JOURNAL OF
THE SENATE

2005 REGULAR SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Dr. O. Benjamin Sparks, Second Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

O God our Maker, who created the earth a home for all creatures, and who in mercy has called us to be stewards, not slaves, we praise You. We give You thanks that at the heart of reality is neither vengeance nor hatred nor destructive competition, but Love, and Your Shalom, Salaam, Peace—whose origins are divine.

Look today upon these Your servants of the common good. Make them mindful of their responsibility toward all the citizens of Virginia, and not only toward the special interests which, of necessity, clamor for their attention in this legislative session.

Give them grace and strength, insight and courage, as they uphold the ideals of our founders, and look toward the future with hope.

Lord of the nations, we dare not bow before You this day for Virginia alone. So we lift to Your throne of grace, with shock and sadness, the victims of devastation in South Asia, and praise You for the generosity of the human family—in the midst of tragedy.

We also remember the courage of our men and women in uniform, who are in harm's way. We plead also for them—for Your mercy, for their safety, and for a road map to peace and stability in Iraq.

Where would we be, O Lord, without Your restraining hand, Your fidelity to humankind, Your faithful vision for this world—that moves us forward, year after year?

Take not Your mercy from us. Take away lingering pride or vainglory. For we would be faithful stewards, as we await the return of the One whose wide arms open to all—to all who live with gratitude and kindness, and who seek justice—even here, even now, even today.

O Maker and Redeemer of all, hear our prayers. Amen.

Section 16.1-69.10(d), Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, provides that the Committee on District Courts shall make a study and report to the General Assembly on the number of district court judges needed and the districts for which they should be authorized. Pursuant to that provision, the Committee on District Courts hereby recommends to the General Assembly that § 16.1-69.6:1 be amended by authorizing one additional new judgeship in each of the following judicial districts:

Fifteenth Judicial District	General District Court
Twentieth Judicial District	Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court

These recommendations are effective July 1, 2005. No further changes are recommended in any other districts.

These recommendations are based upon an investigation of the needs of all the districts and are supported by the statistical information included in the appendix to this report.

In addition, the provisions of Chapter 4 of the 2004 Acts of Assembly, Special Session I (Appropriations Act) provide that the Committee on District Courts should provide the fiscal impact for the creation of such new judgeships. The cost for each district court judgeship is $183,917 per year. Thus the total financial impact of this recommendation is $367,834 per year.

The Honorable Rosemarie P. Annunziata, Judge of the Court of Appeals, has given notice of her intent to retire effective January 1, 2005, thereby creating a vacancy on the Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals of Virginia consists of eleven judges. The Court had 3,292 case filings in 2003. VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Monday the 20th day of December, 2004.

It being brought to the attention of the Court that a vacancy is expected to occur on February 28, 2005 in the office of judge of the Twenty-first Judicial Circuit by the retirement of Judge Charles M. Stone, and the Court, pursuant to section 17-122 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, having secured information concerning the volume of business in the said circuit, is of opinion, for reasons stated in writing in the form of a report to the Governor and to the General Assembly of Virginia and filed herewith, that the amount of business of the Twenty-first Judicial Circuit makes the filling of the vacancy necessary. Accordingly, the Court doth certify that there is a necessity for filling the vacancy in the manner provided by law, provided the vacancy occurs as anticipated by the notice sent to the Governor of Virginia.

And it is ordered that a copy of this order, together with a copy of the report above referred to, be certified to the Governor of Virginia and to the General Assembly of Virginia.

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

God, our Eternal Father, as these dedicated Senators begin a new year, a new term, and tackle new challenges, I ask for Your blessing upon their work. I pray for them generous portions of wisdom and insight.

Give to them bifocal vision. May they see the close at hand in need of an immediate response. May they also capture the long look, the horizons that stretch forth into the tomorrows of our beloved people.

May they have the understanding to know what cannot be changed, the courage to change what needs to be changed, and the wisdom to know the difference.

We ask, oh Lord, one more thing. Bless their families wherever they are and whatever they are doing, for they too are affected by the dedication of these Senators, many of them away from home.

For all of us, may we have strength and joy for the living of this day.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 2005

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Michael Carter, Lebanon Memorial United Methodist Church, Lebanon, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we humble ourselves this day before You, excited about the possibilities as we begin a new year. As we ponder the magnificence of our great state and nation, give us wisdom;

Wisdom to see law as servant not master,

Wisdom to accept law as guide not God.

As we pray for and celebrate those in this hallowed room, called to the role of legislators and guardians of freedom, in a just and fair society, give them vision—

Vision to assure that legal precepts honor equality, to settle for no less than justice, and to facilitate peace,

Vision to labor at laws that balance blessings and responsibilities and that enact restrictions only to enhance liberties.

As this group meets this year, may they pursue a sense of commonality. Our nation and state at times are overwhelmed by the reality of diversity. Sharp distinctions and important differences pull us apart. Yet You, O God, have in the past brought unity out of diversity. Please do it again among us. Set before this body a compelling vision of our common humanity. Help each of us to see one another as human beings—each unique, each precious.

With sympathetic understanding, we pray for our leaders. Grant to our President the conscience You intend for the chief political officer. Instill grace and wisdom within the members of the Senate and House of Representatives. Bestow upon the justices of the Supreme Court sensitive skills in legal interpretation. Enable military officials to envision nonmilitary responses as viable options in solving critical problems. Protect our troops who serve abroad.

With a commitment to faithful citizenship, we pray for the people of our state, nation and world. Teach us to translate personal convictions into political actions. Deliver us from the tendency to depend upon government for that which we can rightly do for ourselves.

Bless, O God, these men and women as they seek the common good for all their constituents. And may the year 2005, be a year of blessing for them and their families. Hear our prayer, O God. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Imam Vernon M. Fareed, Masjid William Salaam, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Oh Creator and Lord of all systems of knowledge, we pray for Your blessings upon this honorable assembly of men and women that are gathered here to help shape the affairs of our society. Bless them with compassion and wisdom and cause them to be cognizant of their responsibility to the people of this great Commonwealth of Virginia. Oh Creator, bless all of us who are gathered in this hall today to participate in or witness the decisions that will affect so many lives in this state. Our Lord, bless us with continued progress and prosperity in our spiritual and material life and help those that do good. Oh God who is mighty and sublime, bless this nation and its citizens with peace and security for You are the source of all peace and most able to secure. We pray for the families and victims who have lost their lives to violence, to war or to catastrophic natural disaster. We acknowledge that all control and power is in Your hand and that nothing can occur without Your permission. We pray for enlightenment of Your plan for humanity trusting that our society will become a better place to live when we follow Your guidance. Oh Creator and Master, we know that no one can close the avenues of light and prevent it from entering the minds of the people if it is Your desire to open them. We have seen the power of Your hand on the landscape of America, and we witness that You alone are God. As we leave here today on this historic occasion, we pray that an indelible impression is made on the hearts and minds of all. For this is the day when matters are being brought to conclusion. We ask this in Your name! Ameen.

Almighty God, on this inaugural day, we give You thanks for this great nation and the freedoms we enjoy. May You continue to guide and sustain our President as he leads our nation.

As this Senate convenes today, we are reminded of the awesome task of leadership given. We pray that families be strengthened and blessed because of the issues deliberated, considered, and passed by this body.

Give knowledge and understanding to this body today. Fill our Senators with gratitude for this opportunity to invest their lives in that which will live beyond them. Grant them an awareness of Your presence, and may they work in ways which would be pleasing to You.

For our soldiers, fighting for freedom and democracy in other lands, we seek protection in this day. And for those in leadership where decisions are made, we pray for wisdom. Almighty God, we long for peace for all people, so that one day, men and women, boys and girls can stand side by side without bitterness. We long for peace, so that nation can stand beside nation without conflict.

These things we bring before You today. Amen.

Timothy M. Kaine
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Dr. James F. Hoffman, Jr., Fairfax Baptist Church, Fairfax, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear almighty and loving God, I come to You this day with great joy and thankfulness, and a sense of historic purpose. I thank You for the freedom and protection for us, as the crown of Your creation, to gather in this hallowed place today.

I pray that those who come behind us find us faithful. First and foremost, may we be faithful to You our great Creator. May we think with Your mind, feel with Your heart, and act in Your justice and mercy. In addition, may we be faithful to our Constitution, both Federal and State, which has given this body its life and purpose. Further, may this body be faithful to its constituency and party without the loss of personal integrity and cooperation for the greater good for all people in the State of Virginia, from its majestic mountains to the pounding surf of the coastline and from the dense population of the north to the tranquility of its horse farms and pastures.

For this new day and all days to follow, I pray for You to empower this body with the spirit of hospitality, the hospitality where each member can enter and become a friend instead of an enemy. Help us remember that hospitality is not to change people, but to offer them space where change can take place. It is not to bring men and women over to our side, but to offer freedom not disturbed by dividing lines. It is not to lead the other into a corner where there are no alternatives left, but to open a wide spectrum of options for choice and commitment. It is not an educated intimidation with good books, good stories, and good works, but the liberation of fearful hearts so that words can find roots and bear ample fruit. It is not a method of making our God, our party, and our way into rigid criterion of happiness, but the opening of an opportunity to others to find their God, their party, and their way. Then, we come together like facets of a diamond for this our shining moment in time to find Your way in the process of decision making.

Now, I ask that You, Author of our freedom, help each member to create space for the other. Enable them for this task that will require hard concentration and articulate work. Help them each to possess the quality of the patrolman who creates some space in the middle of a mob of panic-driven people for an ambulance to reach the center of the accident. May we put aside rivalry and competition, desire for power and immediate results, impatience and frustration, and, most of all, plain fear which creates its forceful demands.

In closing, I ask that we might today use the mind that You gave us to think not our thoughts but Yours. For our minds have not been given to us just to think through menial daily tasks, but to rest in the Universal Mind of all knowing and find the wisdom we have only perhaps imagined. For Holy Words remind us that what man thinks is impossible is possible with God. I frame my petition in the name of the Way, the Truth, and the Light. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Subdue in our state all that is harmful, and make us a disciplined and devoted people. We thank You for blessing our state. We thank You for like-minded leaders whom You have raised up to guide our state. We pray that You will grant to those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government to be responsible and wise, courageous and strong, and guide us, the people, to expect of them and to support them in all wise legislation and a faithful administration that we may all prosper under an equal law. Defend our liberties and grant us a sense of responsibility. Achieve unity of purpose among us, and grant unto us the victory of faith in the ideals to which we are committed as a state. FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 2005

The Senate met at 11:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Michael McGee, Unitarian Universalist Church of Arlington, Arlington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

A kindergarten teacher walked around her classroom observing her students as they drew. As she got to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was.

The girl replied, "I'm drawing God."

The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like."

Without missing a beat the girl replied, "They will in a minute."

Actually, we do know what God looks like, don't we? Hindus greet each other by bowing and saying the NAMASTE, which means that I bow to the divine spark of God in you and me and everyone. Jesus also proclaimed this revelation when he said "The Kingdom of God is within you."

O Great Mystery, we pray this morning that our every word and deed will unveil the divine spark of God in each human being, no matter the race, religion, nationality, or sexual orientation.

May we never forget to embrace the inherent worth and dignity of all people. Amen and Namaste.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senator Mims notified the Clerk of his presence.

On motion of Senator Colgan, the reading of the Journal was waived.

Almighty and everlasting Father, who by the power of Your grace has forgiven us, and by the power of Your love, You have always received us, we come at the beginning of this session to ask Your presence in all that we deliberate on this particular day.

We would remember those who serve in all branches of our military to secure the freedom, not only for us, but for others. Mindful are we of the leadership of our nation, and ask You to bless and guide them. Bless the Commonwealth, the districts from which we come, those who have entrusted us with the opportunity to serve, but most of all for You, Lord, who matched us with this hour in history. In the name of all holiness do we pray. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Bishop B. Courtney McBath, Calvary Revival Church, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, I thank You for Your great grace over the state of Virginia. You have sustained us from our humble beginnings. Through difficult pioneering, devastating wars, secessions and recessions, slavery and emancipation, through it all You have watched over us. We praise You today for even in our sins of oppression and hatred and greed You loved us with an undying love. For more than 400 years You have kept Virginia. We stop now to give You honor and praise for Your faithfulness to the Old Dominion.

We ask that You give us grace to move forward. Deliver us from unhealthy and unproductive bipartisanship and petty politics and raise up this intelligent, gifted body of leaders to serve the people of this great state. Put it in our hearts to be servants first and leaders second. Put it in our hearts to be Virginians first and Republicans and Democrats second. Put it in our hearts to be kind, compassionate, and gentle towards one another even when we disagree. Pour Your love and grace down upon these hallowed halls.

Dear gracious Father, bless this great state and its people to pursue the will of God in every facet of life. Bless this great state with increased income and economic growth, especially for those who are broken and poor. Make this state the epitome of its name. In the Commonwealth of Virginia let our wealth be common wealth. Cause publicly owned corporations to build and expand into this state. Speak to privately owned companies to move their operations here and then give us the infrastructure, vision, and foresight to support and sustain what You send. Help us to educate our children properly and prepare them for the future. Help families to walk in emotional prosperity and preserve the foundational principles of marriage and the integrity of family.

Bless our churches, temples, and synagogues and make them places where the needs of many will be met. Bless our spiritual leaders with insight, foresight, and vision. Unite this state and use this Senate to fulfill your purpose in the great state of Virginia that You have established. Bless this session of the Senate to be proficient and fruitful.

With great respect for men and women of all faiths and those who lack faith in You, I humbly submit this prayer in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

O' Waheguru (Lord), guide us to realize the truth about our existence, our Real-Self, the God within, the Ultimate Reality; so that we may attain an eternal state of bliss.

O' Lord, show us the light so that we believe in universal brotherhood, truthful living and honest hard work, and give us strength to build our character so that we may have malice toward none and share our blessings with others.

Almighty God, open up our hearts and our minds so that we always discern Your will for this Commonwealth and for our Nation. Please grant us wisdom and courage, and inspire us with vision so that Americans of all faiths and colors continue to be a force for hope and freedom throughout the world. O' Lord protect our brave troops fighting for human liberty in Iraq and other places, and grant strength to individuals helping victims of the recent tsunami disaster.

The authority of the General Assembly shall extend to all subjects of legislation not herein forbidden or restricted; and a specific grant of authority in this Constitution upon a subject shall not work a restriction of its authority upon the same or any other subject. The omission in this Constitution of specific grants of authority heretofore conferred shall not be construed to deprive the General Assembly of such authority, or to indicate a change of policy in reference thereto, unless such purpose plainly appear.

The General Assembly shall confer on the courts power to grant divorces, change the names of persons, and direct the sales of estates belonging to infants and other persons under legal disabilities, and shall not, by special legislation, grant relief in these or other cases of which the courts or other tribunals may have jurisdiction.

The General Assembly's power to define the accrual date for a civil action based on an intentional tort committed by a natural person against a person who, at the time of the intentional tort, was a minor shall include the power to provide for the retroactive application of a change in the accrual date. No natural person shall have a constitutionally protected property right to bar a cause of action based on intentional torts as described herein on the ground that a change in the accrual date for the action has been applied retroactively or that a statute of limitations or statute of repose has expired.

The General Assembly shall not enact any local, special, or private law in the following cases:

- (1) For the punishment of crime.
- (2) Providing a change of venue in civil or criminal cases.
- (3) Regulating the practice in, or the jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceedings or inquiry before the courts or other tribunals, or providing or changing the methods of collecting debts or enforcing judgments or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate.

- (10) Granting from the treasury of the Commonwealth, or granting or authorizing to be granted from the treasury of any political subdivision thereof, any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, agent, or contractor.
- (11) For registering voters, conducting elections, or designating the places of voting.
- (12) Regulating labor, trade, mining, or manufacturing, or the rate of interest on money.
- (13) Granting any pension.
- (14) Creating, increasing, or decreasing, or authorizing to be created, increased, or decreased, the salaries, fees, percentages, or allowances of public officers during the term for which they are elected or appointed.
- (15) Declaring streams navigable, or authorizing the construction of booms or dams therein, or the removal of obstructions therefrom.
- (16) Affecting or regulating fencing or the boundaries of land, or the running at large of stock.
- (17) Creating private corporations, or amending, renewing, or extending the charters thereof.
- (18) Granting to any private corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege, or immunity.
- (19) Naming or changing the name of any private corporation or association.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2005

The Senate met at 10:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Eternal and Everlasting God: Your rule extends from hidden time to hidden time. Your ways are not ours, we are told, and You, the Holy One, are shrouded in mystery.

But You want us to know You. So You gave us this world—filled with beauty and grace—and the stories of its birth: How You spoke into fiercely swirling chaos, “Let there be...” You said, and there was light and light, oceans and continents, cattle on a thousand hills. Then to humans, the crowning touch of creation, You instructed: “In freedom rule the earth with wisdom, grace and joy.”

It is good that we remember our beginnings as these servants begin this day’s work. Guide them as they craft laws and shape a budget. Bless them as they do Your holy work of caring for those who cannot care for themselves. Make these, Your servants, wise in Your ways and humble in the face of their responsibility. Lead them to put aside partisanship and to focus on the common good. Grant them a full measure of Your compassion.

O God of mercy, guide the work of their hands and the words of their mouths with such care that when this day’s work is done, and they lie down to take their rest, the last voice they hear may be Yours, saying, “Well done good and faithful servant.” Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

On motion of Senator Chichester, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 12 m.

Timothy M. Kaine
President of the Senate

Susan Clarke Schaar
Clerk of the Senate

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

The Reverend Randy Cosner, Briery Branch Church of the Brethren, Dayton, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in heaven, we pray to You this day, and come before Your presence with thanksgiving. The Psalmist asks, "What is man, that thou art mindful of him?" And we thank You that You are mindful of us today.

Dear God, who created us, we pray that You would continue Your creation today, as You work in us, and through us.

Lord, perhaps You would remind us of the many ways You're working through Your people. Throughout Virginia today thousands of employees are faithfully at their jobs; children are busy in the classrooms; stay-at-home mothers are nurturing their children. Health care providers and nurses are caring for the sick. Others are caring for the elderly and disabled. Our colleges and universities are busy with research and study to improve lives. Public officials are protecting our citizens. Our manufacturers are busy building the products that make life better. We surely do live in a wonderfully blessed land!

We pray that we may ever be mindful of those with needs. Lord, there is plenty to do as we endeavor to serve You and others. May the strong lift up the weak, may those with resources help those without, and may the encouraged counsel the discouraged. May the hungry be fed. May we indeed love our neighbor. May opportunities for reaching each person's full potential increase.

I pray Your wisdom to prevail in this chamber. Guide these women and men who have been "called out" to serve in the Senate. You have raised them up and You will strengthen them and give them courage for the work. Help them in their seeking of truth. May their thoughts be clear, their motives be pure, and their hearts tender. As our Senators work the long hours, days, and weeks of this session, protect their families at home. Thank You for their dedication.

We pray, mindful of Your pre-eminence, Your glory, and Your power. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Bell, Blevins, Bolling, Chichester, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Devolites Davis, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Miller, Mims, Norment, Obenshain, O'Brien, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Wagner, Watkins, Whipple.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2005

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

All powerful, God of all:

We call You by many names: "The Compassionate and Merciful," "Our Father," "The Creator," "The Great Architect of the Universe." Yet You are one God, living and true.

Give to the members of this Senate Your spirit of compassion and mercy as they consider the needs of all our Commonwealth's citizens.

Give them Your spirit of wisdom as they design and author legislation that must stand the tests of time, not merely satisfy the exigencies of a moment.

Give them that spirit of an understanding parent so, in moments of a colleague's petulance, they would remember Your boundless patience with us.

In all things, may they remember that You are the measure of all that is good; may they mirror this in all they say and do.

All this we ask in Your Holy Name. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

We believe there is the common good, and that we wish to do. Do not let ego or hurt rule us. Gathered as we are from all over the Commonwealth and serving its many backgrounds, so we ask that we will truly let You lead us as we attempt to lead an array of people. So we pray, Almighty God. Amen.

The Secretary of Transportation shall petition the United States Congress and the Federal Highway Administration to seek a waiver from federal law and regulation prohibiting the Commonwealth from either privatizing the management and operations of the state's welcome centers and rest areas or developing public-private partnerships to provide facilities and services expected by the traveling public.

2. The Secretary is authorized to expend up to $4,000,000 the first year from the general fund to develop public-private partnerships for the state's welcome centers and rest areas, upon receiving a waiver from the federal government. Any unexpended general fund balances designated for this purpose on June 30, 2005, and June 30, 2006, shall be reappropriated for expenditure for the same purpose.

3. If the Secretary does not obtain a waiver, he shall inform the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees. The Director, Department of Planning and Budget, is then authorized to transfer the general fund appropriations to the Department of Transportation. The Department of Transportation shall use the appropriations to repair, improve, replace, or construct state welcome centers and rest areas. Priority shall be given to those facilities in the I-95 and I-64 corridors to better serve motorists driving through Virginia for the Jamestown 2007 Celebration.”

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 509

Celebrating the life of Hunter Booker Andrews.

WHEREAS, Hunter Booker Andrews of Hampton, a former member of the Senate of Virginia and one of the Commonwealth's most influential leaders of the latter half of the 20th century, died on January 13, 2005; and

WHEREAS, a native of Hampton, Hunter Andrews graduated from the College of William and Mary, earned his law degree from the University of Virginia, and served as an officer in the United States Navy for four years in the Pacific Theatre during World War II; and

WHEREAS, elected to the Senate of Virginia in 1963, Hunter Andrews served for 32 years and rose to a position of influence as majority leader and chairman of the Committee on Finance; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews played an instrumental role in the redrafting of Virginia's Constitution in the early 1970s; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews was a champion of public and higher education from his earliest days as chairman of the Hampton School Board, where he passionately led the integration of the city's public schools in the 1950s, and later opposed massive resistance as a legislator; and

WHEREAS, in the Senate, Hunter Andrews patroned legislation requiring compulsory school attendance until the age of 17, sponsored a bill that required all school systems in Virginia to offer kindergarten, and was instrumental in the establishment of Virginia's Standards of Quality; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews was a consistent and effective advocate for greater funding for public and higher education, and he used his position as a budget negotiator to ensure that the Commonwealth's schools received adequate funding even when the hour grew late and the negotiations heated; and

WHEREAS, as Majority Leader and the unchallenged expert on the Rules of the Senate, Hunter Andrews led and often shaped Senate floor debate on a range of issues, using effectively his sharp wit and fierce intelligence to set and advance the Senate's legislative agenda; and

WHEREAS, perceived by many as acerbic and intimidating, Hunter Andrews combined his formidable reputation with a profound understanding of the workings of Virginia's legislature, a command of the facts, and an encyclopedic knowledge of state finances and the Code of Virginia to advance the issues he found important; and

WHEREAS, as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Hunter Andrews established many of the processes that the Senate relies on today to guide its fiscal decisions, including open participation by all Senate members in an extended annual meeting on fiscal issues, support of a professional staff, and a commitment to meeting the state's basic obligations; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews was widely credited with reinvigorating and modernizing Virginia's education and transportation policies, was a leading advocate for the establishment of the Center for Innovative Technology, and worked closely with former Governor Baliles on the 1986 tax increases for transportation; and

WHEREAS, after leaving the Senate in 1995, Hunter Andrews continued to work for the good of the Commonwealth, serving recently on a commission studying the issue of two consecutive terms for Virginia's governors and serving as a member of the board of visitors of William and Mary; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews showed his steadfast dedication to the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation, an agency of the Commonwealth with a mission to educate and promote understanding and awareness of Virginia's role in the creation of the United States of America, by giving generously of his time, talents, and energy over his 29 years as a trustee, by serving as foundation chairman from 1986 to 1990, and by serving with distinction as chairman emeritus from 1996 to 2005; and

WHEREAS, believing unconditionally in the mission of the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation, while understanding the importance of quality museum programming that would appeal to a national tourism market, Hunter Andrews led with vigor and determination the charge to apply professional museum standards to the foundation's daily operations and worked diligently to obtain critical public and private support necessary to advance the foundation's programming and facilities to allow it to serve a larger and more diverse audience; and

WHEREAS, Hunter Andrews' influence on the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation and its museums will not only continue to be evident for years to come in all facets of the agency's operations, but also will serve as a legacy to the millions of students in the Commonwealth and from around the nation, young and old, who, by visiting Jamestown Settlement and Yorktown Victory Center or by participating in the foundation's structured education programs, have gained a greater understanding and appreciation of the history of our nation and the significant events that took place at Jamestown and Yorktown; and

WHEREAS, there are few people who worked at the Capitol over the last third of the 20th century who lack a good Hunter Andrews story, and some of the best he told on himself, but those who worked closely with him know well that behind the larger-than-life personality was an incredibly intelligent and hardworking legislator utterly dedicated to doing what was best for the citizens of this Commonwealth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of a towering figure in Virginia's government, Hunter Booker Andrews; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Hunter Booker Andrews as an expression of the esteem in which his memory is held by the members of the General Assembly and the people of Virginia.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2005

The Senate met at 11:30 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Timothy M. Kaine.

Rabbi Michael E. Panitz, Temple Israel, Norfolk, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, united we stand before You, in all our rich diversity. Ethnicity and socio-economic differences ultimately pale, when we realize the simple and profound truth that You have made us all. Help us always to remember that truth.

Our elected representatives find themselves now in debate, as in previous years, yes, but perhaps with an even higher pitch of controversy. Legitimately conflicting visions of the way to guide our Commonwealth can cloud our clear sight of the need to act together, when the occasion befits bipartisanship. Help us, Lord, to cherish the truths that we hold self-evident, even when the passions of political debate stir us to look for narrow advantage. When we look around the world, seeing failed democracies, democracies struggling to be born, and democracies sapped by the apathy of the electorate, we may be dismayed. Help us to summon the energy and the broadmindedness to add afresh to the accomplishments of this Commonwealth and this country, in which, to quote the words of the famous Virginian, George Washington, our government gives "to bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance."

In particular, the members of this chamber find themselves, at this very moment, just as at analogous points in previous legislative sessions, considering a host of measures passed by the other chamber, some of them guided by love of the general good, but some of them essentially statements of posture. Our Senators are expected to function, in the words of an equally famous Virginian, Thomas Jefferson, as "the second distillation of the popular wisdom." As such, help them to separate the wheat from the chaff, to recognize what bills are worthy of becoming laws to bind all Virginians, despite differences of outlook and values, and what bills are essentially position papers, meant to rally one's own faithful but not to provide grounding for a pluralistic, tolerant society.

Dear God, as an hour of decision approaches for the members of this body, we pray that You will endow them with both love and wisdom: love for all of Your children, and wisdom to protect and promote those measures that will help Your children live in freedom. Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Blevins, Bolling, Chichester, Colgan, Cuccinelli, Deeds, Devolites Davis, Edwards, Hanger, Hawkins, Houck, Howell, Lambert, Locke, Lucas, Marsh, Martin, Miller, Mims, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, O'Brien, Potts, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Rerras, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Stolle, Stosch, Ticer, Wagner, Watkins, Whipple, Williams.

A quorum was present.

On motion of Senator Houck, the reading of the Journal was waived.

The recorded vote is as follows:
