FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 2004

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Dr. John F. Sloop, First Presbyterian Church, Harrisonburg, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Holy Father, You are the God of power and grace. You have been "Our help in ages past ... and You alone are our hope for the years to come." So, we humble ourselves in Your holy presence. We come to You in prayer because we know You care about each one of us. You care about the decisions to be made in this Senate chamber today by these, Your servants, who are seeking to be faithful to the trust placed in them by the good people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

We seek Your divine guidance at the beginning of today's session because we need wisdom to solve this budget impasse. Deliver us from debating and voting on today's agenda out of self-interest, peer pressure ... or even misguided partisanship.

Rather, give us the grace to be "ready to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry ... for anger does not bring about the righteousness of God." God of all grace, may our leaders in this chamber be sensitive to Your leading, and may You grant each one: Clarity in their thinking, Compassion in their judgements, Patience in their deliberations, and above all, Courage to live out their convictions ... no matter what the cost. And when the day is done ... and this session ended ... may each one know the joy of hearing the Master say:

"Well done, good and faithful servant."

Hear and answer our prayers, for we come, believing, in the Name of Him who created us ... who sustains us by His Spirit, and Redeems us by the power of his sacrificial love. Amen.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 2004

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Canon J. Fletcher Lowe, Jr., Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Blessed are You, Lord God, of the universe and of Virginia. We thank You for the gift of life that You have given to each of us—each of us being wonderfully and marvelously made.

We thank You for each of these Senators and those who have supported them during these past days and weeks and months. We thank You for their multifaceted gifts committed to the common good of the Commonwealth. Work through their accomplishments and successes, their leadership and their courage, their frustrations and their fatigue to bring about Your kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

Continue in these especially difficult days to be their guide and their support, their strength and their affirmation. And, as they adjourn soon, protect them as they travel and affirm them in their future service to us—the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia. And in the name of God, we ask this. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Bell, Blevins, Chichester, Colgan, Deeds, Devolites, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Miller, Mims, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, O'Brien, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

“A. All agencies and institutions shall follow the procedures for collection of funds owed the Commonwealth as specified by the State Comptroller, except as otherwise specified in this Act.

B.1. There is hereby created on the books of the Comptroller a special nonreverting fund known as the “Debt Collection Recovery Fund.” The Division of Debt Collection shall deposit to the Fund all revenues generated by it, less any cost of recovery, from receivables collected on behalf of state agencies. This provision shall apply whether such payment is made directly to the affected agency or to the Office of the Attorney General.

2. The Secretary of Finance may make exemptions from the required deposits to the Fund, as specified in B.1. above, upon his determination that such collections are more appropriately returned to the fund source in which such receivables are due. Any such exemptions shall be reported to the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees within 30 days of such approval.

3. From the amounts collected for the Fund, 30 percent, not to exceed $1,800,000 in any fiscal year, shall be paid to the Division of Debt Collection.

4. From the amounts collected for the Fund, 30 percent shall be returned to the state agency for which the claim was collected. Out of the balance in the Fund, the State Comptroller shall transfer up to $1,570,000 to the general fund on or before June 30, 2004. Any amount in excess of the transfer which remains in the Debt Collection Recovery Fund each year after the transfer shall be returned on a pro rata basis to all state agencies having claims collected by the Division of Debt Collection during the course of the year, to the extent that such collections contributed to the balance in the Fund.

5. The Division of Debt Collection may contract with private collection agents for the collection of debts amounting to less than $15,000.

6. The Division of Debt Collection and the Department of Accounts shall promulgate rules necessary to implement these provisions.”

* While I wholeheartedly support the reconstitution of the Public Defender Commission into an Indigent Defense Commission, I am disappointed that this Joint Conference Report for SB 330 continues to ignore the need for a public defenders office in Chesapeake and Newport News.

In January 2004, the Sprangenberg Group released its nine-month study of indigent defense in Virginia. Unfortunately, the indigent defense system in Newport News was frequently referenced.

On page 44, the report states: Attorneys and clerks in Newport News acknowledge that the system used to appoint counsel is designed to maximize a private attorney's time and earnings on court-appointed cases by assigning multiple clients for court appearances set for the same day ... One attorney told us (Sprangenberg), 'You have to take multiple cases the same day, to earn adequate money.'

This practice and attorney attitude raises several concerns. First, it reinforces the attitude demonstrated last year by the “meal ticket” reference by a practicing court-appointed attorney in Newport News. Secondly, it appears that the Newport News courts make the “clustering” of cases a routine practice. As such, I wonder how much time a court-appointed attorney spends with the indigent client. I suspect that such practices tend to facilitate an attitude of quickly processing cases and securing as many guilty pleas as possible.

Another concern is the practice of assigning court-appointed cases from the bench. On page 45, the report states the following: In the circuit court in Newport News, for example, cases on direct indictment are normally assigned to attorneys who are present in the courtroom at the time the assignment is needed.

This indicates little concern for the client’s need for competent counsel to handle the pending charges against him. By “hanging around” the courthouse, an attorney can secure court-appointed assignments not based on competence, but rather by merely being present.

Finally, in another example on page 50 of the report, a Newport News attorney admitted ... with a retained client, he spends substantially more time looking for an issue that will benefit the client, while in a court-appointed case he spends as little time as possible looking for an issue that will dispose of the case. “If we want to make a living we have to get rid of the case as quickly as possible.”

For these reasons, I respectfully dissent.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 2004

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend J. Denise Honeycutt, Virginia Conference, Secretary of Global Ministries, United Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Oh God, we come into Your presence a bit weary and frustrated. We have struggled and worked, we have negotiated and compromised, and yet there's more to be done. We have found ourselves at odds with those who sit across from us, with those who differ from us, and if we are truthful, at odds even within ourselves. There are many places that we would rather be on this rainy day—but here we are, God, with work still to be done.

We are grateful that You have promised to never leave or forsake us. So as this Senate enters into the work which they have been called, we ask that they would be reminded of Your presence. Give each person here the boldness and strength to speak and act on behalf of the weakest of our society. In all that is done, let our actions be motivated from the true authentic core of our being, that justice may flow down like water and integrity like an unfailing stream.

In Christ's name—Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

insert

except that during the first seven days of the special session, only Budget and revenue bills requested by the Governor may be offered

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Stolle propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the General Assembly had the ability to limit the authority of the Governor and how he convenes a special session pursuant to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of Virginia.

The Chair stated that constitutionally the legislature cannot define the Governor's powers during a special session nor can the Governor define the legislature's powers. The Chair stated further that the legislature can limit its own powers by a procedural resolution.

Senator Stolle moved that the amendment be agreed to.

The question was put on agreeing to the amendment.

The recorded vote is as follows:

The amendment was rejected, having failed to receive the necessary affirmative votes required by Article IV, Section 6, of the Constitution.

Senator Norment was ordered to inform the House of Delegates thereof.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 2004

The Senate met at 12 m. in Reconvened Session of the 2004 Regular Session and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend William M. Plonk, Chatham Presbyterian Church, Chatham, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we commend our beloved Virginia to Your merciful care, that we may live securely in peace and may be guided by Your providence. Give all in authority, especially those gathered here, the wisdom and strength to know Your will and to do it.

Forgive, we pray, our shortcomings as the Commonwealth of Virginia. Purify our hearts to see and love truth; give wisdom to our leaders and steadfastness to our people.

Show us ways to solve our differences. Do not let threats multiply or power be used without compassion. Hold back those who are impulsive, lest desire for vengeance overwhelm our common welfare.

Work with those who work for peace. Bring reconciliation and goodwill to Iraq, Palestine, Israel, and Afghanistan.

Guard brave men and women who risk themselves for their country. Though they must be at war, let them live for peace, as eager for agreement as for victory. Encourage them as they encourage one another.

God of life, there are days when the burdens we carry are heavy on our shoulders and weigh us down, when the road seems dreary and endless, the skies gray and threatening, when our lives have no music in them. Flood the path with light, turn our eyes to where the skies are full of promise. Give us the sense of comradeship with heroes and saints of every age and so quicken our spirits that we may be able to encourage the souls of all who are gathered here this day. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Bell, Blevins, Bolling, Chichester, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Devolites, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Miller, Mims, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, O'Brien, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

§ 22.1-311 Hearing before school board
The hearing before the school board, which shall be private unless the teacher requests a public one, must be set within thirty days of the request, and the teacher must be given at least fifteen days' written notice of the time and place. At the hearing the teacher may appear with or without a representative and be heard, presenting testimony of witnesses and other evidence. The school board may hear a recommendation for dismissal and make a determination whether to make a recommendation to the Board of Education regarding the teacher's license at the same hearing or hold a separate hearing for each action.
§ 22.1-312 Hearing before fact-finding panel
A. In the event that a hearing before a fact-finding panel is requested, a three-member panel shall be selected by the following method. The teacher shall select one panel member from among other employees of the school division. The division superintendent shall select one panel member from among employees of the school division. The teacher and the division superintendent shall select their respective panel members within five business days of any request for a hearing before a fact-finding panel. The two panel members so selected shall select the third impartial panel member.

If within five business days after both panel members have been selected they are unable to agree upon a third panel member, the chief judge of the circuit court shall be requested by the two members of the panel to furnish a list of five qualified and impartial fact finders, one of whom shall then be selected by the two members of the panel as the third member. The persons comprising the list may reside within or without the jurisdiction of the circuit court, be residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia and, in all cases, shall possess some knowledge and expertise in public education and education law and shall be deemed by the judge capable of presiding over an administrative hearing. Selection shall be made by the panel members alternately deleting any name from the list until only one remains. The panel member selected by the teacher shall make the first deletion. This selection process shall be completed within five business days after receipt of the list of fact finders from the chief judge. The third impartial panel member shall chair the panel. No elected official shall serve as a panel member. Panel members shall not be parties to, or witnesses to, the matter grieved.

With the agreement of the teacher's and division superintendent's panel members, the impartial panel member shall have the authority to conduct the hearing and make recommendations as set forth herein while acting as a hearing officer.

The Attorney General shall represent personally or through one of his assistants any third impartial panel member who shall be made a defendant in any civil action arising out of any matter connected with his duties as a panel member. If, in the opinion of the Attorney General, it is impracticable or uneconomical for such legal representation to be rendered by him or one of his assistants, he may employ special counsel for this purpose, whose compensation shall be fixed by the Attorney General and be paid out of the funds appropriated for the administration of the Department of Education.

B. The panel shall set the time for a hearing, which shall be held within 30 business days, and shall so notify the division superintendent and the teacher. The teacher and the division superintendent each may have present at the hearing and be represented at all stages by a representative or legal counsel. The panel may hear a recommendation for dismissal and make a determination whether to make a recommendation to the Board of Education regarding the teacher's license at the same hearing or hold a separate hearing for each action.

C. The panel shall determine the propriety of attendance at the hearing of persons not having a direct interest in the hearing; however, at the request of the teacher, the hearing shall be private.

D. The panel may ask, at the beginning of the hearing, for statements from the division superintendent and the teacher clarifying the issues involved.

The parties shall then present their claims and evidence. Witnesses may be questioned by the panel members, the teacher and the division superintendent. The panel may, at its discretion, vary this procedure but shall afford full and equal opportunity to all parties for presentation of any material or relevant evidence and shall afford the parties the right of cross-examination.

The parties shall produce such additional evidence as the panel may deem necessary to an understanding and determination of the dispute. The panel shall be the judge of relevancy and materiality of the evidence offered. All evidence shall be taken in the presence of the panel and of the parties.

E. Exhibits offered by the teacher or the division superintendent may be received in evidence by the panel and, when so received, shall be marked and made a part of the record.

F. The facts found and recommendations made by the panel shall be arrived at by a majority vote of the panel members.

G. The hearing may be reopened by the panel on its own motion or upon application of the teacher or the division superintendent for good cause shown to hear after-discovered evidence at any time before the panel's report is made.

H. The panel shall make a written report which shall include its findings of fact and recommendations and shall file it with the members of the school board, the division superintendent and the teacher, not later than 30 business days after the completion of the hearing.

I. A stenographic record or tape recording of the proceedings shall be taken. However, in proceedings concerning grievances not related to dismissal or probation, the recording may be dispensed with entirely by mutual consent of the parties. In such proceedings, if the recording is not dispensed with, the two parties shall share the cost of the recording equally; if either party requests a transcript, that party shall bear the expense of its preparation.

In cases of dismissal or probation, a record or recording of the proceedings shall be made and preserved for a period of six months. If either the teacher or the school board requests that a transcript of the record or recording be made at any time prior to expiration of the six-month period, it shall be made and copies shall be furnished to both parties. The school board shall bear the expense of the recording and the transcription.

J. The teacher shall bear his or her own expenses. The school board shall bear the expenses of the division superintendent. The expenses of the panel shall be borne one-half by the school board and one-half by the teacher.

K. The parties shall set the per diem rate of the panel. If the parties are unable to agree on the per diem, it shall be fixed by the judge of the circuit court. No employee of the school division shall receive such per diem for service on a panel during his normal work hours if he receives his normal salary for the period of such service.

L. The recommendations and findings of fact of the panel submitted to the school board shall be based exclusively upon the evidence presented to the panel at the hearing. No panel member shall conduct an independent investigation involving the matter grieved.

M. Witnesses who are employees of the school board shall be granted release time if the hearing is held during the school day. The hearing shall be held at the school in which most witnesses work, if feasible.

N. For the purposes of this section, "business day" means any day that the relevant school board office is open.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Norment propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to the posture of the House bills that the Senate had not acted upon when the House of Delegates adjourned sine die on April 21, 2004.

The Chair stated that the action of the House of Delegates in adjourning sine die from the Reconvened Session on April 21, 2004, without the agreement of the Senate did not affect the actions taken by the Senate on House bills.

On motion of Senator Norment, leaves of absence for the day were granted Senators Bell, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Lambert, Lucas, Martin, Obenshain, O'Brien, Puckett, Rerras, Reynolds, Stosch, Wampler, Watkins, and Williams.

Senator Chichester moved that the Senate adjourn sine die.

The motion was agreed to.

The President declared the Senate adjourned sine die.

Senator Norment was ordered to inform the House of Delegates thereof.

SENATE BILL VETOED BY GOVERNOR
SUBSEQUENT TO ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

S.B. 591 (five hundred ninety-one), subsequent to adjournment sine die of the Reconvened Session of the 2004 Regular Session, was returned by the Governor with the following communication:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
Office of the Governor

May 21, 2004

TO THE SENATE OF VIRGINIA
SENATE BILL NO. 591

Pursuant to Article V, Section 6, of the Constitution of Virginia, I veto Senate Bill 591, which would have added five seats, all appointed by the General Assembly, to the Board of Virginia Economic Development Partnership. The bill requires that those appointed to these new seats reside in areas of the Commonwealth that have unemployment reported at a rate of at least one and one-half times that of the state unemployment average for the preceding four years.

I previously submitted amendments to the bill that I believe represented an acceptable compromise. The Governor would have retained appointment power for three of the five new seats, and the chairman of the Tobacco Commission, a legislator, would have controlled the remaining two appointments.

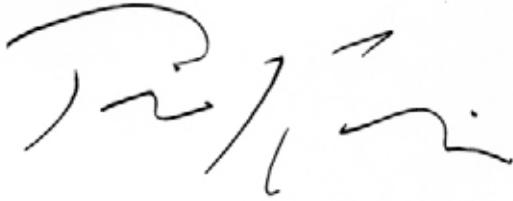

Under my amendment, in addition to the representatives from every congressional district, plus two at-large members, one citizen would be appointed from each of the economically distressed tobacco regions of Southside and Southwest Virginia. Pursuant to the definition of economically distressed areas included in the current bill, only citizens from a very few jurisdictions in these hard-hit regions were eligible for appointment. This amendment would have allowed all of the Southside and Southwest regions the potential to have additional representation on the Board.

While I understand that members of the General Assembly, especially those in economically distressed rural areas, would like to have more influence on the VEDP Board, the bill as it stands now does not achieve their goal. Instead, it actually limits the General Assembly's appointment options to those residing in a few rural areas, as well as several urban areas in other parts of the state.

Furthermore, no reason exists for the executive branch to cede this appointment power to the legislative branch at this point. Any shift in the balance of power should occur in conjunction with a broader review that includes a provision for a two-term governor.

My record reflects my strong commitment to economic development in distressed regions of the Commonwealth. However, I do not believe that this bill will help those efforts and could politicize a Board that serves more of a business function than a political one.
