JOURNAL OF
THE SENATE

2002 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor John H. Hager.

The Reverend Charles A. Summers, First Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, we call upon You today. Be our light to see all people as made in Your image. Be our hope in moments of despair. Be the rock beneath our feet, lest we sink into the mire of vengeance or greed. Be our heart, so that mercy and compassion may flow in this commonwealth.

Grant wisdom to these, our leaders, as they guide us in sharing the bounty of this land. Let Your blessing be upon their families as they serve the family of this state. Give us Your hunger for justice and a thirst to do what is good, especially for the widow, the orphan, and the stranger. For in making a place for the least of these, we make a place for You at the center of our life together. Until Your kingdom comes and Your will is done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barry, Blevins, Bolling, Byrne, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Marye, Maxwell, Miller, K.G., Miller, Y.B., Mims, Newman, Norment, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Trumbo, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

Hon. Susan Clarke Schaar

Richmond, Virginia 23219

Dear Ms. Schaar:

Re: Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit

You will find enclosed herewith, in duplicate, a copy of the report of this Court and the order entered on July 12, 2001 in the matter of the vacancy in the office of judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit.

Copies of this report and order are being sent to Governor Gilmore and Mr. Bruce F. Jamerson.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David B. Beach
Clerk

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Thursday the 12th day of July, 2001.

It being brought to the attention of the Court that a vacancy is expected to occur on September 1, 2001 in the office of judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit by the retirement of Judge Donald R. Mullins, and the Court, pursuant to section 17-122 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, having secured information concerning the volume of business in the said circuit, is of opinion, for reasons stated in writing in the form of a report to the Governor and to the General Assembly of Virginia and filed herewith, that the amount of business of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit makes the filling of the vacancy necessary. Accordingly, the Court doth certify that there is a necessity for filling the vacancy in the manner provided by law, provided the vacancy occurs as anticipated by the notice sent to the Governor of Virginia.

And it is ordered that a copy of this order, together with a copy of the report above referred to, be certified to the Governor of Virginia and to the General Assembly of Virginia.

A Copy,

SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

Richmond, Virginia 23219-2334

July 10, 2001

TO: The Honorable James S. Gilmore, III
Governor of Virginia
And
General Assembly of Virginia

IN RE: Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit

Section 17.1-511 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, provides that whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of any court of record, the vacancy shall not be filled until, after investigation, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the filling of the vacancy is or is not necessary. The Honorable Donald R. Mullins, Judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit, has given his notice to retire on September 1, 2001, thereby creating a vacancy in the office of a judge of that circuit.

The Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit serves the Counties of Tazewell, Russell, Buchanan and Dickenson. The circuit is authorized three circuit court judgeships. The 2000 population of the circuit was 118,279. The judges handled 2,372 commenced cases each in 2000. If the vacancy is not filled, the remaining two judges would handle 3,774 cases each year. The statewide average for commenced cases per judge in 2000 was 1,763.

Based on the foregoing facts and the information contained in the enclosed report, the Supreme Court of Virginia is of the opinion that the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Mullins should be filled in the manner prescribed by law.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Harry L. Carrico
Chief Justice of Virginia

Dear Senator Stolle, Delegate Howell and Delegate Almand:

Section 16.1-69.10(d), Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, provides that the Committee on District Courts shall make a study and report to the General Assembly on the number of district court judges needed and the districts for which they should be authorized. Pursuant to that provision, the Committee on District Courts hereby recommends to the General Assembly that § 16.1-69.6:1 be amended by authorizing one additional new judgeship in each of the following judicial districts:

Fifteenth Judicial District
Twenty-seventh Judicial District

Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court
Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court

These recommendations are effective July 1, 2002. No further changes are recommended in any other districts.

These recommendations are based upon an investigation of the needs of all the districts and are supported by the statistical information included in the appendix to this report.

In addition, the provisions of Chapter 1073 of the 2000 Acts of Assembly (Appropriations Act) provide that the Committee on District Courts should provide the fiscal impact for the creation of such new judgeships. The cost for each district court judgeship is $190,098 per year. Thus the total financial impact of this recommendation is $380,196 per year.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

Office of the Governor

January 9, 2002

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY:

As this administration draws to a close, I have the opportunity to reflect on the many positive legacies and friendships developed over the last four years. I can affirm what has been said by so many before me — that indeed there is no higher honor than to serve the people of Virginia as their Governor. Many faces have come and gone from these chambers, but a common spirit abides — honor, integrity, respect for the traditions we Virginians hold so dear, and eternal optimism for the future.

From raising educational achievement to opening new businesses and jobs to reducing tax burdens on working people, all of us in the Executive Branch and the General Assembly can look back on the last four years — and the advent of the 21st century — with pride in our mutual accomplishments. On behalf of my administration, Roxane and I thank you for your dedicated service to the people of Virginia. The people of Virginia can be proud of your work on their behalf.

May God bless the people of this Commonwealth and those who serve them.

/s/ James S. Gilmore, III

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Sister Cora Marie Billings, St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God, as we embark on this new day and time, we present ourselves to You as Your humble servants. We invoke Your almighty power and ask that we remember the words of a man whose life had a great impact on our world. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said and I quote, "An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity." O great Creator, continue to shed light on our visions, aspirations and decisions. Give us the courage and strength to accept the challenges and to overcome obstacles. Blessed are You, God of the universe; You guide and unite us, and make it possible for us to work together. Be merciful with those You created; give us peace and harmony. We beg Your infinite understanding, so that we may be united in our shared hopes and dreams. May our egos never get in the way of the common good. We have faith in You and we know that You are ever with us and have not brought us this far to leave us. In these days, enable us to keep ever before us the motto, "one Virginia, one future." Amen.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Dr. Randy Clipp, Pastor, Monument Heights Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God of new beginnings, You are our light.

On this clear, bright day, we come to this chamber with renewed energy and vision to work together for the good of the Commonwealth. We come with high hopes and fresh expectations that we, together, can make the difficult decisions needed for the benefit of the people of this state.

Bless our governor, Mark Warner, as he begins his first week of service. Help his family and all of his staff through this time of transition as they adjust to new surroundings and a new community. Bless Lt. Governor Timothy Kaine as he presides over this body with fairness and integrity. And God bless these forty men and women elected to serve at such a time as this. In the words of Gov. Warner, the task before them is formidable. So grant them wisdom to know what is right, strength to do what is right, and courage to reject those ideas that would comprise the integrity of their high office or constituents.

On this new journey, help them to build bridges towards unity, towards one Virginia. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 2002

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Rick Meade, Pastor, Bethel Baptist Church, Lebanon, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we come before You today as a very grateful people. You have given us the wonderful gift of another day and the health and strength to be here, and for this we are thankful. We ask for Your strong and loving arms to embrace those families in and around Grundy who experienced the loss of a loved one this week through a tragic act of violence. God, help others in our state today who are hurting as well. Yes God, we're thankful that we can come to You today with our problems and our needs, knowing that You hear and that You're there, always. Forgive us when we focus on the negative too much because we have a lot to be thankful for today. We thank You for the many freedoms that we enjoy because of this great country we are a part of. We pray for the leaders of this great country and ask that You would help them today as they continue to lead us through a very difficult time. We pray for and thank You for each and every member of our military, and humbly pray for Your hand of protection to be upon them in whatever they do this day. We pray for each of the leaders of our government in this great Commonwealth of Virginia. Dear God, we pray for these Senators who are in this place this day. Give them guidance in whatever decisions they must make today. We realize that many of the decisions they face are not easy, so we ask You for wisdom that will be needed. Thank You for their desire and willingness to serve us all. Lead us and guide us in everything we say and do this day. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Steven Smith, Pastor, Salem Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Father, it is in great humility that we return thanks for the privilege to wield influence in our Commonwealth. We understand that leadership is not claimed by personal tenacity or granted by corporate generosity. Rather, leadership is a trust, given by Your will and design.

You said in Proverbs 21:1 "The kings heart is like channels of water in the hand of the Lord; He turns it wherever He wishes." So Father we come asking for the mercy of Your leadership.

Father, please protect these our leaders from the temptation to define truth according to sin. And, on this holiday that celebrates freedom and courage, we acknowledge that truth without courage is pretense, and faith without application is hypocrisy.

Finally Father, bless the men and women here. Bless their homes, their children, and their work. And with that blessing, give them an unyielding courage to make wise and good decisions.

In Jesus name I pray, Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barry, Blevins, Bolling, Byrne, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Marye, Maxwell, Miller, K.G., Miller, Y.B., Mims, Newman, Norment, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Trumbo, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Alan Acree, Pastor, Fluvanna Baptist Church, Scottsville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Our Father hallowed be Thy name. Father, it is our delight to pause at the beginning of this session to acknowledge Your sovereignty and our dependence upon You!

We thank You and praise You for Your great mercy toward us and for “daily loading us with benefits.”

We praise You for your servants who gather here in the Senate to seek Your will for the Commonwealth.

We acknowledge with Your word, that “The plans are man’s, but You direct the steps.” We therefore humbly ask for wisdom and discernment for these leaders in the complex issues that confront them.

May they be guided by Your wisdom. May they be anchored in the conviction that “righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is the reproach of any people.” And may they have the courage to lead in Your truth, no matter the cost.

We ask these things in the matchless name of the one who deserves all glory. Your son the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Ronald Riffle, Pastor, Olive Branch Christian Church, Norge, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

At the opening of this session of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Virginia, I pray almighty God to take into Your care all the members, the presiding officers, and officials present. Grant each person duly chosen a high sense of responsibility of the office to which they have been called. Fill each person with Your wisdom and knowledge that the resolutions adopted and the laws enacted may meet with Your standard and approval, and may each deliberation be with the intent to provide for the common good of Your people.

We pray today, O God, that You make us all immune to the temptations of selfish interests and in the commission of our work may all find courage to do that which is right and not that which is easy; may we proceed with that which is honorable and not that which is only popular; may we seek that which is true, and not just based on opinion. Help each member to maintain the integrity of their calling, and at the end of this session may each one here represented know they have fulfilled Your divine purpose. May Your counsel and strength be with us.

We pray this in Your name, our creator and sustainer. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 2002

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Courtney McBath, Bishop, Calvary Revival Church, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Gracious Heavenly Father, today we invoke Your blessings upon this governing body. We ask that You would grant us wisdom in every decision made in these hallowed chambers that the people that we lead may also be blessed.

In these troubled times, let Your grace and protection rest upon each senator, their families and their staff. Lead them in the ways of righteousness. Your word declares, "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn." Prov. 29:2

Father we ask for tolerance in our dealings with one another. Thank You for a nation that allows varied and diverse opinions. When the sessions are complete and committees have laid down their gavel and the men and women of this chamber have completed their tasks, let them have placed the good of the citizens of Virginia higher than their party's aspirations, higher than their personal goals.

Together, as God-called leaders, we ask Your grace to rest upon the citizens of this great Commonwealth. From Roanoke to Alexandria and from the Blue Ridge mountains to the coasts of Virginia Beach, let Your prosperity and power be made manifest. Let this state no longer be remembered for introducing slavery to the nation, but be known as the state that became the catalyst for freedom for all men.

Bless the legislative process as it unfolds, bless these who facilitate the process, bless our Governor as he leads. Lord, bless Virginia and use Virginia to bless the nation and the world.

In the name of our Lord. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barry, Blevins, Bolling, Byrne, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Marye, Maxwell, Miller, K.G., Miller, Y.B., Mims, Newman, Norment, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Trumbo, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2002

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend John A. Bright, Pastor, Painter-Garrison United Methodist Church, Painter, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Great and glorious God, we pause now to praise You as the creator of all. We give thanks for this vast Commonwealth we call Virginia. You have given us both mountains and salt water. You have provided places for our cities and pastures for our livestock. You make stewards of the business owners and the farmers. Praise the Lord for His mighty works!

Heavenly Father, we entrust to You these men and women who have been called out from among the citizens. You instruct us to pray for all those who rule over us, but this morning I bring a petition on behalf of these Senators here assembled. Give them Godly wisdom as they seek the common good. Grant to them a spirit of discernment to recognize the way that leads to a brighter future for those who have the least. I ask for the gift of strength that all here may resist evil in every form.

Lord of the prophets, we turn to Micah and seek a word for this day. He spoke to us long ago that we may have Your guidance with us even now. "And what does the Lord require of us? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8, NIV adapted).

This prayer we make in the name of the One who is our Rock and our Redeemer. Amen.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, at the beginning of this day's business gather us as a people dedicated to do justice, to love mercy, and walk humbly with You. Be with the members of the Senate. Give them a heart for compassion, a mind for truth, and a will to righteousness. Amid all the changing words of our generation, speak to us Your eternal word that does not change. Save these brothers and sisters from empty slogans or senseless controversy. In their debates, bring not only heat, but light as well so that the people of our commonwealth may be joined together in common good, common prosperity, and common dignity. Surprise them and us with Your amazing grace. By the power of Your spirit who enables us to pray. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Dr. Raymond L. Spence, Jr., Pastor, Second Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Father of all goodness and grace, it is difficult for us to imagine the circumstances that surround our commonwealth, nation and world at this hour. Mindful are we that our dependence upon You and our need for strength that only can come from You should cause us to begin every day with the prayer, "O Father, help us." I would intercede on behalf of our president and those who surround him, our governor and those who serve with him. Of all of these who are elected officials and represent us, I intercede for them. For those who go in harm's way in our armed services, not only for those who come from the commonwealth, but for those who come from every state in our great nation.

Father, we are dependent, so I would intercede and ask for strength, courage and abundance of wisdom on behalf of all of those we represent. In Your holy name do I pray. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Arthur S. Jones, Pastor, Third Street Bethel AME Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

In these days of uncertainty and anxiety, we rejoice that in You we can find a certainty that takes anxiety away.

In these days when the foundations of our freedom are under attack, we are thankful we can find in You an unshakeable foundation of faith and hope. In these days when greed, hatred, and violence eat away at the vitals of our national life, we take comfort from the words of the Hebrew Prophet who said, "Let justice roll down like waters and righteousness as a mighty stream."

Bless, we pray, this august body of Senators who meet here in the Commonwealth of Virginia, may their acts be directed, not toward selfish ends, but toward the needs of the people of Virginia and of the nation. Teach them, O God, to trust not in their own inadequate understanding but in the divine wisdom and power of Him who called us out of darkness into His marvelous light. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barry, Blevins, Bolling, Byrne, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Marye, Maxwell, Miller, K.G., Miller, Y.B., Mims, Newman, Norment, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Trumbo, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth, we bow this day in thanks for the moments of life You give us. We are grateful that You have called us to service in this place and for this commonwealth. As this governing body begins another day of work, send Your Holy Spirit to be in the midst of each person's thoughts, comments, and conversations. Allow this body to realize anew their calling to be good stewards of the resources of this great commonwealth. Enable each person here to sense a calling to move beyond the politics of the day to the good of the order. Instill in each person a desire to reach beyond normal expectations to be a beacon of hope in a darkened world.

In a difficult budget year for this commonwealth, enable each woman and man here to face difficult decisions with kindness, justice, and fairness as hard choices are made. Remind each person here of service to a greater good than self, status, or position.

Bless what is done so that all of Your children will be included. Hear our prayers, O God. Amen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Wayne L. Ball, Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe. In the beginning You created a single humanity to be the reflection of Your unity. Sin entered the world and the human family was divided brother against brother. In Your wisdom You called Abraham, our father in faith, to reunite that which sin divided.

Throughout history You sent prophets to call us back to You and to one another. Yet today we continue to see in our world the almost infinite capacity of the human mind to create categories that separate us one from the other.

Loving God, may all those gathered here be endowed with Your wisdom, so that they might see beyond our human boundaries and recognize every human being as brother or sister equal in dignity. May they have the courage to speak from the depths of their conscience. May the laws which this Senate enacts be an ever more perfect reflection of Your law of love. We offer all these prayers in Your most holy name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Barry, Blevins, Bolling, Byrne, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Marye, Maxwell, Miller, K.G., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Trumbo, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

Hon. Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate of Virginia
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Dear Ms. Schaar:

Re: Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit

You will find enclosed herewith, in duplicate, a copy of the report of this Court and the order entered on February 13, 2002 in the matter of the vacancy in the office of judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit.

Copies of this report and order are being sent to Governor Warner and Mr. Bruce F. Jamerson.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David B. Beach
Clerk

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Wednesday the 13th day of February, 2002.

A vacancy having occurred in the office of judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit by the expiration of the term of Judge Donald A. McGlothlin, and the Court, pursuant to section 17-122 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, having secured information concerning the volume of business in the said circuit, is of opinion, for reasons stated in writing in the form of a report to the Governor and to the General Assembly of Virginia and filed herewith, that the amount of business of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit makes the filling of the vacancy necessary. Accordingly, the Court doth certify that there is a necessity for filling the vacancy in the manner provided by law.

And it is ordered that a copy of this order, together with a copy of the report above referred to, be certified to the Governor of Virginia and to the General Assembly of Virginia.

SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
100 North Ninth Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219-2334

February 7, 2002

TO: The Honorable Mark R. Warner
Governor of Virginia
And
General Assembly of Virginia

IN RE: Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit

Section 17.1-511 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, provides that whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of any court of record, the vacancy shall not be filled until, after investigation, the Supreme Court of Virginia certifies that the filling of the vacancy is or is not necessary. A vacancy exists due to the expiration of the term of Judge Donald A. McGlothlin of the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit on January 31, 2002, thereby creating a vacancy in the office of a judge of that circuit.

The Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit serves the Counties of Tazewell, Russell, Buchanan and Dickenson. The circuit is authorized three circuit court judgeships. The 2000 population of the circuit was 118,279. The judges handled 2,161 commenced cases each in 2001. If the vacancy is not filled, the remaining two judges would handle 3,409 cases each year. The statewide average for commenced cases per judge in 2001 was 1,736.

Based on the foregoing facts and the information contained in the enclosed report, the Supreme Court of Virginia is of the opinion that the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of Judge McGlothlin should be filled in the manner prescribed by law.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Harry L. Carrico
Chief Justice of Virginia

The reading of the communications was waived.

The communications were referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Richard T. Moore, Executive Director, Emeritus, Dover Baptist Association, Mechanicsville, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Eternal and loving God, we bow humbly before You believing that in You we live, move and have our being. We acknowledge we are finite and You are infinite. Keenly aware of our limitations, and the magnitude of our responsibilities, we ask that You impart to us wisdom, understanding and discernment to meet the demands made upon us. Deliver us from intolerance, selfishness and unkindness. Enable us to be friendly with those with whom we do not always agree and who do not always agree with us. Give to us magnanimity of soul that transcends all barriers of race, color, and creed. As we would that others should do unto us, may likewise we do unto them.

We pray especially for our Senators assembled in this historic chamber. Give them vision to guide us through our turbulent times. May their souls be attune to the will of the Infinite who is present in this place, that their time and energies may not be spent in vain, but for the highest good and the best interests of our great Commonwealth.

We pray in Your Holy Name. Amen.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2002

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Sher J.B. Singh, Sikh Foundation of Virginia, Fairfax Station, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

One Supreme Being, manifesting in His Creation, True His Being, the Creator — the Doer pervading all and filling all, beyond fear, beyond hatred, of Timeless form, Unborn and Self-illuminated, realized through the Enlightner's grace.

O' Lord, guide us to realize the truth about our existence, our Real-Self, the God within, the Ultimate Reality; so that we may attain an eternal state of bliss.

O' Waheguru, show us the light so that we believe in universal brotherhood, truthful living and honest hard work, and give us strength to build our character so that we may have malice toward none and share our blessings with others.

Forgive our sins, O' Waheguru, and save us from lust, wrath, greed, undue attachments and arrogance; and keep us immersed in truth, compassion, righteousness, forgiveness, tolerance, humility and service to others.

O' Waheguru, open our hearts and our minds so that we discern Your will for this Commonwealth and for our Nation in this time of tremendous national challenge. Please deepen our ability to love and understand each other. Also, we seek Your sacred intercession for all the men and women who have been placed in harm's way while serving to defend and protect our Nation and our ideals of peace and justice.

O' Lord, bless this legislative body of well-intentioned men and women, and others who have gathered here today. Give these elected representatives the wisdom to share the bounty of this Commonwealth with all — men and women, young and old, rich and poor. Guide them so that they work for the education, welfare and prosperity of all residents of the Commonwealth and mankind in general.

O' Lord, bring us into the fellowship of men and women of love and God, in whose company, we may always remember Thy name.

Waheguru Ji Ka Khalsa, Waheguru Ji Ki Fateh!

Gracious and loving God, as we acknowledge our dependence on You, we ask You to inspire us to serve all of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

In these difficult economic times, we recognize that our resources are not infinite. Grant us the wisdom and the courage to make hard choices, but also right choices. Help us to keep our priorities in order, that we may serve the people of our Commonwealth, especially those in need, those who are oppressed and those who have no power of their own.

As we have chosen to seek political office, give us the insight to be servant leaders, and the strength to serve faithfully and well.

And gracious God, send down upon these men and women who hold office in this Commonwealth of Virginia, the spirit of wisdom, charity, and justice; so that with steadfast purpose they may faithfully serve in their offices to promote the well-being of all people.

In Your name we pray. Amen.

Such tax payments shall be made on or before the 30th day of June, 2002, if payment is made by electronic funds transfer, as defined in § 58.1-202.1, Code of Virginia. If payment is made by other than electronic funds transfer, such payment shall be made on or before the 25th day of June, 2002. Payments under this paragraph shall be made in accordance with procedures established by the Tax Commissioner and shall be considered general fund revenue. For purposes of this provision, taxable sales or purchases shall be computed without regard to the number of certificates of registration held by the dealer. In addition, the distribution of the payment to revenue code 01088 by the Comptroller shall also occur after the return has been filed. The provisions of this section shall not apply to persons who are required to file only a Form ST-7, Consumer User Tax Return.

B. In lieu of the penalties provided in §58.1-635, Code of Virginia, except with respect to fraudulent returns, failure to make a timely payment or full payment of the sales and use tax liability as provided in paragraph 1 above shall subject the dealer or direct payment permit holder to a penalty of six percent of the amount of the tax underpayment that should have been properly paid to the Tax Commissioner. Interest will accrue as provided in §58.1-15, Code of Virginia. The payment required by paragraph 1 above shall become delinquent on the first day following the due date set forth in paragraph 1 if not paid.

C. Notwithstanding any provision of law, any cash balance resulting from such collections shall not be subject to reporting as reservations or designations of fund balance of the General Fund, or liabilities of the General Fund, as of June 30 for purposes of cash basis financial reporting as reflected in the Comptroller's annual financial report presented in accordance with §2.2-813 of the Code of Virginia.

D. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the payment requirement contained herein be phased out beginning in Fiscal Year 2006. "H.1. Notwithstanding Chapter 35.1 of Title 58.1 of the Code of Virginia, the Department of Taxation shall administer the Personal Property Tax Relief Act of 1998 beginning no later than January 1, 2003.

2. Further, the Department shall establish an audit unit that will identify those individuals who have received personal property tax relief for vehicles that do not meet the "Used for nonbusiness purposes" criteria as defined in §58.1-3523 of the Code of Virginia. The Department of Motor Vehicles, the Department of Accounts and all local Treasurers, Commissioners of the Revenue and Directors of Finance, or officials acting in that capacity, shall cooperate with the Department and shall provide all information and assistance necessary, upon request, to fulfill this responsibility.

3. The Department shall develop a Uniform Personal Property Tax Relief Qualification Certificate for the use of local assessment officials who shall incorporate such certificate in every return of tangible personal property tax due to be filed on or after January 1, 2003. Such certificate shall be designed to allow a taxpayer to attest to the qualification for reduced assessment of each motor vehicle owned by such taxpayer, both for the current tangible personal property assessment year, and for the immediately prior year. Failure by a taxpayer to return an executed certificate with the return of tangible personal property shall disqualify the subject motor vehicle(s) for tax relief for both years for which certification is required. The personal property tax records of localities shall periodically be audited by the Department for the purpose of ascertaining the level of compliance with this provision. Local Treasurers, Commissioners of the Revenue and Directors of Finance also shall include with personal property tax bills a prominent and clear notice of a) the limitation in the personal property tax relief program on the use of personal vehicles for business purposes, and b) the statutory conditions under which the personal property tax relief program will not be advanced to the next level. The Department of Motor Vehicles shall include such notices with all motor vehicle registrations or renewals.

4. Local Treasurers, Commissioners of the Revenue and Directors of Finance shall not bill the state for personal property tax on any vehicle(s) that lacks the duly executed certificate filed with the return of tangible personal property. Local Treasurers, Commissioners of the Revenue and Directors of Finance shall notify the State Comptroller of the dollar amount that the state paid in the immediately prior year for any vehicle that is not certified for tax relief, said amount representing an overpayment by the state, and the State Comptroller shall withhold that amount from subsequent payments to the local treasurer for personal property tax relief. Localities may re-bill responsible taxpayers for the amounts of overpayment that have been withheld by the state.

5. In addition, the Department shall develop and assist local assessment officials with the implementation of data matching programs designed to aid in the identification of individuals who improperly receive the benefit of reduced assessments of motor vehicles. Data sources which should be considered for these programs shall include, but need not be limited to, local business licensing records, Department of Motor Vehicle records, employer travel expense records, and the most recent tax year business expense data submitted by Virginia taxpayers with their Virginia tax returns.

6. Personal property tax payments to any county, city or town whose Treasurer, Commissioner of the Revenue, Director of Finance, or officials acting in that capacity, fail to reasonably cooperate in the implementation of the audit program established by this item shall have personal property tax relief payments withheld until such time as the Tax Commissioner certifies that cooperation has been obtained.

7. The Department shall report to the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees by November 1st of each year on total overpayments by the state that have been identified for the prior calendar year.”

In lieu of the penalties provided in §58.1-635, Code of Virginia, except with respect to fraudulent returns, failure to make a timely payment or full payment on the sales and use tax liability as provided in paragraphs F.1 and F.2 above shall subject the dealer or direct payment permit holder to a penalty of six percent of the amount of tax that should have been properly paid to the Tax Commissioner.
