual inflation adjustments shall be based on the last available report prior to the beginning of the fiscal year and corrected for any revisions to prior year inflation.

e. Prices will be established for the following peer groups using a combination of Medicare wage regions and Medicaid rural and bed size modifications based on similar costs.

1. Direct Peer groups

- Northern Virginia MSA
- Other MSAs
- Northern Rural
- Southern Rural

2. Indirect Peer Groups

- Northern Virginia MSA
- Rest of State – Greater than 60 Beds
 - Other MSAs
 - Northern Rural
 - Southern Rural
- Rest of State – 60 Beds or Less

f. The price for each peer group shall be based on the following adjustment factors:

1. Direct-105 percent of the peer group day-weighted median neutralized and inflated cost per day for freestanding nursing facilities.

2. Indirect-100.7 percent of the peer group day-weighted median inflated cost per day for freestanding nursing facilities.

g. Facilities with costs projected to the rate year below 95 percent of the price shall have an adjusted price equal to the price minus the difference between their cost and 95 percent of the unadjusted price. Adjusted prices will be established at each rebasing. New facilities after the base year shall not have an adjusted price until the next rebasing. The 'spending floor' limits the potential gain of low cost facilities, thereby making it possible to implement higher adjustment factors for other facilities at less cost.

h. Individual claim payment for direct costs shall be based on each resident's Resource Utilization Group (RUG) during the service period times the facility direct price (similar to Medicare).

i. Resource Utilization Group is a resident classification system that groups nursing facility residents according to resource utilization and assigns weights related to the resource utilization for each classification. The department shall use RUGs to determine facility case mix for cost neutralization in determining the direct costs used in setting the price and for adjusting the claim payments for residents. The department may elect to transition from the RUG-III 34 Medicaid grouper to the RUG-IV 48 grouper in the following manner.

1. The department shall neutralize direct costs per day in the base year using the most current RUG grouper applicable to the base year.

2. The department shall utilize RUG-III 34 groups and weights in fiscal year 2015 for claim payments.

3. Beginning in fiscal year 2016, the department may elect to implement RUG-IV 48 Medicaid groups and weights for claim payments.

4. RUG-IV 48 weights used for claim payments will be normalized to RUG-III 34 weights as long as base year costs are neutralized by the RUG-III 34 grouper. In that the weights are not the same under RUG IV as under RUG III, normalization will insure that total payments in direct using the RUGs IV 48 weights will be the same as total payments in direct using the RUGs-III 34 grouper.

j. The department shall transition to the price-based methodology over a period of four years blending the price-based rate described here with the cost-based rate based on current law with the following adjustments. The facility cost-based operating rates shall be the direct and indirect rates for fiscal year 2015 based on facility case mix neutral rates modeled after the law that would have been in effect in fiscal year 2015 absent this amendment and using base year data from calendar year 2011 inflated to the rate year. Based on a four-year transition, the rate will be based on the following blend:

1. Fiscal year 2015 - 25 percent of the price-based rate and 75 percent of the cost-based rate.

2. Fiscal year 2016 - 50 percent of the price-based rate and 50 percent of the cost-based rate.

3. Fiscal year 2017 - 75 percent of the price-based rate and 25 percent of the cost-based rate.

4. Fiscal year 2018 - 100 percent of the price-based (fully implemented)

During the first transition year for the period July 1, 2014 through October 31, 2014, DMAS shall case mix adjust each direct cost component of the rates using the average facility case mix from the two most recent finalized quarters (September and December 2013) instead of adjusting this component claim by claim.

Cost-based rates to be used in the transition for facilities without cost data in the base year but placed in service prior to July 1, 2013 shall be determined based on the most recently settled cost data. If there is no settled cost report at the beginning of a fiscal year, then 100 percent of the price-based rate shall be used for that fiscal year. Facilities placed in service after June 30, 2013 shall be paid 100 percent of the price-based rate.

2. Prospective capital rates shall be calculated in the following manner.
 - a. Fair rental value per diem rates for the fiscal year shall be calculated for all freestanding nursing facilities based on the prior calendar year information aged to the fiscal year and using RS Means factors and rental rates corresponding to the fiscal year. There will be no separate calculation for beds subject to and not subject to transition.
 - b. The department shall develop a procedure for mid-year fair rental value per diem rate changes for nursing facilities that put into service a major renovation or new beds. A major renovation shall be defined as an increase in capital of $3,000 per bed. The nursing facility shall submit complete pro forma documentation at least 60 days prior to the effective date and the new rate shall be effective at the beginning of the month following the end of the 60 days. The provider shall submit final documentation within 60 days of the new rate effective date and the department shall review final documentation and modify the rate if necessary effective 90 days after the implementation of the new rate. No mid-year rate changes shall be made for an effective date after April 30 of the fiscal year.
 - c. The rental rate shall be 8.75 percent in fiscal year 2015, 8.5 percent in fiscal year 2016, 8.25 percent in fiscal year 2017 and 8.0 percent in fiscal year 2018 and future years.
 - d. These FRV changes shall also apply to specialized care facilities.
 - e. The capital per diem rate for hospital-based nursing facilities shall be the last settled capital per diem.
3. Prospective NATCEP rates shall be the Medicaid per diem rate in the base year inflated to the rate year based on inflation used in the operating rate calculations.
4. A prospective rate for criminal records checks shall be the per diem rate in the base year.
5. The department shall have the authority to implement these payment changes effective July 1, 2014 and prior to completion of any regulatory process in order to effect such changes.
